Comus To Be Presented At The Arboretum

Mr. Winslow Ames, Director, assisted by Miss Cockrill

Dramatic Club Has Charge of Production Details

Tonight at 7:15 Comus will be presented under the direction of Mr. Winslow Ames, at the Open Air Theatre, in commemoration of the three hundredth anniversary of the first performance. Miss Cockrill is assisting Mr. Ames. The Dramatic Club is attending to the details of production including the lighting, costumes and scenery.

The cast follows:

Pearl Myland, The Lady
Winslow Ames, Attendant Spirit
John Burke, Comus
Richard Prentiss, Jack Woodruff
two brothers

The dancing will be done by a group of students who will reproduce the dances of the first performance. The accompaniment, to be sung by the choir, will also be the same as the original.

Comus is being given for the benefit of the college and is not to be published. All the students and faculty are cordially invited to attend.

Since last year, the Open Air Theatre has been further improved by means of a donation given us by Mr. Buck, the father of a former student who gave us the theatre. It is the perfect setting for the production. We hope that Comus will set a precedent for future productions.

Rebecca Nims Spends Year at The Sorbonne

The student's year abroad is by no means entirely one of concentrated study or cramming, and presents opportunities in a city like Paris which offers cultural advantages to those interested in going beyond the classroom doors. While obviously the main object is to obtain the university diploma at the end of the scholastic year, she can supplement her work in other directions, even apart from partaking in the daily routine of family life.

One of the better mediums through which to hear and understand the French is today regular attendance at the theatre. From actually seeing on the stage presentations of the classics, which is the education of almost every French child and, likewise, should be the student's following her study of French literature.

All Traditional Events of Freshman Week Take Place

For the first time in several years the freshman class of Connecticut College was not greeted by rain, although there was sufficient sun during the rest of the week to live up to the tradition.

The freshman were welcomed by eleven juniors who introduced them to their new surroundings. The juniors were Marney McKeel, Pat Hall, Pat Burton, Jo Morrish, Betty Parsons, Betsy Beals, Jean VanDyke, Bunny Dorman, Ernie Muns, Dudio Vivian, and Ruth Norton.

The freshmen were also welcomed by Harriette Webster, Hans Harburger, and Pudge Sawtelle.

Thursday night a banquet was held in Thames Hall at which President Blunt, Dean Jury, Dean Burdick, Dr. Lebo, Harriette Webster, President of Student Government, and Margaret McKeel, President of Junior Class gave formal welcomes. On Friday evening the usual scheduled boat ride down the Thames was enjoyed despite the late arrival of the boat. Due to the rain, the picnic scheduled to be held at the riding field was held in the gym.

A musical was held in Knowlton under the direction of Dr. Em. Saturday night in Holme Hall stunts were given for which each freshman house had volunteered.

Sunday there were chartered buses to take the girls to their various churches. There was a musical service. On Monday the freshman registered for their courses.

Seventeen New Members Added To College Faculty

Faculty Vacations In Many Activities

Traveling, Writing, and Teaching Were Chief Pursuits

During the summer vacation there were innumerable activities in which the members of the faculty take part. It is interesting to learn a little of what they did in the different fields such as teaching, writing, and travel.

Dr. Lawrence spent nine weeks of the summer teaching the graduate students in History at the Hampton Institute, Hampton, Virginia. Hampton is the oldest negro university in the country, having been established shortly after the Civil War.

Both Miss Robinson and Miss Reynolds did some travelling. Miss Reynolds spent a few weeks in Vermont, where she drove through the Gaspé peninsula and later visited friends on Lake George.

Miss Erust wrote an article for the Westminster Post on "The Christian Press during the war in Belgium, and now in Germany". She also wrote some articles begun two years ago, for a periodical in Geneva, on different aspects of American life.

Miss Cary was a delegate from the New London Zonta Club at the convention of the Zonta International held at the Seigniory Club in the Connect." (Continued on Page 7)

Elizabeth Dutch Tells Impressions Of Year In France

One of the most stimulating things about spending your junior year in France is the fact that you are actually among the French and thus in some way immersing yourself in their culture. The French are an old race and have a culture which is exceptionally brilliant in almost all of the centuries of its existence. Of course in one year you can't expect to understand and learn all this heritage, but little by little you should come to more of an understanding of it and what it means to the people themselves. To me this is the worth of the year, as the studies may be made in America probably under better conditions. What they do, how they do it, is fascinating enough to warrant numerous years of observation.

Upon arriving in Paris you are immediately plunged into the French family where you are to live. (Continued on Page 8)
A Great Intellectual Year

The "News" takes this opportunity to extend a welcome to the new faculty members and students and to urge them to participate in all the activities that will make up college life.

In actual number of students, Connecticut is a small college and has certain benefits as such. It is permeated with a feeling of friendliness both in the relationship of students to students and to faculty. It makes for a more closely united college, cooperation for its best interests. That is in no way limited but has the breadth of large institutions is seen in the activity of the intellectual life of the college. This past year, Connecticut has been a member of Phi Beta Kappa, showing a recognition of the high standing of the faculty and students. Connecticut is a college where the students will see to it that their box numbers are put on the letters addressed to them, the mail will be opened by the clerks and then the students themselves and the clerks by asking for credit. No money orders are taken and no checks are cashed.

The cooperation of all the students will make their home. what goes on inside her blonde head. Dr. E. Rothfuss, "Rothfuss Hall", will make the clerks to give better and more efficient service.

Postoffice Notes

The following change in post office hours is to be noted:

Monday—8:00-10:00 A. M.; 1:00-3:00 P. M.
Tuesday—7:30-10:30 A. M.; 1:00-3:00 P. M.

Stamps, postcard post cards, stamped envelopes of social size, and newspaper wrappers are sold. Absolutely no charges can be made. It is requested that the students refrain from embarrassing themselves and the clerks by asking for credit. No money orders are taken and no checks are cashed.

Since the post office is a small place, all business must be executed without, or door, or newscary. No one but the clerks are allowed inside the office proper.

If the students will see to it that their box numbers are put on the letters addressed to them, the mail can be put out much faster. The cooperation of all in observing these rules will enable the clerks to give better and more efficient service.

Urbana, Illinois—(ACP)—A new seven wonders of the world was listed at the University of Illinois by Prof. A. W. Nolan when he announced what he considered to be the outstanding wonders of the universe.

He included in his list the discovery of the solar system; law of moving bodies; law of electricity; law of electrical radiation; law of electrical structure of the universe; law of steam engine; and the law of life.

The first visiting speaker in the college vespers series will be Lynn Harold Hough, dean of Drew theological seminary in Drew university, Madison, N.J. The service will be at 7 p.m. Sunday. Dr. Hough has been in Detroit and in Montreal, but his preaching and lecturing throughout Canada have made him a familiar figure in the west. Similarly, his frequent visits to Europe, Britain, and Latin America have given him contacts which extend all over the empire.

For seven different years between 1918 and 1926, Dr. Hough has been a guest preacher at City Temple in London, during which time his brilliant gifts of exposition, and intellectual and spiritual, dedicated to reach a great conclusion which logic makes scarce have come in for favorable comment. A review of his most recent book "The Vital Contro" says of him, "No other American preacher, at least, has risen to the heights nor visioned the breadth of the Christian life and letters as has Lynn Harold Hough." His message has been described as being broad, and based upon concepts which do not make the intellectual demand of spiritual life and letters. Dr. Hough is a widely known university preacher, is a contributing editor of The Christian Century, Flying Over London; Productive Beliefs; put into the work, but you really' foolhardiness, and our optimism, liv- art of living, the secret of the sCllle that students in pri~ate institutions

Improvements on Campus Made During Summer

During the summer months many improvements have taken place all over the campus. Last year's off-campus greens have been turned back to their old haunts, have found many of the houses the products of flower-arranging and wall painting. Their surprise at the appearance of familiar spots was augmented when they entered Holmes Hall to find a former pleasantly dining hall transformed into a library.

The Sophomores and Juniors can also appreciate their advantages. Thyme dining hall has been redecorated with soft green walls, comfortable, trim-looking chairs and sofas and bright colored card tables. Nor have Blackstone and Plant been left out, for the rooms and walls have been painted.

Anyone in search of their furniture in Bradburn should stop to see the charming arrangement which now possesses blue cushions for the window seats, to say nothing of the new furniture. The Session, when they have the most difficulty in rooming, Windham naturally has not been changed, while Mary Harkness is entirely new to everyone.

Alice Reed, '33, is working for the Conde Nast Publications and helps to edit some of their feature pages.

Rosemary Hunter, ex '36, is being married to Paul Lembeck of Montauk. This work was done with the assistance of grants from the American Council of Learned Societies. The history department was engaged variously. Miss Dederer spent five weeks in Bermuda at the Biological Station for Research. Some of this time she was in Dr. Reche's laboratory studying different kinds of sea creatures that were dredged from the ocean depths of over one mile. She had the novel experience planned by Gloria Hol-ister, alumna and trustee of Con- necticut College, of donning a div- ing helmet, descending to the floor of Castle Harbor, and viewing home of muriads of marine animals, a submerged wreck incrusted with the growth of years.

Miss Humman studied at Cornell summer school.

Miss Husey studied at the Biolo- gical Station of the University of Michigan.

Miss Betof studied piano at the beginning of the summer. She also did some painting in Gloucester, Vermont and Provencetown. She made a short visit to the Biological Station of Woods Hole.

Dr. Avery of the Botany depart- ment did some research on plant growth of hormones at the California Institute of Technology, and later some research on the physiology of plants at the University of Texas.

Evelyn Warren, '32, is married to Elisha Tottle. The wedding took place on September 9th, 1934 at the home of the bride. She is now re- siding in New York City.

For a cigarette to be milder and taste better it must be made of mild, ripe Turkish and home-grown tobaccos.

We wish you could go into the factories and see Chesterfield made. The mild ripe tobacco is cut in long even threads — then packed into the cigarette so as to make Chesterfield draw right and burn evenly.

A good cigarette can give you a lot of pleasure, and we would like for you to try Chesterfield.

REBECCA NIMS SPENDS YEAR AT SORBORNE

(Continued from Page 1) then to one fulfills his ambition of many years to see and visit those famous monuments and buildings or particular little nooks and corners so typically Parisian. The book-stalls along the Seine or the Luxembourg Gardens in the Latin Quarter would not be a part of any other city than Paris.

Although the American leaves the weekend habit at home, there are many possibilities of finding amusement of educational interests in joining sight seeing excursions leaving from Paris to its environs. No American student would fail to visit Versailles, Fontainebleau, St. Germain, Chantilly Mahmaon or other places in the neighborhood of the city. With some historic background and a great deal of imagination one could visualize the course of life as it went on in the days of the French past.

Thus, while serious study is the chief aim of spending a year in France the American college person has altogether too many other opportunities to satisfy to allow herself to miss the multitude of opportunities open to her.
