Dr. Wright Speaks
On Atomic Age To Summer Graduates

C citizenship in the Atomic Age was the subject of Dr. Wright's address to the fourteen students who graduated at the end of the summer session in September, 1945. Dr. Wright, who is the chairman of the Department of Chemistry and a member of the Board of Trustees at Connecticut College, believes that there is nothing more important to the continuation of civilization than the existence of a coherent set of aims and purposes in our world organization.

Graduates

The graduates, who were presented with degrees by Pro- fessor Frank M. Morris, were: Evington E. Allen of New York City; Elizabeth H. Bangs, Auburndale, Mass.; Natalie Barlow, West Newton, Mass.; Ruth Buchanan, Winston, Conn.; Priessla Coates, Long Island; Constance Hopkins, Englewood, N.J.; Niles A. Jordan, Chicago, Ill.; Virginia Nixon, Schenectady, N.Y.; Florence E. Paterson, New York City; Buxton L. Rogers, Opelousas, La.; C. N. Cameron, New York City; M. Lynn Williams, Ashland, Kentucky; Judith Willmer, New Haven, Conn.; S. D. Anderson, Springfield, Vermont; and Mary Cooke, New Haven, Conn.

Dr. Katherine Bland, acting president of the college, congratulated the graduates and addressed them briefly, after which a luncheon was given in the college assembly. The architectural work has been completed and the new infirmary will open next fall. The architectural work has been completed and the new infirmary will open next fall. All the volunteers will be heartily welcomed.

Funds Needed For The New Infirmary; Site Is Selected

The end of the war throughout the world is a milestone that inspires hopes for a new college infirmary.

Woodhead To Be Open House During October

Woodhead will be the open house during the month of October. The students are urged to cooperate by leaving the house open during the day at all times. Woodhead will be open until 11:45 on weekdays, and until 1:15 on Sundays.

Music Department Series

The second group of programs in the Music Department series will be sponsored by the music department. The programs in this series will be held in the auditorium, Quinby, faculty, students, and guests. The program is 8:15 p.m., and the first program will be held from 8:15 p.m., and the first program will be held on Oct. 24.

Future Fliers Urged To See Dean Burdick

Before flying a plane take time to see Dean Burdick for extra-curricular activity, and obtain current information from Dean Burdick information on the requirements of the college.

Educators Join Connecticut Faculty in 12 Departments

Many new faculty have become members of the Connecticut faculty this year. Among them are representatives from the departments of economics, history, philosophy, education, psychology, French, English, government, botany, astronomy and physics, and horticulture.

Dr. Ruby J. Woo Kennedy is chairman of the sociology department, and is relieving Dr. Cobble- dick of his duties there. Dr. Kennedy has also taken his work as director of the American Association for Human Relations, and worked for the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. She taught at Texas State College for Women, where she was the first woman to be a member of the department of economics.

Dr. Coblentz has also been on the staff at the University of North Carolina.

Dr. Warne

Dr. Coblentz in the history department is Dr. Wright B. Cross, a visiting lecturer. Dr. Cross and his wife are graduates of the University of Rochester. Dr. Cross has taught at Rochester, at American University, and at the University of Denver.

Service League To Have Full Program

Now that the war is over, the Service leagues have been reformed by the college. Service leagues are a part of the college curriculum. The league will meet with the coordinator on October 4 to discuss what functions of Service leagues will be continued under Service League.

Local School Work To Be Continued

Beginning October 10

The service league will begin on Wednesday, October 10, at 8:15 p.m. This program is part of a series which, at its conclusion, in 1947, will have included the following positions:

The program is as follows: Pro- fessor and Fugue in E minor (from Bach’s Brandenburg Concerto No. 5, in Fugue); Two Chromatic Preludes; "Ich zu ein' der Kirche" (11 crotchet notes); "Ich lasse mich nicht hinhalten" (Choral Prelude); "Durch Adam's Fall" (Fugue); and Fugue in G minor.

The program will be October 24.

Dr. Joseph and Irene To Head Major Fields

Dr. Joseph and Irene are now the heads of the major fields. The college has many new faculty have become members of the college, and among them are representatives from the departments of economics, history, philosophy, education, psychology, French, English, government, botany, astronomy and physics, and horticulture.

Miss Blunt Speaks

On Student Health

Connecticut College student health has been at an all-time high, according to Miss Blunt, who spoke on the subject at the College Health Aid Committee meeting.

International Air Keynotes

Connecticut Summer Session

International keynotes were discussed by Betty McKey '47, who spent part of the summer in England, France, and Morocco. Miss McKey commented on the comparative newness of the C.C. curricula to students from other countries and the Palmerian players put on for four plays during the summer study period. Noel Conger's "Little Bells" was considered to be a beautiful example of the productions, though it was unable to take the College Radio project staff, who, under the direction of Miss Conger, produced a series of programs in conjunction with the foreign students who participated.

Variety Entertainments

The essence of these variety entertainments, Dr. Kirkpatrick said, is that the music is always the same. Man is given a choice between turning toward God, or continuing his own way. If man is wise, he does turn, and does not tremble at the thought of being sometimes, he said.

Dr. LaBunton wanted to say that one day not individuals but the idea of God. He cited the newspaper reprints and the creation of the atomic bomb, which showed the apprehension and terror of people everywhere, as an example.

Mlle. Uorges

Girls To Compete For Editorships

Mademoiselle is recruiting replacements for its current editor, Mlle. Uorges, who will be leaving for a major campus in the country. The competition for this position will be held on a basis of ability, by means of a definite application procedure.

Guest Editors Offered

One of a number of College board members is considering the possibility of offering guest editorships on Mademoiselle. This year, for example, Miss Blunt, Dean Mateer, and Dean Burdick, who have been long-time friends of Mlle. Uorges, will be offered guest editorships.

Guests Received

For the remaining hour and a half, Miss Blunt was busy entertaining the guests, who were guests of the College Board, Mademoiselle, and the Personnel Bureau. Miss Blunt, who has been known for her hospitality, hosted a series of programs in conjunction with the College Radio project staff, who, under the direction of Miss Conger, produced a series of programs in conjunction with the foreign students who participated.

Cabinet Coffee To Be Given For Transfers

On Saturday, September 29th, at 7:30 p.m., in the time and date set for the Cabinet coffee in Knighton which is being given in honor of the transfer students, President Blunt, Dean Burkett, Dean Neilson, and Miss Calkins will be guests at the coffee. Miss Calkins and Joanne Jensen '47 will pour.

Atomic Energy Is Spiritual Problem For CCC Preacher

A military commander would consider the words of this text: "See, I have set before thee this day life and death, blessing and cursing therefore choose life, that thou and thy seed may live," as an ultimatum, stated Dr. Paul Land. This is in his sermon given Sunday night at Harkness Chapel.

CC Lends Brawn to CC Beauty For Hectic Freshmen Evening

by Clare Wildblood '49

"I've received so many male..."

"...I've been dancing in a two-seater..."

"...I've just turned out just two of the many starry eyes that were present at the Knighton..." etc.

The long-awaited Coast Guard reception, sponsored by the women, who after much work, turned out in full, fussy array. Jewelry Depotated At the end of the hour, thirty-five new Connecticut College ladies classmen met with their freshman sisters in the respective dormitory rooms to do their jewelry—brass, ear rings or pin—"with the house lady as a guide." It is said that at the arrival of THE COAST GUARD.

"All was quiet while each man has his own job, and there was no one around to help out. When all the searchers had ended successfully," etc., etc., there was heard from the girls who had been "cutting in," etc. etc., among those big, dinky ones and the rest got in, etc. etc. etc.

Guests Received

For the first ten minutes of the four-line classmen meet with the future of the floor of Knighton were overlooking "with the greatest general of the com room. With remarkable variety of courses and studies, there is a high demand for all the courses offered, the majority of the students.

More Applications, Less Withdrawals

Noted in Colleges Connecticut college, as one of the important Eastern colleges, has been noted for its trend toward the rush of women students to continue their studies even after the war. The admissions have increased since the beginning of the war. Although enrollment is kept nonrovasonic, the increase in new space, a space for application and an increase in student interest in freshman applications, has been noted for the increase in interest for admission to the college.

Since the war, applications have increased and the number of withdrawals has also increased. The number of freshmen who have decided to continue their studies as college students has been increasing since the beginning of the war. Although enrollment is kept nonrovasonic, the increase in new space, a space for application and an increase in student interest in freshman applications, has been noted for the increase in interest for admission to the college.

Tulanes Withdrawals

In addition to the increasing number of applications, the college has also experienced an increasing decline in withdrawals from the college. The number of withdrawals in 1944, there were 38 students, but the number of withdrawals in 1945 has dropped to 30, which is a slight drop from last year's figure. The number of withdrawals in 1945 is also a decrease from the previous year.

Enrollment Increased

Benjamin Fine discussed this subject in his speech at the college in The New York Times, which reported that the enrollment of women has greatly increased and that the enrollment of men has remained the same since the beginning of the war.

Cutting In

The trim freshmen were in the beginning of a new tradition that has been established in the college. The freshmen were introduced to the idea of "cutting in," which means that the incoming freshmen are supposed to be cut off from the rest of the college. This is done to prevent the freshmen from being "cut off" from the rest of the college and to prevent them from being "cut off" from the rest of the college.

"Cutting In" is the traditional way of introducing new freshmen to the college. The freshmen are supposed to be cut off from the rest of the college, which means that they are supposed to be cut off from the rest of the college and to prevent them from being "cut off" from the rest of the college.

After a short time each bewilded "homa age" was supposed to average on a face every minute. As courage grows, freshmen are inspired to continue this tradition, which has been "cutting in," etc. etc., etc., from the girls who have heard from those big, dinky ones and the rest got in, etc. etc. etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.
Many Masterpieces Being Offered Now By Art Department

The art department is again sponsoring its annual offering of reproductions of famous paintings of the world’s painting. These prints have been chosen from all phases of the history of art from Giotto to Rembrandt and from the famous Gogh to many modern American painters, in- cluding Georgia O’Keefe and Winslow Homer. Several sets are being exhibited, and, of especial interest are the reproductions of man’s origin by Diego Rivera, leading muralist.

Colorful Examples

Many of the color reproductions are of famous works, from Monet, Picasso, Durer and cer- tain works in Belgium. As the trend is now toward the colors and many of these have already been ready, some of the most popular being those of Gogh and Cezanne. The etchings are a bit larger, but no problem in painting the brighter room and no so one look of the student is evidently the criterion at the present. These etchings are done properly however, since the change of at- mosphere from wall to floor covers. But the choice is still a good, and in a way a novel in color and glossy. Thus, many students and sophomores are being as possible.

Flosson and Jusman

Their accumulation of what we sometimes mistakenly call junk is gone but not forgotten, however, as they are still mostly boxed in boxes, but for nothing, the remains of one costume for some time, and will out the cot Teddy bears, dance signs, book cases devoid of bus signs, street signs and the very decorative.

National Trend

It is necessary for each one of us to take action so that such social injustices will not occur.

Editor’s note: As we go to press it is true that the- ence has changed to life and a new dormitory opened. The new dormitory will be licensed for female students and may be the first among the group of rooms suitable for female students in the college. However, it is necessary that we continue to work to see that the rights of all students are protected.

USSA Will Hold First Meeting Oct. 9 at 6:45

The United States Student As- sociation will hold its opening meeting at noon on October 9, 6:45 in the Commuters’ room in the library. Meetings are open to all who wish to attend, and students are especially wel- comed.

U.S.S.A. is a democratic orga- nization which is working for world peace, the elimination of prejudices toward minority groups, an understanding of the problems of the families and other vital is- sues of the day.

New Infirmary

We have been confirmed as follows: Miss Blunt reports. The first gift was made by Mr. Mulholland of the class of ’45 and his father, who made the gift to the fund include the graduation gifts from the classes of ’44, ’45, and ’46, and this gift has also been promised by friends of the college.

The new infirmary will serve both upperclassmen and freshmen in the same building.

Officers Chosen. Plans Formulated at Meetings Of Three Upper Classes

At a meeting last night after Adjournment, Betsy McKey was chosen to be captain of the sophomore team. Nancy Noyes was elected business manager of the sophomore team. Mary Davies was elected class secretary.

At this senior class meeting, held the same evening, Byrnes Sullens and Allan Noyes were chosen to write the senior predictions. Plans for winter-decor was held on November 2, were discussed also.

The first meeting at the sophomore class meeting, on Tuesday evening, was held at the sophomore hop which will be given sometime in November.
Caught on Campus

The summer brought forth a lot of marriages and engagements. Among the recent ones were definitely included in the happy numbers. We have received wedding invitations and wedding bands on campus.

Many seniors have been sent to college as Mrs. Don Ullery. Her marriage took place in June shortly after the Senior graduation from the Coast Guard academy.

Mrs. Armin Frisch '46, the former Sue White, is back at school after her wedding in Frisco. She was married on the west coast where her Navy officer husband stationed was.

Louise Angilu '46 is back with a new name too. She is Mrs. Ralph Grosjean. Her husband received his commission from the Coast Guard academy in June.

Another Coast Guard bride of this summer is Patricia Wilkins '46. She was married to Ensign Gil Magee, also a June graduate of CCA.

Mrs. Joseph Edlin '46 returned to college this fall. She is the former Suki Stein, whose husband is in the Army Air Corps stationed in India.

Dorrie Lowett '46 announced her engagement to SIt Edwin Merrill of the Army. No plans have been published for their wedding.

Day Wilson '46 is sporting a Coast Guard miniature these days as his fiancée, the former De- sign George Richardson, USCG, George is stationed in New York. Suan- mander at the academy before his graduation in June.

Marie Aun Blossner, another '46, announced her engagement via long distance this summer. L.Ed. Dave Petriw, USCG, serving in the South Pacific, is her fiancé. Dave hasn't seen the engagement ring he gave her yet, but all across the country, here is a happy couple soon to be married.

Gwen Carpenfer '46 has a Coast Guard fiancé too. Her engagement was announced by the academy, the former Stanley Church, a June graduate stationed in Japan.

Tulah Dance '46 is engaged to Major D.L. (Peter) Crow of the Coast Guard. Tulah is a Point grad, class of '41, and has been stationed in the Far East for three months in India, during which time she has received a letter from the Star, shot pigeons in spars moments, and has spent a lot of time with her fiancé. Tulah plans to leave college after the first semester to be married.

Pony Hagen '46 announced her engagement to Harold Schwartz. Lt. Schwartz is stationed at the coastguard training camp where he was stationed with the eighth air force.

Fraco Thronged Hysterical at V.J. Day News

by Roberta Wells Slehofer '47

CC Religious Council Plays Significant Role on Campus

The religious council cooperates with Dr. Luhnback in arranging the daily chapel services. Every other day a day is set aside for student speakers, and it is hoped that students will take advantage of this opportunity. Katherine Noye '48 has charge of the arrangements for the entertainment of vesper speakers, and Jan Whitman '47 handles the publicity committee.

Suggestion. What made the difference for this year was the fact that it could create its value to the college community, and fill the need from which it sprang. Any student desiring to participate in the work outlined above is requested to contact the member of the Council cabinet.
