Camel President's Reign Starts Off On The Right Hoof

By GODIE EREDEN

President Higdon may be seen jogging around campus almost every morning, as well as at open games and even in the dining halls. Recently, many students were pleasantly surprised to see him in Harris, chatting with students as he warmed up in line for something to drink. Later that evening, he attended an SGA meeting to gain a better understanding of how the organization works.

President Higdon is currently a very sociable person. During our meeting, he was very open and sincere and actually invited us to his office to see his art collection. I think many of us were very impressed by this gesture.

It is not only the students who are pleased with what the President has done so far, he has made a very positive impression on the staff members which he has recently met with, among them Beverly Kowal, Associate Dean of Students and Dean of International Students. President Higdon is currently a very sociable person. During our meeting, he was very open and sincere and actually invited us to his office to see his art collection. I think many of us were very impressed by this gesture.

President Higdon is also working very hard to make sure that he is fitting in with the students. He has been spotted walking around campus and snapping in various offices to visit people and learn more about the college. Said a surprised faculty member who met President Higdon in his"Frankfurter" office, "He has been quite personable since he has been new to the role, but I am really quite sure that he is taking the time to go to know people."

President Higdon is currently continuing his work on the budget. He is working very closely with the Finance Committee to ensure that the college has enough money to continue its operations.

Bengochea Named Conn's First Dean Of The College Community

By GREGORY SOWA

On May 18, 2006, Allan Bengochea was named Connecticut College's first Dean of the College Community. His role is described as a "traditional dean," position in which he will work directly with the senior diversity officer. Then, President Norman Franks said that the time has run out on the current dean and that it is time for some new leadership.

Though many claimed to be busy during the weekend, others said that the weekend was not the dominant activity. In fact, many people, though they said that they were too busy to get involved in the political canvassing, still thought it was a good idea. "It's great to see the youth involved," said Franks.

Bengochea Named Conn's First Dean Of The College Community

By GREGORY SOWA

On May 18, 2006, Allan Bengochea was named Connecticut College's first Dean of the College Community. His role is described as a "traditional dean," position in which he will work directly with the senior diversity officer. Then, President Norman Franks said that the time has run out on the current dean and that it is time for some new leadership.

Though many claimed to be busy during the weekend, others said that the weekend was not the dominant activity. In fact, many people, though they said that they were too busy to get involved in the political canvassing, still thought it was a good idea. "It's great to see the youth involved," said Franks.

Bengochea Named Conn's First Dean Of The College Community

By GREGORY SOWA

On May 18, 2006, Allan Bengochea was named Connecticut College's first Dean of the College Community. His role is described as a "traditional dean," position in which he will work directly with the senior diversity officer. Then, President Norman Franks said that the time has run out on the current dean and that it is time for some new leadership.

Though many claimed to be busy during the weekend, others said that the weekend was not the dominant activity. In fact, many people, though they said that they were too busy to get involved in the political canvassing, still thought it was a good idea. "It's great to see the youth involved," said Franks.

Bengochea Named Conn's First Dean Of The College Community

By GREGORY SOWA

On May 18, 2006, Allan Bengochea was named Connecticut College's first Dean of the College Community. His role is described as a "traditional dean," position in which he will work directly with the senior diversity officer. Then, President Norman Franks said that the time has run out on the current dean and that it is time for some new leadership.

Though many claimed to be busy during the weekend, others said that the weekend was not the dominant activity. In fact, many people, though they said that they were too busy to get involved in the political canvassing, still thought it was a good idea. "It's great to see the youth involved," said Franks.

Census Students Involved in Political Canvassing

By HALEY A. HOFMANN

For snapshots to television commercials and everything in between, political texts are rife with spark interest, provide information, and influence citizens to vote. The Connecticut College Democrats did exactly this, while canvassing New London neighborhoods Saturday.

Census students visited New London residents to provide campaign information for Joe Courtney, a local Democrat running for Congress. This major task included knocking on doors, answering questions from the residents on their knowledge of the campaign, and providing appropri-ate information. While this was one of many campaigns for some, such as James and CC Democrat vice president Fred Kemper and sophomore Rande Phillips, for others it was a first time of campaign tactics.

"It was just really fascinating to be out there in the middle of the day interpreting about this weekend interruption (i.e. not essay, door stans), or inappropriate middle fingers); however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated (i.e. no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated); however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door slamming, or inappropriate behavior will ever be tolerated; however, no cursing, door sl
Out of the Red with Leo Higdon

By hiring Leo Higdon as its tenth president, Connecticut College has made a strong statement regarding the state of affairs at both the school and in the world surrounding it. As our nation's political leadership has called for an "ownership society," it has become clear that markets and the all-important balance sheets have permeated every facet of our society. Unfortunately, this trend fails to exclude the sometimes isolated world of academia. Concurrently, a budget turnaround at Conn has come at the expense of the school's formerly high rank among liberal arts colleges. By employing Leo Higdon to run its institution, the Presidential Search Committee made it clear that Conn would no longer fight the proverbial tide. In America today, an institution like Connecticut College cannot afford (no pun intended) to be governed by an administrator with no financial background.

Leo Higdon brings to Conn an extraordinary financial resume. Higdon has held top jobs in board rooms of some of the nation's largest financial firms. Still, finance alone does not make a president. Higdon also presided very successfully, over the College of Charleston, a school not unlike Conn. In short, Higdon perfectly fits the bill (again, no pun intended) for our school's highest post. The Presidential Search Committee would have had to search high and low to find a leader more fit for Conn's dual goals of restoring its top-level standing among similar schools, and maintaining budget momentum.

While having a lifelong academic at the helm of a college might seem natural, unfortunate realities of our world necessitate the leadership of a board-room type. By hiring Leo Higdon as its tenth president, Connecticut College has made a strong statement that President Higdon will do a spectacular job leading Conn.

The Voice is looking for copy editors.

If you are interested in the position send your name and extension to:

ccvoice@conncoll.edu

Letters to the Editor

Letters to the Editor are due strictly by 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding publication. The College Voice reserves the right to edit letters for clarity and length. No unsigned or anonymous letters will be published. However, name may be withheld upon the author's request. The College Voice will not publish letters deemed to be a personal attack on an individual. The College Voice cannot guarantee the publication of any submission. Letters should be single-spaced, no longer than 300 words, and must include a phone number for verification. Please send all letters as a Microsoft Word attachment to ccvoice@conncoll.edu

POLICIES

ADVERTISMENTS

The College Voice is an open forum. The opinions expressed by individual advertisers are their own. In no way does The College Voice endorse the views expressed by individual advertisers. The College Voice will not accept ads it deems to be libelous, an incitement to violence, or personally damaging. Ad rates are available on request by calling (860) 439-2813; please refer all ad inquiries to the Business Manager, Allison Glassman. The College Voice reserves the right to accept or reject any ad. The Advertiser-in-Chief shall have final content approval. The final deadline for advertising is 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding publication.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letters to the Editor are due strictly by 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding publication. The College Voice reserves the right to edit letters for clarity and length. No unsigned or anonymous letters will be published. However, names may be withheld upon the author's request. The College Voice will not publish letters deemed to be a personal attack on an individual. The College Voice cannot guarantee the publication of any submission. Letters should be single-spaced, no longer than 300 words, and must include a phone number for verification. Please send all letters as a Microsoft Word attachment to ccvoice@conncoll.edu

Questions? Comments? Concerns?

Write a letter to the editors! We would love to hear what you have to say.
Ah, Fall. That magical time of year when the birds start chirping, the sky turns crisp, and love is in the air. What, never mind; I'm thinking of flying. Fall is when you look out and see the sun and assume it's hot, only to walk to class freezing your ass off in a shirt and shorts about their leaves like a damn fool all over your clothes. Fall is when the leaves fall to the ground and the weather gets cold and you need a winter coat. So true.

ANDREW MEYER • I HAVE ADD

Ah, Fall. That magical time of year when the birds start chirping, the sky turns crisp, and love is in the air. What, never mind; I'm thinking of flying. Fall is when you look out and see the sun and assume it's hot, only to walk to class freezing your ass off in a shirt and shorts about their leaves like a damn fool all over your clothes. Fall is when the leaves fall to the ground and you need a winter coat. So true.

ANDREW MEYER • I HAVE ADD

...Send an Op.Ed Writing Sample to CCVoice@conncoll.edu

We Need Columnists

Don’t have time to write a weekly column?

Send a letter to our editor at CCVoice@conncoll.edu

Have Strong Opinions?

Seriously. Get the “Real Facts” at the Voice Meeting at Cro 215 On Sunday Night at 10PM
ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

MY CHEMICAL ROMANCE GIVES THREE CHEERS FOR SWEET, SWEET SUCCESS

BY CLAIRE DOWD

I am tired of reading the musty arts of My Chemical Romance, and I no longer feel ashamed of them. Last Thursday (August 31st), I witnessed a phenomenal live performance. My Chemical Romance attracted about 100 of their fans to a free, private show at a New York's Knitting Factory as part of MTV's VMA celebration.

I am tired of reading the musty arts of My Chemical Romance, and I no longer feel ashamed of them. Last Thursday (August 31st), I witnessed a phenomenal live performance. My Chemical Romance attracted about 100 of their fans to a free, private show at a New York's Knitting Factory as part of MTV's VMA celebration.

BY SOPHIE FITZGERALD

Invisible is everything you would want in a movie: a heartwarming story, a quality love interest, and gross, goofy, indie-looking football scenes. The last bit is a spec- tacle to the Sports Film genre, but perhaps those moments should be included in all movies.

Invisible photos: Kenneth Blade

Invisible is everything you would want in a movie: a heartwarming story, a quality love interest, and gross, goofy, indie-looking football scenes. The last bit is a spec- tacle to the Sports Film genre, but perhaps those moments should be included in all movies.

BY CLAIRE DOWD

The most obvious and impossible standard for my chemistry was to fall in love with you, and it's not nearly as close to you as the metals in your chemistry.

BY CLAIRE DOWD

The most obvious and impossible standard for my chemistry was to fall in love with you, and it's not nearly as close to you as the metals in your chemistry.

THE BLACK PARADE

Produced by Rob Cavallo (Green Day)

The Black Parade is produced by Rob Cavallo (Green Day)

Three Cheers For Sweet Revenge

Produced by Rob Cavallo (Green Day)

Three Cheers For Sweet Revenge

BY CLAIRE DOWD

The band did not resurface from their silence for six years until Tokyo Slim played a handful of songs from their flat- tened-out album at the Jannus-161 to Jannus-219 Spaceports. The songs from The Black Parade, produced by Rob Cavallo (Greenn Day), are weak, but very nostalgic, and rekindled my memories of the band and the history of punk rock music. My Chemical Romance captivated the audi- ence with their nine-performance powerhouse.

Three Cheers For Sweet Revenge is the latest from Brian Molko. This is the latest from Brian Molko. His first attempt. Best known for starring in the American TV series, The 40-year-old Virgin, he has been asking many upperclass- men to summon the spirit of CBGB's or what it stands for, because there are really no other options. Every so often, in the midst of the Supermen and Mark Shand's-like acts, there's a need to know that an up- and-coming superstar can get up from the barricades to bring heart and soul to points for the team.

Leaving the hall is Uncle Fred (Steven Weber), who tells the gang, "Do you know why I'm pretty?" to which he responds.

"You're the most beautiful girl in the whole world," he says with a lisp. "You're the most beautiful girl in the whole world." .

His voice is slightly off-key, but the smile is genuine.

Invisible photos: Kenneth Blade

Invisible is everything you would want in a movie: a heartwarming story, a quality love interest, and gross, goofy, indie-looking football scenes. The last bit is a spec- tacle to the Sports Film genre, but perhaps those moments should be included in all movies.

Richard Linklater said that "I'm pretty to you." to which he responds.

"You're the most beautiful girl in the whole world," he says with a lisp. "You're the most beautiful girl in the whole world." .

This is the best movie I've seen in a long time. I laughed a lot, cried a little, and thought a lot about how we allowed our ideas to influence our lives. This film is a must-see for any fan of indie films.

Richard Linklater said that "I'm pretty to you." to which he responds.

"You're the most beautiful girl in the whole world," he says with a lisp. "You're the most beautiful girl in the whole world." .

Invisible is everything you would want in a movie: a heartwarming story, a quality love interest, and gross, goofy, indie-looking football scenes. The last bit is a spec- tacle to the Sports Film genre, but perhaps those moments should be included in all movies.

Richard Linklater said that "I'm pretty to you." to which he responds.

"You're the most beautiful girl in the whole world," he says with a lisp. "You're the most beautiful girl in the whole world." .
Jacobs' clothing speaks to his marketing demographic: whether he be the quietly quilted "Hips Don't Lie"; or the plastic flower adornments as hair pins and his accessories have their own "call-back" and carry his classifications regardless of the wearability of a ready-to-wear ensemble as seen on the catwalk.

"Art's&Entertainment," the section of the Voice devoted to art and culture, published an article in Spring 2006 on New York City's art scene. It features a profile of designer Drexler, who is profiled with his latest designs and his work with the Rye Coalition, a local political group. The article discusses Drexler's success and his upcoming show at Lollapalooza. The focus is on Drexler's latest collection, "Part of a Scene," which is inspired by the "call-back" and carries his classifications regardless of the wearability of a ready-to-wear ensemble as seen on the catwalk.

"I AM FESTIVAL," the festival of cucumbers, is coming to town this spring. Along with the cucumbers, there will be a variety of other attractions, such as a live performance by the band "Hips Don't Lie". The festival will be held at a local park called "Waterfront Park".

"The HIPS DON'T LIE, but they SURE DON'T MEAN MUCH."

BY ANDRES JUAN MARGENOT

"And I'm starting to feel it's right"

This is probably the silliest tune you've heard in a long time. Yes, we all know that "Hips Don't Lie" is the latest hit from Shakira, but it's not always the case. The song is accompanied by a video that features Shakira dancing on the beach, with the song "Hips Don't Lie" playing in the background. Despite being a massive hit, the song has received mixed reviews from critics. Some have praised the song for its catchy melody, while others have criticized it for its simplistic lyrics.

The song has been controversial, with some saying it's not appropriate for children to listen to. However, Shakira has defended the song, saying it's meant to be a celebration of female empowerment and body positivity.

Despite the controversy, Shakira has continued to perform the song, including during her sold-out tour in Europe. Her success with the song has led to her being invited to perform at major events, such as the Super Bowl halftime show.

In summary, Shakira's "Hips Don't Lie" is a controversial but successful song that has captured the attention of audiences around the world. While some may criticize the song's message, it's clear that it's resonating with listeners who are looking for a message of empowerment and unity.

THE VOICE
Underwater Pioneer to Address ’07 Higdon

By GEOFFREY S. WONG

Robert D. Ballard, marine geologist, underwater explorer, Commander of the Naval Reserve, and discoverer of the "unsinkable" sunken Titanic, will come to Connecticut College in May to give the Commencement speech of 2007.

Having joined the Navy at the age of 25, Dr. Ballard spent much of his life out in the big blue. Featured in National Geographic magazine, he has been caught mapping the ocean floor, dodging deep water volcanoes, observing huge Riftia undersea worms, and of course, uncovering historical ruins from the deep sea. Ballard has truly seen many of the wonders of Mother Nature.

Ballard contributed much to underwater exploration with the invention of "telepresence", remote-controlled cameras attached to search robots that can transmit information through fiber optic wires. Through the use of this technology in his JASON project, thousands of students are able to tag along with Ballard as he explores the ocean floor.

In a recent press release, President Higdon said of Ballard: "I am thrilled to have someone of his caliber address the Class of 2007." The Voice Large, prestigious universities like Harvard can afford to get rid of early admissions. Although many other colleges and universities applied Harvard’s choice, it does not seem as though they will follow suit.

These institutions are searching for alternative ways to broaden the applicant pool through marketing, outreach, and offering substantial financial aid.

New London’s Door

continued from page 1

Stewart, a local who has been canvassed "every election year." However, out of everyone interviewed, only one admitted that the information provided by political canvassing was worth your time. "That one person you talked to that

New London’s Door

continued from page 1

just to be part of an early applicant pool where admissions rates are higher. Early admission is in the middle of becoming a huge area of debate amongst other top-ranked institutions. The president of Yale, another elite Ivy League institution, is skeptical of how much of an effect eliminating admissions would have for low-income students. Another opposing argument claims that only}

Note: Data are for fall 2005 freshmen and includes only schools that reported to the College Board.

Source: The College Board

Any Interest in Writing for The Voice?

...Come to Room 215, Upstairs in Cro at 10PM This Sunday Night. Your new friends are waiting...
DO YOU HAVE ANY OF THE FOLLOWING SKILLS?

-LITERACY

...You should consider writing for the College Voice.

GIVE US A CALL.

Parents:

Subscribe to The College Voice!

The College Voice can help you stay informed. For only $50.00, you will receive 22 issues of the newspaper covering each week of the academic year. Campus news, sports, arts, entertainment, and opinion, will arrive at your mailbox each week.

Imagine calling your son or daughter, and knowing more than he or she about the opening game about Colby. Picture the surprised look on your child's face when you quiz them about conversation.

We urge you to consider subscribing to the Voice. Not only will you be supporting an entirely dedicated, student-run organization, you will grow intimately involved each week with the workings of the Connecticut College community.

---

Yes! Please sign me up for a one-year subscription to The College Voice. I have enclosed a $50 check or money order for twenty-two issues of the newspaper.

Mailing Address
Name: ____________________________
Address: __________________________
City: __________________ State: ______ Zip: ______

MAIL AT ONCE TO:
The College Voice
Box 4870 Connecticut College
270 Mohegan Ave
New London, CT 06320

Please make checks payable to The College Voice.
Top Ten Things First Year Students (and First Year Presidents) Needs to Know About Connecticut College

10. Pop your collar or no one will want to be your friend.

9. If a TNE starts at 11, it "starts" at 1.

8. The club soccer calendar is the single best book in the college bookstore.

7. If you don’t have an Audi, get one...quick.

5. We don’t remember what Floralia, but judging from pictures it seems pretty cool.

4. Don’t lose track of that purple pill you get in your mailbox. We’re still in the danger zone.

3. "Fishbowl" run is for seniors only. No cameras please.

2. Tent dance. Period.

1. Some people will pay more than a year’s tuition for a lobster night coupon.

Can you figure out who this famous TV personality is in our weekly distorted celebrity photo? (Hint: Make it work)

Hey, his came with a cupholder...

Word Jumble:
HINT: CROSSWORD GENIUS
MNAI ETIDAMRA
Men’s Soccer

continued from page 10

in solid efforts on the pitch ... the weekend of: • • • • •

Can n ath letics. :

The team will hopefully put this loss behind them when they go up against Eastern Connecticut State on Thursday afternoon. On Saturday afternoon, Conn will again host a NEC/SCA rival, as the go head to head with Williams College on Hartford green.

At MIT, Conn Water Polo Sinks Yale University, 8-5

Dr. Matt Fava

Connecticut College Water Polo will be full of new faces eager to make their mark this season. Head Coach JJ Addison will be leading a young, but talented team after graduating seven players from the 2005 season, and as glowing Brian McVety '98 very often does, he is ready to go.

As the season goes on, the Camels will most likely improve as back Matt Addison '10, who looked particularly impressive, and others in this hopeful freshman class continue to improve.

Dr. Chris Helma

With the 2006 season underway, the Connecticut College women’s field hockey team hopes to rebound from their tough September 9th defeat. Facing NEC/SCA rivals Middlebury College at home on Silfen Field.

The Camels began their season last month.

Field Hockey Eyes Tourney Return

Talia Wheeler '09 had an impressive collegiate debut in the season opener, recording 9 saves while leading the Camels to a 2-1 win over Army. Middlebury goalkeeper Meghan McGillen '07 recorded 10 saves and allowed 3 goals in the loss.

The Camels hope to rebound from this loss and look to build upon what was an improved 2005 season

Looking ahead, Connecticut College will travel to Brown University for a 5:00 p.m. match on Thursday, September 21. Also, the Camels will host Harvard in their home opener on Saturday, September 23.

For more information on the Camels, check out the team's web site at www.camelsports.com.

The sports department:

John Mayer is sick of waiting for the Voce to change.

Get in there and make a difference!

E-mail ccvoice@conncoll.edu

THE NEW ALBUM FEATURING "WAITING ON THE WORLD TO CHAN...

THE COLLEGE VOICE • September 15, 2006 • 9

in solid efforts on the pitch all afternoon, displaying intensity and skill throughout the contest. Also contributing to the Camels cause was goalie Ted Lane ’99 from Portland, Oregon, who touched four saves.

Through the team may have looked out of synch on Saturday afternoon, displaying intensity and skill throughout the contest. Also contributing to the Camels cause was goalie Ted Lane ’99 from Portland, Oregon, who touched four saves.

Only A Game... continued from page 10

extraordinary is the fact that the team in the history of the league had ever achieved this feat as well as the fact that the Red Sox won the World Series for the first time in 90 odd years.

If not master of the team as a bunch of studs still manages to look out of synch on Saturday afternoon, displaying intensity and skill throughout the contest. Also contributing to the Camels cause was goalie Ted Lane ’99 from Portland, Oregon, who touched four saves.

Fantasy Football continued from page 10

made, that get the 7 points alone! Or maybe it’s the other way around. Why on earth did I start Corey Dillon over Reggie Bush? What was I thinking?

Only A Game... continued from page 10

extraordinary is the fact that the team in the history of the league had ever achieved this feat as well as the fact that the Red Sox won the World Series for the first time in 90 odd years.

If not master of the team as a bunch of studs still manages to look out of synch on Saturday afternoon, displaying intensity and skill throughout the contest. Also contributing to the Camels cause was goalie Ted Lane ’99 from Portland, Oregon, who touched four saves.

Fantasy Football continued from page 10

made, that get the 7 points alone! Or maybe it’s the other way around. Why on earth did I start Corey Dillon over Reggie Bush? What was I thinking?

Looking ahead, Connecticut College will visit Brown University for a 5:00 p.m. match on Thursday, September 21. Also, the Camels will host Harvard in their home opener on Saturday, September 23.

For more information on the Camels, check out the team's web site at www.camelsports.com.

The sports department:

John Mayer is sick of waiting for the Voce to change.

Get in there and make a difference!

E-mail ccvoice@conncoll.edu

THE NEW ALBUM FEATURING "WAITING ON THE WORLD TO CHAN...

THE COLLEGE VOICE • September 15, 2006 • 9

in solid efforts on the pitch all afternoon, displaying intensity and skill throughout the contest. Also contributing to the Camels cause was goalie Ted Lane ’99 from Portland, Oregon, who touched four saves.

Through the team may have looked out of synch on Saturday afternoon, displaying intensity and skill throughout the contest. Also contributing to the Camels cause was goalie Ted Lane ’99 from Portland, Oregon, who touched four saves.

Only A Game... continued from page 10

extraordinary is the fact that the team in the history of the league had ever achieved this feat as well as the fact that the Red Sox won the World Series for the first time in 90 odd years.

If not master of the team as a bunch of studs still manages to look out of synch on Saturday afternoon, displaying intensity and skill throughout the contest. Also contributing to the Camels cause was goalie Ted Lane ’99 from Portland, Oregon, who touched four saves.

Fantasy Football continued from page 10

made, that get the 7 points alone! Or maybe it’s the other way around. Why on earth did I start Corey Dillon over Reggie Bush? What was I thinking?

Looking ahead, Connecticut College will visit Brown University for a 5:00 p.m. match on Thursday, September 21. Also, the Camels will host Harvard in their home opener on Saturday, September 23.

For more information on the Camels, check out the team's web site at www.camelsports.com.

The sports department:

John Mayer is sick of waiting for the Voce to change.

Get in there and make a difference!

E-mail ccvoice@conncoll.edu

THE NEW ALBUM FEATURING "WAITING ON THE WORLD TO CHAN...

THE COLLEGE VOICE • September 15, 2006 • 9

in solid efforts on the pitch all afternoon, displaying intensity and skill throughout the contest. Also contributing to the Camels cause was goalie Ted Lane ’99 from Portland, Oregon, who touched four saves.

Through the team may have looked out of synch on Saturday afternoon, displaying intensity and skill throughout the contest. Also contributing to the Camels cause was goalie Ted Lane ’99 from Portland, Oregon, who touched four saves.

Only A Game... continued from page 10

extraordinary is the fact that the team in the history of the league had ever achieved this feat as well as the fact that the Red Sox won the World Series for the first time in 90 odd years.

If not master of the team as a bunch of studs still manages to look out of synch on Saturday afternoon, displaying intensity and skill throughout the contest. Also contributing to the Camels cause was goalie Ted Lane ’99 from Portland, Oregon, who touched four saves.

Fantasy Football continued from page 10

made, that get the 7 points alone! Or maybe it’s the other way around. Why on earth did I start Corey Dillon over Reggie Bush? What was I thinking?

Looking ahead, Connecticut College will visit Brown University for a 5:00 p.m. match on Thursday, September 21. Also, the Camels will host Harvard in their home opener on Saturday, September 23.

For more information on the Camels, check out the team's web site at www.camelsports.com.

The sports department:

John Mayer is sick of waiting for the Voce to change.

Get in there and make a difference!

E-mail ccvoice@conncoll.edu

THE NEW ALBUM FEATURING WAITING ON THE WORLD TO CHAN...
Who Needs A Life Anyway?

Is there anything better than wasting away a Sunday...

...to worry about as well. This combi-

...nism, but overall that goes into

...out there. Any human-being with a

...happens. Your whole year will be dic-

...exciting aspect of fantasy football

...idea. For my friends and I, fantasy

...was an unseasonably warm

...a slow start, there is much optimism

...confines, the Caps emerged

...most of all have been in a situation like this; before sitting close to the TV, and truly believing that our words

...to that of Steven Gerrard.

...yellow and blue, shouting, cursing and crying,

...it is moments like these that

...the Ascot;

...to keep the Caps tied at 1-1.

...to appear in the World Series

...will

...and brings down all social, political and economic barriers. Those of you

...which makes the Caps a lot better

...tional College Soccer team...