Senior Proclamation used to mean in part) senior privileges during the past three years. The specific advantages of our college are known to all; each is utilized by each of you so differently as to preclude definition. Despite the fact that you have not always taken advantage of our life at Connecticut College, it has given us high standards and a sound foundation upon which we may build. Every college has its own traditions and looks to the past to uphold its history but contributes its own unique heritage. This heritage has been given us by 21 previous graduating classes. We should not avoid our most treasured traditions only to find that we have lost something not yet gained.

We hope that the College will be as stimulating to the Class of '42 as it has been to our predecessors. The specific advantages of our college are known to all; each is utilized by each of you so differently as to preclude definition. Despite the fact that you have not always taken advantage of our life at Connecticut College, it has given us high standards and a sound foundation upon which we may build. Every college has its own traditions and looks to the past to uphold its history but contributes its own unique heritage. This heritage has been given us by 21 previous graduating classes. We should not avoid our most treasured traditions only to find that we have lost something not yet gained.

We hope that the College will be as stimulating to the Class of '42 as it has been to our predecessors. The specific advantages of our college are known to all; each is utilized by each of you so differently as to preclude definition. Despite the fact that you have not always taken advantage of our life at Connecticut College, it has given us high standards and a sound foundation upon which we may build. Every college has its own traditions and looks to the past to uphold its history but contributes its own unique heritage. This heritage has been given us by 21 previous graduating classes. We should not avoid our most treasured traditions only to find that we have lost something not yet gained.
Hello, Again!

October again—with its brilliant clatter of scarlet and gold; its clear blue days and cool nights; the laughter of wind-blown girls, meeting each other after a long summer's absence, to smell of fall and snuggle in musty books in every room; disorder, in a jumbled mess; and the situation is one of the many new and exciting things about it.

The new faces startle one for a while because the old are not there. They are away for the summer, and their absence is a part of the process. The aunt has lots of money and uses it to help her, immediately for anything. The aunt has lots of money and uses it to help her, immediately for anything. The aunt has lots of money and uses it to help her, immediately for anything. The aunt has lots of money and uses it to help her, immediately for anything.

We've noticed a few careless habits that we wish to point out. There is a need to be more careful and attentive to detail. The Challenge to the Nation is there to be read and understood. The challenge lies in making sure that the individuals of the nation possess greater knowledge and the capacity to act on that knowledge.

If we can help our readers keep a few key points in mind, and try to correct our bad habits, we'll be able to keep this aesthetic of the motion picture.
Gym Transformed Into 1917 Ballroom "March of Time"

By Dorothy Reed '43

A co-educational Connecticut College of 1917 crashed through the gymnasium--or rather, through a model gymnasium took on a new and most effective form into a decorated ballroom where no one transformed into ladies of the war-time._By the time the doors were opened to our modern young women, both students and football girls, ready to begin the strains of "Alexander's Rags Tartan Band," and "March of Time" is now in the process of creating its first particularly colorful set for our Dramatic and Environmental project. The title is taken from "Miss George Fielding Eliot's book," "March of Time." The work was then completed, "No. 31.

"The treatment of the feature was a number, a story of American life, a study of a group of people and the effect upon them of a war which is being waged in another country." It is an explanation of the point of view of a German whoust through the eyes of a German toward Germany. It gives a story of Hungarians who were called back from their war efforts to protect young American boys who enlisted in the army or joined the war with the boys who joined after 1917. In answer to the question, "Is this picture a form of propaganda?" the answer was informed, "No. If any lesson is to be gotten from this what happened then, let's apply it to the present situation."

The gymnasium will probably changed, the same again. It was rearranged, "No. 31."

Allergen's story was numerous. All would be going well and then, "Crash," it was on to the floor, the "CUT," sound throughout the room, and the scene was changed. When the story was finished, this sort of procedure continued for many hours with practice after practice, rehearsing for one month. After a couple hours work, first the set was changed, milk, sandwiches, fruit, and ice cream--a rest--a smoke--and then the group went home. Eyes dropped, hair fell-shows came off--and the group went home. "Everybody's day and wide awake. The humor is only the angle from which the scenario is to be seen. "The picture is a director. What is sense of humor--what is the making of an actor and early morning progressed. We were bone-barely with an experience that will always be remembered."

Fall Colors Link Conn. with Past

By Sally Kelly '43

Eastern Connecticut, along with the Thanes, presents more than merely the eye of the average out-of-stater. To some, Forestry Day is a Forecourt Day. Others, the rich reds of the Eastern maple chest (or what-have-you) and white check pillows, a dainty skirt in the same material for a little maple chest (or what-have-you) are adorned with a collection of canine pictures and a large lobster buoys, souvenirs of Connecticut. For the benefit of the student body, the Ante-House-Campus's eye."

"Is there a form of propaganda?" asked Rose. The group works hard, rehearsing for one month before the first night of a week. Last year the Group put on "Call It a Day" and "Miss" and "A Day With the Guv'nor," but which of both of which Rose directed.

"How do you manage the cost of production?"

"We keep our expenses very low. Sometimes we will serve as a link to the Indian past. The Pequot run, hunt, and fish along the river band. In the Archeological point a spot where the brave, Taconic bees are taken care of. Bulky Auditiori work, to help in the bookshop, science laboratories, and in connection with the department of economics and sociology. Others are helping in professional, diressoria, the president's office, act-"
Dr. Brown Applies Mystical Writing To Life of Today

Charles Reynolds Brown, dean emeritus of the Yale Divinity School, has been shown to be the third Ves- pers service in the new auditorium at 7:30 o'clock on October 9. His subject was the love of the wall, discussed in the fifth chapter of Daniel, as it applies to life to- day.

Dean Brown told about the feast of the King Belshazzar who ordered the golden goblets, which his father had taken from the Temple of the Lord, to be brought out. “One thousand tipsey men and dissolute women” drank from these goblets to the gods of gold and silver made of all metals. For this he said that he was the only one who had clean hands and a pure heart, and that is why the night the king was slain, and he warned those who were able to read it, for they, too, had been leading immoral lives. The queen suggested that Daniel, for all his success and power, had been led to believe that he was worthy of the golden goblets, and would therefore be hurled forth by the Medes and the Persians. The sins of the night, the king, is right to the wrong.
Varied Interest Of Freshmen Revealed

By Sally Clark '41

For the last two years, incoming freshmen at Connecticut College have been asked to fill out a questionnaire soon after their arrival here. The answers to the questions ought to be interesting to students and faculty, because they are the index of the kind of an impression we make. From the answers, too, we can learn what ambitions our new citizens have!

First the freshmen were asked how their attention was first attracted to C.C. In spite of all the various advertising forces of the school, including Prep School Advertisements, and Housekeeping fiction pictures, our students themselves seemed to attract the most freshmen. The ability of students to impress prospective freshmen have this momentous question set¬

A group of freshmen have started a campaign to improve the dispos¬ bility of their members. If a girl fresh¬ everyone was a callow trip at Oswegatchie, the first regular trip of the year. There were the usual difficulties of em in the gym at 2:30 and rode out in trucks. At Oswegatchie we met at the gym at 2:30 and rode out in trucks. At Oswegatchie we ety of a vocation, though, or have bumped into in the post of¬

As the evening program unfold¬

But the fun really was only temporarily disturbed, but never¬

A few of our group have been Heter¬

If any of you possess any dusty old volumes of Emily Post, dog¬

ered or otherwise, please dispatch them with all possible haste to Het¬ erty Holmes. She suffers from severe social pressures, following the col¬ to bed at 9:30 by physical force if ne¬

Freshmen Raise a Cheer for 1942

(Continued From Page One)

interest or

Interest or

Freshmen Revealed

By Sally Clark '41

For the last two years, incoming freshmen at Connecticut College have been asked to fill out a ques¬

It was a cause trip at Oswegatchie, for about an hour and a half, and then we went back to a little sandy point of land to build a fire to cook our supper. There were the usual difficulties of hamburgers being under-done

er was calm, and everyone sat around the fire and sang carrying out or

I'hone 7395

just a melancholic baby.

Dining and Dancing

Every Saturday Night

Al Gentile and his Club Orchestra

Minimum Check $1.00 per Person

Cocktail Lounge and Bar

Sunset Inn

Mago Point — Waterford

Dinner and dancing

Otto Ametti

Ladies' Tailor

Ladies' Tailor-Made Dresses

Wools and Suits Made to Order

Far Remodeling a Specialty

Over Kroeger's 5th Stare

86 State Street, New London

Phone 2158

Perry & Stone

Jewelers Since 1865

Watches and Jewelry Repair

Your sandwich Shop

We deliver

WALK-OVER

Lamb's Wool

SCUFFS

Colors

Blue, White, Red, Wine

Rubber Boots . . . $3.50

Brown, Blue, Black, Orange

Walk-Over Boot Shop

237 State Street

Belle ••

Brown, Blue, Black, Orange

Walk-Over Boot Shop

237 State Street
Successful Party is Given Freshmen
(Continued From Page One)
Night, because several freshmen, totally unaware that they would have to, were called upon to do things. First on the program were Doris Hult and Alice Reed who did a novel act in which one person recited silly poems while the other, completely concealed except for his arms, did the hand gestures.

The next person called upon was Bobby Backlor, who, absolutely amazed, gave a poem she'd learned in fourth grade. After Bobby came Lynn Thompson who danced and sang to a selection from the Wizard of Oz.

The freshmen of Thames were required to repeat their stout night skirt which was a take off on the Coast Guard dance. Meanwhile Ginny Little was warning Edith Gberman and Lee Henderson that they would have to put on a pig-tails and cold-cream included, man during last year's hazing with the climax to the entertainment was the entrance of Nat'l Bank of Commerce
Established 1860
New London, Conn.

Union Lyceum Taxi Co.
Incorporated
Taxi or Private Cars
Five Can Ride as Cheaply as One
26 State St. Phone 2860
The Blue Cab Phone 4395

Have You Tried Our Kemp's
Mixed Nuts at 9c Tb
Olympia Tea Room
230 State Street, New London
Phone 2-4365

M. CALMON
Watch Repairing
36 State Street
Room 10

SADDLE SPORT OXFORDS
$3.95 to $5.95
All Colors
Suedes, Buckskin, Ellekskin
Alligator
Rubber and Leather Soles

Savard Bros.
121 State Street

Make the First Service League Guy
With a Corsage from

Fisher, Florist
104 State
Phone 3338

Religious Council Plans
For New Year at Picnic
(Continued from Page One)
for the carrying out of various phases of the work of the Religious Council. The names of the committee and their chairmen follow:
Committee—Barry Beach Deputation—Mary Lou Sharp-less '41
Publicity—Audrey Nordquist
Entertainment—Meg Robinson
News Reporter—Helen Burnham '40.

A famed Massachusetts Institute of Technology scientist, Prof. S. C.
Collins, has developed the world's coldest refrigerator—and it will operate at 340 degrees below zero Fahrenheit.

The new device operates on compressed helium, a gas that produces the coldest temperatures known to man.

The new del-icc operates on compressed helium, a gas that produces
the coldest temperatures known to man.

Patronize Our Advertisers

MILLINERY of Distinction

ENNIS SHOP
230 State St.

Compliments of Boston Candy Kitchen

Wednesday, October 11, 1939

Copyright 1939, LOGGIE & MERRY TOBACCO CO.

Patronize Our Advertisers

Time Out...

LIGHT UP WITH

Chesterfield

...that's always a signal for more smoking pleasure

All around you, you'll see that friendly white package... that means more and more smokers everywhere are agreed that Chesterfields are milder and better-tasting... for everything you want in a cigarette, CHESTERFIELD WINS

They Satisfy!

.. MILLIONS