Honor Code Commits Students To Adapt to College Society

Welcome Class of 1963

by Cyndie Ebose ’60

Why does the Honor System exist at Connecticut? What does it mean to you? How does the Honor System fit into your Student Government?

The Honor System is no doubt a term with which you are now familiar. The Honor System, however, is a term which, I feel, needs a little bit more consideration. It is important to understand the purpose of the Honor System and its role in your college experience.

As Liz Hudson has said, it is important to remember that the Honor System is about you. This is not a term that you can choose to ignore or disregard. The system is designed to help you understand the importance of honesty, integrity, and responsibility.

It is important to understand that the Honor System is about more than just grades. It is about the values that you hold dear, and the principles that guide you. The system is designed to help you develop a sense of personal integrity, and to help you make the right choices in your life.

I would also like to remind you that the Honor System is not just about the rules. It is about the community that you are a part of. It is about the people who care about you and who are here to support you. The system is designed to help you build a strong sense of community, and to help you feel connected to your peers.

What is the Honor System?

The Honor System is a set of rules that govern the behavior of students at the College of Connecticut. It is a system that is designed to help you understand the importance of honesty, integrity, and responsibility. The system is designed to help you make the right choices in your life.

Radio Club Offers Chance to Appear On Local Airways by Randle Whitman '61

You have never been to be a guest on a local radio show? Would you like to voice your opinions to the whole college community? Do you like to work with tape recorders or radio equipment? You would be able to satisfy these desires if you participate in the activities of the Radio Club of Connecticut College.

During the past few years the Radio Club has almost disappeared on this campus. This last year over twenty students have devoted many hours to improving the constitution and activities of the club. Everyone believes that the club is now on its way back. The Radio Club is an activity that anyone can participate in, regardless of major or free time availability. There are still fresh ideas and new members.

Radio Club Activities

Sacred Heart Broadcasting is a part of the Radio Club. It is the university's own radio station, which broadcasts eleven hours daily. The staff is composed of half a dozen students and a faculty member, and student work is allowed on air. The purpose is to provide the Radio Club a chance to practice its activities in a public forum.

Newspaper Radio is another activity of the Radio Club. It is a unique opportunity for students in the Club to develop their writing and broadcasting skills. They have programs for local high schools and college students, and they broadcast every hour.

All interested students are encouraged to participate in the activities of the Radio Club. If you are interested, you can contact the Radio Club chairman, Mr. Randle Whitman '61, at the Crozier-Williams Center.

been admonished, you are responsible for reporting yourself to Honor Court; but the Court will seek your advice before taking action. Rules were made by the majority, and until we, the governing body, think differently, they must be kept by the minority. "Honor" can't be legislated; it is a personal thing. Therefore, we must work to keep up our standards.

House of Representative is the legislative branch. Through this body, you and I should con-idue your ideas. House meetings are usually conducted regularly by the president of the dorm; every other week the House meets to discuss the problems of the dorm.

Radio Club

Radio Club has almost become a nullity. One of the most important reasons for this is that the Club has not been able to communicate with the students. The Club is there for the students, and the students should be made aware of its existence. The Club needs members who are interested in radio and who are willing to help.

Furnish Your Own Individual Quest by Eide C. Chisholm '86

President of Religious Fellowship Program by Don T. Collins '61

Our purpose in the Religious Fellowship Program is to bring about a better understanding and respect for students to Connecticut College.

Increasingly, through your representants, faiths I know you can find that there are many challenges opposing opportunities within the religious fellowship programs to initiate or further develop fellowships to better serve the Church's community and chapel services which I hope will interest you.

Religious Fellowship wants you to send your suggestions and ideas. We are all members of a small group of students who have a point of view. At the same time, it is a way to time to attend and enjoy the religious fellowship services.

The Church of the Nazarene is an opportunity for you to express your beliefs in an organized way. If you don't attend a meeting in your church, you can attend a meeting in the Chapel of the Nazarene. If you have a question or comment, you can contact the religious fellowship advisor.

I'll be looking forward to meeting all of you soon (unofficially, that is!)

Don't forget the Coast Guard Mixer on Saturday night at the Yale Union Dining Room. In the Crozier-Williams Center.

If you have any questions or comments about any of these activities, you can contact the religious fellowship advisor or the religious fellowship advisor at the Crozier-Williams Center.

A.A. Launches Year Opening Picnic At College Lodge by Zeke Lane '60

President of A.A. has announced the A.A. organization is an honor, but its pleasures are tempered somewhat by problems. Without doubt, one of the most perplexing problems is that of finding some unusual and different way of telling all you freshmen and sophomores what we have to say. Believe me, I have tried, but I can only say that we have steered clear of reading the talent, questions.

We are looking forward to meeting our members, and I hope you will join us in the Crozier-Williams Center.
