Reverend Willard - Conference October 24-26

Purpose of Three-Day Program to Emphasize Meaning of Religion

Reverend C. Lawson Willard, rector of the Trinity Church on the Green, New Haven, will be available for individual conferences with students wishing help with religious problems. At 8:00, Monday night, an informal discussion will be held in Winthrop living room; all students and faculty are cordially invited to attend.

Following the Tuesday evening service, Mr. Willard will again have individual conferences on the 25th. At 8:00 p.m. in the chapel library, he will summarize the meaning of the conference as a whole.

According to Charles Hedges, chairman of Religious Fellowship on campus, the purpose of this three-day program is to emphasize the meaning of religion to the individual student. The Fellowship sincerely hopes every student will take advantage of this opportunity for personal growth.

Comedy by Plautus

To Be Given Soon

On Wed., Oct. 27, at 8:00 p.m., in the Ficks Production class, under the direction of Miss Hazelwood, will present the Roman comedy, Menandri, by Plautus.

Plautus was a slapstick comedy writer, and this particular play involves a mix-up of identities of twin brothers. The first one doesn't know that he has a twin, and the second one has a hard time trying to locate the first one. The escapades that follow give much amusement to the audience.

All women and children will be made by the Play Production class. The cost of admission is 25 cents. Audience reception will be greatly appreciated.

Mensaehami is the basis for the Greater America comedy, Thanks for the Errors, and was adopted from the musical comedy, Boys from Syracuse.

What does the Red Cross do in peace time? Does it dissolve only to come alive during national emergencies and wartime?

Many are unaware that the American Red Cross is an organization continuing its work not only in times of war, but in times of peace as well.

The American Red Cross is one of the four organizations to which the Connecticut College Community Chest contributed last year. An article was carried on WSSF, telling of its work. The Community Chest, eigthman, con- tinues to solicit registrations and to the members of the Chest.

As a national organization, the American Red Cross is a direct volunteer contributor, is distributed to the Red Cross service centers across the country.

Money sent from this campus can be used to help the family of a man at army, navy, or marine stations to administer a necessary water of programs of safety in coastal towns, or to provide a boy in the naval hospital in San Francisco and his family in Missouri.

The Red Cross community chest is not only in the United States Children, WSSF, the Student Friendly Fund, and the Red Cross of the United States, the American Red Cross funds a Y. Y. After serving a pastorate in Elm- hurst, L. L. he was called to Trin- ity Church in New Haven in 1950.

Holds Position

He is a trustee of Bard college, President of the Board of the Missions, and a member of the Board of the Goodwin Foundation.

He is a laborer of the Labor Participa- tion Committee of the New England Council of Social Welfare, and has been active in church fed- erations.

He is chairman of the Connecticut Re- gion Committee of the Department of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.

Mr. Willard preached at Pequot Chapel during its summer season. He will remain on campus Monday night for a brief discussion of the meaning of religious experience period held at the college.

JOHN MOOKE

As an associate professor of English Dr. Moore has been a member of the Connecticut college faculty since 1946 and direc- tor of the summer session since 1943. In the latter part of the summer program of the college along many lines. Having

Dr. John F. Moore, a member of the Connecticut college faculty, died on Thursday, October 31, at the age of thirty-seven.

Community Chest On Our Drive

To Serve Four Member Groups

The New London Chapter of the ARC serves the lower half of New London County, including the suburban base which main- tains a personnel of between five and six thousand men and the fort of a Postal coastal town.

Mandatory to the Chapter, al-though it is necessary in times of strain.

During the Florida hurricanes of the fall and the flood, the first aid that swept New England last year, the ARC provided emergency food, shelter, and finally rehabilitation. The cases are investigated and if they warrant ARC consideration, they will build houses, furnish stores, and serve to reestablish the community.

A national project for the year is the establishment of regional blood services, involving blood collection, processing, and dissemination to those in need of them in hospitals and institutions.

No, the ARC is active in peace time as well as in war time, functioning in 'emergency' and these emergencies.

The ARC answers the question of what do you care enough to give to the ARC to do their work.

Soph Hop Tickets

To Be Sold First In All Soph Dorms

The Soph Hop will take place November 6, at 7 p.m. in Knowlton. The tickets at $3.60 on campus may be used to participate in the Soph Hop. The annual Junior Banquet will be held on November 4, at 8 p.m. in Knowlton.

Soph Hop Tickets will be sold for $3.60 in all Soph dorms from October 25 until the Soph Hop.

MOROEC'S Solution: Greenwich Frenzy

Are you depressed, depressed, or frustrated? Here's your chance to become your supposed depressor for a fair one free! It's the biggest, new, exciting Hallowe'en party by the brain child of A.A. and Service League.

A Greenwich Village theme will be celebrated by student faculty cultivated skills, (remember Slippery-Em- barrassment, a hand writing, and handwriting analyst. Yes, the ARC is active in peace time as well as in war time, functioning in 'emergency' and these emergencies.

Do you care enough to give to the ARC to do their work? Remember whatever you wish you were you can become. The date--October 28, the place--the Gym, the reas- sons--prices and entertainment.
Learning About UN and IS Chief Purposes Of Special Week

Electives are almost here. Community chest drives are under way. The American Legion is observing its centenary. This is around the corner. A lot to think about, yes. But don't forget the thrill of what lies ahead.

This is United Nations Week. No matter how important are our domestic issues, they do not have the same claim of the international scene. The United Nations can succeed only if it has the support and concern of all nations. Learn about the plus side of UN—learn what it has done and why it is organizing today. It will come enlightened public opinion.

Observe United Nations Week by learning all about UN.

Coffee by German Club Open to All Students

The German club coffee will take place Tuesday evening. It is to be held in the community's room. Members of the German club and everyone else interested in German are welcome. The coffee will be over in time to attend the Lawrence Memorial lecture.

Survey of Local Government Offers Insight Into Politics

by Phyllis Robins

Domestic politics are absorbing more and more of our attention as November 3 approaches. The candidates for governor are a dead heat. The major candidates have embraced or expanded extensive campaigns to explain their platforms and to vitally affect the elections. Too many people are opting out and again they urge us to vote a straight Republican or Democratic ticket, and if we were to heed their wishes we would be destroying a very important precept of democracy—deal a heavy blow to the system that constantly amazed us, for many of these men have little to gain.

It was precisely for the purpose of determining the candidates and the places that run in local government that Mrs. Houck of the English 649 class took a trip to New York last week. We made few important discoveries, but learned very little corruption, but we did gain a clearer understanding of how our system works and the type of men who operate it.

Although the issues involved are local, and the politicians less widely known, the same principles which govern national politics are seen in the district and city of the nation. There are local machines just as there are national ones, and these machines are well organized. They are controlled by bosses or by cliques who will resort to any means to keep themselves in power, but these bosses are constantly challenged by factions within their own parties. These dissident factions claim that the bosses are dishonest and insure the voter some measure of protection.

Our interview with Bill Walker afforded an excellent example of such a situation. Bill Walker formerly belonged to the Cherokee club, one of the oldest and most prominent democratic club groups in the city of New York. Ten years ago he was the leader of a faction within his party and was forced to register as a Republican. His headquarters, however, has since then been moved a few doors down the street because his former members would not vote for him. His efforts to admit two hundred veterans who belong to the West End American Legion to the club's membership. No doubt the local leaders were fearful that he would gain control by his admittance, but Bill's exposition was far more convincing than any expected.

The Cherokee club is now a shell of its former busy self.

Not in Politics

Mr. Walker and nearly all the other politicians we met that day constantly maintained that they were not in politics. "I am for God, for Country, and against Communism" is the campaign line against Vito Marcantelos! Bill Walker kept repeating, "I am merely a city foreman."

But politician or not, Bill Walker devotes a great deal of his time to getting out the vote and plugging for his candidate, so do the other minor club members we interviewed. Political activity to us is the voluntary duty to their task that constantly amazed us, for many of these men have little to gain from the organization.

The two Russian films

Two Russian films with English subtitles will be presented at the Auditorium on Friday night, October 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

The first is a musical entitled Spring, starring two famous Russian players, David Cherevov and Ludov Orlova. The story begins is the second main feature of the program. The story is adapted from a popular Russian play which was written by Vladiimr Kataev, in which the plot revolves around a boy who was orphaned by war.

In addition, there will be an unusual musical—unusual because it is the first cartoon in color to come from Asia. Based on Walt Disney's style, the "plot" is taken from an old Tibetan tale.

Memorial Services Held for Dr. Moore

A simple, dignified memorial service was held Sunday in the chapel for Dr. John F. Moore, former English department head. The choir opened the service with the singing of All Glory, Laud and Honor to Thee by Bach. Mr. Walker delivered a speech which was written by Dr. Kenneth H. Brum, in which the plot revolves around the English Department.

Following this President Rosemergy led the service into the last chapter from first Corinthians. The service closed with the singing of "Amazing Grace" by any of Mrs. Desiring by Bach.
to get a good handle on Macbeth and its many layers of meaning. The play's themes of power, ambition, and the supernatural are explored in depth, with Miss Webster's production achieving a level of intensity that is both disturbing and unforgettable.

First Mascot clue, "Susie" Sophie Enliven First Sing

Mond turned rain clouds over hung the first college moonlight and threat ended to drown the excited promises in this group. The crowd gathered on the point at Stonington barely nine o'clock and eagerly awaited the procession of seniors from Jane Adams.

Evidence of the eve of mascot hunt could be found in the gaily decorated crowns of the Junior Class today. Distinguished among the crowd was Sophie Sophie, a life-size human designed and constructed by Virdinhall. Susie wore the typical college attire of a pitcher shirt, sneakers and a beer key.

The sophomore, not to be outdone by the class of 1939, entered the field of battle armed with pillows and blankets in preparation for spending a night ofohoing in junior dormitories.

Finally the seniors appeared on the wall in their cups and gowns serving lightened candles. Miss Bill Breck opened the singing and then turned on the halos to Joey Jones to take inside the class of 1939, who led the class in a massed hunt song, the verses of which were composed by the seniors during the night before. The first clue of the hunt—Drink To Me Only With Your Eyes—was cheerfully taken up. The crowd dispersed after the hunt.

The moonlight sing is one of the best college traditions, and combined with mascot hunt at midnight Tuesday night one of the most inspiring and gratifying displays ever witnessed by campus fall this year.

Pierre Agarzone, Laura Whittaker, George Allier, and our polka, Sue Crone, are to be congratulated on their especially fine play. The Vassar-Holyoke game was exciting and close, ending with the right score of 1:1.

"Over on the tennis courts we were terribly busy at all. The games were informal and the Crone group mixed so that no actual team score was done.

SEWING BOX

Dresmaking and Alterations, 50 State Street

Do You Like Italian Food?

Go to DANTE'S

for the Best

TRUMAN STREET

luggage and leather goods of distinction

BOOKS

Greeting Cards — Stationary

THE BOOKSHOP, Inc. 69 State Street

op. T.M.C.A.

there's good news tonight!

the famous

SEAVILLAGE

on the Point at Stonington

— Breaks from its tradition and will remain open all Winter. Every Hopen you can imagine is nationally famous seafood restaurant takes on a new role as a unique, nautical club for evening dining and entertainment. A sparkling menu of both fish and seafood dishes will play for dancers in our combined dining room overhangiing the waters. A cobblestone driveway will lead to the planned covered porch to shine over the sparkling waters. An even more intimate atmosphere will be added to the famous Sea Village atmosphere. The Sea Village will be deftly served by our low, low winter prices, from 39¢ up.

Reservations 1000

Wednesday, October 20, 1948

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE NEWS

Page Three

Lady Macbeth. Her evilness and intelligence to get her husband involved in murdering Duncan was lost behind Holland's fury. How could she convince Macbeth of her role demands, when he was already champing at the bit.

Although Mr. Holland was one of the few men who could be clearly heard, his tendency to omit a high pitch spoiled several dialogues. This seemed particular notice, in "Tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow...

He began this very well, but again built into a frenzy which marred the subdued intensity of the line.

Miss Goodner's portrayal of Lady Macbeth was best in her way.

See "Noxworth"—Page 5

KNITTING YARNS

100% Virgin Wool

at

HOME ARTS CORNER

9 Union Street

Compliments of

LEN'S PLACE

407 Williams Street

A GOOD PLACE TO EAT

Blue Room

Grill

Monkey Room

Dining and Dancing Orchestra Every Night

Curves. Wind and Waves

Small Class of '24

Wine speaking as the freshman to another—Cause wine now in New London. Too—Don't understand, though. We've been in the shoes and the accessory business for many years to tell.

Our merchandise is something special—we think—and you'll agree when you see it.

Ezra Pap's given you a marquee allowance—no shoes and bags and hose and scarves are passed gently enough for the most limited budget.

We're everything from campus buttons to things for your domestic date—heavy waterproofed covers to hungry bears as a mint—all these things with the friendliest service to boot.

In honor of fashion—come on in and sit with us—we will be your pleasure to serve you—that's what we here for—!!

BERWALD, INC.

168 State St., New London

Stereophonics

The Bewails

Bouquets and Corsages

Fellman & Clark

168 State St., New London

See "Strider"—Page 1

Strider, nosophorous Present

Diverse Views of Macbeth

by Robert Strider

CONNECTICUT college and New London High School recently obtained the Margaret Webster Shakespeare Company and staged a vigorous production of Macbeth last week. The import of this tour that Margaret Webster has undertaken can not be overestimated. Miss Webster and her production, and the purpose of the tour is to endeavor to enhance her already brilliant reputation. Rather the fact that she is doing the tour is sign of her devotion to drama. She evidently feels that it is important to bring Shakespeare in the professional manner to college audiences, and that she does not generally have the opportunity to stage such productions. For this attitude we are grateful. The difficulties of carrying out such a tour can only be imagined by the audiences who see the finished product.

An enthusiastic and appreciative audience, then, enjoyed the performance of Macbeth very greatly. The play as done by this company had its good moments and its bad, of course, but the total effect was good. The scenery, for example, was simple but serviceable. Great variety was achieved with very little material, and exceptionally in the second half, followed each other with swift smoothness. In the very opening scene of the play Miss Webster appeared to be trying to achieve a sort of montage: the witches carried on their mumbo-jumbo behind half-curtained scenes, while ordinary characters of the play walked back and forth downstage. A bewildering device to these who expect, original, original and effective.

On the other hand, no hostile critic could claim that this performance was flawless, one would imagine that Miss Webster would be the last to expect such a claim. For one thing the characterization of Macbeth and Lady Macbeth was quite flat. Joseph Holland as Macbeth possessed none of the quality of ranting and sawing the air and other sins which Hamlet conceived of players against. Carol Goodner as Lady Macbeth was colorless in many places, particularly in the brooding and thorny moments that Miss Goodner in the sleep-walking scene, and Mr. Holland in the first, encounters with the world's enemies. The supporting actors were on the whole satisfactory, with special mention of Davis Lewis as Macduff and Alfred Ryder as Malcolm.

One might also constructively criticize the quality of the acting which did not seem to be so exalted of a caliber as Miss Webster set the night before. For example, under the weight of the strain Sir John Falstaff was played so closely that his better moments, Miss Goodner in the sleep-walking scene, and Mr. Holland in the first, encounters with the world's enemies. The supporting actors were on the whole satisfactory, with special mention of Davis Lewis as Macduff and Alfred Ryder as Malcolm.

One might also constructively criticize the quality of the acting which did not seem to be so exalted of a caliber as Miss Webster set the night before. For example, under the weight of the strain Sir John Falstaff was played so closely that his better moments, Miss Goodner in the sleep-walking scene, and Mr. Holland in the first, encounters with the world's enemies. The supporting actors were on the whole satisfactory, with special mention of Davis Lewis as Macduff and Alfred Ryder as Malcolm.

One might also constructively criticize the quality of the acting which did not seem to be so exalted of a caliber as Miss Webster set the night before. For example, under the weight of the strain Sir John Falstaff was played so closely that his better moments, Miss Goodner in the sleep-walking scene, and Mr. Holland in the first, encounters with the world's enemies. The supporting actors were on the whole satisfactory, with special mention of Davis Lewis as Macduff and Alfred Ryder as Malcolm.

One might also constructively criticize the quality of the acting which did not seem to be so exalted of a caliber as Miss Webster set the night before. For example, under the weight of the strain Sir John Falstaff was played so closely that his better moments, Miss Goodner in the sleep-walking scene, and Mr. Holland in the first, encounters with the world's enemies. The supporting actors were on the whole satisfactory, with special mention of Davis Lewis as Macduff and Alfred Ryder as Malcolm.
JERRY ANDERSON
Admittedly "scared to face that crew of girls" in the News office, Jerry Anderson came to Connecticut College News ten years ago to take over the editing of our weekly gazette. Since then, however, Jerry's steady interest in his journalistic efforts has endeared him to the news staff year after year, and he no longer entertains his original apprehensions.

Despite the strain of weekly manipulations in the News office, Jerry has never lost the spring in his step. His youthful outlook he attributes to a decade's contact with the news group.

Home Economics Club
Four Connecticut students attended the Province Workshop meeting of the American Home Economics Association held at Keene, New Hampshire, end of last week. "International Relations" was the theme of the meeting, held at New Hampshire State Teacher's college.

Our delegates included Marjorie Neumann '59, president of our College Home Economics club, Marilyn Crane '59, secretary of the club, Gloria Kwok '51 to represent the foreign students, and Miss Margaret K. Chaney, head of the college home economics department.

The program included meetings, panel discussions on foreign relations and on home economics, and a tour of a furniture factory in Keene.

Surplus Portable Microscopes
We offer a limited quantity of surplus portable microscopes for sale. These are all new, in original cartons and at a reduced price, the price for which they are now being offered.

The portable microscopes are offered subject to prior sale on the following terms: Price $9.00, includes shipping and packing charges. Check or money order should be sent with your order or $2.50 deposit, the microscope to be sent C.O.D. for balance. Any check received after quantity has been sold will be returned promptly.

GIBSON PAGE CO., INC.
Dealers in War Surplus
Box 1130, Rochester 2, N. Y.
THE SPORT SHOP
Exclusive with Us
McMullen
Claire McCadle
Jamison
Carlye Apparel
302 State Street
Tel. 5951

Mrs. C. Johnson's
Campus Laundry
Laundry Collected Every Monday at 6:30 p.m.
Reasonable Rates Satisfaction Guaranteed

Gymangles
by Lois Papa and Diane Roberts

Some of the results of the elections of fall managers are in with the selection of Bunny Brudzinski, Betty Ann Orr, Sally Con- dren, and Sandy Strott, '49 as class hockey managers. Section managers in rifletry ave Maria Blaum, '50, Joyi Colgan, '50, and Pete Hoyt '50 with Judy Adaskin, '51 as head. Tennis class manager are Eleanor Susselle, '32, Ann Wibergson, '31, Jo Shenk, and Bobby Jones '51.

In relation to tennis—games are now scheduled for the class tournaments in order that the matches will be played off by the end of this month. Everyone is asked to please play at the designated of matches. Results of upper class games will place girls in the interclass tournament which will begin on October 23. There will be a list up for all freshmen who wish to try out for their class team.

More tennis news—exciting stu- dent-faculty sets were played on Saturday afternoon. Preps and students struggled side by side which resulted in some good tennis. We would like to announce that there will be another such event on Saturday, Oct. 23.

New rules have been announced by AA regarding required hours of practice prior to playing in interclass games. They are as follows: archery—1 hour; riding—2 hours; hockey, soccer, and speedball—3 hours.

There is a brand new cup soon to be on display for all athletes to gear their activities toward. The Perry Stone Athletic Trophy, donated by the Perry Stone jewelers of New London, will be awarded permanently each year at the AA banquet to the junior who has made the most number of clubs and who has been outstanding in spirit, skill, and enthusiasm.

The Style Shop, Inc.
128 State Street
Complete College Sports Wear Department

The Star Dairy Ice Cream Bar
Just Down the Hill from the College

Overheard at a counter—
"Holy to Ralagh! "Snows hot fondle maiden is collecting."

We Deliver

Record Players—Home Radios—Car Radios

We carry General Electric, Senora and Motorola Radios and Hobby Supplies

Your gay young shoe
at such an easy price

10.95

C. & L. Radio Service

14 Church St.

Tel. 4835

We Make Repairs on:

New London 3317

Patronize your advertisers

Sanding of Boston"

Mondo's

Dining, Dancing, Bowling
10 Brunswick Alleys

Dancing every night

File & Mondo's

Grill Casino

Dine and Dance

Boiton, Conn.

"Where the Gang Gets Together"

The运动用品店

McMullen

Claire McCadle

Jamison

Carlye Apparel

302 State Street

Tel. 5951

Mrs. C. Johnson’s

Campus Laundry

Laundry Collected Every Monday at 6:30 p.m.

Reasonable Rates Satisfaction Guaranteed

Gymangles

by Lois Papa and Diane Roberts

Some of the results of the elections of fall managers are in with the selection of Bunny Brudzinski, Betty Ann Orr, Sally Cond- ren, and Sandy Strott, '49 as class hockey managers. Section managers in rifletry are Maria Blaum, '50, Joyi Colgan, '50, and Pete Hoyt '50 with Judy Adaskin, '51 as head. Tennis class manager are Eleanor Susselle, '32, Ann Wibergson, '31, Jo Shenk, and Bobby Jones '51.

In relation to tennis—games are now scheduled for the class tournaments in order that the matches will be played off by the end of this month. Everyone is asked to please play at the designated time. Results of upper class games will place girls in the interclass tournament which will begin on October 23. There will be a list up for all freshmen who wish to try out for their class team.

More tennis news—exciting stu- dent-faculty sets were played on Saturday afternoon. Preps and students struggled side by side which resulted in some good tennis. We would like to announce that there will be another such event on Saturday, Oct. 23.

New rules have been announced by AA regarding required hours of practice prior to playing in interclass games. They are as follows: archery—1 hour; riding—2 hours; hockey, soccer, and speedball—3 hours.

There is a brand new cup soon to be on display for all athletes to gear their activities toward. The Perry Stone Athletic Trophy, donated by the Perry Stone jewelers of New London, will be awarded permanently each year at the AA banquet to the junior who has made the most number of clubs and who has been outstanding in spirit, skill, and enthusiasm.

The Style Shop, Inc.
128 State Street

Complete College Sports Wear Department

The Star Dairy Ice Cream Bar
Just Down the Hill from the College

Overheard at a counter—
"Holy to Ralagh! "Snows hot fondle maiden is collecting."

We Deliver

Record Players—Home Radios—Car Radios

We carry General Electric, Senora and Motorola Radios and Hobby Supplies

Your gay young shoe
at such an easy price

10.95

C. & L. Radio Service

14 Church St.

Tel. 4835

We Make Repairs on:

New London 3317

Patronize your advertisers

Sanding of Boston"

Mondo's

Dining, Dancing, Bowling
10 Brunswick Alleys

Dancing every night

File & Mondo's
Catch on Campus

by Anne Rinaldi

Your reporter vows that there is no better way to know CC than to delve through the files in the News office. For, during the last ten years, many things have happened that we do not know about. So let's go and take a look at this Connecticut college.

"Way back in 1938, when most of us were trying to decide what kind of a doll we wanted for Christmas, the byword here at school was "welcome '42"... in passing, we see that we are lucky now, at least, one-quarter of us are, because there was a freshman boarding day... the weather is rather devious, someone wrote, and we realize again that CC is rather devious, someone dressed in tweeds and tweeds.

In '39 brought Clifton Fadiman to campus for the Sykes auditorium is being built... it was hinted that there was a presidential candidate spoke down town, and students were excused from the 8 and 9 clock classes... this year Miss Boozum, Mr. Miner and Mr. Gagne were among the new faculty members... Joe Fritts gave a concert.

Flash... in gog paper of the year, the Captive off Campus writer declared that all she found off campus were camped upon students... Service League initiated a coupon for theRomeo, and students were knitting for the Red Cross... one headline: Mr. Floyd Haddad... here is starting one: Mt. Holyoke girls are unable to take baths or wash again, we begin to look forward to just so many shopping days before Christmas... these are the little things which have made CC important to us so far, and so many of the other things haven't been mentioned... the moonlight sings...the convocation lectures...the faculty's Schiaparelli of last year...the midwinter forms and amalgamation meetings... look, they had all of these things ten years ago.

In 1942 Doctor Detler and Mr. Quimby arrived on campus...

Mrs. Roosevelt spoke here on November 11... in '43 a military corps was formed on campus...

In '44 Jerry Anderson, friend and printer of the News joined the service... CC alumni joined the WAVES and the WACS... in '45 Wig and Candle presented Claudius.

Dr. Daghlian celebrated his 25th year on the faculty in '46... Ada Maiden was elected president of Student Government... the arrival of drama courses was discussed and anticipated in "What do you Think."... Miss Alter lost her hub cap on the hill... Thursday women... Jose Iturbi gave a concert... Wendell Winkle, the Republican presidential candidate spoke down town, and students were excused from the 8 and 9 clock classes... this year Miss Boozum, Mr. Miner and Mr. Gagne were among the new faculty members... Joe Fritts gave a concert.

The year '39 brings Clifton Fadiman to campus for the Sykes auditorium is being built... it was hinted that there was a presidential candidate spoke down town, and students were excused from the 8 and 9 clock classes... this year Miss Boozum, Mr. Miner and Mr. Gagne were among the new faculty members... Joe Fritts gave a concert.

Flash... in gog paper of the year, the Captive off Campus writer declared that all she found off campus were camped upon students... Service League initiated a coupon for theRomeo, and students were knitting for the Red Cross... one headline: Mr. Floyd Haddad... here is starting one: Mt. Holyoke girls are unable to take baths or wash again, we begin to look forward to just so many shopping days before Christmas... these are the little things which have made CC important to us so far, and so many of the other things haven't been mentioned... the moonlight sings...the convocation lectures...the faculty's Schiaparelli of last year...the midwinter forms and amalgamation meetings... look, they had all of these things ten years ago.

"I smoked CHESTERFIELDS between scenes while making my new picture, JOHNNY BELINDA, they're M milder...

It's MY cigarette.

Jane Wyman

STARR'S

Always trade at

STARR'S

AS CONNECTICUT COLLEGE STUDENTS HAVE DONE BEFORE YOU

- Drugs
- Prescriptions
- Films
- Toilet Goods
- Magazines
- Cigarettes

for

FILMS PROCESSED BY MASTER PHOTO FINISHERS

IT'S HERE WHERE YOU HAVE A CHARGE ACCOUNT
AND YOUR CHECKS ARE CASHED

STARR BROS., INC.

- Rexall Drug Store

PHONE 1663

TWO DELIVERIES TO DORM DAILY

Joyce Hodgens, ABC GIRL of Penn State says-

"I smoke Chesterfield because they are the right cigarette for me. They're MILDER and their taste and my taste agree."

MORE COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE CHESTERFIELDS
than any other Cigarette... BY GREAT NATIONAL SURVEY