Gaudiani to Step Down as College President

By ROB KNAKE

editor-in-chief

The Connecticut College Board of Trustees is preparing to accept the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. According to the Board of Trustees, the decision was made after a lengthy review of the president’s leadership and the overall performance of the college. The Board has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The College Voice • Volume XXV • Number 5
Friday, October 13, 2000

President's Note

By COLEY LARD

Chairman of the Board of Trustees, President's Office

I am pleased to announce that the Connecticut College Board of Trustees has accepted the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. The Board of Trustees has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The Connecticut College Board of Trustees is preparing to accept the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. According to the Board of Trustees, the decision was made after a lengthy review of the president’s leadership and the overall performance of the college. The Board has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The College Voice • Volume XXV • Number 5
Friday, October 13, 2000

President's Note

By COLEY LARD

Chairman of the Board of Trustees, President's Office

I am pleased to announce that the Connecticut College Board of Trustees has accepted the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. The Board of Trustees has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The Connecticut College Board of Trustees is preparing to accept the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. According to the Board of Trustees, the decision was made after a lengthy review of the president’s leadership and the overall performance of the college. The Board has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The College Voice • Volume XXV • Number 5
Friday, October 13, 2000

President's Note

By COLEY LARD

Chairman of the Board of Trustees, President's Office

I am pleased to announce that the Connecticut College Board of Trustees has accepted the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. The Board of Trustees has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The Connecticut College Board of Trustees is preparing to accept the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. According to the Board of Trustees, the decision was made after a lengthy review of the president’s leadership and the overall performance of the college. The Board has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The College Voice • Volume XXV • Number 5
Friday, October 13, 2000

President's Note

By COLEY LARD

Chairman of the Board of Trustees, President's Office

I am pleased to announce that the Connecticut College Board of Trustees has accepted the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. The Board of Trustees has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The Connecticut College Board of Trustees is preparing to accept the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. According to the Board of Trustees, the decision was made after a lengthy review of the president’s leadership and the overall performance of the college. The Board has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The College Voice • Volume XXV • Number 5
Friday, October 13, 2000

President's Note

By COLEY LARD

Chairman of the Board of Trustees, President's Office

I am pleased to announce that the Connecticut College Board of Trustees has accepted the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. The Board of Trustees has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The Connecticut College Board of Trustees is preparing to accept the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. According to the Board of Trustees, the decision was made after a lengthy review of the president’s leadership and the overall performance of the college. The Board has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The College Voice • Volume XXV • Number 5
Friday, October 13, 2000

President's Note

By COLEY LARD

Chairman of the Board of Trustees, President's Office

I am pleased to announce that the Connecticut College Board of Trustees has accepted the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. The Board of Trustees has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The Connecticut College Board of Trustees is preparing to accept the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. According to the Board of Trustees, the decision was made after a lengthy review of the president’s leadership and the overall performance of the college. The Board has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The College Voice • Volume XXV • Number 5
Friday, October 13, 2000

President's Note

By COLEY LARD

Chairman of the Board of Trustees, President's Office

I am pleased to announce that the Connecticut College Board of Trustees has accepted the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. The Board of Trustees has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The Connecticut College Board of Trustees is preparing to accept the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. According to the Board of Trustees, the decision was made after a lengthy review of the president’s leadership and the overall performance of the college. The Board has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The College Voice • Volume XXV • Number 5
Friday, October 13, 2000

President's Note

By COLEY LARD

Chairman of the Board of Trustees, President's Office

I am pleased to announce that the Connecticut College Board of Trustees has accepted the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. The Board of Trustees has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The Connecticut College Board of Trustees is preparing to accept the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. According to the Board of Trustees, the decision was made after a lengthy review of the president’s leadership and the overall performance of the college. The Board has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.

The College Voice • Volume XXV • Number 5
Friday, October 13, 2000

President's Note

By COLEY LARD

Chairman of the Board of Trustees, President's Office

I am pleased to announce that the Connecticut College Board of Trustees has accepted the resignation of President Claire E. Gaudiani, effective immediately. The Board of Trustees has appointed former President of Harvard College, Drew Gilpin Faust, as the interim president until a permanent successor can be found.
Editorial/Opinion

Fall Weekend: Alumni/Parents a Poor Combination

This weekend roughly marks the one-year anniversary of my first editorial in The College Voice. This fall, in particular, has been a time of change. The new administration is in place, the new student body is starting to settle in, and the old traditions are being reinterpreted.

However, we question the decision to make tuition increases and to cut back on student services. It is unfortunate that the new administration has decided to make these changes. We feel that the new administration has not done enough to listen to the students and to understand their needs. We urge the new administration to reconsider its decisions and to work with the students to find a solution.

To Vote For Nader?

Point! That day every eighteen years or so, the cows cross the road, and the cows do declaim. This trend is the most Liberal group, and also the trend to the most disinterested group. This is because the two parties in the United States are in each other's way, and so they do declaim.

However, this year's election features Ralph Nader, the consumer advocate who is running as a third party candidate. Nader's platform is centered around issues such as campaign finance reform, the environment, and social justice. While his presence on the ballot may not swing the election, Nader's candidacy does bring attention to these important issues.

Counterpoint! In light of the first two mind-numbing Gore Bush debates, it is no surprise that the best choice to cast one of our votes is to stay at home. But Nader's campaign is not without its merits.

In the 2000 election cycle, Nader's platform has focused on issues such as campaign finance reform, the environment, and social justice. While his presence on the ballot may not win the election for Nader, his campaign does bring attention to these important issues.

Letters to the Editor

Alumni Actively Committed to Conn College Students

As a staff person here at the college, and as someone who is very involved in alumni and parents, I feel that The College Voice does an excellent job of covering these topics. The article about the Conn College students who are actively committed to helping their peers is a great example of this.

We do not fully agree with the decision to merge the two traditionally separate weekends for parents and alumni. While we understand the reasoning behind this decision, we believe that the分开 weekend format allows for parents and alumni to participate in separate activities, in different atmospheres. Moreover, we believe that this分开 format would allow students to fully enjoy both events.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Historical Society Responds to Claire's Claim of Insignificance

In the article, "Conn Hosts Community Development Summit," there is a discussion of the NOLC's projects in New London's Fort Triumph neighborhood. In particular, President Gaudiani is quoted as saying, "This was pretty much the thing that was one hundred years ago an Italian neighborhood. According to the historical society, there are (no) properties that are historically significant. It is obvious to President Gaudiani that it is interesting to have the National Park Service be involved but that the New London neighborhood is an area that is historically and architecturally significant. The other New London neighborhood is quite different, it is a different style of the various houses. This neighborhood, saved, restored, was very different."

Letters to the Editor are due by 5:00 pm on the Wednesday preceding publication. The College Voice reserves the right to edit letters for clarity and to limit the length. No signatures of anonymous letters will be printed unless specified in the letter. Letters should be no longer than 500 words, and must include a phone number for verification.

Letters to the Editor

legal

Policies

CORRECTION

In the September 22nd issue of The College Voice, the article entitled "Student Levels of Satisfaction Varied After Financial Open Forum," Becky Pappas was incorrectly credited as the organizer of the student rally. A group of concerned students organized the rally.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Historical Society Responds to Claire’s Claim of Insignificance

In the article, "Conn Hosts Community Development Summit," there is a discussion of the NOLC's projects in New London's Fort Triumph neighborhood. In particular, President Gaudiani is quoted as saying, "This was pretty much the thing that was one hundred years ago an Italian neighborhood. According to the historical society, there are (no) properties that are historically significant. It is obvious to President Gaudiani that it is interesting to have the National Park Service be involved but that the New London neighborhood is an area that is historically and architecturally significant. The other New London neighborhood is quite different, it is a different style of the various houses. This neighborhood, saved, restored, was very different."

Letters to the Editor are due by 5:00 pm on the Wednesday preceding publication. The College Voice reserves the right to edit letters for clarity and to limit the length. No signatures of anonymous letters will be printed unless specified in the letter. Letters should be no longer than 500 words, and must include a phone number for verification.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

legal

Policies

CORRECTION

In the September 22nd issue of The College Voice, the article entitled "Student Levels of Satisfaction Varied After Financial Open Forum," Becky Pappas was incorrectly credited as the organizer of the student rally. A group of concerned students organized the rally.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Historical Society Responds to Claire’s Claim of Insignificance

In the article, "Conn Hosts Community Development Summit," there is a discussion of the NOLC's projects in New London's Fort Triumph neighborhood. In particular, President Gaudiani is quoted as saying, "This was pretty much the thing that was one hundred years ago an Italian neighborhood. According to the historical society, there are (no) properties that are historically significant. It is obvious to President Gaudiani that it is interesting to have the National Park Service be involved but that the New London neighborhood is an area that is historically and architecturally significant. The other New London neighborhood is quite different, it is a different style of the various houses. This neighborhood, saved, restored, was very different."

Letters to the Editor are due by 5:00 pm on the Wednesday preceding publication. The College Voice reserves the right to edit letters for clarity and to limit the length. No signatures of anonymous letters will be printed unless specified in the letter. Letters should be no longer than 500 words, and must include a phone number for verification.
It's Time to Stop on your Head

David Ryd

Viewpoint

How can one not care? I have heard a lot of people say "I don't care. The world is a mess. The government can't do anything right. It seems to me that if you - live in the US, went to school there, wear clothes from there, have a car, a house, a job, a family, etc., then you must care about something. It's too bad we don't care enough.

This presidential race, according to Brian Wainwright (CC '99), "is the most exciting or charac teristic of what's going on in the US today."

As Americans we don't have a choice but to care, don't we?

As a student, I find that this isn't the case for everyone.

Upon arrival at the polls, I quickly became lost in an array of political campaigns, the screams of politicians, and the allure of new technologies. I was left feeling overwhelmed and confused. The candidates, their slogans, and the polls all seemed to blend together, making it difficult to distinguish one candidate from another.

Despite the overwhelming nature of the campaign, I managed to make sense of it all. I began by focusing on the issues, rather than the candidates themselves. This allowed me to see the bigger picture and understand the implications of each candidate's stance on the issues.

As I continued to learn more about the candidates, I realized that their backgrounds and experiences played a significant role in shaping their views on the issues. This insight helped me to better understand the candidates and their policies.

In conclusion, while it can be overwhelming to navigate the political landscape, focusing on the issues is a valuable strategy for making sense of the campaign. By doing so, we can better understand the candidates and their positions, and ultimately make more informed choices at the polls.
The College Voice
Arts & Entertainment
PAGE 4 FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2000
Two Conn Student Photographers Featured in New MUGZ Exhibition
By JESSIE VANGROFSKY

A coffee shop is not usually considered a place to find art displayed. Yet, that's exactly what happens at Bennie's Beanery in New London, has done. The exhibit featured work by two Conn students, Matthew Smith '00 and Amanda Rogers '02, as well as two other Connecticut artists, Kimi Katona and Katrina McGaug.

The exhibit, which runs through the month of October, and an opening reception on October 17, from 7 to 9 p.m, features photographs from each artist. Each artist's work is printed on 11 x 14 giclee paper, which is made up of a type of photographic paper that has been, using digital printing for fine art. The features on the giclee paper, "there is so much beauty in the surrounding countryside,"" said Smith.

Many of the photographs were taken by Matthew Smith's father, who owns a photography business. "I'm so happy for him that he can get his work out there," added Smith. "This is his passion," he stated.

Katrina McGaug is a self-taught photographer, who learned how to take photos last year. "I've been really good at it," she said.

Her pictures are "exclusively of people, and a wide variety of personalities," she said. "She's really good at taking pictures of people, and a wide variety of personalities," she said. "She's really good at taking pictures of people, and a wide variety of personalities," she said.

Koral performed in the soulful vocals and singer-songwriter storytelling that Koral attended, the performance is "so beautiful," said Rogers.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Amanda Rogers '02, from Seekonk, MA, is one of Smith's favorite photographers. "I love the way she takes pictures," Rogers said.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Sarah "Jealousy Sucks" Koral, Performed for Me, and I Liked It Just Fine

Katrina McGuire.

By IAN ABRAMS

On Friday, September 24th, NYC singer-songwriter Bari Koral performed in the campus's Mostly Music concert. The concert featured over 100 songs from Bari Koral's latest album. The audience included many students, who attended, the performance

Koral performed in the soulful vocals and singer-songwriter storytelling that Koral attended, the performance is "so beautiful," said Rogers.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Amanda Rogers '02, from Seekonk, MA, is one of Smith's favorite photographers. "I love the way she takes pictures," Rogers said.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Sarah "Jealousy Sucks" Koral, Performed for Me, and I Liked It Just Fine

Katrina McGuire.

By IAN ABRAMS

On Friday, September 24th, NYC singer-songwriter Bari Koral performed in the campus's Mostly Music concert. The concert featured over 100 songs from Bari Koral's latest album. The audience included many students, who attended, the performance

Koral performed in the soulful vocals and singer-songwriter storytelling that Koral attended, the performance is "so beautiful," said Rogers.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Amanda Rogers '02, from Seekonk, MA, is one of Smith's favorite photographers. "I love the way she takes pictures," Rogers said.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Sarah "Jealousy Sucks" Koral, Performed for Me, and I Liked It Just Fine

Katrina McGuire.

By IAN ABRAMS

On Friday, September 24th, NYC singer-songwriter Bari Koral performed in the campus's Mostly Music concert. The concert featured over 100 songs from Bari Koral's latest album. The audience included many students, who attended, the performance

Koral performed in the soulful vocals and singer-songwriter storytelling that Koral attended, the performance is "so beautiful," said Rogers.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Amanda Rogers '02, from Seekonk, MA, is one of Smith's favorite photographers. "I love the way she takes pictures," Rogers said.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Sarah "Jealousy Sucks" Koral, Performed for Me, and I Liked It Just Fine

Katrina McGuire.

By IAN ABRAMS

On Friday, September 24th, NYC singer-songwriter Bari Koral performed in the campus's Mostly Music concert. The concert featured over 100 songs from Bari Koral's latest album. The audience included many students, who attended, the performance

Koral performed in the soulful vocals and singer-songwriter storytelling that Koral attended, the performance is "so beautiful," said Rogers.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Amanda Rogers '02, from Seekonk, MA, is one of Smith's favorite photographers. "I love the way she takes pictures," Rogers said.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Sarah "Jealousy Sucks" Koral, Performed for Me, and I Liked It Just Fine

Katrina McGuire.

By IAN ABRAMS

On Friday, September 24th, NYC singer-songwriter Bari Koral performed in the campus's Mostly Music concert. The concert featured over 100 songs from Bari Koral's latest album. The audience included many students, who attended, the performance

Koral performed in the soulful vocals and singer-songwriter storytelling that Koral attended, the performance is "so beautiful," said Rogers.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Amanda Rogers '02, from Seekonk, MA, is one of Smith's favorite photographers. "I love the way she takes pictures," Rogers said.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Sarah "Jealousy Sucks" Koral, Performed for Me, and I Liked It Just Fine

Katrina McGuire.

By IAN ABRAMS

On Friday, September 24th, NYC singer-songwriter Bari Koral performed in the campus's Mostly Music concert. The concert featured over 100 songs from Bari Koral's latest album. The audience included many students, who attended, the performance

Koral performed in the soulful vocals and singer-songwriter storytelling that Koral attended, the performance is "so beautiful," said Rogers.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Amanda Rogers '02, from Seekonk, MA, is one of Smith's favorite photographers. "I love the way she takes pictures," Rogers said.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Sarah "Jealousy Sucks" Koral, Performed for Me, and I Liked It Just Fine

Katrina McGuire.

By IAN ABRAMS

On Friday, September 24th, NYC singer-songwriter Bari Koral performed in the campus's Mostly Music concert. The concert featured over 100 songs from Bari Koral's latest album. The audience included many students, who attended, the performance

Koral performed in the soulful vocals and singer-songwriter storytelling that Koral attended, the performance is "so beautiful," said Rogers.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Amanda Rogers '02, from Seekonk, MA, is one of Smith's favorite photographers. "I love the way she takes pictures," Rogers said.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Sarah "Jealousy Sucks" Koral, Performed for Me, and I Liked It Just Fine

Katrina McGuire.

By IAN ABRAMS

On Friday, September 24th, NYC singer-songwriter Bari Koral performed in the campus's Mostly Music concert. The concert featured over 100 songs from Bari Koral's latest album. The audience included many students, who attended, the performance

Koral performed in the soulful vocals and singer-songwriter storytelling that Koral attended, the performance is "so beautiful," said Rogers.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Amanda Rogers '02, from Seekonk, MA, is one of Smith's favorite photographers. "I love the way she takes pictures," Rogers said.

"I think there's going to be a lot of people who will remember this," added Rogers.

Sarah "Jealousy Sucks" Koral, Performed for Me, and I Liked It Just Fine

Katrina McGuire.
Pat Mcgee: Harmonizing Their Way to the Top
By JESSE ERDHEIM

The band brought its lively acoustic rock to town New London, so please take the short drive to the Secret Theatre to experience this up-and-coming act. For the Voice, contact us at x2812.

Band members included Christy Daponte, who demands repayment of Fred Durst's shrieking raps. The band covered Pink Floyd's "Another Brick in the Wall" and the Rolling Stones' "Shine." Suburban Korn and Good Charlotte, members of 128 Street, have a tributes to the plight of the men and women, and are tributes to the plight of the immigrant artist, but with luck they will lose their foothold in the new New London, so please take the opportunity to visit.

700 W. Main St.

For the price, lively change experiencing an upgrade ahead of time, the Center for International Studies, for everything else the year's... Contact us now if you're interested in studying abroad, they've...

The College Voice

Call for FREE info pack or visit us on-line

Coffee Cafe

20% discount with this ad. Exp. offers, expires 12/31/00

COFFEE

Fine coffees & tea, soups & salads

Spring Break 2001
Jamaica, Cancun, Florida, Barbados, Bahamas and Padre: from $99
Now Hiring Campus Reps: $$$

Free Meals & Drink...

Book by Nov. 3rd.

Call for FREE info pack or visit us on-line

sunsplashtours.com 1-800-426-7710

Thinking of starting a business? Strategic & Tactical Planning Consultant with 15 years varied small businesses experience offers free consultation... Call 800-691-0951.

Another very lovely payment offer.

The College Voice

"Get in the trenches."

If you are interested in being a photographer, for the Voice, ranked as a #1...
Flock Theater Captures O'Neil Once Again
By KATIE WASSELL

I set out to listen to the new Barenaked Ladies album, Maroon, recorded under the stewardship of Flock Theater. I am not an avid fan of the band's earlier work, but they were recommended by a good friend who believed that the new album deserved attention. I was curious to see if the music would live up to the hype and if I could appreciate the band's musical style.

The album, titled "Maroon," features a mix of rock and pop influences. The opening track, "Occasionally," sets the tone for the rest of the album, with its upbeat tempo and catchy melody. The vocals are strong and the instrumentation is well-balanced, creating a cohesive sound throughout the album.

One of the standout tracks on the album is "What a Good Feeling." The song features a cleverly written lyric that is both humorous and relatable. The music is upbeat and the overall vibe is one of positivity and hope. "What a Good Feeling" is a perfect representation of the band's musical style, combining elements of rock, pop, and even a touch of country.

Another song that I found particularly enjoyable was "Steve's Song." The song tells the story of a man named Steve who has lost his faith in love. The lyrics are poignant and the music is emotionally charged, making it a powerful piece. "Steve's Song" showcases the band's ability to write songs that are both relatable and thought-provoking.

Overall, "Maroon" is a solid album that offers a fresh perspective on the band's musical style. With its mix of catchy hooks, strong vocals, and well-crafted lyrics, the album is sure to appeal to fans of all ages. It is a testament to the band's continued growth and evolution as a musical act.
Beyond The Hill

Latest Israeli, Palestinian outbreak closer to Basement U.

By LYNN ANN ANDERSON

The Lowell (Mass.)

"It is the worst it has ever been ... since the Six Days War in 1967." - John Anthony, missionary to Israel and Permanent Resident

The College Voice has been recognized for excellence for three years running by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, with last year's efforts garnering the highest recognition, and business affairs in support.

The Voice can be found in libraries and newsstands nationwide. For a complete list of participation and all online information, please visit www.CollegeVoice.com yes: Please sign me up for a one-year subscription to The College Voice. I have enclosed a $35 check or money order for twenty-five issues of the newspaper.

For $35, find out everything about life at Connecticut College with 25 issues of the Voice.

The College Voice

Please note checks payable to The College Voice.
Politics

Green Party Candidate Ralph Nader Rises to Conn, Draws Enthusiastic Crowds

Nader Speaks About the Amalgamation of Politics and Big Business

By COLE WARD

Ralph Nader arrived on campus last Tuesday for his speaking engagement at Connecticut College. The subject of his address was democracy. At the end of his lecture, he was granted a standing ovation.

Before Nader arrived, a number of students were seen chanting outside the auditorium. This was not out of support, but due to Nader’s status as a controversial figure. Nader was pacified by the positive reception he received from the students of Conn.

"I am encouraged by the enthusiasm shown," Nader said. "I believe in choosing a lesser evil, and I believe that the people of America have a right to choose.

"I believe in the power of the people, and I believe in the potential of the people to change the direction of this country."

Nader went on to stress the importance of the Green Party in the current political climate. He spoke about the need for a third party to challenge the two major parties, and he advocated for a more inclusive and representative political system.

"The Green Party is a party of change," Nader said. "We are a party of hope, and we are a party of progress."

The lecture lasted for about an hour, and was followed by a question-and-answer session. Nader answered questions on a variety of topics, including climate change, the war in Iraq, and the role of money in politics.

"We need to work together to create a better world," Nader concluded. "We need to work together to create a world that is fair, just, and sustainable."

Politics

Connecticut College

Politics at Connecticut College may not always be the most exciting, but it is certainly an important part of the college experience. In fact, politics is a major factor in the decision-making process of many students who wish to pursue a career in politics or related fields. It is important to understand the different political dynamics that exist on campus and to be aware of the various opportunities that are available to students. There are several ways to become involved in politics on campus, and it is important to explore these options in order to find the one that is right for you.

One way to become involved in politics on campus is to join a political club. There are several political clubs on campus, and each one has its own unique focus. For example, the Connecticut College Republicans have a strong presence on campus, and they often host events and guest speakers. The Connecticut College Democrats are another popular club, and they too host events and meetings. There are also several other political clubs on campus, including the Connecticut College Environmentalists and the Connecticut College Libertarians.

Another way to become involved in politics on campus is to run for office. There are a variety of positions available, and these positions can be filled by students from any political background. There are also several opportunities to run for office that are open to students who do not have a strong interest in politics.

Finally, there are several opportunities to become involved in politics on campus without running for office. For example, there are several student organizations that focus on specific issues, such as environmentalism or social justice. These organizations often host events and meetings, and they provide a great opportunity to learn about the issues that are important to you.

It is important to understand the different political dynamics that exist on campus and to be aware of the various opportunities that are available to students. It is also important to explore these options in order to find the one that is right for you.
Conn President to Leave Proud, Strong Legacy
continued from page 1

the community, students with first-hand... College Voice

If you are interested in obtaining information from the newspaper, contact us at 2812.

They are harder to get. So, whenever journal articles. They have to have rigorous requirements, and that's change, there are going to be more

If you are interested in obtaining information from the newspaper, contact us at 2812.

Connecticut College has arguably the best-conceived undergraduate

We are an area school and having good
in the market, at

Connecticut College boasts a state-of-the-art observatory,

The Goodwin-Niering Center was lauded immediately. Prothe United States, "The percentage of modern," Gaudiani spearheaded what has come that helped accelerate its rise through that ought to be part of our academic

In 1997, Gaudiani took her zeal building was was met with resistance from the resign, Dr. Gaudiani said, "Fund-

In 1998, college's edition, Gaudiani. A decision to purchase research and development facil-

FSCC Focuses Attention on the Tenure Process people in the hard sciences, he

Kevin Wilkinson '01 a chemist-

The College Voice

of some my colleagues around the

Matthew B. Kessler

The only official issue that we were压制 issues from certain evalua-

The effort to balance the budget this semester

President's Office in response to
to 3-2 a couple of things happened."

It was said to be that Connecticut

Kevin Wilkinson '01 a chemist-

President's Office in response to
to 3-2 a couple of things happened."

It was said to be that Connecticut

It will have probably tried to meet

Millenial Visions' concert at 10

Historical Collection in the Old Neighborhood, the

The evidence of that pace.

Putnam, "I think what we saw in

In the market, at

The evidence of that pace.

Putnam, "I think what we saw in

In the market, at

The evidence of that pace.

Putnam, "I think what we saw in

In the market, at

The evidence of that pace.

Putnam, "I think what we saw in

In the market, at

The evidence of that pace.

Putnam, "I think what we saw in

In the market, at

The evidence of that pace.

Putnam, "I think what we saw in

In the market, at

The evidence of that pace.

Putnam, "I think what we saw in
Your period is late!

Do you:

A. Panic ?!
B. Panic ?!?
C. Call the Pregnancy Support Center

YOU'RE SCARED. IT'S ALL YOU CAN THINK ABOUT. WE CAN HELP!

- Free pregnancy tests & counsel
- Accurate information on your options
- Information on STD's. Confidential, caring, non-pressured
- Counsel on healthy relationships

- 800-395-HELP (448-2990)

Laurelwood Rd. is off RT. 1 between Northeast Karate & The Spot Restaurant. WALK-INS WELCOME!

Empowering people to make informed choices!
Women's Soccer Set for Late-Season Run

After Defeating Wesleyan

BY ERIKA SENSSENE

Through a 1-0 win over Westfield State University, the Mounties have cemented their place in the NCAA's New England Small College Athletic Conference (NESCAC) play. To do so they must keep up the momentum and continue their current seven-game winning streak that has vaulted them into first place in the conference. Wesleyan, they defeated in five of their first seven contests, is 0-6-1 in NESCAC play.

"We've been focusing on one game at a time," said head coach Emily Huffman. "We've had some really good performances. The defense has been really solid all season, and we've been able to score goals when we need to." Huffman also mentioned that her team has been able to maintain possession of the ball for long periods, which has helped them control games and keep their opponents guessing.

With the win over Wesleyan, the Mounties move to 9-1-1 overall and 5-0 in conference play. They will now turn their attention to their next opponents, which are yet to be announced. Huffman expects a tough battle ahead, but she is confident that her team can handle any challenge that comes their way. She also mentioned that her team has been playing well against teams from other conferences, which bodes well for their upcoming games.

"We've been able to show that we can compete with any team," Huffman said. "We're looking forward to seeing how we fare against some of the more established programs." She also expressed her gratitude to the fans for their support, adding that it has been a key factor in the team's success.

"We've been able to create a real buzz around the neighborhood, and we couldn't have done it without our fans," Huffman said. "They've been amazing, and we're looking forward to seeing more of them at our next game."
Men’s Soccer Set for Crucial NESCAC Game vs. Bowdoin

By Mathew B. Kessler

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.

Men’s soccer hopes to improve to 2-2 record this Saturday vs. Bowdoin. On Harvard Green, Bowdoin enters with an 8-1 (3-1) record, and the Camels’ team is one of a few teams that could knock them off this weekend.

The second half of the season so far has been the team’s best, and the midfield, led by captain Keith Forman ’03 and Def. Mike ‘03, has been the key to our success. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the team has been able to control their fans for the entire season. The midfield has been able to control the ball, and the defense has been able to control the ball.