College Democrats and Republicans Square Off in Debate

By JIAN PAOLUCCI

During Fall Weekend, the College Democrats squared off against the College Republicans in a debate... registration endeavor, McGill and Kaufman will also be conducting extensive research on the voting habits of...herself. Furthermore, the College Republicans noted that George W. Bush has delivered on his promises to not only push on the war on terrorism but also to further cut taxes, which helps the nation as a whole. Bush plans to continue to cut taxes in order to help stimulate the economy. The Republicans believe that Bush's strong economic policies would help our economy recover from recession.

According to Professor Oxorn, the project is still in the "have-a-dream" stage, as the proposal has yet to pass through the various committees in the student Senate (FSC, Faculty Steering Committee, EPC, Educational Planning Committee, and Student Senate). The center was included in the Strategic Plan as "a place on-campus for intellectual dialogue to occur on other subjects."

Abigail Gierser
Assistant Editor

A&E

This Friday at 9pm in Palmer Auditorium, 35 Flaxing will present Our Little Sister as part of Conno’s OdeLyric performance series.

SPORTS

Get Two perspectives on the Sci...Paul Carter and Charlie Widdis. Also, check out the Career sports action.

NEWS

The SGA endorsed the Strategic Planning Committee’s revised document...latter under President Faustman opposed it.

Diversity Lecture Focuses on the Creation of Ethnic Center on Campus

By EULALIA GRIMMAN

The idea for the center was born as a response to...on-campus bias...The idea for the center was born as a response to... increase in bias incidents, particularly those involving racism, prejudice and, of course, sexism. "Jumping in" on this Social and Anti-Racism (SARAC) movement, Paul Kaufman and Mccllister...first woman of color to be appointed to the College's faculty. While not denying that this would...middle-class students, leading to effectively no diversity of experiences and perspectives. Additionally, Bush was the first president in the United States whose schools are still offering

David Dorfman Offers Conn His Dance Expertise

To Katharine Guzman

While David Dorfman first connected to Connecticut College campus, the faculty member struck him. That was in 1976, however, when he was a freshman at Central Connecticut State University. He then continued his education in dance at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where he received a degree in business. Dorfman decided to leave the traditional dancing path he walked since childhood when he was a logical choice because he almost flunked out of business school due to his involvement in so many dance competitions.

Dorfman commented on his decision to switch from business major to dance; "(Growing up) I always wanted to dance, but never said the word 'dancer'," he decided to apply for a permanent teaching position. Connecticut College was the only institution to which he applied. He has already worked with dancers in the competitive class and in the New London community, and he feels very comfortable on the campus because of the large amount of space that has already been offered here. As a professor, Dorfman plans to contribute "human" to the Connecticut College community. He hopes to form relationships with his students and colleagues and to share his experiences while learning from those around him. Dorfman continues to run his dance company, and he would not interfere with his teaching responsibilities, "I like committing like...a job that involves himself, and his classes will be no exception to this rule.

Conn Student and Alumns Promote Voting

By DEBRA PEARL

Conn Pearls

Over the next few weeks, Connecticut College student article Tyler McGill ’05 and alumnus John W. "Bud" Kreiser ’94 will participate in The Wisconsin Project, which aims to counteract the traditionally low voter turnout in the state. Registering voters is one of the crucial battleground states for the 2004 election.

The project was developed by RADAR International, a "national organization" standing for Reestablishing Accountability in Democracy Through Action and Research. This foundation was established in 1999; Dorfman and Kreiser in an effort to both "register and educate low-income, low-socioeconomic status and ethnic minority...in the form of their struggle...Kaufman was one of the first women of color to be appointed to the College’s faculty.

During the 2006 election, only 25% of those eligible registered to vote in Wisconsin. This造林 turnout was only 19.4% of all...McGill and Kaufman will also be conducting extensive research on the voting habits of...numbers, it has a history of voting for Democratic candidates...population could very well change the final results in a close election. After...Acephalous...there are...Adolph Rappaport...campaigns to encourage and inform voters, a push that may improve voting in the future. The center...national委宣传部 was established to coordinate and...dentists, and the idea of pushing his limits always attracted him. Dance combines the body’s limits always attract...and..."The center was included in the Strategic Plan under the "Pluralism and Diversity in the Academic Program" section, which aims to enhance the college’s academic and organizational structures to provide new opportunities to address issues of pluralism and diversity." Article 1.3.1 of the Strategic Plan, under the "Policy Change" section, states that "the college..."of the separation of church and state...during the elections.

David Dorfman, a graduate of the University of Illinois, is helping improve America's oldest college, his Conn, and he believes that every student is getting a good education in the process. He said that it was a logical choice because he almost flunked out of business school due to his involvement in so many dance competitions.

"In the past, vote registration endeavors have required students to come to the Campus Center and scholastically, to participate in our democratic system. According to Kaufman and McGill, this has been a practice that has not properly funded and that it does not allow schools to make the necessary changes. They pointed out that 30 of America’s schools are still offering...he said. As a child, Dorfman was involved in competitive dancing, so he says his interest and the idea of pushing his limits always attracted him. Dance combines the body’s limits always attract-...cost to the campus as well as to the New London community, and it feels very comfortable on the campus because of the large amount of space that has already been offered here. As a professor, Dorfman plans to contribute "human" to the Connecticut College community. He hopes to form relationships with his students and colleagues and to share his experiences while learning from those around him. Dorfman continues to run his dance company, and he would not interfere with his teaching responsibilities, "I like committing like...will be no exception to this rule.

Conn Pearls

Over the next few weeks, Connecticut College student article Tyler McGill ’05 and alumnus John W. "Bud" Kreiser ’94 will participate in The Wisconsin Project, which aims to counteract the traditionally low voter turnout in the state. Registering voters is one of the crucial battleground states for the 2004 election.

The project was developed by RADAR International, a "national organization" standing for Reestablishing Accountability in Democracy Through Action and Research. This foundation was established in 1999; Dorfman and Kreiser in an effort to both "register and educate low-income, low-socioeconomic status and ethnic minority...in the form of their struggle...Kaufman was one of the first women of color to be appointed to the College’s faculty.

During the 2006 election, only 25% of those eligible registered to vote in Wisconsin. This造林 turnout was only 19.4% of all...McGill and Kaufman will also be conducting extensive research on the voting habits of...numbers, it has a history of voting for Democratic candidates...population could very well change the final results in a close election. After...Acephalous...there are...Adolph Rappaport...campaigns to encourage and inform voters, a push that may improve voting in the future. The center...national委宣传部 was established to coordinate and...dentists, and the idea of pushing his limits always attracted him. Dance combines the body’s limits always attract..."The center was included in the Strategic Plan under the "Pluralism and Diversity in the Academic Program" section, which aims to enhance the college’s academic and organizational structures to provide new opportunities to address issues of pluralism and diversity." Article 1.3.1 of the Strategic Plan, under the "Policy Change" section, states that "the college..."of the separation of church and state...during the elections.
Do you care about anything? “Voice” your opinions write a letter to the Editor, to: ccvoice@conncoll.edu

The College Voice is an open forum. The opinions expressed by individual advertisers are their own. In no way does The College Voice endorse any individual advertisers. The College Voice will not accept articles it deems to be obscene, an incitement to violence, or personally defamatory. Ad rates are available upon request by calling (860) 439-2815. Please refer all ad inquiries to the Business Manager, Sarah Mercurio. The College Voice reserves the right to accept or reject any ad. The Editors-in-Chief shall have final content approval. The final deadline for advertising is 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding publication.

Policies
Letters to the Editor: Letters to the Editor are due by 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding publication. The College Voice reserves the right to edit letters. Depending on the nature of the letter, anonymous letters will be published. However names may be withheld upon the author's request. The College Voice will not publish letters deemed to be a personal attack on an individual. The College Voice cannot guarantee the publication of any submission. Letters should be single-spaced, no longer than 500 words, and must include a phone number for verification. Please send all letters as a Microsoft Word attachment to ccvoice@conncoll.edu.

Defining Minority
To the Editor:
The term “Minority” tends to be defined as “an ethnic, racial, religious, or another group having a disproportionate social, economic, and political influence on our national society.” The Republican Party has always made up a large percentage of the state and national electorate. The president of the country is a Republic. This means that the majority of all national laws have been made with Republican interests in mind. Therefore, Republicans have been accused of “politically represented minorities” that have not also benefited Republicans. From Deorganizations to attempts to benefit white women (regardless of wealth status) more than other women (regardless of wealth status), Republicans have been accused of being discriminatory towards minorities. However, these attacks are not always accurate. While it is true that Republicans have often been branded as the party of the “white male vote,” it is also true that Republicans have always tried to support minorities, even if it means that their policies may not always benefit them.

Letters to the Editor
Student Life Responds to Politically-Based Incidents on Campus
To the Editor:
I write to share a series of incidents that are of great concern to me. Recently, a series of incidents have reportedly been deeply injudged by negative behaviors, seemingly as a result of their political affiliation. Many of the reported incidents have occurred to students who identify politically as Republicans; many are members of the College Republicans Club at Connecticut College. The reported incidents (including hitting stickers removed or defaced from campus, removal of stickers from school hallways, and chalking coloreal to express their support for Republican candidates) seem to have originated from the original issue. A few students have also expressed concern that other members of the community who clearly do not share their viewpoints, have altered their opinions in their classrooms. Many of these students have expressed great concern that our campus is quick to express change when a bias incident occurs related to federally protected groups, but that it seems to make little action that is related to hate speech and disregard for political viewpoints.

The Connecticut College Honor Code Materialization Pledge states, “I pledge to take responsibility for my beliefs, and to conduct myself with integrity, civility, and respect for the dignity of all human beings.” As members of this free and democratic society, we are privileged to be able to participate in the election process. Give the diversity of our community, it is normal to have different opinions, for which people are passionate. As a caring and educational environment, it is essential, however, that all members feel and are able to express themselves without fear of intimidation or ridicule. To this end, Connecticut College encourages each member of the community to express their opinions and beliefs and to allow others the same freedom. The actions described do not serve to change opinion, but rather causes a close-minded and hostile environment. Connecticut College has made great strides in educating community members about differences in people and in respecting those differences. Rather than silencing ourselves, we should encourage them. Rather than utilizing our discipline procedures to resolve our differences, I find it my hope that we can instead exert on good judgment and good communication to become our future.

David Milstein, Dean of Student Life
SURE TO FALL IN LOVE WITH YOU

Sure to fall in love with you (INLOVEWITHYOU) JEWISH MODERNITY
YONIfREEMAN

... out. Have fun watching the World Series. One final observation for you:
Nobody among the players in the World Series pops his collar.

\[\text{page 9}\]

The Indisputable's dilemma, part II

ZON WRIGHT • GO WRITE, YOUNG MAN!

A couple of weeks ago in the Voice, I wrote the first part of the Jewish modernity column. I don't know if I was right or wrong, but this is what came to my mind:

SOMEONE ELSE'S YAM-MAKER

If you're thinking of voting Republican, have an opinion, make a statement about the importance of the November election. That's why you have to vote this year.

... or vote for the lesser of two evils. I don't know if I was right or wrong, but this is what came to my mind:

SOMEONE ELSE'S YAM-MAKER

If you're thinking of voting Republican, have an opinion, make a statement about the importance of the November election. That's why you have to vote this year.

Z.O.N. • HOPElessly, HOPElessly...

... or vote for the lesser of two evils. I don't know if I was right or wrong, but this is what came to my mind:

SOMEONE ELSE'S YAM-MAKER

If you're thinking of voting Republican, have an opinion, make a statement about the importance of the November election. That's why you have to vote this year.

Z.O.N. • HOPElessly, HOPElessly...

... or vote for the lesser of two evils. I don't know if I was right or wrong, but this is what came to my mind:

SOMEONE ELSE'S YAM-MAKER

If you're thinking of voting Republican, have an opinion, make a statement about the importance of the November election. That's why you have to vote this year.

Z.O.N. • HOPElessly, HOPElessly...

... or vote for the lesser of two evils. I don't know if I was right or wrong, but this is what came to my mind:

SOMEONE ELSE'S YAM-MAKER

If you're thinking of voting Republican, have an opinion, make a statement about the importance of the November election. That's why you have to vote this year.

Z.O.N. • HOPElessly, HOPElessly...

... or vote for the lesser of two evils. I don't know if I was right or wrong, but this is what came to my mind:

SOMEONE ELSE'S YAM-MAKER

If you're thinking of voting Republican, have an opinion, make a statement about the importance of the November election. That's why you have to vote this year.

Z.O.N. • HOPElessly, HOPElessly...

... or vote for the lesser of two evils. I don't know if I was right or wrong, but this is what came to my mind:

SOMEONE ELSE'S YAM-MAKER

If you're thinking of voting Republican, have an opinion, make a statement about the importance of the November election. That's why you have to vote this year.

Z.O.N. • HOPElessly, HOPElessly...

... or vote for the lesser of two evils. I don't know if I was right or wrong, but this is what came to my mind:

SOMEONE ELSE'S YAM-MAKER

If you're thinking of voting Republican, have an opinion, make a statement about the importance of the November election. That's why you have to vote this year.

Z.O.N. • HOPElessly, HOPElessly...

... or vote for the lesser of two evils. I don't know if I was right or wrong, but this is what came to my mind:

SOMEONE ELSE'S YAM-MAKER

If you're thinking of voting Republican, have an opinion, make a statement about the importance of the November election. That's why you have to vote this year.
Jon Stewart's New America: An Offensive, Effective Looe AMERICA

BySearch McGee

With the addition of a new comedy tour over the first half of June and July, Joan Rivers has been in the news, and what exactly is her intention? A look into the marvel that is Joan Rivers as a showgirl, as a comedic icon, and as a TV personality. The new tour, "The Best of Times," will feature Rivers along with her stand-up partner, the late Bob. This tour marks the new direction of Rivers' career, as she has moved away from her role as a talk show host to a full-time performer. The tour will include material from her new book, "I Hate Everyone," and will showcase her unique brand of humor, including her love of political satire and her ability to make light of the issues of the day.

Creek's THile Pleasures with Deceiver

Deceiver

By Paul Davies

Chris Thile, mandolin player for the Grammy-winning bluegrass band Nickel Creek, is one of the most talked-about musicians of our time. This past year, he released his fifth solo album, "Deceiver," which features the artist's signature style of bluegrass music and a mix of traditional and modern elements. The album has been praised for its unique blend of music and vocals, with critics saying that it is a testament to Thile's virtuosity as a mandolin player and singer.

"Deceiver" is a departure from Thile's previous work, which has been described as "pure joy of American astronauts as they gaze at the earth for the first time from their vapor trap in space."

The album has been well-received, with many praising its fusion of bluegrass and rock music. Thile has always been a dedicated student of all genres, and "Deceiver" showcases his ability to incorporate different styles into his music. The album has been described as a "true masterpiece," and it is clear that Thile has continued to push the boundaries of what is possible in contemporary bluegrass music.

Corinna Moore Jump Off the Bandwagon!

Vermont has been called a "gemstone of pure blue television options." The character is not believable and the acting is very poor. However, there is a lot to see and enjoy in Vermont, including hiking trails, skiing, and scenic drives. Many Vermonters live in the state, and they all have something to discover.

Emily Moore Jump Off the Bandwagon!

In this issue of The Source, we explore the unique world of Vermont, where nature and culture merge to create a unique experience for visitors and residents alike. We visit the state's historic cities, such as Montpelier and Burlington, and we explore the state's natural beauty, including its forests, mountains, and lakes. We also highlight some of the state's most popular activities, such as skiing and hiking, and we feature interviews with local artists and chefs. We believe that Vermont is a special place, and we hope that our readers will enjoy exploring its many offerings.

Jon Stewart's New America: An Offensive, Effective Looe AMERICA

BySearch McGee

With the addition of a new comedy tour over the first half of June and July, Joan Rivers has been in the news, and what exactly is her intention? A look into the marvel that is Joan Rivers as a showgirl, as a comedic icon, and as a TV personality. The new tour, "The Best of Times," will feature Rivers along with her stand-up partner, the late Bob. This tour marks the new direction of Rivers' career, as she has moved away from her role as a talk show host to a full-time performer. The tour will include material from her new book, "I Hate Everyone," and will showcase her unique brand of humor, including her love of political satire and her ability to make light of the issues of the day.

Creek's THile Pleasures with Deceiver

Deceiver

By Paul Davies

Chris Thile, mandolin player for the Grammy-winning bluegrass band Nickel Creek, is one of the most talked-about musicians of our time. This past year, he released his fifth solo album, "Deceiver," which features the artist's signature style of bluegrass music and a mix of traditional and modern elements. The album has been praised for its unique blend of music and vocals, with critics saying that it is a testament to Thile's virtuosity as a mandolin player and singer.

"Deceiver" is a departure from Thile's previous work, which has been described as "pure joy of American astronauts as they gaze at the earth for the first time from their vapor trap in space."

The album has been well-received, with many praising its fusion of bluegrass and rock music. Thile has always been a dedicated student of all genres, and "Deceiver" showcases his ability to incorporate different styles into his music. The album has been described as a "true masterpiece," and it is clear that Thile has continued to push the boundaries of what is possible in contemporary bluegrass music.

Corinna Moore Jump Off the Bandwagon!

Vermont has been called a "gemstone of pure blue television options." The character is not believable and the acting is very poor. However, there is a lot to see and enjoy in Vermont, including hiking trails, skiing, and scenic drives. Many Vermonters live in the state, and they all have something to discover.

Emily Moore Jump Off the Bandwagon!

In this issue of The Source, we explore the unique world of Vermont, where nature and culture merge to create a unique experience for visitors and residents alike. We visit the state's historic cities, such as Montpelier and Burlington, and we explore the state's natural beauty, including its forests, mountains, and lakes. We also highlight some of the state's most popular activities, such as skiing and hiking, and we feature interviews with local artists and chefs. We believe that Vermont is a special place, and we hope that our readers will enjoy exploring its many offerings.
KMFDM Wages WWIII on Hartford in Final Tour

By RACHEL CLARKE

KMFDM, who have been around for only 20 years, have been described as the first German Industrial rock band. Their music is a mix of industrial, rock, metal, and electronic, and is characterized by its use of synthesized drum beats and distorted vocals. Their fans are known for their enthusiastic support and dedication to the band's music and message.

Their fall North American tour is no patchwork of material that came to industrial-style synth backing the songs. It's heart-pumping as hell, and "Jihad," it is no secret what mes- sages are behind the songs on both albums can place. Their fall tour is the perfect opportunity to see a high octane act like this in action. If you want to get your head banging, this is the place to be. It's almost at perfect as the ambiance.

Don't take Bill's word for it, come out and see for yourself. If you want to know what you're getting into before you do, you can pick up the band's DVD release from KMFDM entitled "Strange Use." Eric's hard core fans will also recognize the band's energy and dedication to their music, which is something that cannot be found in most other bands today.

The rescheduled late-October movie theater tour has been entertaining crowds for over 60 years, and the band has been named the best place to see a band in Hartford. Located within walking distance of Trinity College in a busy square location, the venue is sure to get your head banging and have tons of exciting give-aways. So tomorrow night is the next time that you get to support your favorite concert and say that you were there. It's this stark realism and understanding of the complexity of commitment in sports that makes the film so much more effectively on the big screen. This event will blow your expectations out of the water (in a good way), so dress to impress (or not too much) and get out to HUMP THE VOTE.

The election - which includes more races than the past couple of years - is a special focus on the message "Get Out and Vote." Don't take your word for it, come out and see for yourself. If you want to know what you're getting into before you do, you can pick up the band's DVD release from KMFDM entitled "Strange Use." Eric's hard core fans will also recognize the band's energy and dedication to their music, which is something that cannot be found in most other bands today.

Despite its lack of sensationalism, such a raw cast of young actors is something to be admired. The chemistry of the lead actors bleeds. They cry when they need to, and their scenes are intense and emotionally charged without being overly dramatic. Winchell's sensitivity as a father, who expects nothing short of a state title and who works hard to get that title, is something that the whole world rests on their shoulders.

The film's cast of young actors is something to be admired. They cry when they need to, and their scenes are intense and emotionally charged without being overly dramatic. Winchell's sensitivity as a father, who expects nothing short of a state title and who works hard to get that title, is something that the whole world rests on their shoulders.

The film covers the lives of four individuals. Billy Bob Thorton delivers a typically good performance as the football star's father, who is far more reluctant to invest himself in the game leaves him coming up short in every other aspect of life. The electric violinist, played by Winchell, serves as an unlikely and unusually sensitive hero. After several scenes and a DVD rental, but the film is worth seeing.

As Bill says, it's the best way to see a band live, and tons of exciting give-aways. So tomorrow night is the next time that you get to support your favorite concert and say that you were there. It's this stark realism and understanding of the complexity of commitment in sports that makes the film so much more effectively on the big screen. This event will blow your expectations out of the water (in a good way), so dress to impress (or not too much) and get out to HUMP THE VOTE.

For more information and photos visit: http://www.kmfdm.net

HUMP's Top 25 Albums of the 20th Century

By CHRISTIAN CLARK

Top 5 NEW albums

ARTIST

1 THE LATE GREAT AMARANTO\'S\' Aerobic Overdose
2 SMOKING 50 Like Electric Smoke
3 DREAMS 4 MOVINGUNITS Oangarous Dreams
4 POWER 5 NOT Y U
SGA Endorses the Revised Strategic Plan with Enthusiasm

Richard J. Diodato

On October 18, President Franklin G. Barry announced that the Strategic Planning Committee (PPBC) had revised the college's Strategic Plan and would present the revised plan to the students. The Strategic Planning Committee gave an oral presentation of the revised document to the SGA on September 23. The entire Assembly had been reviewing the document since the fall of 2011. The PPBC's presentation was followed by a question-and-answer session. The SGA Endorsed the Revised Strategic Plan with Enthusiasm with an official letter.

In his opening remarks, President Barry called the Strategic Planning Committee together to develop a strategic plan for the college. The committee was formed to develop a plan that would guide the college's development for the next 10 years. The plan was designed to ensure that the college remained relevant and competitive in the higher education marketplace. The PPBC was charged last September with completing and presenting a new version of the strategic plan.

The revised Strategic Planning Committee gave an oral presentation of their revised document to the SGA on September 23. Many of the Assembly's questions focused on how the new goals of the revised strategic plan would impact the college's priorities. The PPBC stated that the revised plan should place greater emphasis on maintaining current buildings and support new construction projects.

One Senator, Owens Klein, who is in charge of the Student Services Committee, pointed out that the new strategic plan is designed to help the college address the needs of its diverse student population. He noted that the plan would focus on creating a more inclusive environment for all students.

The Assembly was very confident about the direction the college was taking. One Assembly member pointed out that the college had made significant progress in recent years, and that the strategic plan would help to build on this momentum.

The revised Strategic Planning Committee's presentation to the college community will be the first step in the college's efforts to implement the revised strategic plan. The college community will be invited to provide feedback on the plan, and the PPBC will use this feedback to make further improvements to the strategic plan.

The Strategic Planning Committee gave an oral presentation of their revised document to the SGA on September 23. Many of the Assembly's questions focused on how the new goals of the revised strategic plan would impact the college's priorities. The PPBC stated that the revised plan should place greater emphasis on maintaining current buildings and support new construction projects.

One Senator, Owens Klein, who is in charge of the Student Services Committee, pointed out that the new strategic plan is designed to help the college address the needs of its diverse student population. He noted that the plan would focus on creating a more inclusive environment for all students.

The Assembly was very confident about the direction the college was taking. One Assembly member pointed out that the college had made significant progress in recent years, and that the strategic plan would help to build on this momentum.

The revised Strategic Planning Committee's presentation to the college community will be the first step in the college's efforts to implement the revised strategic plan. The college community will be invited to provide feedback on the plan, and the PPBC will use this feedback to make further improvements to the strategic plan.

The Strategic Planning Committee gave an oral presentation of their revised document to the SGA on September 23. Many of the Assembly's questions focused on how the new goals of the revised strategic plan would impact the college's priorities. The PPBC stated that the revised plan should place greater emphasis on maintaining current buildings and support new construction projects.

One Senator, Owens Klein, who is in charge of the Student Services Committee, pointed out that the new strategic plan is designed to help the college address the needs of its diverse student population. He noted that the plan would focus on creating a more inclusive environment for all students.

The Assembly was very confident about the direction the college was taking. One Assembly member pointed out that the college had made significant progress in recent years, and that the strategic plan would help to build on this momentum.

The revised Strategic Planning Committee's presentation to the college community will be the first step in the college's efforts to implement the revised strategic plan. The college community will be invited to provide feedback on the plan, and the PPBC will use this feedback to make further improvements to the strategic plan.

The Strategic Planning Committee gave an oral presentation of their revised document to the SGA on September 23. Many of the Assembly's questions focused on how the new goals of the revised strategic plan would impact the college's priorities. The PPBC stated that the revised plan should place greater emphasis on maintaining current buildings and support new construction projects.

One Senator, Owens Klein, who is in charge of the Student Services Committee, pointed out that the new strategic plan is designed to help the college address the needs of its diverse student population. He noted that the plan would focus on creating a more inclusive environment for all students.

The Assembly was very confident about the direction the college was taking. One Assembly member pointed out that the college had made significant progress in recent years, and that the strategic plan would help to build on this momentum.

The revised Strategic Planning Committee's presentation to the college community will be the first step in the college's efforts to implement the revised strategic plan. The college community will be invited to provide feedback on the plan, and the PPBC will use this feedback to make further improvements to the strategic plan.

The Strategic Planning Committee gave an oral presentation of their revised document to the SGA on September 23. Many of the Assembly's questions focused on how the new goals of the revised strategic plan would impact the college's priorities. The PPBC stated that the revised plan should place greater emphasis on maintaining current buildings and support new construction projects.

One Senator, Owens Klein, who is in charge of the Student Services Committee, pointed out that the new strategic plan is designed to help the college address the needs of its diverse student population. He noted that the plan would focus on creating a more inclusive environment for all students.

The Assembly was very confident about the direction the college was taking. One Assembly member pointed out that the college had made significant progress in recent years, and that the strategic plan would help to build on this momentum.

The revised Strategic Planning Committee's presentation to the college community will be the first step in the college's efforts to implement the revised strategic plan. The college community will be invited to provide feedback on the plan, and the PPBC will use this feedback to make further improvements to the strategic plan.

The Strategic Planning Committee gave an oral presentation of their revised document to the SGA on September 23. Many of the Assembly's questions focused on how the new goals of the revised strategic plan would impact the college's priorities. The PPBC stated that the revised plan should place greater emphasis on maintaining current buildings and support new construction projects.

One Senator, Owens Klein, who is in charge of the Student Services Committee, pointed out that the new strategic plan is designed to help the college address the needs of its diverse student population. He noted that the plan would focus on creating a more inclusive environment for all students.

The Assembly was very confident about the direction the college was taking. One Assembly member pointed out that the college had made significant progress in recent years, and that the strategic plan would help to build on this momentum.

The revised Strategic Planning Committee's presentation to the college community will be the first step in the college's efforts to implement the revised strategic plan. The college community will be invited to provide feedback on the plan, and the PPBC will use this feedback to make further improvements to the strategic plan.

The Strategic Planning Committee gave an oral presentation of their revised document to the SGA on September 23. Many of the Assembly's questions focused on how the new goals of the revised strategic plan would impact the college's priorities. The PPBC stated that the revised plan should place greater emphasis on maintaining current buildings and support new construction projects.

One Senator, Owens Klein, who is in charge of the Student Services Committee, pointed out that the new strategic plan is designed to help the college address the needs of its diverse student population. He noted that the plan would focus on creating a more inclusive environment for all students.

The Assembly was very confident about the direction the college was taking. One Assembly member pointed out that the college had made significant progress in recent years, and that the strategic plan would help to build on this momentum.

The revised Strategic Planning Committee's presentation to the college community will be the first step in the college's efforts to implement the revised strategic plan. The college community will be invited to provide feedback on the plan, and the PPBC will use this feedback to make further improvements to the strategic plan.

The Strategic Planning Committee gave an oral presentation of their revised document to the SGA on September 23. Many of the Assembly's questions focused on how the new goals of the revised strategic plan would impact the college's priorities. The PPBC stated that the revised plan should place greater emphasis on maintaining current buildings and support new construction projects.

One Senator, Owens Klein, who is in charge of the Student Services Committee, pointed out that the new strategic plan is designed to help the college address the needs of its diverse student population. He noted that the plan would focus on creating a more inclusive environment for all students.

The Assembly was very confident about the direction the college was taking. One Assembly member pointed out that the college had made significant progress in recent years, and that the strategic plan would help to build on this momentum.

The revised Strategic Planning Committee's presentation to the college community will be the first step in the college's efforts to implement the revised strategic plan. The college community will be invited to provide feedback on the plan, and the PPBC will use this feedback to make further improvements to the strategic plan.
Alcohol Awareness Week

- Tableting at Cro (Noon - 1:30pm, Monday through Thursday)
  Pledge not to drink on Thursday, 10/28 and win a Borders' gift card!
  Monday, October 25

- D&D: The Athlete Stereotype (Cro's Nest at 8pm - Sponsored by Team Health & Wellness)
  Tuesday, October 26

- Alcohol Truths: Campus alcohol use and beer goggles (KB Living Room, 4pm - Sponsored by the Peer Educators)
  Wednesday, October 27

- Sexual Assault: What to do when it happens at Cro (Cro's Nest, 7:30pm - Sponsored by the Healthy Relationships Committee)
  Thursday, October 28

- Moonlight Breakfast - served by faculty and staff (Harris, 10pm- Midnight - Sponsored by HPFR and Dining Services)
  Thursday, October 28

- TN£: The Athlete Stereotype (KB Living Room, 8pm - Sponsored by Team Health & Wellness)

- Friday Nights Live and Mouths! Dress to Impress. (Cro's Nest, 10:30pm - Sponsored by the PE Social Norms Committee and SAC)
  Friday, October 29

Alcohol Awareness Week is brought to you by the Health Promotion/Peer Education Committee and the Peer Educators.
For more information, please contact us at the PE Intercom, Rachael Feinn (696), or the Peer Educators, Lis Grieser (5974).
Top Ten Things You do on Facebook.com That You Won’t Admit to

10. Start a group...or eight
9. Change you picture multiple times in a day
8. Look up people from high school that you hate, but secretly want to “friend”
7. Rely on “upcoming birthdays” section to remember loved one’s special day
6. Check up on old boyfriends/girlfriends
5. Futilely attempt to identify that random drunken hook-up from last Thursday
4. Futilely attempt to identify that random drunken hook-up from last Saturday
3. “Friend” people without the intention of ever speaking to them in public
2. Look up fellow Kenny G fanatics
1. Poke!

Camel Close-Up

Before the Civil War, Congress tried out a Camel Military Corp. They herded 77 camels over to North America and tested them out somewhere near the Arizona desert. The camels were just about to be tested when the Civil War broke loose and ruined everything. A few of the camels were auctioned off, while others escaped into the desert. The escapees were shot by those who considered them pestulant. The mission was a complete failure.

Source: http://www.tact-index.com

Camel Curiosities

Before the Civil War, Congress tried out a Camel Military Corp. They herded 77 camels over to North America and tested them out somewhere near the Arizona desert. The camels were just about to be tested when the Civil War broke loose and ruined everything. A few of the camels were auctioned off, while others escaped into the desert. The escapees were shot by those who considered them pestulant. The mission was a complete failure.

Source: http://www.tact-index.com

Quoteable Camels

Senior: Norah Longendyck
“I hate Harris, but I love chicken parm”

Junior: Dan Ehrlich
“Needing an entrance code to open a door”

Sophomore: Vickie Curtis
“I can reach everything in my room from my bed”

Freshman: Mark “Money”
“I miss that little wooden camel”

Not fun enough? Send YOUR ideas for the Camel Fun Page to ccvoice@conncollege.edu. Because seriously, this page needs more alteration.
Camel Of The Week: Meredith Stebbins

Meredith Stebbins ‘05 knows the value of a hard work ethic, and Camel of the Week, Meredith Stebbins, has worked hard to become a well-known figure in the normalcy of the varsity cross-country team. Stebbins, a senior from New Canaan, has been lifted off the Red Sox, and is back ready to run, and was given the captain position along with two others.

The Camel of the Week project is meant to go beyond holding a little contest: "We can always look to her for support and guidance," said senior Alison Zelman ‘07. "She's a great role model and the girls were lucky to have her around.""The writing is on the wall, literally. The program is offered to the 12th inning there was a sense of relief that came over me. It was hard to become a well-known figure on the varsity cross-country team, making her competitive on the varsity circuit, and Pedro in Roy Oswalt and Roger Clemens. Who have two pitchers that just might be better than Curt Schilling and Tim Wakefield. Stebbins, a senior from New Canaan, has been lifted off the Red Sox, and is back ready to run, and was given the captain position along with two others.

Stebbins, a senior from New Canaan, has worked hard to become a well-known figure in the normalcy of the varsity cross-country team. Stebbins, a senior from New Canaan, has been lifted off the Red Sox, and is back ready to run, and was given the captain position along with two others.

The Camel of the Week project is meant to go beyond holding a little contest: "We can always look to her for support and guidance," said senior Alison Zelman ‘07. "She's a great role model and the girls were lucky to have her around.""The writing is on the wall, literally. The program is offered to the 12th inning there was a sense of relief that came over me. It was hard to become a well-known figure on the varsity cross-country team, making her competitive on the varsity circuit, and Pedro in Roy Oswalt and Roger Clemens. Who have two pitchers that just might be better than Curt Schilling and Tim Wakefield. Stebbins, a senior from New Canaan, has been lifted off the Red Sox, and is back ready to run, and was given the captain position along with two others.

Stebbins, a senior from New Canaan, has worked hard to become a well-known figure in the normalcy of the varsity cross-country team. Stebbins, a senior from New Canaan, has been lifted off the Red Sox, and is back ready to run, and was given the captain position along with two others.

The Camel of the Week project is meant to go beyond holding a little contest: "We can always look to her for support and guidance," said senior Alison Zelman ‘07. "She's a great role model and the girls were lucky to have her around.""The writing is on the wall, literally. The program is offered to the 12th inning there was a sense of relief that came over me. It was hard to become a well-known figure on the varsity cross-country team, making her competitive on the varsity circuit, and Pedro in Roy Oswalt and Roger Clemens. Who have two pitchers that just might be better than Curt Schilling and Tim Wakefield. Stebbins, a senior from New Canaan, has been lifted off the Red Sox, and is back ready to run, and was given the captain position along with two others.

Stebbins, a senior from New Canaan, has worked hard to become a well-known figure in the normalcy of the varsity cross-country team. Stebbins, a senior from New Canaan, has been lifted off the Red Sox, and is back ready to run, and was given the captain position along with two others.

The Camel of the Week project is meant to go beyond holding a little contest: "We can always look to her for support and guidance," said senior Alison Zelman ‘07. "She's a great role model and the girls were lucky to have her around.""The writing is on the wall, literally. The program is offered to the 12th inning there was a sense of relief that came over me. It was hard to become a well-known figure on the varsity cross-country team, making her competitive on the varsity circuit, and Pedro in Roy Oswalt and Roger Clemens. Who have two pitchers that just might be better than Curt Schilling and Tim Wakefield. Stebbins, a senior from New Canaan, has been lifted off the Red Sox, and is back ready to run, and was given the captain position along with two others.
If you have been able to go the last week and... the hunch is on.
-10/16, Bowdoin, 1-2 (OT)
-10/20, Amherst, moved to 10/24 at 1:00pm
-10/23, @Colby, 11:00am

Just left its so-called victims sleep-depending on which side of the fence amazed, baffled, distraught, and less, euphoric, agonizing, hopeful, friends and colleagues, has not filled cyclone known as the baseball self a pat on the back. Heck, if you as glancing at a TV screen to catch a

In fact, there were things being to carry a 2-1 lead into the midway point. The Camels came out of the 5

The Bantams traveled to Mount Holyoke on the 14th of October and won a thrilling game in overtime. Freshman Bill Moore put in a penalty stroke with 2:47 left in overtime, lifting the Camels to a dramatic 1-0 victory over the Lyons (6-0).

Mauer staked the Camels to a lead, 1-0, with her fourth goal of the season. However, the Camels will have to worry about Manny in the future, this game will provide some lessons learned.

Men's Soccer Still Winless In NESCAC Just Four

Camels Shut Out Mount Holyoke, 1-0

Camels Take On The Lyons... continued on page 9

The Bantams traveled to Mount Holyoke on the 14th of October and

-10/16, Bowdoin, 1-3    -10/20, @Amherst, 0-2    -10/23, @Colby, 1:30 pm

Men's Soccer:

-10/16, Bowdoin, 1-3
-10/20, @Amherst, 0-2
-10/23, @Colby, 11:00 am

Women's Soccer:

-10/16, Bowdoin, 1-3
-10/20, @Amherst, 0-2
-10/23, @Colby, 1:30 pm

Volleyball:

-10/16, Trinity @ Wesleyan, 1-0
-10/17, Holy Cross, 9-0
-10/18, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0
-10/19, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0
-10/20, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0
-10/21, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0
-10/22, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0
-10/23, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0

Field Hockey:

-10/16, Bowdoin, 1-2 (OT)
-10/17, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0 (OT)
-10/18, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0 (OT)
-10/19, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0 (OT)
-10/20, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0 (OT)
-10/21, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0 (OT)
-10/22, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0 (OT)
-10/23, @Mount Holyoke, 2-0 (OT)

The Camels (4-1) still up at the 2004 season with three challenging match-ups against NESCAC rivals Abbott, Colby and Tufts (Dunay)

Bryan Wells

The Connecticut College field hockey squad has played four matches over the last week and a half. First, the Camels took on the Trinity Bantams on the 9th of October, a game they ended up losing 4-2. Katie Williams '07 was a bright spot for the Camels, as she netted two goals for the Camels in the losing effort.

Williams put the Camels on top just 1:26 into the contest, scoring on an assisted pass from Sage Shadley '01. But the Bantams bounced back and scored the next two goals, including a goal with just four minutes to go before the break, courtesy of freshman Taylor Furlong.

The Camels came out of the development, and evened the game at two on the second tally upper left corner of the cage. and break on the offensive, and evened Mauer tucked her shot inside the upper left corner of the cage, and won the opportunity to make a save. Karenne talked about 10 saves in the second half and no. The season was just just beginning when I mentioned that I were almost ready for a terrible thing to happen... the season was almost ready for a terrible thing to happen... the

The Camels Take On The Lyons... continued on page 9

While it is necessary to remind team of the winning goal in each of the three victories the Camels have pulled on the game.

On Saturday, the Camels hosted another NESCAC rival, the Camels suffered through a disappointing 0-3-0 start to the season. However, the Camels will be taking each game one at a time as they try to put a few extra

Camel Scoreboard

Women's Tennis:

-10/16, Wesleyan, 6-1
-10/17, Trinity @ Wesleyan, 1-0
-10/18, @Mount Holyoke, 9-0
-10/19, @Mount Holyoke, 9-0
-10/20, @Mount Holyoke, 9-0
-10/21, @Mount Holyoke, 9-0
-10/22, @Mount Holyoke, 9-0
-10/23, @Mount Holyoke, 9-0

The Camels have always
and never been able to outplay
everyone do it, so they have always had a core of players
who have kept these guys consisent. Guys
like Jeter, Bernie Williams, and Mariano Rivera, while they may not have as much talent as Arod, but
he's a warrior who knows
how to hit against left-handed pitchers. While it is necessary to remind the best team ever, no matter what we have witnessed sets in, we should never worry about Mastery.

The Yankees have always
and never been able to outplay
everyone do it, so they have always had a core of players
who have kept these
guys consisent. Guys
like Jeter, Bernie Williams, and Mariano Rivera, while they may not have as much talent as Arod, but
he's a warrior who knows
how to hit against left-handed pitch-
ers. While it is necessary to remind
the best team ever, no matter what
we have witnessed sets in, we
should never worry about Mastery.

The Yankees have always
and never been able to outplay
everyone do it, so they have always had a core of players
who have kept these
guys consisent. Guys
like Jeter, Bernie Williams, and Mariano Rivera, while they may not have as much talent as Arod, but
he's a warrior who knows
how to hit against left-handed pitch-
ers. While it is necessary to remind
the best team ever, no matter what
we have witnessed sets in, we
should never worry about Mastery.

The Yankees have always
and never been able to outplay
everyone do it, so they have always had a core of players
who have kept these
guys consisent. Guys
like Jeter, Bernie Williams, and Mariano Rivera, while they may not have as much talent as Arod, but
he's a warrior who knows
how to hit against left-handed pitch-
ers. While it is necessary to remind
the best team ever, no matter what
we have witnessed sets in, we should never worry about Mastery.