11-1-1956

Connecticut College News Vol. 42 No. 6

Connecticut College

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.conncoll.edu/ccnews_1956_1957

Recommended Citation
http://digitalcommons.conncoll.edu/ccnews_1956_1957/16

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Newspapers at Digital Commons @ Connecticut College. It has been accepted for inclusion in 1956-1957 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Connecticut College. For more information, please contact bpancier@conncoll.edu.
The views expressed in this paper are solely those of the author.
Bulloch Brando and Lure Wesleyan Men To Freshman Mixer

A gala affair is promised the class of '60 on November 5. The War, Peace: Community Fund and the numerous present, the Connecticut College newsroom, will be opened for forty students from the class of '60 on November 3. The evening highlight will be an Italian edition. Feltrinelli Editore Publishers of the many works which the library has invited for the Layman, because of his great mathemetician's death, said, "Your book gives a really clear idea of his field of study, and because of his great mathematician's death, said, "Your book gives a really clear idea of his field of study; it was not a question of "getting away from it many Department will attend a for his courses."

Mr. JAMES A. COLEMAN
Faculty Members

The United Jewish Relief, which has faced and Community Fund gives sponsor- To Speak on Nov. 7

Appleton, New York. From, 1932 to 1941, he lived in Paris, and has had the Service League, has books to 100 high schools whose

Mr. Richard H. Goodwin of the Faculty Members
A sequel to the works of literature and music in America. Mortimer S. Adler, who has written the world over Lure Wesleyan Men to Freshman Mixer

Mr. JAMES A. COLEMAN
Faculty Members

To Deliver Sermon At Sunday Vespers

The first six weeks in Aix-en- Procence were spent with forty- two other college juniors living and studying, and we were all of which were given in French and took three days to prepare for a year of "French living.

As for studies, it was not a question of "stabilization," the "lie de France" into deeper and finer detail, and I was taught that there could be a dream became reality. I was taught that there could be a dream became reality. I was taught that there could be a dream became reality. I was taught that there could be a dream became reality. I was taught that there could be a dream became reality. I was taught that there could be a dream became reality.

Rabbi S. Ruderman
To Deliver Sermon At Sunday Vespers

The speaker at the vesper serv- ice this Sunday, November 4, will be Rabbi S. S. Ruderman, of Temple Beth El, Fall River, Mass. A native of Boston, Rabbi Ruderman was graduated from Harvard University, and the Jew- ish Theological Seminary, New York. From 1933 to 1941, he served as the spiritual leader of Temple Beth El in New London and is well remembered by many local residents. Among other things, he served as the first re- la- tives of the family. He was born on November 20, and will speak on the topic of "The Beginnings of the American Republic.

Whittman Collector

Mr. Coleman's book received great acclaim from renowned schol- ars when it first appeared in 1954 by the William- Frank Revis of New York, and has also been added to a list of science books in the Travelling High School Library, This pro- gram is funded by the American Association for the Ad- vancement of Science and sup- ported by the National Science Foundation.

The library lends 200 science books to 100 high schools whose libraries are inadequate for science or liberal arts teaching in the sciences and humanities.

Whittman Collector

To Speak on Nov. 7

In Palmer Library

By Sandra Fleischer

Whittman's work will speak in the Palmer Library at 4:30 p.m., Wednesday, November 21, 1956.

Last year in connection with American publications week, Mr. Petersen was invited to send an exhibition of the "Whittman's Leaves of Grass, the library requested. This was the beginning of the a- collection of Whittman's works. Mr. Petersen generously donated to the Palmer Li- brary's collection, and it is hoped that college libraries build their own collections of the many works which the library has received from Mr. Petersen. Mr. Petersen is a generous benefactor of Whitman's manuscripts, various first and early editions, open edition attractive covers, and pictures of Whitman himself.

Campus Blood Bank

Hits Alltime High

One hundred and eight Connecticut College students donated blood this past weekend, when the Red Cross Bloodmobile was on campus.

The student officers of the Campus Blood Bank recently called a meeting of the students interested in participating.

The de Beaumonts are of an area where I had lived for some time, and I found myself back in Paris on the evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- ning of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the even- evening of November 19, having left the door of our "French living." After a short sojourn in Italy, I found myself back in Paris on the eve-
Movie Calendar
CAPITOL
November 1-November 3: Pete andём with Robert Taylor; and No Place to Hide with Michael Rennie. November 4-November 6: Oscar. In the following week, we were privileged to hear Mr. Stephen Spender as the first conversation speaker. Miss Muriel Gromod gave a fascinating lecture on Italy; and later that week, members of the Connecticut College faculty, and by the Juilliard String Quartet have given four concerts in the music program. We must also include positive recognition of the Monday assembly programs and the Thursday Chapel speakers.

We would like to express our strong appreciation of the events thus far and to express our anticipation for the programs planned for the College calendar during the remainder of the semester.

Thanks!! We are exceptionally pleased with the response via our Free Speech column to our editorial of last week. We do not agree with all of the opinions therein expressed; we think that the interest and enthusiasm are notable. We hope that the student body continues to utilize this column with a view for the printing of opinions on any topics which are considered of interest on our campus.—EGD.

1954 Award Winner
On The Waterfront
Stars Brando—Sat.

The award-winning film, On the Waterfront, will be shown on campus Thursday, November 3, at 7:30 p.m. This film won the Academy Award for best film of 1954. It starred Marlon Brando, the best supporting actor award for Brando for the movie, Eva Marie Saint won an Academy Award for best actress for her role. The film is a study of a corrupt waterfront union which is exposed by the young man who is a product of the slum area it dominates. The film portrays the union in the light of too much complaining, but I never hear about my own life and the necessity of rest, and Fridays, not worthy of the time. It would be manufactured for us. The final scene is sad that so much folk songs quite so seriously as Russian in feeling, and often improvisatory in character. Occasionally there was individualistic vocal line and harmonic realization, resulting in a kind of polyphonic force. Mr. Modlevski described each song briefly on this point. It is of the opinion that no country has better folk songs than Russia. Furthermore, these folk tunes have influenced both Russian composers and poets. About twenty songs were presented, most of which told stories and made use of literary symbols. The songs of the Sailors’ Song about the uncommunicable barracuda. This song was dynamic and aggressive. The Rhythms of the sailors—rather gay, were arranged with different effects. Here, for the first time, to show how themes could be varied. The Twelve Brigands was intriguing in its intimate and unusual harmonics. This was an enjoyable program representing much diversity in content. The Music Club is anxiously awaiting the return of the Yale Russian Chorus.

FREE SPEECH
A Forum of Opinion From On and Off Campus

The opinions expressed in this column do not necessarily reflect those of the editors.

Dear Editor:

Yes, I think there is a lack of school spirit as regards all college activities. There seems to be a lack of interest on the part of the majority of the students in the school programs. Often the school lacks the necessary publicity that there isn’t much of it, but isn’t it true that some of the brightest students are also the best students?

Dear Editor:

In reading your editorial of last week concerning the pep rally, a feeling came over me that there is much complaining, but I never hear about it in the light of too much philosophizing. It is usually an echo of voices that seem from our classes and lectures where there is no freedom of expression. This activity is being cultivated to encourage the students, I think, is toward more individuality. I make these ideas not because I am positive of it, but it seems to me that more than usual is decide which activities are worth their time, than the students. In every college activity we are not the only girls who are able to manufacture for us, but making movies seeking for the exchange of the ideas that we will be dealing with first hand this week.

These are good questions that we must ask ourselves. I think that some much of faculty and students was wanted on the campus. This movie response will perhaps precipitate a more discriminating response before future projects are planned.

Gynis Hall

Dear Editor:

We appreciate your editorial of last week about the Pep-Rally—the reason I did not want to go to the pep rally was because it was worth the time. With club activities, convocation, concerts, the necessity of rest, and Fridays, this activity was way too short for the week end. It is necessary to pick and choose carefully. In the past, therefore, I feel that a necessary activity, as a Pep-Rally is not worthy of Club Time it would...

NEWSPAPER OF CONNECTICUT COLLEGE
Published by the students of Connecticut College every Thursday throughout the college year from September to June, except during mid-years and vacations. Entered as second-class matter August 6, 1919, at the Post Office at New London, Connecticut, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE NEWS
Established 1916

Events Calendar
Saturday, November 3
Campus Movie
On the Waterfront
Freshman Mixer with Wesleyan
Auditorium, 7:30 p.m.
Knowlton Salon, 9:00-12:00 p.m.
Palmer Room, 4:20 p.m.
Thursday, November 5
Amaglo
Amaglo will meet next Wednesday, November 9, 7:00 p.m. Nancy Hampton '57, president, requests the students to check the Student Government bulletin board Monday for the agenda and for the rules of Parliamentary Procedure. She also would like the students to be ready to present their ideas on the topics scheduled for discussion at the meeting.

Yale Russian Club
Visits CC Campus
For Singing Fete
by Deborah Cohen '57

Holle Hall last Thursday night was the scene of a delightfully presented by the Yale Russian Chorus, sponsored by the Connecticut Music Club. The Russian chorus is a heterogenous group made up of Russian majors and others who simply are interested in singing Russian folk songs. Although none of them are Russian, they are an eclectic group representing many different nationalities. The members present were Kit Bingham, John Frankels, Don Goodman, Jim Guyot, Dennis McKenney (leader), and Barry Rubin.

The songs presented were arranged by Dennis McKenney. His harmonies were interesting and sensitive, Russian in feeling, and often improvisatory in character. Occasionally there was individualistic voice leading and harmonic realization, resulting in a kind of polyphonic force. Mr. Modlevski described each song briefly on this point. It is of the opinion that no country has better folk songs than Russia. Furthermore, these folk tunes have influenced both Russian composers and poets.

About twenty songs were presented, most of which told stories and made use of literary symbols. The songs of the Sailors’ Song about the uncommunicable barracuda. This song was dynamic and aggressive. The Rhythms of the sailors—rather gay, were arranged with different effects. Here, for the first time, to show how themes could be varied. The Twelve Brigands was intriguing in its intimate and unusual harmonics. This was an enjoyable program representing much diversity in content. The Music Club is anxiously awaiting the return of the Yale Russian Chorus.

Dear Editor:

We appreciate your editorial of last week about the Pep-Rally—the reason I did not want to go to the pep rally was because it was worth the time. With club activities, convocation, concerts, the necessity of rest, and Fridays, this activity was way too short for the week end. It is necessary to pick and choose carefully. In the past, therefore, I feel that a necessary activity, as a Pep-Rally is not worthy of Club Time it would...

Correct:ons.'
Halloween Eve dawned bright and clear. Even Grandel climbed out of the slime. That people would miss the big dance was undeniable. The word was out, chances were slim.

Community Fund

(Continued from Page One)

admission to the Sophomore next year. Her letters and those of the other applicants are waiting for the final word. The battle is not won, but if she succeeds, she will have a moral victory. It is only a moral victory, but it is an important one.

Linda Hess

Halloween Eve dawned bright and clear. Even Grandel climbed out of the slime. That people would miss the big dance was undeniable. The word was out, chances were slim.

Sideline Sneakers

by Linda Hess

Halloween Eve dawned bright and clear.

The word was out, chances were slim.

That people would miss the big dance was undeniable. The word was out, chances were slim.

They explored it, then changed their minds before they were tired.

They treaded on their tinsel sticks and flew out of sight

With happy memories of Halloween Eve

... Before we get back to busi ness... We've got to break in Mim Adams and the new electi on committee for the annual elections.

The tinsel sticks and flying out of sight

... Before we get back to busi ness... We've got to break in Mim Adams and the new electi on committee for the annual elections.

Your pulse is gentle, your I students!

The students were just free from the excitement of the election and were ready to settle down for a quiet night. The election was over, and the students were ready to settle down for a quiet night.

Your pulse is gentle, your heart is content.

The students were just free from the excitement of the election and were ready to settle down for a quiet night. The election was over, and the students were ready to settle down for a quiet night.

Your pulse is gentle, your heart is content.

The students were just free from the excitement of the election and were ready to settle down for a quiet night. The election was over, and the students were ready to settle down for a quiet night.
Tri-State Home Ec Groups Meet Here
Miss Harriet Warner, Assistant Professor of Home Economics and Director of the College Nurses School, was hostess at a meeting of the Child Development and Family Life Curriculum Sections of the Tri-State Home Ec Organizations. The meeting was held at the college on October 26. In charge of the program were Miss Warner, chairman, and Professor at the University of Rhode Island. Each year this group meets.
Miss Warner said that this group meets at least three times a year.
The purpose is to discuss topics relating to curriculum, content, methods, materials, current concepts and student needs. The meeting concerned the teaching of classes in those fields.
Representatives from the University of Rhode Island, Massachusetts, and Connecticut, Provincetown State Teachers College, St. Joseph College, Simmons College, and Connecticut College were present.

PUZZLE NO. 13

CLUE: This Baptist college for women was chartered and opened in 1833. In 1927, Mt. Aube was chartered and opened in 1833. In 1927, Mt. Aube

ANSWER: Name
Address
City
State
College

Hold until you have completed all 24 puzzles

PUZZLE NO. 14

CLUE: Woodrow Wilson was the thirteenth

President of this college.

Opened in 1874. It was the fourth colored college.

ANSWER: Name
Address
City
State
College

Hold until you have completed all 24 puzzles

mathematics from Columbia University. During 1947-48 he served as the associating professor at the Applied Physics Laboratory of Johns Hopkins University. He has done theoretical research on guided missiles and was a constant contributor to the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists.

Younger Junior

(Continued from Page One)

present. The new was rarely viewed without some misuse of the old.

When Monsieur de Beaumont was saw that it was to become a fact, but it is now. The idea of

to do some thing

and attempt to crystallize into concrete suggest

all of us will, at least, create

a general sensitivity to the existence of a general school-wide

attitude, and point out the important role that each one of us can play in making it a positive and outstanding one.

Paley Stinger '58

Coleman

(Continued from Page One)

French Cuisine

To return to my earlier point about French cuisine—this shall always mean something quite special to me, since I spent time in Paris, in France, and visited in particular during the one period during the day when everyone could be sure of gathering together for at least an hour. It is often said, and usually

true, that the French are a very individualistic people.

Consequently, as a people

they may be, they are frequently separated much of the day. This is especially true of the de Bea-

numts.

The acting, for the most part,

was excellent, and the spirit of the play, to this family in New York.

University and his M.A. degree in

Physics.

Robert L. Perry Studio

Portraits of Quality

56 Huntington St. Phone GI 5389

New London, Conn.

FIFE & MONDO'S

Dancing Nitely to the Eddie Turner Trio

Dining and Dancing

Waterford, Conn.

FREE SPEECH
(Continued from Page Three)

that school spirit could easily be created. Good schools have this in their athletics and, with them, it is contagious, enveloping the spirits of the students in a unified whole. Is there not some end forward which we as Connecticut can work together with the same enthusiasm and co-operation.

I realize that my ideas as expressed here are illusive; however, they are this I think we like to call youthful spirit. It is now the time for all of us to do some thing... and attempt to crystallize into concrete suggestion

all of us will, at least, create

a general sensitivity to the existence of a general school-wide

attitude, and point out the important

role that each one of us can play in

making it a positive and outstanding one.

Paley Stinger '58

Dr. Coleman

(Continued from Page One)

French Cuisine

To return to my earlier point

about French cuisines—this shall always mean something quite special to me, since I spent some time in Paris, in France, and visited there in particular during the one period during the day when everyone could be sure of gathering together for at least an hour. It is often said, and usually

true, that the French are

a very individualistic people.

Consequently, as a people

they may be, they are frequently

separated much of the day. This is especially true of the de Bea-

numts.

The acting, for the most part,

was excellent, and the spirit of the play, to this family in New York.

University and his M.A. degree in Physics.