During Recess Faculty Attend Conferences.

National Educational Societies Convene.

Many of the educational conferences, held in all parts of the United States during the last week in December, were attended by faculty members of C. C. College Art Association.

Miss Sherer attended the conference of the College Art Association of America held at Cornell University. The most important development has grown out of that act of generosity in contributing relief to... (Continued on page 5, column 6.)

ELSHUCO TRIO WILL APPEAR AGAIN.

The Elshuco Trio, one of the most famous of chamber music organizations, is soon to be heard in New London. This concert is the third in the College Concert Series. It will occur Monday evening, January eighteenth, in the Bulkeley Auditorium. The Elshuco Trio played in New London two years ago, and won such a follow- ing that a return engagement was sought. The Elshuco Trio represents in its field what the Plancket Quartet represents in the field of the string quartet. Besides having been made... (Continued on page 4, column 5.)

Judge Huggins Discusses Civic Aspects of Labor.

During Convocation hour, Judge William Lloyd Huggins, of Kansas, representing the National Employers Association, addressed the college. President Marshall introduced the speaker of the afternoon.

The Judge began his address with a word concerning woman’s growing interest in public affairs, which is causing concern to the men. Some changes have all been brought about by the Industrial Revolution of the eighteenth century, which caused a change in the situation between employers and employees out of which has grown our modern industry and world markets. These world problems to be met. One of the chief problems is, thus, dis-

German Students Have Co-operative Association.

Self-Help a Post-War Development in Colleges.

In the period 1921-1922 the students of many nations and particularly of the United States contributed $400,000 for the relief of the students of Germany. Without this help it is likely that the German universities in the period of impoverishment immediately after the war would not have been able to continue.

Mr. Reinhold Schäfer has come to this country as a representative of the German Students Co-operative Association and is engaged in surveying the expenditure of that gift. The students of Germany have asked him to say to the students of the United States that they have decided to consider the gift as a loan. Payment of the loan will be made in the form of annual student contributions to the International Student Trust Fund, to be used to meet emergencies in education in all parts of the world.

As a measure of self-protection after the war, the students of Germany had organized a federation, the Deutsche Studentenverbindung, representing all the $9,000 undergraduates of the 44 universities. The financial aid from other hands made it possible for the federation to establish the German Students Co-operative Association to provide the means and ways whereby a student with scanty financial resources could earn an education.

The main function of the German Students Co-operative Association has, therefore, been its employment service. During the last four years it has provided jobs for more than 100,000 students for an average period of from 4 to 12 months. They are employed at all kinds of jobs done on the side; they are full time jobs, undertaken during the summer or at night, or during a year's interval in the college career; they include jobs in mines, in factories, in manual labor of all kinds.

That may be of some use to the American, accustomed to student em-

The majority of the German students, however, are working to support themselves for at least part of their educational career.

But that is only one item in the work of the German Students Co-operative Association. By means of student cafeterias and co-operative shops, it has reduced the costs of living for the undergraduates nearly 50 per cent.

Each student is given a medical ex-

OF INTEREST TO STUDENTS GOING TO
EUROPE THIS SUMMER.

The official national student organizations of Europe are preparing to offer special opportunities to a limited number of American students traveling abroad this summer. The programs are being arranged under the auspices of the Confederation Internationale des Etudiants, which is a federation of national student organizations in charge of international undertakings. Co-operating agencies are the International Student Service (formerly European Student Relief) and the German National Union of Students, which is the principal student organization not included in the Confederation Internationale des Etudiants. Over here, an advisory committee of educators is formed.

The plan is for small parties of American students—not over twelve or fifteen in each group—to travel through Europe with student guides, being recieved as they go by students, university authorities, statesmen, leading minds, distinguished hostesses. They will visit museums, palaces, cathedrals, factories, villages; but not as sightseers. These journeys are to be for acquaintance with people, their customs, and their ideas. The scenery, the art, and the historic grandeur of Europe will be seen as the back-drop against which a living drama is enacted.

Although they include features outside the scope of the regulation sightseeing tours, and are more difficult to arrange, the journeys will be less expensive. The European student organizations are connected in diverse ways with their governments and can secure, for their guests, rail travel and reductions. Continued on page 4, column 2.

An anonymous writer in The Outlook of January 6th states that the motion picture with college football is the "helping alumni." An editorial comment states that the writer of this article is closely identified with college athletics and a keen student of football.

"The biggest menace to college football to-day," he says, "is the aluing alumni. A team must win. A coach must turn out a winning team. In the Roman mob turns thumbs down and off comes his head."

"Halfback Grange is a quite natural evolution of the college football system. He is simply the forerunner of other star players who will join professional teams. A star football player is glorified, deified, and his true importance on the campus magnified until all sense of values is lost."

The writer then takes the case of a younger entering a big college. He is filled with ambition to play football. But he comes from a high school whose team had little reputation, and he is side-tracked by the coaches, who prefer those players who come with ready-made reputations. Therefore, the writer concludes, the boys who actually need the coaching and the physical and mental development don't get it! The standard that need it least get all of it! That's why I say that football in colleges has not been nationalized yet.

Judge Huggins discusses civic aspects of labor.
It is charged with selfishness with no regard for public rights, and achieving success as best it can.

In the evening, Judge Huggins adressed a class in New London Hall.
He supported strongly the judicial branch of the government, and cited cases, which organized labor held at fault. The basis of the attacks of organized labor was on the independence of the judicial system of the country.

ELSUCO TRIO WILL APPEAR AGAIN
It is famous through their work in the trio, these artists are all famous as soloists.
William Willeke is the veteran of the trio. He is one of the half-dozen great cellists of the world. He has been a soloist with great orchestras, and also has been a conductor. Mr.
Willeke has composed several pieces which have been played by Kreisler and other noted artists.

Aurelio Giordani, the Anglo-Italian pianist of the ensemble, is a celebrated soloist. He has excellent technique.

William Kroll, the violinist, is one of the finest of the younger generation of violinists. He has given many successful solo recitals.

The program is as follows:
Triol B Flat Major, Opus 99
Franz Schubert
Allegro Moderato
Andante Un Poco Mosso
Schirrm: Allegro
Rondo: Allegro Vivace
Sonata Apres in B Minor Jean Baptiste Cifollet
Allegro
