Wheaton President to Be Speaker at Vespers

President J. Edgar Parks of Wheaton College will be the speaker at Vespers, January 15th.

Rev. J. Edgar Parks was recently elected President of Wheaton College, Norton, Mass. He was born in Bethel, Iowa and had a British University training. He was a student at the New College, Edinburgh, Scotland; also in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Belfast, and in the Royal University in Dublin. He studied a year at Princeton Theological Seminary and was granted the degree of D.D. by Tufts College in 1914.

He is an author of considerable merit, a contributor to magazines. He is a very delightful speaker of pure humor and much feeling; particularly happy and inspiring with young people.

GIRLS MEET SECRETARY OF STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

Miss Margaret Crutchfield, graduate of Vassar, a secretary of the student volunteer movement, was at college during the past day or two, interpreting all girls interested in the student volunteer work. She is working within the framework of the student volunteer movement for the purpose of furthering one aspect of the life of the church. Its work is in those parts of the world where there is no food, no knowledge, no culture and no salvage of Christian life and thought of where there are few political means to determine the future of the community. Since 1895 colleges have been sending some of their best men and women as student volunteers. Those who become student volunteers are those who have been pointed as missionaries. They go out under the regular missionary organization. The movement exists primarily as a missionary educational recruiting agency, serving all evangelical churches irrespective of denominations.

Miss Crutchfield explained the aim of the movement as follows:

"The aim of the movement is to realize a world Christianity, a Christian world. The Christians in America are either helping or hindering the world to become Christian-like. The aim is to have the students carry out the ideas of Jesus, in living first, then in teaching. Jesus preached what he practiced. This is what we should do."

Miss Crutchfield was entertained by Alice Cook, 27, who was on campus.

At Home and Abroad

Supreme Court Decisions

Those students who study American History and government have just reviewed the Supreme Court decisions handed down by the Court under Judge Marshall, under which several new decisions have been made during this last week. In a case arising from a dispute as to proper boundary lines between the states of Michigan and Wisconsin, the court drew a new boundary line between the two states, running from Lake Superior to Green Bay. This is only a slight variation, however, of the old boundary line of any important cities. It does, however, settle the ownership of a few small tracts of Green Bay. Technically speaking, neither side won the case.

Wilson Essay

Elihu Root, president of the Woodrow Wilson foundation, before Christmas, accepted a check for $75,000, and a bronze medal, "in recognition of his services to humanity." Mr. Root had accepted the chair over to the foundation for an endowment fund. Inspired by Wilson, Dr. C. F. Troutt, an anonymous donor has announced through the Woodrow Wilson foundation, that he will award two prizes of $25,000 each to the man and woman, lettered and literary, who are of the average age of 25, or under.

The move is interesting to learn in more than twenty-five hundred words, and must be completed before October 1, 1927.

Foreign Affairs

China—The united diplomatic front so long presented by the powers toward China was broken last week by the release of a British note, calling upon other powers to safeguard the interests of the Chinese, and in turn, clearing up the causes for warfare and civil disorder in Hankow. The Americans in Hankow have been forced to leave for Shanghai. The British and United States forces and naval supplies are waiting their turn.

Mexico—President Cossoli has been greatly criticized for his foreign policy with Mexico, and it remains to be seen whether the Calles government will dare to offer the all lands held by Americans, in defiance of the protest of Secretary Kellogg.

Japan—Meanwhile, all Japan mourns her greatest and most tragic loss. On Saturday, January 9th, in Tokyo, she lost her last and finest example of a typical Japanese, her highest and noblest representative. This day, in turn, closes the funeral of the emperor, whose funeral, held late this week, was attended by representatives from all parts of the world. His Majesty Yoshihito Tenno, there present, received the obsequies with great dignity and reverence, and the country was at a standstill for the entire day.

YOUTH AND THE CHURCH

Youth is suffering from no lack of religious interest; rather, the church is trying to find some way to get them to take it seriously.

In religion, youth is seeking, not an absolute knowledge of the world and its values, nor the assurance that one finds in the great religions of the East, but a lack of reassurance, a lack of assurance that they will be taken care of by the Church, at least as this institution now is, not a center for social life, but a place where the various principles that it has entirely and unlearnedly taught it is to see, is a social structure that has broken down.

In the Church, at least as this institution now is, for the satisfaction of the Church's youth, not a center for social life, but a place where the various principles that it has entirely and unlearnedly taught it is to see, is a social structure that has broken down.

The style of the story resembles that of an old woman and is uninteresting, a fact that makes it difficult to sustain interest in the story. The style of the story resembles that of an old woman and is uninteresting, a fact that makes it difficult to sustain interest in the story.

FRANCES H. E. BARTON

The story is well told and we become very attached to the characters. Dr. Chase when we realize how very little he returns the way he was and how much we are sorry for his position.

C. C. ALUMNAE NEWS

A publication which is not as busy as some of the other publications in our college circle, is the Connecticut College Alumnae News. It is responsible for its appearance four times a year.

Pauline Warner, 26, is the editor-in-chief, with Blanch Finster, 27, as managing editor, and various assistants. In this quarter, all obtainable news is published about our alumnae. It is an excellent way of keeping in touch with our college and our future work is being done by them. The alumnae themselves are the chief contributors as regards their occupations. Pictures of them and their children are printed.

The magazine is not only about the alumnae, but for them. It is a service to the community, the social, political, educational innovations in the organization of Student Government, as well as the Board of Directors, considering the change of policy of the Cou-

ALUMNAE NOTES
From the Alumnae News comes more news of what 1928 is doing. Rose Pearl Brebeuf is teaching history and physical education at Wykham High school, in Washington, D. C. Letitia Burt is teaching in the N. J. State Normal School at Greenville. Elizabeth Bickford is teaching English at the University of Connecticut.

Elise Eckhardt teaches English at the West Hartford High school. Louie Gutthier is a librarian in the Omaha Public library. Arlene Haskins teaches English, Latin and economics in Newton High school, Newton, Conn. Alice Hess teaches English, civics and biology in Roxbury High school, Roxbury, Conn.

Miss Hess is doing social case work in Bridgewater, Conn.

Elsie Lee teaches English and history in the High school, Lakewold, Conn.

Isabel Newton is doing laboratory work at Mt. Holyoke college.

Hazel Osborn is secretary to a technical advertiser in New York city.

A letter has been received from the newly-formed chapter of the C. C. Alumnae association.

“We are having four meetings a year, plus a Christmas meeting with Chicago undergraduates. Such a one took place on December 22d, at a dinner party at the Clifton club, and turned quite successful.

“We plan a certain amount of social welfare work, and Virginia Lutzenkirten, ’25, is chairman of that committee. We donated dolls and sent them to a settlement house in time for Christmas. We each plan to "adopt" a child at the Crippled Children's home, to whom we will write often and whom we will occasion ally.

“We would like our new chapter to be a real home for anyone in Chicago wanting information about Connecticut college, for Connecticut college wanting a "spin-off" on Chicago prospects, and we want travelling members in to feel at all times free to get in touch with us when they come to Chicago.

The officers of the chapter are as follows:

President, Loula Nora Pick, ’25;
Vice-President, Mrs. John Potenz (Betty Runyon) ’25;
Secretary, Olive Hubert, ’25;
Treasurer, Irene Bennett, ’25; and Chaperon Entertainment, Mrs. L. B. Deforest (Jean Mundle) ’24.

Chairman Publicity: Eleanor Harris, ’25.

WESLEYAN PLANS COURSE FOR ART APPRECIATION

A course in the appreciation of art will be inaugurated at Wesleyan university next semester in conjunction with the receipt of an art collection from the Carnegie corporation. The collection, a permanent acquisition, consists of reproductions of the great masterpieces, original prints, textiles and books. It will be used to illustrate the series of lectures by Olle Tove, of New Haven, visiting lecturer in art.

COLLEGE EDITORS TO MEET
Harvard, Princeton and Yale daily newspaper editors will meet at the Chase school, 33 Washington street, New York, for the annual conference on problems of college publications. This meeting will be held at the Chase school at the invitation of Herbert George C. St. John, he author of "The Idea of the University," because of the cause of the interest at the school in collegiate journalism.

FACULTY ATTEND CONFERENCES

in the various schools of scholarship were discussed. An interesting joint meeting was held in the Modern Language association, the American Philological society, the American Institute of Archaeology, and the Linguistic Society of America. While the visitors were in Cambridge, Miss Longfellow opened her father's house for their inspection.

Dr. Gallup attended a conference in New York city.

Many of the science faculty, Dr. Dcl Cer, Dr. Prins, Dr. McKee, and Dr. C. H. Dallman, attended the conference of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, which was held in Philadelphia. It lasted from Monday, Dec. 27, to Saturday, Jan. 1. This association has seventeen sections for various branches of science. Many papers were presented in each branch. There were, besides, several sessions of interest to all. One of the most in teresting general sessions concerned the effect of Research in Colleges and Professional Schools. Another interesting lecture was presented by Dr. Michael Putin on "Fifty Years Progress in Electrical Communication."

HEALTH RULES OFFERED FOR EXTRA A. A. POINTS
A new system for obtaining A. A. points has just been inaugurated at college. This system is made up of a set of "health" rules. Up to this time only the girls who have been training for exams have gone into intensive training but the new system aims to reach every girl who does not try out for teams. It is an apologetic idea and it is hoped that a great many of the girls will try it out. These rules are not difficult in the least. In fact, they are almost too lenient. They are far better than this eratic "distich" which comes to the front ever so often and is in itself harmful. If these rules are faithfully kept would be the best discipline possible, and there would be no danger or worry over ill health. Let's give them a trial and prove the right or wrong of this statement.

The rules are:
- Sleep—Eight hours, beginning not later than 11. May begin later Friday and Saturday.
- Meals—Three a day, within one hour of the regular time. Sleep may be substituted for breakfast on Saturday and Sunday.
- Water—one glass before breakfast, three between meals, one at each meal. Tea or Coffee.—Not more than one cup at each meal.
- Food between meals—Fruit, plain ice cream, milk shakes, hot chocolate, iced milk, and unflavored crackers.
- Exercise.—One hour outdoors except on days of physical education class.
- Bath or shower each day.
- Posture must be H—though one may stand leaning and bring the posture at the end of the period.

This period is to last 28 days. One point is granted for each 28 days of training. Four cuts are allowed during the time. Academic standing must be two points.

PRIZE FOR NEW SETTING FOR "AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL"
The Pan-Americans assembly of the National Federation of Musical Clubs has announced a prize of $500 for a "truly adequate setting" of Katharine Lee Bates' "America the Beautiful." The contest is announced in the Boston Transcript of November 27. The Transcript continues to say that, "Apart from Mrs. Bates' own setting of the poem, written forty years ago, many attempts have been made to give "America the Beautiful" a proper musical setting, and while several of them have had a limited circulation, none of them has sought to universal favor or is believed to have the outstanding qualities that belong to a hymn for a great Nation to sing 'from sea to shining sea.'"

The following conditions of the contest are published in the Transcript:

1. The contest is open to every native-born American musician regardless of his residence.
2. The setting of "America, the Beautiful" is to be for mixed voices in hymn-form and in vocal range and character fitted for mass singing.
3. The judges are to be men of national reputation and will be instructed to award the prize of $500 only to a truly noble setting of the text of worship of all ages as a hymn for the nation.
4. The contest closes on Tuesday, March 1, 1927.
5. Manuscripts are to be sent to the chairman of the contest, Mrs. William Arms Fisher, 367 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston.
6. All manuscripts must be in the form of a complete manuscript and cannot be returned to the composer with postage for its return.
7. Contestants are limited to a single unpublished setting, but too request of Miss Bates, revisions by the composers of their published settings will be considered.
8. The prize setting is to be without any copyright restriction whatever and may be freely printed and freely performed.
