Catholic Mass Will Be At Vespers

Father Vincent C. Donovan, O.P., president, lecturer, and author, will speak at Vespers this Sunday evening, February 18, in the chapel. Father Donovan is the second speaker of Inter-faith Week which is being observed at Connecticut college.

Father Donovan, the National Director of the Catholic Thought Association, is an English speaking member of the Dominican Liturgical Institute of Rome and an authority on the Gregorian Chant and Catholic Liturgy. He is the brother of Col. W. Donovan, former assistant United States Attorney General.

His address will cover the subject "communion and liturgy and life."

Recently he has been active in initiating a campaign with Ralph Morris Larson of Baltimore and Dr. Eugene M. Baker of the National Conference of Jewish and Catholic Relations to form a new-good will team which last October went throughout the country, and has been talking about "Primer of Church Music." The club is planning two events of particular interest in addition to Vespers, the V.B.C. committee which is headed by Miss Mary C. Macpherson '42 will sell gardenias for five cents apiece and carnations for ten cents apiece, and a special lecture by Dr. Wind will provide fast swing and moonlighting. This special lecture by Dr. Wind is a visiting lecturer in the English department of the university of North Carolina. In 1939, and has been lecturing at various universities and art institutes. In the fall of 1941, Dr. Wind gave a series of lectures on the history of Renaissance Art at the Yale university. He will give five lectures on Fagyan Imagery in Renaissance Art at the Yale University. This series of lectures will be held on Wednesday, February 21, from eight o'clock to ten. The lecture will be held at the Yale Union, 1480 Broadway, New York City. The lectures will be held in the afternoon and four in the late evening.

President Blunt

The student body has received the news of President Katharine Blunt’s "unretirement" with gladness and relief. The request made of her by the Board of Trustees that she continue as president of the college, and her decision to do so, are the result of the qualifications of the candidates. Last year, participation in the elections was eighty-nine per cent. This year, it should, and must be one hundred per cent.

Music by Ken Reeves' Orchestra

Unable to run away, Flicka endured her small master's attentions. The two suffered together for a week. It was, however, a week of shared care. The touches and care of a small boy's devotion to a weakly but spiritless horse induced him to read this moving tale of the western horse and greencore country and discover the simplicity and beauty of ranch life, and the outcome of Ken's psychological revelation! Beauty is engraved on every page of My Friend Flicka.

Patriotic Daughter—Save a Dime or Quarter

If dimes and quarters are hard to save, Here's a remedy of which you'll rave: The C.C. Books has for you United States Defense Stamps, something new.

To date they've sold their very sum Of a hundred dollars, but they're not done. Each one of us must buy a share To show our country that we care.

So do your part in this way. And learn to save those quarters. Follow the crowd that's learned To defend a stamp for a week.

Professor Taught For Years In Connecticut Institute In Virginia

With the death of Dr. Henry W. Lawrence, professor of history and government, on Friday, January 25, Connecticut college has lost a beloved friend and an able and distinguished teacher and scholar.

Dr. Lawrence was known to the entire student body which attended the college and the surrounding area as the author of many books and lecture series. He was widely respected for his clear and engaging style of writing, and for his deep knowledge of history and government.

Dr. Lawrence, born at Nyack, N.Y., in 1896, was graduated from Yale university in 1920 and his philosophy, and was the author of several books on political philosophy. He also held a number of important positions in the field of education, including serving as president of the Connecticut college.

Dr. Lawrence was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Chi Rho, and Phi Delta Phi, and was the recipient of many awards and honors for his contributions to the field of education.

Dr. Lawrence was known throughout the state as a brilliant teacher and a devoted friend. He will be greatly missed by his students and colleagues.

Student Drive For Leib Fund Now $1,452.25

The result of the student drive for the Leib Memorial Scholarship Fund totaled $1,452.25 as of Friday afternoon. The returns, however, were not all of the amount expected, and a box will be placed in the Information Office in which students who have already pledged their payments may name and date.

Jewish Liturgy Is Vespers Topic Of Rabbi M. Lazarow

"Heal, O Israel," the Lord Our God, according to the liturgy, was sung by Rabbi M. Lazarow, former president of the Hebrew Congregation, at vespers service Sunday evening. February 15 at 7:00 in the Chapel. The liturgy was due to Dr. Lazarow's talk which inaugurated Interfaith Month.

Rabbi Lazarow explained that Jewish prayer is two way conversational, an attempt to better human relations. Dr. Charles Chakerian, assistant professor of economics, contributed a discussion by pointing out that the resources of war and the present needs of the world were devoted to the winning of this high Holy Days, and other festivals.

An informal discussion in the vespers service followed the vespers service.

Pres. Blunt Feels College Is United In Its War Effort

The ways by which the college is playing its part in the war was the subject of Katharine Blunt's chapel talk on Tuesday, February 13. Mentioning the "trustee's" request that she remain in the president's office, the president spoke of the two most important points to be developed in the college at the present time.

First, to carry the college's contributions along, it should not have dared to stay at home and not understand the war. Just where students can best fit him to help win the war is a personal problem. And to such a problem working next year, others at summer school, and so on. More definite contribution would solve the problem will be developed soon.

In conclusion the President said, "The most important duty is to be a soldier, a citizen, a member of the body politic with the college participating, of course.

Demonstration For Home Ec. Students

Demonstrating while teaching, Miss Josephine A. Green, assistant teaching of the home economists for the past twelve years, Monday, February 18, of the Home Economists club, Miss Elizabeth Hughes, 42, and Marian Reich, 43, began by functioning as an all-woman workshop. The demonstration was performed in the presence of all the students, including Mr. and Mrs. George V. Bowers, Junior, and of a small group of relatives and friends. The bride was married in the late Senator and Mrs. Alonzo M. Green of Newport, and Mrs. Alonzo M. Green of Newport, and Mrs. Alonzo M. Green of Newport.

The demonstration was conducted by the Home Economics Department, which has been in existence for the past twelve years.

C. C. Girls Prepare Dressings To Fill Emergency Supply
At the request of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Lawrence and Memorial Hospital, a group of student nurses are being organized to make surgical dressings. The New London Civilian Defense Council has asked the hospital to have a large supply of dressings on hand in order to take care of any emergency. Groups of women have been organized in various sections of the city to take care of this.

Twenty-eight students at the hospital have signed up. The time and place of the first meeting will be announced later. For the present, the group will meet once a month.

taken by another slightly older in appearance, but much older in bearing. "She," I thought, "is from the campus on the hill.

Then my attention was drawn by a magnet to the Reactions at the Boy behind the Counter.

Adoration enters the picture. Pure, unadulterated Admiration in large quantities, generously dished out to the Girl from the Hill. "Ah, here is the fabled Love of our Hollywood and young love movies. This is the Real Stuff!" I began to ruminate on my own past days, and began to feel a certain degree of comraderie between those on opposite sides of the counter. Banner from those upon one level to others on the same level. "Fun, this kid stuff," said I.

Miss Hieb has adopted a new policy in roll calling this year. When an absence is noted instead of answering questions, the health, she now says, "Is Miss X married?"

\(\text{(Contributor's note: Our news items seem to run to three calls, one of the most exciting of class procedure, this week.)}\)

On a quiz returned to Jean Bagby '44, formerly Miss Jean Brown, Dr. Chaloner wrote a little note saying, "Are you the young lady who was married recently? If so, congratulations!"

When the roll call sheet was passed around the next time in class, Mrs. Bagby signed her name like all good little students do and added an answer to the question. "Yes, I'm the young lady who was married recently. Are you the young man who recently followed in my footsteps?"

We're maddeningly waiting for the next installment in this correspondence.
