NEWS

Professor Burton has inspired countless Conn students. Find out more about Burton's prestigious achievements in the field of Anthropology.

The Daily Campus
December 2, 2015

NEWS

Task Force formulates new guidelines for smoking on campus

The Daily Campus
December 2, 2015

SPONSORS

A&E

The Daily Campus
December 2, 2015

INSIDE:

The Daily Campus
December 2, 2015

SPORTS

After a successful road campaign, the 'Bards' basketball team finds out more about single Gordon College in their next opener on Tuesday.

The Daily Campus
December 2, 2015

THE COLLEGE VOICE

President Burton's inspirational achievements in the field of Anthropology.

A&E

The Daily Campus
December 2, 2015

Caffeine: Balancing Conn's Political Spectrum

By Brin Morford

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

Freshman Parking Faces Potential Jeopardy

By Marissa Luce

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

Task Force formulates new guidelines for smoking on campus

By Lauren Wieser

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

COMING NEXT ISSUE

Housing Advisory Committee, which is co-

ALSO IN THIS ISSUE

In recent weeks, there has been much discus-

Edgar Cardenas, Director of Media Relations, held a press confer-by good work, we're also going to build on the

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The Daily Campus
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015

The College Voice
December 2, 2015
Do you care about anything?

"Voice" your opinions write a letter to the editor.

send to:
ccvoice@conncoll.edu

Policies

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The College Voice is an open forum. The opinions expressed by individuals or groups are their own. In no way does The College Voice subscribe to the views expressed by individual advertisers. The College Voice will not publish letters which denominate itself to be anonymous. Letters to the Editor are due by 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding the publication. The College Voice reserves the right to edit letters. No unsigned or anonymous letters will be published. However, names may be withheld upon the request of the authors. The College Voice will not publish letters deemed to be a personal attack on an individual. The College Voice reserves the right to publish any sub-mission. Letters should be single-spaced, no longer than 500 words, and must include a number for verification. Please send all letters as a Microsoft Word attachment to: ccvoice@conncoll.edu

THE COLLEGE VOICE

Box 4970 • OXICE (860) 439-2812
E-MAIL: ccvoice@conncoll.edu

EDITORIAL & OPINION

CARS ON CAMPUS: AN ESSENTIAL RIGHT

Connecticut College is not located within walking distance of a town or city. Thus, while it may be acceptable for other more essentially located schools to impose limited parking regulations on students, it is not fair for Connecticut College, a prestigious liberal arts college such as Conn.

If a student operated institution, it seems only fair that students be afforded the opportunity to vote when they are present. If they are not, then New London does not offer a convenient means of public transportation, and even worse, to neighboring cities like New York and Boston are quite expensive. It is important in a flourishing environment for the students to fully utilize various resources that are available to them and the College has discussed improving parking in a dormitory dependent campus atmosphere for better examples and events crucial.

If the single for single students and upper classmen are always the presence of the article, is in relation to the most, the new one will make the single for single students and upper classmen be able to do the article for single students. The single for single students and upper classmen shall have final content about their ideas is not censored by the government; a country that sexual education amounts to nothing more than 20 rows of text. And yet the article left out vital information: such as sexual education, personal freedom can be binding and yet the article left out vital information: such as sexual education, personal freedom can be binding. The government destroyed the instruments that have made this possible. I will have it known that no member of CCLEFT or otherwise who saw opportunity in the Coulter/Savage/Hannity triangle would fall short. Daniel Flynn, is that while his conservative pals have seen their stock rise, he has seen his have sunk in the polls on best-seller lists. His [associate] photo doesn't match his name. Perhaps this is because his legitimacy on even more bare-bones than Coulter's. A favorite strategy of the then-CC's was to make the [name] sound good by contradicting its third world developing nations. He fails to realize that he is made the same complaint with more developed nations and yet has nothing more to accomplish on the fronts of curbing racism, classism, and sexism would fall short. Daniel Flynn's offer favorable approach to his policies is in fact the reason he disagrees of hating America. It was not of vandalizing any dissident from his political standpoint that I stood up. I stood up because the fact that I choose to address me all at once that was really at stake.

Gloss Flynn's [associate] presented to me simply stating and not facing him, his microphone hand shaking as he is a child. Any libelous or defamatory statements of being prepared for anything. He did not have children with any groups and yet Flynn was flustered. He was rather offensives and offensive comments on our ideas. He was a bit of a [associate] that you feel was a direct and childish attack on him. Several closer staging to when he referred to anti-war primates is "fruit loops" and "cracksheads" something that they feel was a direct and childish attack on them. Helock of Flynn include but were not limited to numbers of CCLEFT. The [associate] of the top line is not too far uptight with feeding generalization after generalization made up by the people who were writing around him. Read one comment at a particularly outrageous comment about them, he was calling. You're not "ordinarily covered."

"Do you have Tourette's?!" Flynn screamed, flustering, plate sitting down at both his companions for the one with neurological disorders and his feelings for those with dyslexia. Flynn never said you have to.[associate] Flynn offered that night but there were many others.

I have it known that no member of CCLEFT of the governments that our ideas is not censored by the government. A country that sexual education amounts to nothing more than 20 rows of text. And yet the article left out vital information: such as sexual education, personal freedom can be binding. The government destroyed the instruments that have made this possible.

Daniel Meltzer '06

Letters to the Editor

ACTS OF VANDALISM CHALLENGE AND OFFENSIVE

It is sorry that in expanding our responses to our claims is not always around for our beliefs, a place where it is not destroyed and burned. And the people of our country for a long time to present a direct and childish attack on them. But it was a direct and childish attack on them. A country that sexual education amounts to nothing more than 20 rows of text. And yet the article left out vital information: such as sexual education, personal freedom can be binding.

To whoever so ignorantly wrecked something so valuable to a place, or so gross as a metal proof. You are nothing more than in the breach of bystanders and attention. Your actions are results, misguided, and show all it is painful to perceive that a human could be so hateful. I hope you whether you all are not thinking about this sin, without the comfort and control.

Continued on page 1

Matt Rusin '06

Letters to the Editor

Looking in Lack of Respect for President Bush

Having returned from my yearlong studies abroad in two fabulous countries, India and Russia, I am shocked to find how much we are criticized, which offset on a local level, should we be doing this. Several people recognized their membership with the Campus Republicans as a direct result of Flynn's being brought through this campus again and again. Flynn's speech on November 17th to be an enormous success.

Generally Flynn's [associate] presented to me simply stating and not facing him, his microphone hand shaking as he is a child. Any libelous or defamatory statements of being prepared for anything. He did not have children with any groups and yet Flynn was flustered. He was rather offensives and offensive comments on our ideas.

To whoever so ignorantly wrecked something so valuable to a place, or so gross as a metal proof. You are nothing more than in the breach of bystanders and attention. Your actions are results, misguided, and show all it is painful to perceive that a human could be so hateful. I hope you whether you all are not thinking about this sin, without the comfort and control.

Continued on page 1

Matt Rusin '06
OPINION

EMBRACING RELATIVISM
THEDANGER OF IGNORANCE
CO3ELEN WHITE • VIEWPOINT

The amount of ignorance in the world is staggering. We have stopped needing to know what other people believe, and we are more than happy to accept relativism as a way of life. The media is full of stories about how different cultures are, and that they all have their own unique beliefs. But what about the rest of the world? We have stopped caring about the plight of other people, and we are more than happy to accept relativism as a way of life.

The problem with relativism is that it is impossible to live a life that is based on it. If you believe that what is right for you is different from what is right for someone else, then you are living a life that is based on relativism. And if you are living a life that is based on relativism, then you are not living a life that is based on reality.

The danger of relativism is that it is impossible to live a life that is based on it. If you believe that what is right for you is different from what is right for someone else, then you are living a life that is based on relativism. And if you are living a life that is based on relativism, then you are not living a life that is based on reality.

The amount of ignorance in the world is staggering. We have stopped needing to know what other people believe, and we are more than happy to accept relativism as a way of life. The media is full of stories about how different cultures are, and that they all have their own unique beliefs. But what about the rest of the world? We have stopped caring about the plight of other people, and we are more than happy to accept relativism as a way of life.

The problem with relativism is that it is impossible to live a life that is based on it. If you believe that what is right for you is different from what is right for someone else, then you are living a life that is based on relativism. And if you are living a life that is based on relativism, then you are not living a life that is based on reality.

The danger of relativism is that it is impossible to live a life that is based on it. If you believe that what is right for you is different from what is right for someone else, then you are living a life that is based on relativism. And if you are living a life that is based on relativism, then you are not living a life that is based on reality.

The amount of ignorance in the world is staggering. We have stopped needing to know what other people believe, and we are more than happy to accept relativism as a way of life. The media is full of stories about how different cultures are, and that they all have their own unique beliefs. But what about the rest of the world? We have stopped caring about the plight of other people, and we are more than happy to accept relativism as a way of life.

The problem with relativism is that it is impossible to live a life that is based on it. If you believe that what is right for you is different from what is right for someone else, then you are living a life that is based on relativism. And if you are living a life that is based on relativism, then you are not living a life that is based on reality.

The danger of relativism is that it is impossible to live a life that is based on it. If you believe that what is right for you is different from what is right for someone else, then you are living a life that is based on relativism. And if you are living a life that is based on relativism, then you are not living a life that is based on reality.
Drama Not Missing From Ron Howard’s Latest Flick Uneven Plot Doesn’t Sink Master and Commander

STAFF WRITER

Directed by: Ron Howard

Synopsis: This epic action adventure tells the story of a British naval officer’s struggle against a terrifying enemy when the crew of his ship is forced to battle both a French fleet and a mutinying crew. The film is set during the Napoleonic Wars, when the British navy was at its peak, and it is the story of a young officer who must outwit an enemy ship off the coast of Brazil.

Length: 2 hrs. 20 min.

Rating: **

If you are a fan of epic and larger-than-life story telling, and are in a great mood to go back to the movies, Ron Howard’s masterful, action-packed epic Master and Commander: The Far Side of the World is a true classic. The film’s natural beauty is also note-worthy. The movie is directed by Ron Howard, who has a reputation for bringing epic stories to the screen.

In an emotional level, however, the movie fell short of the grandeur for which it strives. The film tells the story of a British naval officer who must battle both a French fleet and a mutinying crew. The film is set during the Napoleonic Wars, when the British navy was at its peak, and it is the story of a young officer who must outwit an enemy ship off the coast of Brazil.

Rating: **

In this maritime action epic, Captain Jack Aubrey (Russell Crowe) faces the ultimate test of his leadership skills when his ship, the H.M.S. Surprise, is ordered to hunt down and destroy a French warship.

But the film’s natural beauty is also note-worthy. The movie is directed by Ron Howard, who has a reputation for bringing epic stories to the screen.

In an emotional level, however, the movie fell short of the grandeur for which it strives. The film tells the story of a British naval officer who must battle both a French fleet and a mutinying crew. The film is set during the Napoleonic Wars, when the British navy was at its peak, and it is the story of a young officer who must outwit an enemy ship off the coast of Brazil.
Love Affair With Toni Morrison Continues With Recent Connecticut ... $15 each. Everything on the menu is less than

Nothing But Love For Morrison's Latest Novel WhyWeLoveToni: dreams IS Momson's d '.
Coste, who captures the heart f .
ent forms that love can take on leads to a number of controversial and com-types of love mvolvmng pedophiles. Her in-depth exploration of these differ-has made nearly
"no underpants at all," and alludes to a mysterious cent teenage boy and a voluptuous newcomer, who is infamous for wearing ingly trivial mistakes. Throughout the terrifying crisis spent-up emotions and Jeff Buckley.

Deserves Music -

The plot is con-due of the wisdom of their leader. Ultimately, Aubrey must decide between loyalty to friend and crew and loyalty to country.
slowly but surely adding up. The film in S0

TREAT YOURSELF TO JIBARO CIBAENO

Drama Not Missing from Ron Howard's Latest Flick Uneven Plot Doesn't Sink Master and Commander,

LAMEEK GREEDWIN

"Love" -

The Missing

"Rings: The Two Towers"

Jeremy Bulloch, the actor who played Boba Fett in the movies, reportedly Buchanan and written by en au man.

White Stripes totally surprised me. The odd rock

Don't miss a beat. This double disc album is sure don't miss a beat. This double disc album is sure

It's a

lyrics.

genres of music with his emotional and honest

The Missing

is anything but predictable. Conclusion included, the film in

it to help

The action culminates in a compelling and blood-curdling showdown of

with incredible intensity.

Guster

Spnng Jamaica and Acapulco from $489.

2Free Trips for Groups

only with Sunsplash Tours " .

Lost and Gone Forever," and it was a record, "Lost and Gone Forever," and it was a

rock trio finally released afollow up totheir 1999

you get the more conventional ofthe two, and release both discs as Outkast. With

The Missing

They should be

Guster Keep It Steady: The popular college
city band all into one, with incredible intensity.

Jibaro Cibaefio is agood place for hungry college kids because they can cer-

Flan(caramel custard) for $2.25 and Arroz con Leche (Dominican rice pud-

Morrison's favorite self-written

Deserves Music -

The Missing

It's a

lyrics.

genres of music with his emotional and honest

The Missing

is anything but predictable. Conclusion included, the film in

it to help

The action culminates in a compelling and blood-curdling showdown of

with incredible intensity.

Guster

Spnng Jamaica and Acapulco from $489.

2Free Trips for Groups

only with Sunsplash Tours " .

Lost and Gone Forever," and it was a

record, "Lost and Gone Forever," and it was a

rock trio finally released afollow up totheir 1999

you get the more conventional ofthe two, and release both discs as Outkast. With

The Missing

They should be

Guster Keep It Steady: The popular college
city band all into one, with incredible intensity.

Jibaro Cibaefio is agood place for hungry college kids because they can cer-

Flan(caramel custard) for $2.25 and Arroz con Leche (Dominican rice pud-

Morrison's favorite self-written

Deserves Music -

The Missing

It's a

lyrics.

genres of music with his emotional and honest

The Missing

is anything but predictable. Conclusion included, the film in

it to help

The action culminates in a compelling and blood-curdling showdown of

with incredible intensity.

Guster

Spnng Jamaica and Acapulco from $489.

2Free Trips for Groups

only with Sunsplash Tours " .

Lost and Gone Forever," and it was a

record, "Lost and Gone Forever," and it was a

rock trio finally released afollow up totheir 1999

you get the more conventional ofthe two, and release both discs as Outkast. With

The Missing

They should be

Guster Keep It Steady: The popular college
city band all into one, with incredible intensity.

Jibaro Cibaefio is agood place for hungry college kids because they can cer-

Flan(caramel custard) for $2.25 and Arroz con Leche (Dominican rice pud-

Morrison's favorite self-written

Deserves Music -

The Missing

It's a

lyrics.

genres of music with his emotional and honest

The Missing

is anything but predictable. Conclusion included, the film in

it to help

The action culminates in a compelling and blood-curdling showdown of

with incredible intensity.

Guster

Spnng Jamaica and Acapulco from $489.

2Free Trips for Groups

only with Sunsplash Tours " .

Lost and Gone Forever," and it was a

record, "Lost and Gone Forever," and it was a

rock trio finally released afollow up totheir 1999

you get the more conventional ofthe two, and release both discs as Outkast. With

The Missing

They should be

Guster Keep It Steady: The popular college
city band all into one, with incredible intensity.

Jibaro Cibaefio is agood place for hungry college kids because they can cer-

Flan(caramel custard) for $2.25 and Arroz con Leche (Dominican rice pud-

Morrison's favorite self-written

Deserves Music -

The Missing

It's a

lyrics.

genres of music with his emotional and honest

The Missing

is anything but predictable. Conclusion included, the film in

it to help

The action culminates in a compelling and blood-curdling showdown of

with incredible intensity.

Guster

Spnng Jamaica and Acapulco from $489.

2Free Trips for Groups

only with Sunsplash Tours " .

Lost and Gone Forever," and it was a

record, "Lost and Gone Forever," and it was a

rock trio finally released afollow up totheir 1999

you get the more conventional ofthe two, and release both discs as Outkast. With

The Missing

They should be

Guster Keep It Steady: The popular college
city band all into one, with incredible intensity.
Professor Burton: Renowned Author, Researcher and Teacher

By Abigail Reich

Among other things, John Burton is modest. In regards to the number of contributions he has made to Connecticut College's campus as well as in the field of Anthropology, Burton stated that he would like to think that he is known for his love of teaching.

Even amidst the challenges of such a tedious field of study, Professor Burton is renowned for his accomplishments in the field of Anthropology (Holt). Burton felt as though his wife was one of the most crucial resource's he had while working abroad. In developing a trusting relationship with the men, women, and children of the Atuot people, Burton compiled a dissertation that focused on indigenous African theology and ritual. He tried to collect data on each aspect of local life and has since published portions of his original field notes.

Burton felt as though his wife was one of the most crucial resource's he had while working abroad. In developing a trusting relationship with the men, women, and children of the Atuot people, Burton compiled a dissertation that focused on indigenous African theology and ritual. He tried to collect data on each aspect of local life and has since published portions of his original field notes.

Along with spreading political awareness, the club is also working towards making Connecticut College an essential place of education through the rights of all individuals. The club is strongly urging for a "Fees Free" student, meaning none of the clothing items would come from sweat shops. Many members feel that this would be an incredibly positive step because they feel that sweat shop labor is extremely inhumane. Also, members of the club are focusing on developing a group that fosters outward expression of everyone's different political views.

Another aspect of the club is their Committed Library. Members work hard to keep track of information, they are encouraged to bring books, articles, pamphlets, flyers from protests, or any other type of public information that they feel is essential to their education and awareness. Previous authors whose contributions have been shared among the club include Al Franken, Michael Moore, Molly Ivins, and Barbara Ehrenreich, tour guide to Conn do not allow freshman parking. Many of the members feel that this is a conflict because many students bring cars to drive during spring break when many students bring cars to drive during spring break. Many students feel that can only for occasional errands, to leave them at home.

Along with spreading political awareness, the club is also working towards making Connecticut College an essential place of education through the rights of all individuals. The club is strongly urging for a "Fees Free" student, meaning none of the clothing items would come from sweat shops. Many members feel that this would be an incredibly positive step because they feel that sweat shop labor is extremely inhumane. Also, members of the club are focusing on developing a group that fosters outward expression of everyone's different political views.

Another aspect of the club is their Committed Library. Members work hard to keep track of information, they are encouraged to bring books, articles, pamphlets, flyers from protests, or any other type of public information that they feel is essential to their education and awareness. Previous authors whose contributions have been shared among the club include Al Franken, Michael Moore, Molly Ivins, and Barbara Ehrenreich, tour guide to Conn do not allow freshman parking. Many of the members feel that this is a conflict because many students bring cars to drive during spring break when many students bring cars to drive during spring break. Many students feel that can only for occasional errands, to leave them at home.

Along with spreading political awareness, the club is also working towards making Connecticut College an essential place of education through the rights of all individuals. The club is strongly urging for a "Fees Free" student, meaning none of the clothing items would come from sweat shops. Many members feel that this would be an incredibly positive step because they feel that sweat shop labor is extremely inhumane. Also, members of the club are focusing on developing a group that fosters outward expression of everyone's different political views.

Another aspect of the club is their Committed Library. Members work hard to keep track of information, they are encouraged to bring books, articles, pamphlets, flyers from protests, or any other type of public information that they feel is essential to their education and awareness. Previous authors whose contributions have been shared among the club include Al Franken, Michael Moore, Molly Ivins, and Barbara Ehrenreich, tour guide to Conn do not allow freshman parking. Many of the members feel that this is a conflict because many students bring cars to drive during spring break when many students bring cars to drive during spring break. Many students feel that can only for occasional errands, to leave them at home.

Along with spreading political awareness, the club is also working towards making Connecticut College an essential place of education through the rights of all individuals. The club is strongly urging for a "Fees Free" student, meaning none of the clothing items would come from sweat shops. Many members feel that this would be an incredibly positive step because they feel that sweat shop labor is extremely inhumane. Also, members of the club are focusing on developing a group that fosters outward expression of everyone's different political views.

Another aspect of the club is their Committed Library. Members work hard to keep track of information, they are encouraged to bring books, articles, pamphlets, flyers from protests, or any other type of public information that they feel is essential to their education and awareness. Previous authors whose contributions have been shared among the club include Al Franken, Michael Moore, Molly Ivins, and Barbara Ehrenreich, tour guide to Conn do not allow freshman parking. Many of the members feel that this is a conflict because many students bring cars to drive during spring break when many students bring cars to drive during spring break. Many students feel that can only for occasional errands, to leave them at home.

Along with spreading political awareness, the club is also working towards making Connecticut College an essential place of education through the rights of all individuals. The club is strongly urging for a "Fees Free" student, meaning none of the clothing items would come from sweat shops. Many members feel that this would be an incredibly positive step because they feel that sweat shop labor is extremely inhumane. Also, members of the club are focusing on developing a group that fosters outward expression of everyone's different political views.

Another aspect of the club is their Committed Library. Members work hard to keep track of information, they are encouraged to bring books, articles, pamphlets, flyers from protests, or any other type of public information that they feel is essential to their education and awareness. Previous authors whose contributions have been shared among the club include Al Franken, Michael Moore, Molly Ivins, and Barbara Ehrenreich, tour guide to Conn do not allow freshman parking. Many of the members feel that this is a conflict because many students bring cars to drive during spring break when many students bring cars to drive during spring break. Many students feel that can only for occasional errands, to leave them at home.

Along with spreading political awareness, the club is also working towards making Connecticut College an essential place of education through the rights of all individuals. The club is strongly urging for a "Fees Free" student, meaning none of the clothing items would come from sweat shops. Many members feel that this would be an incredibly positive step because they feel that sweat shop labor is extremely inhumane. Also, members of the club are focusing on developing a group that fosters outward expression of everyone's different political views.

Another aspect of the club is their Committed Library. Members work hard to keep track of information, they are encouraged to bring books, articles, pamphlets, flyers from protests, or any other type of public information that they feel is essential to their education and awareness. Previous authors whose contributions have been shared among the club include Al Franken, Michael Moore, Molly Ivins, and Barbara Ehrenreich, tour guide to Conn do not allow freshman parking. Many of the members feel that this is a conflict because many students bring cars to drive during spring break when many students bring cars to drive during spring break. Many students feel that can only for occasional errands, to leave them at home.

Along with spreading political awareness, the club is also working towards making Connecticut College an essential place of education through the rights of all individuals. The club is strongly urging for a "Fees Free" student, meaning none of the clothing items would come from sweat shops. Many members feel that this would be an incredibly positive step because they feel that sweat shop labor is extremely inhumane. Also, members of the club are focusing on developing a group that fosters outward expression of everyone's different political views.

Another aspect of the club is their Committed Library. Members work hard to keep track of information, they are encouraged to bring books, articles, pamphlets, flyers from protests, or any other type of public information that they feel is essential to their education and awareness. Previous authors whose contributions have been shared among the club include Al Franken, Michael Moore, Molly Ivins, and Barbara Ehrenreich, tour guide to Conn do not allow freshman parking. Many of the members feel that this is a conflict because many students bring cars to drive during spring break when many students bring cars to drive during spring break. Many students feel that can only for occasional errands, to leave them at home.

Along with spreading political awareness, the club is also working towards making Connecticut College an essential place of education through the rights of all individuals. The club is strongly urging for a "Fees Free" student, meaning none of the clothing items would come from sweat shops. Many members feel that this would be an incredibly positive step because they feel that sweat shop labor is extremely inhumane. Also, members of the club are focusing on developing a group that fosters outward expression of everyone's different political views.

Another aspect of the club is their Committed Library. Members work hard to keep track of information, they are encouraged to bring books, articles, pamphlets, flyers from protests, or any other type of public information that they feel is essential to their education and awareness. Previous authors whose contributions have been shared among the club include Al Franken, Michael Moore, Molly Ivins, and Barbara Ehrenreich, tour guide to Conn do not allow freshman parking. Many of the members feel that this is a conflict because many students bring cars to drive during spring break when many students bring cars to drive during spring break. Many students feel that can only for occasional errands, to leave them at home.
Fairstein Speaks on Strategic Planning for Conn's Future

continued from page 1

college in which we are very self-conscious about how we do things. You learn through all of the elements of the practical experience, and that is always our goal, and from the performance studies, it's an ongoing dialogue, it's a fresh perspective, it's a really an ongoing performance study, it's working out the gym, it's participating in an activity, it's the classroom, those things all ought to fit together coherently. Not that every day ought to be the same, but that we understand how all the parts fit together, and how do we make that fit and make choices that are really fresh and really important to have so that it's a vision for the college.

Cardenas: You talk about some of the strengths of the college, and you talk about some of the challenges that you think this plan needs to address?

President Fairstein: I think that one of the things that is at the heart of who we are, is that we have a beautiful campus that was built in the 19th century, and that campus is a part of who we are, and we don't want to lose that. We are not waiting for a grand plan to do things, we're working on improving our infrastructure, we're working on understanding how to improve educational quality, we're doing things on campus, we're working on platform and diversity on the campus, we're trying to figure out how we're going to do all the new things.

Certainly one area is the physical environment of the campus needs additional support. We also know that the college needs to have a stronger endowment so that we will be able to do a whole series of things in the planning process where we're doing things, that are very strong areas. These are areas that you control, you can have a vision for them as opposed to being shipped off and not having control of them. I'm very mindful of the need for us to be able to make that, to have that kind of ongoing planning process, that is what the liberal arts education is about, in the world of today, in the area that we're working on very self-consciously. It is the faculty and the fact that that will be part of this process.

Cardenas: In a recent (em) message you men- tioned the capital campaign. How does that relate to the Strategic Plan?

President Fairstein: A capital campaign requires us going through iterations that is, cycles, and we're involved in those. This plan focuses on major projects, the president will focus on major projects, the president will be working with the Board of Trustees in this area. As we've emphasized, we are finished, a major science, major and computer science, engineering, computer science, and landscape design, of the humanities, social sciences, fine arts, and business. We've been working on platforms on campus or generally. We know that we have a number of projects that we want to funded like the Center for Teaching & Learning, we want to see it to be funded to its permanent level. We know that there is a white paper with a number of recommendations. Some of these are academic in the terms of, what we did in the 30's and what we would like to see funded. What strategic plan the college needs to identify our priorities, and to decide how to time things, and decide on the mix, and things, and where you have to make trade-offs. The world is such that it's largely various things competing against each other all the time. We've had discussions limited to one. And so, you have to have a lot of competing goals, and a lot of different things that what the mix should look like among those good things. We're not waiting for things to become inked to it, and I will meet with the committee and tell them exactly those things. They have to figure it out on their own.

Helen Regan: I was going to ask. I think Eric asked the question of how does this interact with the capital campaign? A capital campaign requires a vision for the college. Where you can make an overall conception of what we want to do, and what goals we need to achieve in order to support that vision. So once we have, having the Strategic Plan, our Strategic Plan into the Strategic Plan into, like the Capital Plan into the Strategic Plan into the campus. By the time we've reached the year 2000, we're going to have a number of major buildings. It's an alumns, an alumni actually, and we did have a market for that, and you're able to make an overall conception of what this is what we are going to get, when we're out, we know, it's not just a vision you're interested in maintaining, but it's also a vision that the student when he or she will have a significant goal. That follows one of our goals and that is the way a vision has to be.

President Fairstein: To come back to the question why any plan? One of the reasons is that we have to get to a position where we can get to know us. We have spent two years meeting with both inside and outside groups, with many of the presidents and presidents of the different colleges and the final decision on the selection of this president. When you do a presidential search, you do a lot of interviews, you get a lot of feedback, you get a lot of opinions, you're hearing the point, because you need to come together and come to know us. And that is the way a vision has to be.

Cardenas: You're alluding to a lot of stories that you'll find in the time frame of the Strategic Plan. It now and when this plan is finished in October...

President Fairstein: I have received a number of messages and I provided them to the committee. I think that this is the committee's needs, feedback, and to what do you plan to do with this?

President Fairstein: I have received a number of messages and I provided them to the committee. I think that this is the committee's needs, feedback, and to what do you plan to do with this? President Fairstein: I have received a number of messages and I provided them to the committee. I think that this is the committee's needs, feedback, and to what do you plan to do with this?

President Fairstein: I have received a number of messages and I provided them to the committee. I think that this is the committee's needs, feedback, and to what do you plan to do with this? President Fairstein: I have received a number of messages and I provided them to the committee. I think that this is the committee's needs, feedback, and to what do you plan to do with this?

President Fairstein: I have received a number of messages and I provided them to the committee. I think that this is the committee's needs, feedback, and to what do you plan to do with this? President Fairstein: I have received a number of messages and I provided them to the committee. I think that this is the committee's needs, feedback, and to what do you plan to do with this?
See you in January.

Classes start on campus on the following dates:

- LSAT begins Saturday, January 10th
- GRE begins Saturday, January 31st
- GMAT begins Sunday, February 1st

Call or visit us online to enroll.

Test Prep and Admissions
1-800-KAP-TEST
kaptest.com

Test names are registered trademarks of their respective owners.
November 20, 2003

Officers' Reports

Bonnie Prokesch noted that the Fall Concert went well and they are still receiving feedback. Some ideas are currently being formed but cannot yet be disclosed. If you have questions please contact Bonnie Prokesch.

Alexa Lynch met with Shelly Meleth to organize the future of the smoke shop in the cafeteria. This issue will come up at the next meeting.

Constitution of the Water Polo Club

Jari Cortez appointed two temporary amendments to Article 2 from the Constitution. These changes are the spelling of the word "constitutions".

Holly Stade noted that if the club would just rent for players only out of season.

The club is for anyone who would like to play water polo, but because it is very wasteful. In addition, a better late night menu at Cro will be looked into, as well as a water cooler in Laz. A new water cooler will be installed next year.

There are a number of ways that the telemarketers may have received access to "an" to "and" and in the last line of the constitution in the spelling of the word "constitutions".

Chris Civali noted that they are looking into this, but it will definitely be in fall anyway. An emergency fund will be put in.

Rick Gropper mentioned that 1,043 meals were donated through Oxfam.

Job openings: Applications are being considered (all for group discounts)

How Many On-campus Reps are needed for group discounts?

There will be a final presentation in a couple of weeks. Room numbers need to be deactivated in advance and events to CamelWeb every week.

There are many issues surrounding the call boxes. Pete Lelek noted that it is clarified on the request form. Fundraising meetings have been held.

Mandy Hildenbrand brought up that Tom Carey and Wright are having a party together and would like this amendment now because currently Scott McEntire, Amy Todd, and the student body will not be able to attend.

Jason Allababidi asked about the call boxes.

There have been a number of issues surrounding pool time. Pete Lelek noted that they are aware.

Alex Shoenfeld asked about issues surrounding pool time.

There is a lack of funding for the Finance Committee. Jim Smith suggested looking into other peer fundraising; they are encouraged when they go to the finance committee and always fundraise. J-Board does not look at students' histories. In addition, students fundraise by selling tickets, stickers, posters, cards, etc. Stores like to Lee Hisle about this problem and provide printing costs or the like. It is the responsibility of the C-Book. ABetter fund will be held to this end.

The site is for spring break '04, The website for spring break '04, The book 11 people, get this and the need to make balances not hinder allocation" instead of "hinder allocation". This amendment remain as an understanding for right now.

If you want to drop the word "and" in the last line of the constitution in the spelling of the word "constitutions".

Apply now for spring break tours and travel free.

SGA Minutes

Treat Yourself to Jiraro Cibaneo

costed from page 3

dollars, with most customer ranging at about eight, which is beyond reasonable for the amount of food you receive. The lunch special was even more of a steal with all combinations in only $4.99 each. Claiming there is a chipotle because you aren't exactly clear on what you're eating, but it is, once you encounter the food, you won't even care. I would strongly encourage Jiraro Chart to try to improve their food and presentation. The lettuce is located at 3201 South 9th street and seven days a week from 11 am to 10 pm. They phone number is 444-9197. They also offer free delivery to the north side.

If you have a restaurant that you think Liz should take a look at, call us at 2812, we'll make sure it

I pty the foo who don't write for The Voice, sucka!

Write for the Voice...

If you don't want to, at least make us cool kids like the one above.

x2812

It's coming.

Don't stop it.

Spring 2004...

Mafia News

Fraternities - Sororities

This is the 2nd, 3 free trips / high commissions.

Application 2

Baker Davis, call 800-838-8202.

Copyright © 2004, 2003 Sunburst Tours & Travel Free

11 a"naked trogona production

A SPRING BREAK NEEDED

Work for Sunburst Tours and Travel Free

It's "Real", 2 free trips / high commissions.

Apply now @ sunbursts.com or call 800-426-7710

ARCH", "CANCUN", "JAMAICA", "BARBADOS", "HAWAII".

TOLL FREE: 1-800-838-8202.

www.sunbursts.com
Holiday Party
Came larvae to the United Holiday Celebration to see how the African community celebrates the holiday tonight to the Umoja Holiday Celebration to learn how the African community celebrates the holiday. Festivus, Conn’s annual nondenominational holiday tonight to the Umoja Holiday Celebration (kII0Wnas “Pretty Sober” during their days on campus) also connected Camels...

Friday, December 5
Sounds of Music
Friday nights usually bring an array of musical performances to Conn, and tonight is no different. Alphagirlz house can see the William Street Win Fall Concert at 8:00pm in the Chapel, while fans of jazz will want to stop by Emma Hall in Cummings to see a performance by the Connecticut College Jazz Ensemble, also at 8:00pm. Finally, Cones house Band Oriental (double Lytse “Pretty Sober” during their days on campus) takes the stage in Cro’s Next at 10:30pm as part of the Friday Nights Live concert series.
Saturday, December 6
More Music
If you had homework to do on Friday and couldn’t make it out to one of the previously mentioned performances, you can still see some music on campus this weekend by attending tonight’s Connecticut College Orchestra performance, conducted by assistant professor of music Idan Samuel Benzer. In the free to Conn students with ID.
10:00-11:00pm, Harkness Chapel and Unity House

Presidential Strategy
President Freeman will lead a discussion outlining the college’s vision for the future at today’s Open Forum about the Developing Strategy Plan. All are invited to attend and lend their comments and perspectives about the early drafts and goals of the plan. Refreshments will be served.
1:00-2:30pm, 1941 Room, Cro

Warrior Wisdom
“You must show no mercy--nor have any inner whatsoever in how others judge you for your greatness will silence them all.”

(C-content for the Warrior Wisdom column intellectual property of former student and current Ultimate Warrior, taken from his official web site at http://www.mystic-warrior.com)

Friday, December 5
Happy Happy, Joy Joy
Conn’s popular annual celebration of the winter solstice, a program showcasing the talents of individual students. The program features talent from both on and off campus, as well as music professors and.
4:00-6:00pm and 7:00-9:00pm, Harbury Chapel

Monday, December 8
Big Band
Conductor and assistant instructor of music Gary Butterly leads a performance of the Connecticut College Concert Band at Francis Hall, always a treat for Conn students with ID.
9:00-11:00pm, Evans Hall, Cummings

Tuesday, December 8
Still More Music
Proving that professors aren’t the only ones leading musical performances in Cummings this week, the Student Composers Concert showcases the talents of some of Conn’s best music majors and minors.
8:00-11:00pm, Evans Hall, Cummings

Wednesday, December 9
Sounds Sober
As the end of the semester draws near, Student Counseling Office is offering a series of Relaxation and Stress Sessions to help students and faculty survive finals without going insane. Beginning tonight through the final weekend, these sessions will be offered in both the Chapel and Unity House, and are designed to help students unwind and stress.
9:00-11:00pm, Harbury Chapel and Unity House

Tuesday, December 8
Information about each event is taken from the College Voice “This Week at CC” emails and campus postings.
This past year, the Office of RA has been unparalleled in its apathy. I was told by one advisor to "write a page on this topic for a seminar on problem-solving". This would not be a degree in journalism, unfortunately. As for my feeling toward the Office of RA, I would rather not disclose it. My advisor's behavior this year, though not unique, has reminded me of the incredibly hectic lives students leave, even though I gave my daily countdown. In all seriousness, with the professors at this school than this past year, this takes a more serious turn. Never have I felt more let down by the professors at this school than this past year. I had my professor's voice mail, with a list of prospective classes and questions for them to answer. I tried calling him prior to the 5 PM registration deadline, but his call was not returned. Panicking, I left five messages on my advisor's voice mail over the first two weeks of the semester. The second, third, and fourth messages were returned. Piquing at this phase, I tried calling him again at 10 AM the day after Thanksgiving; no dice. I left five messages on his voice mail that day. The message was never returned. I had tried calling him again later in the day; none were returned. Panicking as the professor seemed to be ignoring me and not responding, I called him again; his call was still not returned. I left five messages on his voice mail that day. The message was never returned.

I attempted to reach my advisor through numerous e-mails and faulty advice given in haste as the professor rushed to the next meeting that followed, I was informed of graduation requirements that had never even been mentioned before. I left five messages on my advisor's voice mail over the first semester of my junior year. The messages were never returned. This year was put into their 'growth.'

The academics, our professors, our administration and the college itself are to blame. We should all be held accountable and receive twenty-five issues of the Connecticut campus newspaper covering each week of the academic year. When I confronted my advisor about Convocation, they had blazed new trails this year in rock to waste your time to prepare us for what comes after college. In Red Long-Sleeve Pullover, I will always look back on registration as a horrific experience. The disappointment of getting that out of line and being told you're the last one in line. I had two friends in the line, and another was standing in the line, and another was standing in the line, but I was the last one. I was ahead of them all.

I feel that in too many instances, the professors at Conn are so preoccupied with their own, regardless of how much time it drains from their students. I'm not talking about the professors, this is what you signed on for. It's a tremendous sacrifice and I respect the hell out of those who make it, but if not we can make it, you're in the wrong school, it's a brave face. What about the professors who are doing their job, and found my desperate pleas for guidance met mostly with "Wow, this is a tough situation" or "I've really got my own problems right now." I feel that in too many instances, the professors at Conn are so preoccupied with their own, regardless of how much time it drains from their students.

As a return for their efforts, "Animosity," ultimately boring the listener. With my questions and received a reply back immediately. They have matured a great deal from last season and will surely be a force to reckon with this season. The College Voice can help you stay informed. For only $40.00, you will receive twenty-five issues of the newspaper covering each week of the academic year. Campus news, sports, arts, entertainment, and opinion will arrive at your mailbox each week. Imagine calling your son or daughter, and knowing more than he or she about the upcoming game against Colby. Picture the surprised look on your student's face when you quiz them about Convocation.

When you subscribe to The Voice, you will also be supporting an entirely student-operated newspaper. The staff of The Voice works extremely hard to publish an excellent weekly newspaper. If you do not specifically know a Voice staff member, your sons and daughters surely do.

We urge you to consider subscribing to The Voice. Not only will you be supporting a dedicated student organization, but you will grow intimately involved each week with the workings of the College community.

Enclosed is a $40.00 check or money order for twenty-five issues of the newspaper.
Sports

Women's ice hockey team loses to Wesleyan

By Brian Thompson
Staff Writer

The Connecticut College women's ice hockey team opened the season with a convincing 2-1 win over Holy Cross on Saturday, December 6. The Camels were able to come back from a 10-point deficit and win the game 15-0, in the first period of play. The second period proved to be the backbreaker for Conn, as Sacred Heart was able to control the game and grab the victory. The game ended with a score of 2-1, with Conn losing the game. The Camels were able to score on their shots. The Camels were able to score on a similar strategy as the game went into overtime. The final score came with only 38 seconds left in the game. Although disappointed, Conn had to be pleased with its strong play and near upset of a strong Norwich team. The game that would prove to be the game winner, however, was a small window of breathing room early on in the contest. Connor played well for 40 minutes and was able to score on a similar strategy as the game went into overtime. The final score came with only 38 seconds left in the game. Although disappointed, Conn had to be pleased with its strong play and near upset of a strong Norwich team. The game that would prove to be the game winner, however, was a small window of breathing room early on in the contest. Connor played well for 40 minutes and was able to score on a similar strategy as the game went into overtime. The final score came with only 38 seconds left in the game. Although disappointed, Conn had to be pleased with its strong play and near upset of a strong Norwich team.