Personnel Bureau Tells Students of Positions Offered

The Personnel bureau has announced the following positions are available for qualified students:

- Mr. Robert Blood of the American Friends service committee is now, on chapel, Thursday, March 8, and will speak about summer work opportunities where his organization in urban and rural areas. He will be available for interviews on Thursday and Friday, March 8 and 9.
- The Connecticut College Art Department is now planning a trip for the art department. The trip will take place on Tuesday, March 16.
- Equitable Life Insurance is now seeking students to fill various positions in the insurance industry. The positions will include training as correspondence, mathematical, public service operators, claim reviewers, and sales proposal preparers.
- The art department is seeking qualified students to fill positions in the art department.
- The Theodore Bodenweln prize will be installed at a chapel service, sometime later in the spring.
- The Savard prize of $25 is given for excellence in spoken word. The new officers will be installed at a chapel service, sometime later in the spring.
- The Surplus prize of $25 is offered for excellence in spoken word. The new officers will be installed at a chapel service, sometime later in the spring.

See "Convocat"—Page 6

New Semester Sees Teaching Staff Of College Increased

The opening of the 1945 spring semester will bring with it increased numbers in the faculty of the college, two new assistant professors of English and two new members of the music faculty of the English department.

- Miss Patricia McGurk, formerly of Hartford and later of Wellesley, has joined the College as an assistant professor of English in the English department. Miss McGurk, who is a graduate of Wellesley college and who did graduate work at Yale university, says that she has "seen a great deal of the country and has found that being at Connecticut affords a" great opportunity for teaching and life in another New England college.
- Professor C. F. Tucker Brooke is another of the new assistant professors of English and a graduate of Harvard college. Professor Brooke, noted for his work on the joined the College of New England and is well known as a scholar and modernist. The professor of English, will be joined by Professor F. Tucker Brooke, who is a graduate of Wellesley college and who did graduate work at Yale university, says that she has "seen a great deal of the country and has found that being at Connecticut affords a" great opportunity for teaching and life in another New England college.

Madame Yang to Address Joint Meetings of Clubs

On Education in China

The Home Economics, Science, and International Relations clubs are holding a joint meeting on the "Education in China," on Wednesday, March 14 at 4:20 in the auditorium. There will be no admission charge.

The film is a presentation of the actual historical facts of the penis's invasion of Russia. The film is noted for its military and historical accuracy accomplished by the technical advisor, Major General Tadeusz and Eugene Tarle, a distinguished historian. The film depicts the events during the war campaign through all the Russian fighting, and the hero, Napoleon, into a destroyed Moscow. The film is noted for its large-scale production, with thousands of soldiers and guardia troops, and Napoleon's army being withdrawn from Russian territory.

The principal characters are S. German, who leads the Russian army, and Napoleon, who leads the French army. The film is noted for its large-scale production, with thousands of soldiers and guardia troops, and Napoleon's army being withdrawn from Russian territory.

The film is a presentation of the actual historical facts of the penis's invasion of Russia. The film is noted for its military and historical accuracy accomplished by the technical advisor, Major General Tadeusz and Eugene Tarle, a distinguished historian. The film depicts the events during the war campaign through all the Russian fighting, and the hero, Napoleon, into a destroyed Moscow. The film is noted for its large-scale production, with thousands of soldiers and guardia troops, and Napoleon's army being withdrawn from Russian territory.

The film is a presentation of the actual historical facts of the penis's invasion of Russia. The film is noted for its military and historical accuracy accomplished by the technical advisor, Major General Tadeusz and Eugene Tarle, a distinguished historian. The film depicts the events during the war campaign through all the Russian fighting, and the hero, Napoleon, into a destroyed Moscow. The film is noted for its large-scale production, with thousands of soldiers and guardia troops, and Napoleon's army being withdrawn from Russian territory.

Vasantha becomes a special chapel service at which President Dorothy Schaefer and the retiring Student Assembly president, William Bondig, will officiate. At the April 21 joint meeting, President Schaefer presents the key to the chapel to the new president and the retiring president. The vice-president for Student Affairs, the student representative to the faculty, the student representative to the student activities committee, and the student representative to the student welfare committee will take their oath of office at this meeting.

In the March 1 elections, 91% of the freshmen, 95% of the sophomores, 90% of the juniors, and 90% of the seniors voted. This percentage shows a decrease from last year when 96.9% of the student body voted.
FREE SPEECH

The Editors of the "News" do not hold themselves responsible for the opinions expressed in this column. In order to maintain the validity of this column as an organ for the expression of opinions, the editor must know the names of contributors.

Dear Editor,

C.C. has been blessed with a galaxy of extra-curricular activities. Many students have become exceedingly grateful. But the lack of interest in the activities that need to indicate that the person who has an "I don't care" attitude toward all this. The New Radio project opened an entirely new field this year. Opportunities are countless, but the number of students actively engaged in working on the project is inadequate. This necessity has borne the greater part of the burden of the radio programs. Perhaps students have thought that the carefully planned programs held no place for them. This is a gross error. Scripts of all types, and student composed music are what the radio needs and wants. An entire student production is the goal of the program heads, and is one that can not be realized until those among us with talent turn to their material.

Here is a golden opportunity. Shall it go to waste?

Sincerely,

My dear Editor:

To find Mary Harkness, J. A. Knowlton, or Freeman

You don't have to be a Greek. Just follow the tracks

Of all those who seek to

Through the mud and the snow

Our future to find

A goal to strive for

A purpose to absorb us all

And make us feel we are not alone

It is not only for us, but for the college community as well.

A few more days of playing through the mud, and everyone who tries it will definitely be "caught on campus."

Jane Addams '45

“Balance of Power”

A study of the extent to which the recently established "Balance of Power" project by the Phi Beta Kappa is working in extra-curricular activities while maintaining excellent grades decisively proves that college need not be the beginning of the end for a person.

On the contrary, it would serve as substantial evidence that those who attain the highest achievements are those who supplement their academic work with activities that benefit not only themselves but the college community as well.

It is significant to note that these girls have attained the "balance of power" between individual and group interests that is so beneficial to living and working with others in a community.

Naturally, the "balance of power" as achieved by the Phi Beta Kappa cannot be applied to others. Each person must find her own equation through the reasoning of her own personal intelligence and extra-curricular. To work for one's own "balance of power" is one of the main tasks of a student must face, for it is important not only for a fuller enjoyment of college, but also for a fuller appreciation of the world outside of college.

No, the task is not as easy, one, but there is such an importance attached to it that it must be approached with a mentality of a rational, cultured world as is at stake.}

CONNETICUT COLLEGE NEWS
Wednesday, March 7, 1945

Page Two

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE NEWS

EDITORIAL STAFF

Editor-in-Chief
Catherine O'Brien '45

Assistant Editor
Sturmy Armstrong '46

Managing Editor
Betty Reiley '46

Executive Editor
Sally Radovsky '47

Rubber Stamp
Mary Batt Hill '45

Feature Editor
Jean Howard '46

Department Editors
Chairman: Shirley Armstrong '46

Sports/Features
Mary Batt Hill '45

Business Editor
Margaret Murray '45

Sports Reporters
Mary Batt Hill '45, Mary P. Cooper '45, Marie Hohey '47, Jean Wright '47, Mary Batt Hill '45, James Warren '46, Shirley Strangward '45

ADVERTISING STAFF

Director
Clara E. Allen '46

Ad Sales Manager
Dorothy Halle '45

Circulation Manager
Rita Weintraub '45

Custodian
Bertha Prince '45

Connecting News

CONNETICUT-CONNECT

Wednesday, March 7, 1945

Page Two

CONNETICUT COLLEGE NEWS

EDITORIAL STAFF

Editor-in-Chief
Catherine O'Brien '45

Assistant Editor
Sturmy Armstrong '46

Managing Editor
Betty Reiley '46

Executive Editor
Sally Radovsky '47

Feature Editor
Jean Howard '46

Department Editors
Chairman: Shirley Armstrong '46

Sports/Features
Mary Batt Hill '45

Business Editor
Margaret Murray '45

Sports Reporters
Mary Batt Hill '45, Mary P. Cooper '45, Marie Hohey '47, Jean Wright '47, Mary Batt Hill '45, James Warren '46, Shirley Strangward '45

ADVERTISING STAFF

Director
Clara E. Allen '46

Ad Sales Manager
Dorothy Halle '45

Circulation Manager
Rita Weintraub '45

Custodian
Bertha Prince '45

MOVIE MINUTES

by Jean Howard '45

O. M. I.

(Office of More Information)

by Hodl Seligsohn BA '44

FREE SPEECH

The Editors of the "News" do not hold themselves responsible for the opinions expressed in this column. In order to maintain the validity of this column as an organ for the expression of opinions, the editor must know the names of contributors.

Dear Editor,

C.C. has been blessed with a galaxy of extra-curricular activities. Many students have become exceedingly grateful. But the lack of interest in the activities that need to indicate that the person who has an "I don't care" attitude toward all this. The New Radio project opened an entirely new field this year. Opportunities are countless, but the number of students actively engaged in working on the project is inadequate. This necessity has borne the greater part of the burden of the radio programs. Perhaps students have thought that the carefully planned programs held no place for them. This is a gross error. Scripts of all types, and student composed music are what the radio needs and wants. An entire student production is the goal of the program heads, and is one that can not be realized until those among us with talent turn to their material.

Here is a golden opportunity. Shall it go to waste?

Sincerely,

My dear Editor:

To find Mary Harkness, J. A. Knowlton, or Freeman

You don't have to be a Greek. Just follow the tracks

Of all those who seek to

Through the mud and the snow

Our future to find

A goal to strive for

A purpose to absorb us all

And make us feel we are not alone

It is not only for us, but for the college community as well.

A few more days of playing through the mud, and everyone who tries it will definitely be "caught on campus."

Jane Addams '45

“Balance of Power”

A study of the extent to which the recently established "Balance of Power" project by the Phi Beta Kappa is working in extra-curricular activities while maintaining excellent grades decisively proves that college need not be the beginning of the end for a person.

On the contrary, it would serve as substantial evidence that those who attain the highest achievements are those who supplement their academic work with activities that benefit not only themselves but the college community as well.

It is significant to note that these girls have attained the "balance of power" between individual and group interests that is so beneficial to living and working with others in a community.

Naturally, the "balance of power" as achieved by the Phi Beta Kappa cannot be applied to others. Each person must find her own equation through the reasoning of her own personal intelligence and extra-curricular. To work for one's own "balance of power" is one of the main tasks of a student must face, for it is important not only for a fuller enjoyment of college, but also for a fuller appreciation of the world outside of college.

No, the task is not as easy, one, but there is such an importance attached to it that it must be approached with a mentality of a rational, cultured world as is at stake.}
"Why should the dismissal of President Bailey be treated as minor crisis?" This question, the answer to which is not far behind, was taken up by President Dorothy Schaffer in her Tuesday Chapel address. In November of 1944, Dr. Hooper appointed a Board of Regents of the University of Texas, was dismissed by a vote of the Board of Regents. The act of dismissing President Bailey, of suspending, or seeking to suspend, the Academic Freedom and Tenure Committee, and of expelling the Academic Freedom and Tenure Committee, as well as the suspension of this university, is an attack on the right of academic freedom and tenure.

Academic Freedom Suppressed

In conclusion, Miss Schaffer read parts of the Interim Report which appeared in the current number of the AAUP bulletin. She said, "The Suspension of the University in 1944 was a wrong, a gross injustice. It closed the University in the presence of the Board of Regents. It is clear that in the disposal of faculty personnel, the Board of Regents was acting like the Texas legislature. The decision of the Board of Regents was a serious disregard of good academic practice generally observed by the governing boards of accredited institutions. The current difficulties at the University of Texas evidence again that the concept of academic freedom either is not understood, or is not enough advocated when the concept of academic freedom either is not understood, or is not enough advocated.

Rev. Samuel Evers Stresses Need For Greater Tolerance

The speaker at vesper service Sunday night, March 4th, was Rev. Samuel Evers, pastor of the U. B. C. Church, Glenside, Connecticut. His subject was "The Meaning of Tolerance."

Rev. Evers stressed the need for greater tolerance among the young people of America in order to develop a more mature and understanding generation of citizens. He emphasized the importance of understanding and respect for other people's views and beliefs.

"Why should the dismissal of President Bailey be treated as minor crisis?" This question, the answer to which is not far behind, was taken up by President Dorothy Schaffer in her Tuesday Chapel address. In November of 1944, Dr. Hooper appointed a Board of Regents of the University of Texas, was dismissed by a vote of the Board of Regents. The act of dismissing President Bailey, of suspending, or seeking to suspend, the Academic Freedom and Tenure Committee, and of expelling the Academic Freedom and Tenure Committee, as well as the suspension of this university, is an attack on the right of academic freedom and tenure.

Academic Freedom Suppressed

In conclusion, Miss Schaffer read parts of the Interim Report which appeared in the current number of the AAUP bulletin. She said, "The Suspension of the University in 1944 was a wrong, a gross injustice. It closed the University in the presence of the Board of Regents. It is clear that in the disposal of faculty personnel, the Board of Regents was acting like the Texas legislature. The decision of the Board of Regents was a serious disregard of good academic practice generally observed by the governing boards of accredited institutions. The current difficulties at the University of Texas evidence again that the concept of academic freedom either is not understood, or is not enough advocated when the concept of academic freedom either is not understood, or is not enough advocated.
GYMANGLES
by Nancy Blades '47

The performances of "The Old Maid" were not, however, as were those of "Overtures," all of equal caliber. They varied from the superb portrayal of the elderly Miss Ernst of Sara Leverson, to the superb portrayal of the thwarted Charlie by Jerry Remoer. Miss Ernst was unchallenged the best performance of the evening. It is interesting to contrast how much better even her performance might have been had there been a longer period for rehearsal.

The inadequate amount of time for preparation was no doubt the reason for the less than faultless defense which detracted somewhat from the scenery and the beauty of the productions. The poorness of the scenery voice in the case of Sara Leverson. She cannot, however, come under this blanket excuse.

Costume and Settings

The stage setting for "Overtures" did not create the atmosphere. The stage voice in the case of Sara Leverson. She cannot, however, come under this blanket excuse.

The inadequacies of the "Overtures" setting were made more apparent by the tense dramatic situation that was ably created by Meg Healy and the fine acting of both her, the stage voice in the case of Sara Leverson. She cannot, however, come under this blanket excuse.

The scenery committee for the second play was favored by the heavy white backdrop. The junior committee was not.

Timing Complemented

The performances of "The Old Maid" were not, however, as were those of "Overtures," all of equal caliber. They varied from the superb portrayal of the elderly Miss Ernst of Sara Leverson, to the superb portrayal of the thwarted Charlie by Jerry Remoer. Miss Ernst was unchallenged the best performance of the evening. It is interesting to contrast how much better even her performance might have been had there been a longer period for rehearsal.

The inadequate amount of time for preparation was no doubt the reason for the less than faultless defense which detracted somewhat from the scenery and the beauty of the productions. The poorness of the scenery voice in the case of Sara Leverson. She cannot, however, come under this blanket excuse.

Costume and Settings

The stage setting for "Overtures" did not create the atmosphere. The stage voice in the case of Sara Leverson. She cannot, however, come under this blanket excuse.

The inadequacies of the "Overtures" setting were made more apparent by the tense dramatic situation that was ably created by Meg Healy and the fine acting of both her, the stage voice in the case of Sara Leverson. She cannot, however, come under this blanket excuse.

The scenery committee for the second play was favored by the heavy white backdrop. The junior committee was not.
NEWSPAPER HEADLINE:

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE NEWS

NEWS STORY:

The Hartford Alumnae chapter of Connecticut college has invited any students who will be in Hartford on Saturday, March 17, to attend a tea for prospective students in the Hartford area.

The tea will be held from 3:30 to 5:00 in the Club rooms of G. Fox and Co., 253 State Street. Dr. C. M. Boardman, Director of Admissions, will be the point of honor and hostess.

Meet at ...

Diane's

Pur-Italian restaurant

Birthday Cake on Request

52 Truman St.

PHOTO: Phone 3885

ADVERTISMENT:

“A Good Rule To Go By”

from

THE G. M. WILLIAMS COMPANY

ADVERTISMENT:

HUNTER, VERY WAR CONSCIOUS, OBSERVE SEVENTY-FIFTH YEAR

by Billa Singer '18

To write about Hunter in a few hundred words is practically attempting the impossible.

Hunter is unique in that it is the only institution in the United States that offers a free education for entrance. It is the only institution where discrimination has been altogether eliminated.

For too long the Veterans Administration by a sub-committee of the press这部of the press and of the press in the United States, it is imperfectly understood, or is by the public somewhat difficult.

The evidence in the University of Texas situation indicates that the only institution in which the press is in the United States, it is imperfectly understood, or is by the public somewhat difficult.

The evidence in the University of Texas situation indicates that the only institution in which the press is in the United States, it is imperfectly understood, or is by the public somewhat difficult.
Undue arrogance, Suzy thought.

Is There Mail? Really Good? No, of Course!

by Bryna Samuels ’46

Original Music Is NewRadioProgram

Starting tonight, March 7, at 10:30, a musical program will be presented on the department of music, in the first of a series of broadcasts devoted to her compositions. This evening Miss Alter will include on her program: "American Pieces," "Bound Down the River," a print by Currier and Ives, and "Camp Meeting." The plans for their wedding are indefinite, too.

Many thanks to Mrs. Roy for the marvelous party she gave for the Palmer radio staff Sunday afternoon. The pop corn and apples were wonderful, and so was the opportunity to find out just who is working on the program.

The man who knows the facts, current events and history doesn't seem to know the law. Saturday evening Suzy was engaged to marry the story of Dr. Chesebro. This Sunday night she was arraigned in court for having his 145 license plates!

Seniors Eligible for Civil Service Examinations Now

The Civil Service Commission has announced a new examination for Professional Assistant positions with the government. The examination will give the opportunity for "Public Education and Social Welfare" applicants either proper education or experience, or a combination of the two, in qualifying. Persons are especially interested in positions for business analysis, economics, editing, fact analysis, information retrieval and administrative public administration, statistics, social economy, social surveys, and technical agriculture.

Senior students may apply, but they cannot enter on duty until after their graduation. Employment in all fields is based on qualifications.

Applicants will be given a written test consisting of questions to test their aptitude for learning and advising to the duties of the positions. No closing date is set for receipt of applications. They will be accepted by the Civil Service Commission until further notice.

Students interested in these positions are urged to get general information from the Personnel Office.

Windham Will Be Open Any Evening In March

Windham house will be open for students and their guests tonight, tomorrow, and March 10. It will be open until 11:30 on weekdays and Sunday until 1:15 on Saturday nights.

Is There Mail? Really Good? No, of Course!

by Bryna Samuels ’46

Original Music

Starting tonight, March 7, at 10:30, a musical program will be presented on the department of music, in the first of a series of broadcasts devoted to her compositions. This evening Miss Alter will include on her program: "American Pieces," "Bound Down the River," a print by Currier and Ives, and "Camp Meeting." The plans for their wedding are indefinite, too.

Many thanks to Mrs. Roy for the marvelous party she gave for the Palmer radio staff Sunday afternoon. The pop corn and apples were wonderful, and so was the opportunity to find out just who is working on the program.

The man who knows the facts, current events and history doesn't seem to know the law. Saturday evening Suzy was engaged to marry the story of Dr. Chesebro. This Sunday night she was arraigned in court for having his 145 license plates!

Seniors Eligible for Civil Service Examinations Now

The Civil Service Commission has announced a new examination for Professional Assistant positions with the government. The examination will give the opportunity for "Public Education and Social Welfare" applicants either proper education or experience, or a combination of the two, in qualifying. Persons are especially interested in positions for business analysis, economics, editing, fact analysis, information retrieval and administrative public administration, statistics, social economy, social surveys, and technical agriculture.

Senior students may apply, but they cannot enter on duty until after their graduation. Employment in all fields is based on qualifications.

Applicants will be given a written test consisting of questions to test their aptitude for learning and advising to the duties of the positions. No closing date is set for receipt of applications. They will be accepted by the Civil Service Commission until further notice.

Students interested in these positions are urged to get general information from the Personnel Office.

Windham Will Be Open Any Evening In March

Windham house will be open for students and their guests tonight, tomorrow, and March 10. It will be open until 11:30 on weekdays and Sunday until 1:15 on Saturday nights.

Is There Mail? Really Good? No, of Course!

by Bryna Samuels ’46

Original Music

Starting tonight, March 7, at 10:30, a musical program will be presented on the department of music, in the first of a series of broadcasts devoted to her compositions. This evening Miss Alter will include on her program: "American Pieces," "Bound Down the River," a print by Currier and Ives, and "Camp Meeting." The plans for their wedding are indefinite, too.

Many thanks to Mrs. Roy for the marvelous party she gave for the Palmer radio staff Sunday afternoon. The pop corn and apples were wonderful, and so was the opportunity to find out just who is working on the program.

The man who knows the facts, current events and history doesn't seem to know the law. Saturday evening Suzy was engaged to marry the story of Dr. Chesebro. This Sunday night she was arraigned in court for having his 145 license plates!

Seniors Eligible for Civil Service Examinations Now

The Civil Service Commission has announced a new examination for Professional Assistant positions with the government. The examination will give the opportunity for "Public Education and Social Welfare" applicants either proper education or experience, or a combination of the two, in qualifying. Persons are especially interested in positions for business analysis, economics, editing, fact analysis, information retrieval and administrative public administration, statistics, social economy, social surveys, and technical agriculture.

Senior students may apply, but they cannot enter on duty until after their graduation. Employment in all fields is based on qualifications.

Applicants will be given a written test consisting of questions to test their aptitude for learning and advising to the duties of the positions. No closing date is set for receipt of applications. They will be accepted by the Civil Service Commission until further notice.

Students interested in these positions are urged to get general information from the Personnel Office.