Close To $200 Collected At PWSC Benefit

Approximately $200 was collected in the auctioning of the faculty members and the Dieties for the benefit of the Allied Children’s Fund last night in Knowlton.

The Fondary Wrangle for Scholarly Caterers resulted in the auctioning of ten faculty members as a bid for their services as waiters and waitresses in the dormitory dining rooms. The “gong” sounded for the Wrangle as conducted by Mr. Beebe. The three highest bidders for each slot offered were obtained by Mr. Blackstone, Miss Bunker, and Mr. Quimby.

Mr. Beebe also conducted the Dutch auction, in which bids were made for books by Mr. Chairman and Mr. Blackstone, which are being compiled for the benefit of the PWSC.

The total amount of money given for this benefit will not be known until after vacation.

Junior Class Plans-Eventful Weekend

The festivities of the junior's big weekend will begin Friday night, with the literary evening of the Glass Menagerie, which will take place on Saturday night in the Adelphi room at Bob Haplin's orchestra will provide the dance music. The event will climax the chairman of all the dance plans. The success of the dance will depend on the choices of the following committee chairmen: decoration, Mr. Lewis; publicity, Miss Hunter; entertainment, Mr. Harker; director, Mr. Rockwell; refreshments, Mr. Fairchild.

Each form is planning parties, dinner parties, picnics, and more parties. Ann Ball and Harriet Collins have made their departure plans, which will be made on Saturday night. They will depart for the Catskill mountains and the Blackstone topped the bidding for each of the juniors have two o'clock.

Goodwin Receives Grant To Subsidize Research

Dr. Richard J. Goodwin, chairman of Botany department, has been awarded a $5000 research grant by the National Cancer Institute. This will allow him to continue his research for the next three years, involving a study of growth-controlling substances in plants. The grant, worth $5000, will subsidize research, which will be carried on in the research lab in New London.

Horton Will Speak At Joint Service

On Sun., April 8

Following the custom of several years standing, the spring joint service will unite with the U.S. Coast Guard Academy in holding a series of joint services. The speaker at the first of these services on April 8 will be Mr. Horton, Professor of English, member of the General Council of Congregational Christian Church.

Admission is fifty cents.

Quimby to Conduct Elijah in Annual Oratorio, April 8

Morgan, Tobias, Dame, Collins Will Be Guest Soloists for Program

Mr. Quimby, head of the music department, will conduct the Collegiate Choir and the Mozart Requiem Mass in D minor which has been produced twice before. Since that time, Miss Collins has made her New York singing engagements through her extensive radio work, including the recent appearance on the "American Album of Famous Musicians." The role of Elijah will be sung by Donald Morgan, bass, who has been singing successfully in New York. The cast will be announced later.

Professor Claude Wardlaw will speak at 7:30 p.m. at the annual college concert at 7:30 p.m. at the annual college concert. His topic will be "The Role of College in the Development of Men." The concert will feature the Collegiate Choir, the Collegiate Glee Club, the Collegiate Band, and the Collegiate Orchestra.

Dr. Wardlaw, has been professor of English at the University of Michigan for the past 20 years. Since that time, he has received several awards, including the Distinguished Service Award from the American College of Teachers.

Science Students To Hear Speech by Professor Wardlaw

Professor Claude Wardlaw will be the guest speaker for the Science Club and Botany Department, lecture on April 18 at 7:30 in the Commuter's Lounge. He will speak on the topic of "The Role of College in the Development of Men." The lecture will be followed by a question-and-answer session.

Shaw Choral Group Received With Enthusiasm by Reviewer

At Naturally Bowen

An enormously enthusiastic audience received the Robert Shaw Choral Group's Friday evening in a program which closed the Montcler Requiem, the Liebfrauen Wartburg, Brunnos, three hymns by the selection from "The Perfect Stranger." The audience was pleased with the performance, which was said to have been "utterly flawless," while their blend was as "mellow and intonation were flawless, giving a perfect picture of the competing candidate." As a result, Louise Durfee will be chosen for the next year's college concert. It was well worth the effort.

Six Pages...Plus?

With these six pages, the new NEWS staff presents its first issue.

Out of those that have gone before and are to follow, it's been fed to the tune of banging typewriters and dialed phones, fastened by mailing means of copy paper, glue pots and smudgy black pencils with all the news that twenty-odd people can find between Mohegen avenue and Williams street. But in some places our effort is weak. Free Speech. What Do You Think?

The political column, editorial space, and...yes...even Caught on Campus, are here specifically for filling others than the staff, and they're only the start. NEWS has to have at least six pages.

We've been helped this week by several students with suggestions for making NEWS stronger. The healthiest suggestions are those that there be more general student participation. That kind of food has the potentiality of rounding our newspaper into one of the best-loved and most useful projects on campus. It's a trite phrase, but this is your baby, too. We'd love to have you help us fill it.

The News Staff Speaks

The experience of having issued our first edition, appreciation of what our predecessors accomplished strikes us. Well aware of the abilities because we have had to work without their help, we offer the week's highest awards to Anita Tholffan, Ann McCreery, Janet Strickland, Natalie Bowen, Barbara Thompson, and Lois Allen, as well as all others who worked long and hard to publish the NEWS.

The Library Committee is able to report that the initial steps have been made for improving the lighting problem. An architect and an expert with experience in lighting problems in other colleges and universities have studied the situation throughout our library. A report upon the work done has been submitted with the conclusion that the Lighting Committee was well advised to recommend that the reserve room receive priority, since the students use that room most. A change for improvement of the reading rooms has already been made by replacing the bulbs of 200 watts with 300 watt bulbs and removing the glass plates across the reading lights.

The committee also wishes to remind you about the rules for reserving books over Easter vacations. Booklets may be reserved for the vacation beginning Monday, March 12. The last copy of any book, or the only copy, requires a written permission for a particular student from the professor in charge of the course for which the book is reserved. All duplicates may go out without permission. Booklets may go out for the vacation beginning March 22 and are due in on April 3.
Rockwell, Paineon and Gueinzius Reveal Characteristics Suitable for New Jobs

Sue Rockwell

Honorable Court will soon be graced by a new presence—that of Sue Rockwell—by becoming President of Student Government. She has been an active, enthusiastic volunteer in all of her extra-curricular activities ever since freshman year. At present she is social chairman of Freeman, a co-author of Guelphs, a house junior in East, and co-chairman and founder of the Rec Hall Committee.

Sue’s main interests lie in the field of social activities. She has been a member of nearly every one of the campus organizations. She is majoring in physical education and psychology, and is a junior in school and physical therapy work. Last summer she ran a play group, and this year she is a member of both a hunt club play group and a morning recreation group.

Interested in Designing Music

Sue’s versatility, however, is evident in her participation and interest in many other activities besides those above. Not only is she a faithful devotee of jazz. Those that fail to see Sue Rockwell’s enthusiasm for the designing music issuing forth from the “towel” are relegated to the ignominy of positions of “meathaul” (a current colloquialism). With her perfectly formal “help” for everyone on campus play comes her recognition of the common sense. She should do justice to the people that would have her name as an abbreviation for prudence—this wasn’t originally intended as a derogation.

Students Offer Many Ways To Improve Future NEWS Issues

Every Wednesday evening a number of copies of the college news is published that is read by those who read it. Many of the issues are read-to what extent we do not know. The caught on campus articles are usually deserved, as well as the notices and other matters of the non student news are not, perhaps, even read by such enthusiastic of overseas students at the class of 51 have thought of how to make news more interesting and more widely read.

They like the letters to the editor and want to encourage all forms of student opinion, yet in the paper, if the students are thinking about what they are thinking about is made available to the rest of the school. News and views from the student would undoubtedly in increase inter-class competition in writing for News, and News could then afford to take only the best articles.

Another suggestion was that News have editorial reporters who would tell of any special or amusing incidents in their dormitory whom the editor could perhaps see as an example for a good picture of the dorm life of the sophomore.

Many students agree that they would rather hear about their friends than read a purely descriptive article about a speech where they are not the main issue. They certainly do not want to cut down the number of articles, rather they do not wish that in the future the student article should be written with a touch of satire or perhaps written in a different tone.

They were enthusiastic about the masked hunt letters as well as the debates about the quality of the stories.

Sociologist to Be First of Speakers

Dr. E. Franklin Frazier, a well known sociologist and writer, will be the first of the visiting speakers to address the students at Connecticut College in the Ecole of Sociology. The topic of the talk will be "The Negro Family in the United States." The lecture will be given in the chapel at 7:30 P.M. on March 21.

The lecture will be followed by a question and answer period. The lecture is open to the public and admission is free.

Mr. Vincent Ahearn, father of Pat Ahearn '52, will speak to the two classes of business management Thursday, April 12 at 4:30 in Bill 101. He will speak about the labor policy of the United States as expressed in existing law, together with some response to what he believes to be a basis for sound relationships between labor and management. Mr. Ahearn believes that it is essential to the welfare of our country that labor and management develop and maintain a basis of cooperation which will reduce governmental intervention to the minimum.

Mr. Ahearn is now serving as the executive secretary of the Sand and Gravel Association. During the last war he served as a public member of the War Labor Board.
Student-Faculty Square Dance Set for April 6

A perfect chance for the students and faculty to get together for a really hilarious time will be the student-faculty square dance on Friday, April 6, from 8 until 10 p.m.

The gym will be the spot for music by Kid Russell, calling by Miss Wood and others, entertainment, colors, and most important, deal-dots and swings by everyone. Dungarees will be in style, so don your old clothes, invite your friends and join the squares!

It made L. W. madder than a wet hen when they asked him to judge cigarette mildness by taking one puff, one huff, one whiff or one sniff. Our common sense friend enjoys a good smoke too much ever to settle on any brand in such a snap-judgment way! For him and for millions like him, there's only one convincing way to test cigarette mildness, it's the Sensible Test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke--on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snap judgments needed! After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you will know why.

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
Caught on Campus

Engagements have been on the sparse side the past few weeks, but things ought to pick up over spring vacation. This week's scores stand at one apiece for the sophomore, and freshman, with two for the juniors.

Bunny Miller, of KB, has announced her engagement to Jim Meyers of Wilmette, Illinois, a junior at Princeton, and as yet, no definite plans have been made for a wedding date.

Carrying through what's getting to be a sophomore tradition, last weekend announced her engagement to Yale senior Mike Davies. This culminates a romance which dates back to high school days for Susie and Mike, who are both from the New York area; but as with everybody else, the army is having the final say on their wedding date.

Our second engagee this week is Trica Brooks, secretary of the freshman class. Trica announced her engagement in her hometown, Williamstown, Mass., this weekend. Bill Skidmore, her fiancé, is a senior at Princeton, and as yet, no definite plans have been made for a wedding date.

The second of the juniors to announce her engagement this week is Alice Green, a resident of KB. Her fiancé, Harry Grant, attended Wesleyan, and is now working for U. S. Steel in New York City. His summer plans include attending Columbia. A steady couple in high school, Alice and Harry have planned their wedding for after graduation.
