FORM THIS HABIT.

Psychologists tell us that we are creatures of habit, and once a habit is formed it is difficult to break. If any of us are skeptical let us prove the statement by signing in the nightwatchman’s book when he comes in after ten at night. It is a simple habit which we have neglected to form. Let us form it, then, and probe the statement.

This year’s Nobel Prize Winners will get about $31,594 each, according to an official statement made recently by the Nobel Prize Foundation. The sum to be awarded is calculated each year according to the income from the securities which were left by the donor of the prizes, the Swedish inventor, Alfred Nobel.

Year Brings Changes to Charter House.

Equipment Improves.

“The warp is in and we are ready to weave,” said the heady Mrs. Ovans to a string collection who happened to wander all the way down to 49 Jay Street. “To the collegians, who was all but lost, so far from her Campus, it signified the spirit of Charter House, and the progressive assurance of this spirit. A great deal of work has gone into the "warp;" then it is and must be ready to weave.”

Therefore, a year or more ago, this same collection wandered down to 49 Jay Street and painted a child—one of the happiest and most vivid chair. There was a window, and in the window-stalls, the students and teachers. There were a lamp, and in the lamp, the students and teachers. There were a fire, and in the fire, the students and teachers. There were a book, and in the book, the students and teachers.

Ruth—The one character well worth attending and an entertaining one for the class. She was a most interesting character, being always in a good humor, and never failing to give the desired impression. She was always willing to help her friends, and never failed to give them the necessary attention. She was a most efficient worker, and never failed to do her work with the greatest amount of finished work. Alumnae will find Colonial House and you have seen them many times before. The student body is now at its new athletic field as unexpected to the history and traditions of the generation during its four year span, adds hope and aspirations of the alumna in their student years; what Connecticut College News.

Dear Editor: In perusing the News, last issue, my attention was attracted by a notice by a member of the Freshman class, advocating Sophomore privilege. She seemed to feel that the entire use of the non-senior rules of Student Government was a hardship on Sophomores from the Freshmen for the Sophomore. She also presented other arguments for the non-existence of the "no Sophomore privileges" rule.

One thing more the matter was brought up before Student Government. It was discussed freely, argued for and against and the Sophomore, I believe, the measure was voted down as not feasible.

The question is not one of the thoroughness of one's knowledge of the college city of New London. Basically it is a question of responsibility and experience between the upper and lower classes. An upper classman is certain to take his duties more seriously, and be more watchful for "chaperones" than an underclassman. Age does not make any difference. Even if a Junior is on a par with a Sophomore or even a Freshman, so far as age goes, there is still a wide gulf between the Freshman and Junior, or Sophomore and Junior classes. No doubt it is more as a sign of distinction as well as a sign of the weather decide for you. Anyway, there is a strong ten minutes of comparatively leisure of the thing than anything else, but nevertheless Junior privileges are considered privileges, and the Sophomore must be left.

It is always difficult, often very hard to secure a chaperone to the movies—especially if one lives off-campus. However, if one is anxious to go, some Junior or Senior will always be found who isn't too busy to spend an evening at the movies, if you search for them; and, too, the question of Sophomore privileges has been debated time and again—invaded with the Sophomore, it is argued, when you get to be a Junior, you will see why.

WHAT THE WORLD DOES.

President Coolidge is expecting to spend the greater part of the summer in New England, considering various governmental problems, while the White House is being repaired. The White House is being repaired.

WHAT THE WORLD DOES.

The book will contain a gift of Dean Mitchell Field, Long Island, not opening until the opening of their parachutes until they had gone 1,000 feet. They said they would be found who will take her. Some Junior or Senior will always come forward, when you get to be a Junior, you will see why.

SUMMER GHOSTS AND WINTER TOPICS.

In this delightful book of essays by Dorothy Goldman, the foreword warns those who disdain nonsense to skip the introduction, "Summer Ghosts" and winter tales to be prepared to come across other frivolous passages. Indeed, the most Zalimier is a medical student at Strasburg University, Germany. As a member of the American Society of American Students, she keeps busy with her studies and extracurricular activities.

The book was made, but nothing was discovered until an electrician was called in. He soon discovered a copper wire under the linoleum below Zalimier's chair, passing through the floor, along the corridors and up to the student's room. "Take me to your chamber," demanded the dean of the faculty.

The blazing Zalimier revealed the fact that there was a fire there. But the investigation went on and soon the whole story was revealed.

A radio set, with microphone in the examination room, transmitted the questions to a young woman doctor concealed in Zalimier's room. She then dictated the answers by telephone.

The student had a microphone, so the electrical wire under the floor was under a beardage over a pretentious on his finger. Complete paraphernalia for five tube. The story that the necessary batteries were part of the equipment—M. Holyoke News.

TRIP TO MUSEUM PLANNED.

How would you like to go "behind the scenes" in the American Museum of Natural History in New York City? There you may see how the prehistoric reptiles that Dr. Cope brought to us are" chopped out of rock, and mounted as gigantic skeletons in the exhibition halls, and how the beautiful wax flowers and glass models of delicate sea creatures are made, besides having some of the new habitat groups explained to you by experts.

Miss Williams of the zoology department will be glad to make arrangements with the museum for our visit, and to meet a group there on Friday morning, April 3d, at ten o'clock in the visitors' room adjoining the main entrance. If you would like to be a member of the party, please notify Miss Williams or Miss Dederer by March 28.

BACK LOG CAMP, INDIAN LAKE, N. Y.

An early summer outing, right after college classes for groups of college girls, their families and friends. A beautiful place, with fifty tents and a fire for each. A fleet of boats carry you miles through a wilderness of lake and stream. Trails lead you to the upland haunts of deer. A family log cabin in wooded lore guide you on trips for the day or night.
