NEW LONDON, CONNECTICUT, MARCH 18, 1933

DR. SEYMOUR SPEAKS
AT CONVOCATION

Dr. Seymour, Professor of History whom she was hosting, made a speech at Convocation on Tuesday on "France-German Relations."

In introducing his subject, Professor Seymour stated that this problem is still undecided by the greatest statesmen of the time. Yet it is important, he said, that every American understands the essential factors in the situation inasmuch as the United States is involved and must be prepared to make a decision in the future as to what action it will take.

The security, not only of Europe, but of the world as well, depends upon the relations of France and Germany. The Versailles Treaty and Kellogg Pact were to lay the basis for this feeling. The principle, however, has not followed the principle. Germany found that the League was in the hands of the斯顿or nations, and was hostile. She believed it to be an Anglo-

Dr. Seymour is perhaps his most wide-

Mona Barney, '33, was unanimously chosen as President of the Athletic Association. Mona's outstanding ability in all sports fits her eminently for this position.

Letitia Williams, '35, was elected President of "Wig and Candle." Beginning with her Freshman year she gave an outstanding performance in various athletic and competitive plays and this past fall she again scored in a leading role in "The Merchant of Venice" Quarterplay and Press Board have chosen Gloria Belsky as Editor-in-Chief, and Emily Benedict as President, respectively.

At the end of the week the various classes held their elections for President for the coming year. Mary Seabury, '34, Harriet Webster, '35, and "Dutch" Bowdin '36, were chosen.

PRES. BLUNT HONORED BY C. C. ALUMNAE

President Blunt made a short trip to Boston on Saturday where she was entertained by the Board of Visitors of the chapter of the Connecticut Alumnae Association. A dinner and reception were given in her honor by the Arch, the Club to which many friends and parents were invited. At the reception President Blunt spoke on the development of the College.

On the committee in charge of this were Dr. Ruth Anderson, Miss Jean Howard, Miss Mary Bond, Miss Evelyn Clarke, Miss

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED COMING YEAR
Honor Are Divided

The last two days of Amalgamation Week saw the election of all the remaining major officers for the coming year. Priscilla Sawtelle '35, was elected as Speaker of the House, Representative. "Pudge" has won great distinction for herself as song leader of her class for the last two years, and under her guidance the Freshmen of last year won the Song Contest.

Janeet Townsend '34, was chosen as Vice-President of Student Government. "Jan" as President of this year's Junior class has proved herself worthy of carrying out any task assigned to her.

Janice Pickett '34, who has acted as Chairman of Entertainment for Senior Week this year, was elected President of the same organization in recognition of the fine work she has done. Her election was expected, as she has shown the ingenuity, literary ability, and willingness to co-operate that are so essential a part of Xenia work.

MINNA BARTON'S ADDRESS

MINNA BARTON'S ADDRESS

The somewhat calm afternoon of Mascot Hunt came to an end with the inevitable attempt of the sophomores to find some clue—any clue—of the mysterious mascot, but all to no avail. At about six o'clock the juniors and their guests swished into the gay banquet hall, to wait anxiously for the outcome of the contest. The college hymn was sung, led by Elizabeth Archer. Then Janet Townsend, junior president, spoke briefly on the fine spirit of the whole hunt. There was an expectant hush as other history opened the sophomore's telegram. She read it. A triumphant cheer went up from the juniors—once again the sophomore was the mascot, a beautiful radio-victrola, was unveiled, and attempted to answer one of Xenia's old hypotheses and songs. It was a bit weak, as "first speech" makers are apt to be. Mary Curnow, chairman of the mascot committee (composed of Louise Hill, Elm Kemela, and Ann Crocker), explained the whys and wherefores of the mascot and the mystery of the mask.

The last song of the evening was a beautiful radio-victrola, was unveiled, and attempted to answer one of Xenia's old hypotheses and songs. It was a bit weak, as "first speech" makers are apt to be. Mary Curnow, chairman of the mascot committee (composed of Louise Hill, Elm Kemela, and Ann Crocker), explained the whys and wherefores of the mascot and the mystery of the mask. A program of entertainment followed, with a tap dance by Ruth Skaling; songs by Dorothy Winter, and a tap dance by Florence Pratt, Frances Ernst, and Marion Dierkes. The latter singing in the mascot song. A program of entertainment followed, with a tap dance by Ruth Skaling; songs by Dorothy Winter, and a tap dance by Florence Pratt, Frances Ernst, and Marion Dierkes. The latter singing in the mascot song.

PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES CHANGES IN CURRICULUM

At Chapel Tuesday morning President Blunt gave a report on the progress of the curriculum committee, especially in regard to changes in courses that indicate that a new method in education is being adopted. The language requirement, for instance, has been altered. Starting next year, if a student does not wish to take the usual two-point courses, but desires an easy and interesting course in French, he can take "problems in marriage and family," which will be offered in the French department and will be open to freshmen.

The College has been fortunate in securing Monsieur Albert J. Farmer, Docteur é Les Lettres, Officier d'Académie, and Professor of English, who will lecture in French on "Rich-

President Blunt announced the following changes in courses indicated that a new method in education is being adopted. The language requirement, for instance, has been altered. Starting next year, if a student does not wish to take the usual two-point courses, but desires an easy and interesting course in French, he can take "problems in marriage and family," which will be offered in the French department and will be open to freshmen.

The College has been fortunate in securing Monsieur Albert J. Farmer, Docteur é Les Lettres, Officier d'Académie, and Professor of English, who will lecture in French on "Richardson and His Influence on the 19th Century French Novel.

The scholarly achievements of Professor Farmer, especially in the field of modern Anglo-French literature, have secured him an important place in the attention of critics and have evoked the most favorable comment. His last book on "Monseigneur Esthéthique et Decadent en Angleterre" has been reviewed enthusiastically. His study of "Walter Pater as a Critic of English Literature" is perhaps his most widely known work.

Professor Farmer is spending the current year in America as visiting professor of French at Brown University. He is also expected to give a series of lectures at the University of Pennsylvania State College this coming summer. It will be his second visit to this institution.

All are cordially invited to attend Professor Farmer's lecture, which will take place in Knowlton Hall on March 30th, at seven o'clock.

ATTEND PROFESSOR FARMER'S LECTURE

Attending Professor Farmer's lecture, which will take place in Knowlton Hall on March 30th, at seven o'clock.

Miss Clare M. Tousley, assistant director of the Charity Or-

Corriers rushing to and fro, roll-call in French, speeches in foreign languages—All this in the "Genevan" atmosphere of the Model League of Nations Assembly at Smith College last week.

The resolutions of the Economic Committee, the Disarmament Committee, and the Committee of the League will be read Thursday at the Assembly. The recommendations of the disarmament committee, which will consider the Chaco dispute were reported to the Council on Friday.

The somewhat calm afternoon of Mascot Hunt came to an end with the inevitable attempt of the sophomores to find some clue—any clue—of the mysterious mascot, but all to no avail. At about six o'clock the juniors and their guests swished into the gay banquet hall, to wait anxiously for the outcome of the contest. The college hymn was sung, led by Elizabeth Archer. Then Janet Townsend, junior president, spoke briefly on the fine spirit of the whole hunt. There was an expectant hush as other history opened the sophomore's telegram. She read it. A triumphant cheer went up from the juniors—once again the sophomore was the mascot, a beautiful radio-victrola, was unveiled, and attempted to answer one of Xenia's old hypotheses and songs. It was a bit weak, as "first speech" makers are apt to be. Mary Curnow, chairman of the mascot committee (composed of Louise Hill, Elm Kemela, and Ann Crocker), explained the whys and wherefores of the mascot and the mystery of the mask.

The last song of the evening was a program of entertainment followed, with a tap dance by Ruth Skaling; songs by Dorothy Winter, and a tap dance by Florence Pratt, Frances Ernst, and Marion Dierkes. The latter singing in the mascot song. A program of entertainment followed, with a tap dance by Ruth Skaling; songs by Dorothy Winter, and a tap dance by Florence Pratt, Frances Ernst, and Marion Dierkes. The latter singing in the mascot song.

PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES CHANGES IN CURRICULUM

At Chapel Tuesday morning President Blunt gave a report on the progress of the curriculum committee, especially in regard to changes in courses that indicate that a new method in education is being adopted. The language requirement, for instance, has been altered. Starting next year, if a student does not wish to take the usual two-point courses, but desires an easy and interesting course in French, he can take "problems in marriage and family," which will be offered in the French department and will be open to freshmen.

The College has been fortunate in securing Monsieur Albert J. Farmer, Docteur é Les Lettres, Officier d'Académie, and Professor of English, who will lecture in French on "Richardson and His Influence on the 19th Century French Novel.

The scholarly achievements of Professor Farmer, especially in the field of modern Anglo-French literature, have secured him an important place in the attention of critics and have evoked the most favorable comment. His last book on "Monseigneur Esthéthique et Decadent en Angleterre" has been reviewed enthusiastically. His study of "Walter Pater as a Critic of English Literature" is perhaps his most widely known work.

Professor Farmer is spending the current year in America as visiting professor of French at Brown University. He is also expected to give a series of lectures at the University of Pennsylvania State College this coming summer. It will be his second visit to this institution.

All are cordially invited to attend Professor Farmer's lecture, which will take place in Knowlton Hall on March 30th, at seven o'clock.

ATTEND PROFESSOR FARMER'S LECTURE

Attending Professor Farmer's lecture, which will take place in Knowlton Hall on March 30th, at seven o'clock.

Miss Clare M. Tousley, assistant director of the Charity Or-

Corriers rushing to and fro, roll-call in French, speeches in foreign languages—All this in the "Genevan" atmosphere of the Model League of Nations Assembly at Smith College last week.

The resolutions of the Economic Committee, the Disarmament Committee, and the Committee of the League will be read Thursday at the Assembly. The recommendations of the disarmament committee, which will consider the Chaco dispute were reported to the Council on Friday.

The somewhat calm afternoon of Mascot Hunt came to an end with the inevitable attempt of the sophomores to find some clue—any clue—of the mysterious mascot, but all to no avail. At about six o'clock the juniors and their guests swished into the gay banquet hall, to wait anxiously for the outcome of the contest. The college hymn was sung, led by Elizabeth Archer. Then Janet Townsend, junior president, spoke briefly on the fine spirit of the whole hunt. There was an expectant hush as other history opened the sophomore's telegram. She read it. A triumphant cheer went up from the juniors—once again the sophomore was the mascot, a beautiful radio-victrola, was unveiled, and attempted to answer one of Xenia's old hypotheses and songs. It was a bit weak, as "first speech" makers are apt to be. Mary Curnow, chairman of the mascot committee (composed of Louise Hill, Elm Kemela, and Ann Crocker), explained the whys and wherefores of the mascot and the mystery of the mask.

The last song of the evening was a program of entertainment followed, with a tap dance by Ruth Skaling; songs by Dorothy Winter, and a tap dance by Florence Pratt, Frances Ernst, and Marion Dierkes. The latter singing in the mascot song. A program of entertainment followed, with a tap dance by Ruth Skaling; songs by Dorothy Winter, and a tap dance by Florence Pratt, Frances Ernst, and Marion Dierkes. The latter singing in the mascot song.
CONNECTICUT COLLEGE NEWS

Established 1916
Published by the students of Connecticut College every Saturday throughout the college year from October to June, except during mid-years and vacation. The paper is owned by the Connecticut College News Association and operated by a board of managers elected by the senior class. Address communications to the Post Office at New London, Connecticut, under the act of August 24, 1912.

STAFF

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
ALICE RECORD '33

MANAGING EDITOR
MARGARET MILLS '33

VIRGINIA SCHANBER '33

SENIOR EDITOR
ESTHER RABINOWITZ '33

Junior Editors
Ann Crocker '34
Elizabeth Turner '34

Art Editor
Elise De Fong '33

Exchange Editor
Edith Russ '34

REPORTERS
Jane Cox '34
Leah Hyman '34
Edna Gruber '33
Elizabeth Ward '34
Rhoda Perlo '35
Elizabeth McNutt '34
Elizabeth Kep '34
Vlad Milford '34

BUSINESS MANAGER
ALICE READ '33

Circulation Manager
Ruth Brooks '34

Assistant Business Managers
Emmy Benedict '34
Charlotte Harburger '35

Janet Stewart '34

Assistant Circulation Managers
Dorothy Sisson '34
Marion Bogert '33
Alison Jacobs '34

Faculty Advisor
Dr. Gerard E. Jensen

THE OLD ORDER CHANGETH, YIELDING PLACE

With this issue the régime of the present News board comes to an end. Not without a slight feeling of regret we turn over the reins to a new board, a new staff. Our regret lies not in the fact that we must step aside in favour of this particular new staff, but in the fact that our work as servants to the college public is done. Whether or not it has been done well is for others to decide.

If the News has failed to satisfy the wants of the college, let it be remembered that it is impossible to please everyone. Despite this, we feel that a greater cooperation and more interested feeling towards the News could and should be shown. The paper is representative of the college as a whole, not of the group which edits it. If the News has failed to satisfy the wants of the college, the editors alone must not be blamed; blame rather those whose indifference has made it necessary for the News staff to work almost entirely on its own initiative.

Because we have experienced the difficulties which have arisen from the indifference of the college in general, and because we have greatly appreciated that help we have obtained in comparatively small degree, we ask that our successors be given more cooperation. It must be remembered that the News is most important. The discussions will include the ill.eaning of Body Mechanics and its effect on health, also at this time extend to the new staff our best wishes for its success in the coming year.

CAMPUS CHARACTERS

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great regret that we announce the departure of Lizzie and Dizzie. This famous pair, bearers of names renowned in history (Elizabeth and Di Sarra) were dowered with attractive looks, March 13th, 1933, in the Duck Pond in Boswelles. Their death was due to heroism on the part of each: both being drowned in an effort to save the other. Preceding the catastrophe they had been out rowing; they both fell overboard, and in an effort to bail out the oars, they both fell overboard. So thick was the mud at the bottom of the pond, that they were unable to pull out their feet. In trying to pull each other out, they both sank and were lost to sight. All that remained were a few light puffs floating on the water.

Many will note without grief the death of this pair; some, we hope, will behave a mournful sight and perhaps shed a tear over their already watery grave. Soon they will be forgotten; let us hope they are seeking for their right to be overlooked on the public obituary and for having tried the public’s patience for so long. Their enemies agree that the following epitaph will be floated on the troubled waters is true, and just:

"Here sank L. and D.
To rise no more."

May they rest in peace.

On some far shore.

Whatever opinion may be expressed on the same, we feel that it is with great regret that we extend to the new staff our best wishes for its success in the coming year.

THE PROFESSOR’S CHAIR

How many of the slogans in advertising did you know last week? Here are the names of the brands, in answer to the slogans:

EXHIBITION STAGED

Friday night the Gymnasium was the scene of the annual exhibition given by the Physical Education Department. The following morning, looking at what they had accomplished during the winter term: tap dancing, folk dancing, natural dancing, and tumbling.

The tapping part of the exhibit took place in a store. The cast was composed of several salesmen and girls, a dude, a policeman, and a janitor who danced with great skill. Each one raised his poem while he danced. At any rate he was very successful. After cleaning up the floor he fell asleep and the show went on. The dances showed much preparation and the participants are greatly to be complimented.

The folk dancing proved to be another League of Nations. Of all the plans hatched by the class, Rare and Dizzie, a 4 C, has received the highest praise in its, paper, it get"
"MASTERY OF LIFE" SUBJECT OF DR. COFFIN

"Life must be mastered and endured," said Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin at Vespers on Sunday. We must gain strength to "conquer kingdoms" and have patience to bear one another's burdens.

There is no real escape from reality. Facing this fact we must prepare ourselves to confront things with faith and trust.

"A high concentration of steady feeling enables men to do anything." If we trust in, and feel the "unseen presence" we can overcome "kingdoms." Columbus and Stanley gave their safe keeping into the hand of God and conquered the unknown. Doctors have felt divine assistance in finding the cause and cure of disease.

Strength and faith will help us in the kingdom of human relations. President Roosevelt has publicly asked for God's help. With such trust we can meet the economic and international problems of the day.

If we receive the "seeing sight" from God it will help us with our moral and intellectual problems. We cannot control the "unseen regiment within us" unless helped by Him.

If we succeed in conquering the several "kingdoms of life" we must also learn to endure it. We must provide for necessary renewals whether we seem to be under a strain or not. The thing we need most is the moral renewal of love. Love seems to be lacking at present. It will very likely find its final state in patience. "What we stand for in life is changed into power to achieve and conquer kingdoms." This is the alchemy of faith and should work for all of us.

MUSIC CLUB

A program consisting entirely of the works of Edward MacDowell was given by the Music Club on Monday evening, March 13, in commemoration of the 25th anniversary of MacDowell's death. The program opened with a piano solo, Improvisation, played by Mary Eaton. Following this two Victrola records were played, Thy Roaming Eyes and Witch's Dance. An interesting sketch of MacDowell's life and works, prepared and read by Virginia Donald, furnished an excellent background for the remainder of the program.

The next selection, played by Janet Hadsell, was the amusing little piece Of a Tailor and a Bear from the group known as Forgotten Fairy Tales. To represent MacDowell's work in the vocal field Louise Sales sang The Swan's Nest: Low To the Lily and Deserted. A group from the popular Woodland Sketches consisting of At An OldTRYING PLACE, From An Indian Lodge, and To A Water Lily was played by Elizabeth Warden. Dorothy Stokes then played a group from the Sea Pieces: From A Wandering Iceberg, Starlight and From the Depths, A.D. MDCCX, also one of the Sea Pieces, and the Prelude from the First Modern Suite, both played by Elizabeth Warden, brought the program to a close.

THE ART COLUMN

This week in the Library there is an exhibit of autographed letters and documents with signatures of about 40 Prime Ministers of Great Britain from Shrewsbury to Balfour, a period of over 300 years. This interesting collection has been lent by Professor Esther Cary.

Among the signatures are those of Disraeli, Gladstone, Sir Robert Peel, Frederick North, William Pitt, and other personages well-known in history. To read some of the letters in their faded ink is to get a glimpse into a past which had its warrants, mortgage notes, dinner invitations, "thank you" notes, and even a Queen's order to Her Majesty's great wardrobe keeper. The letters are written, some of them, in beautiful style. Others remind us of hurried notes that are more common at the present. The handwriting of several letters surprises one by their seemingly modern style.

One reads from one of Gladstone's letters that he is very grateful to some of his friends for having written some poems and verses commemorating his fiftieth wedding anniversary. A letter of Earl Russell's tells of a play called Don Carlos, or Persecution, a tragedy in five acts that Russell is just about to publish and wants the company at Drury Lane to produce.

Lone socks! Mittens! Gym outfits! Owners please claim them immediately. Hours of Last and Found: chapel periods (except Tuesday); Monday, Wednesday, Friday from one until two; Tuesday and Thursday from one until three.

Cigarettes, like Foods—— Need Seasoning

That's the part Turkish Tobaccos play in making Chesterfields Taste Better

S MOKERS notice a certain "touch" in Chesterfields that comes from having just enough Turkish tobacco in them . . . a spicy, aromatic flavor that's much the same to a cigarette as seasoning is to food.

For only by blending and cross-blending the right amounts of mild Domestic tobaccos with the right amount of Turkish can we get the flavor and aroma that Chesterfield smokers enjoy.

Next time, ask for "The Cigarette that Satisfies" . . . you'll get Chesterfields, with Milder, Better Taste.
There is no question now but what the end is near—the seniors have begun getting sentimental at Amalgamation meetings. And when it comes to the Alma Mater it’s a case of sing it and weep.

Meetings in such abundance might become monotonous except for such diversions as the other night when one girl’s idea of college bread was so graphically demonstrated... All of which goes to show that there are places and places to carry your groceries and some are more secure than others.

Masot hunt provided occupation for all but the seniors and they had to go to the life to pass the time away. Saturday afternoon there was standing room only and a long waiting line for reserve books.

One sophomore enjoyed sleeping in pajamas last Saturday night for the first time in a week. It seems she was accustomed to sleeping under beds and such, or not sleeping at all.

Sophomores have gotten so into the habit of trailing juniors that they keep right on although a long waiting line for pajamas last Saturday night for the first time in a week.

It seems that half the college set up light housekeeping Saturday night and cooked their own suppers. One bunch is socially ostracized for undertaking hard labor and onions. The dorm still has a pungent odor reminiscent of Saturday’s feed.

Basketball with variations is the latest innovation at C. C. One class played it to music!

FILM MONEY RECEIVED

Last year, as some may remember, the religious committee raised about sixty-five dollars to send to Merzoum, Turkey, for the purchase of books and a movie film. Word has come recently to one of the committee, stating how very grateful the recipients of the money were.

A few lines from the letter will serve to best let students know about the affair: “It did our souls a heap of good to see this generous credit coming in... We are on the lookout for a good film to buy—it’s quite a job, as it must not be too different from life over here, or it will seem more comic than educational. And the money for the books is being spent generally and carefully.”

Perry & Stone, Inc. Jewelers since 1864

“BOOKS. A book I have read is here to stay... nobody can ever take it away or sell it short.”

Connecticut College Bookshop

17 Union Street

Phone 7458

Service League Informal Tonight

Under the heading “Notes found on the back of a paper in the waste-basket,” Skiudore News prints this:

In Ink: What a bore! I see where I quit coming to class.

In Pencil: I’ll say. He doesn’t know any jokes and has forgotten to tell the old ones over. What’s your major?

In Ink: Well, 1 tell June till June when I see what I get on in.

Junior Banquet

(justified from page 1, column 2)

presented Janet Townsend with a lovely bouquet of pastel flowers. The freshmen sang to their junior sisters, and were sung to in return.

Miss Burchard, Miss Oakes, and Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence, as honorary members of the class, were present. Miss Oakes spoke enterprisingly on ideals, coloring her talk with stories of Wellesley. Dr. Lawrence, as much impressed with her humorous remarks, but provided material for thought in his advice for students to be lady-like, tactful, and patriotic. Dean Burchard based her speech on the fact that the essential bones are the funny bone, the backbone, the jawbone, and the wishbone, and discussed also the types of complexy. The juniors sang to their honorary members, and then the Alma Mater was sung—ending the thrilling experience of Junior Banquet, for which success Jane Alexander, as chairman of the committee, was responsible.

JUNIOR BANQUET

Consider playing it. He says he wants the "admirable company at Drury Lane rather than any other," but he adds in a postscript that he won’t be disappointed or surprised if the gentleman he is writing to does not like it. A most interesting letter, or rather a mortgage note, was written by William Pultonay, who says that he will speak to the gentleman who has said something about having settled all his obligations. The letter from Queen to his Grace the Duke of Montague, master of Her Majesty’s great wardrobe, specifying the need of certain articles, is quite intriguing. There is a letter to E. Waller, the grandson of Edmund Waller, who is the poet. Also there are a few envelopes bearing the postal stamp of the period.

Dr. Cadman to Lecture

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman is to speak next Tuesday on “My Experiences in Europe.” Dr. Cadman is a noted lecturer, having served as a special lecturer at the Yale Divinity School. He has been the pastor of the Central Congregational Church in Brooklyn since 1901, and for two years he was acting president of Adelphi College.

Art Column

Correspondence from page 1, column 2)

consider playing it. He says he wants the “admirable company at Drury Lane rather than any other,” but he adds in a postscript that he won’t be disappointed or surprised if the gentleman he is writing to does not like it. A most interesting letter, or rather a mortgage note, was written by William Pultonay, who says that he will speak to the gentleman who has said something about having settled all his obligations. The letter from Queen to his Grace the Duke of Montague, master of Her Majesty’s great wardrobe, specifying the need of certain articles, is quite intriguing. There is a letter to E. Waller, the grandson of Edmund Waller, who is the poet. Also there are a few envelopes bearing the postal stamp of the period.

The class of 1935, not 1934, excelled in scholarship.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman is to speak next Tuesday on “My Experiences in Europe.” Dr. Cadman is a noted lecturer, having served as a special lecturer at the Yale Divinity School. He has been the pastor of the Central Congregational Church in Brooklyn since 1901, and for two years he was acting president of Adelphi College.

We wish to correct an error made in the last issue of the News. The class of 1935, not 1934, excelled in scholarship.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman is to speak next Tuesday on “My Experiences in Europe.” Dr. Cadman is a noted lecturer, having served as a special lecturer at the Yale Divinity School. He has been the pastor of the Central Congregational Church in Brooklyn since 1901, and for two years he was acting president of Adelphi College.

We wish to correct an error made in the last issue of the News. The class of 1935, not 1934, excelled in scholarship.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman is to speak next Tuesday on “My Experiences in Europe.” Dr. Cadman is a noted lecturer, having served as a special lecturer at the Yale Divinity School. He has been the pastor of the Central Congregational Church in Brooklyn since 1901, and for two years he was acting president of Adelphi College.

We wish to correct an error made in the last issue of the News. The class of 1935, not 1934, excelled in scholarship.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman is to speak next Tuesday on “My Experiences in Europe.” Dr. Cadman is a noted lecturer, having served as a special lecturer at the Yale Divinity School. He has been the pastor of the Central Congregational Church in Brooklyn since 1901, and for two years he was acting president of Adelphi College.

We wish to correct an error made in the last issue of the News. The class of 1935, not 1934, excelled in scholarship.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman is to speak next Tuesday on “My Experiences in Europe.” Dr. Cadman is a noted lecturer, having served as a special lecturer at the Yale Divinity School. He has been the pastor of the Central Congregational Church in Brooklyn since 1901, and for two years he was acting president of Adelphi College.