

Monteverdi Festival Will Benefit Fine Arts Center

The Music Department of Connecticut College will sponsor Monteverdi Festival Apr. 18, and 29 to help finance the Arts Center.

Featuring the music of Claudio Monteverdi, and other baroque composers, the Festival will con-continue Apr. 18, with a lecture entitled "Monteverdi: Innovator" and the performance of several oratorios, including "L'Orfeo" and
"Il ritorno d'Ulisse in patria."

Elicita Dinnick, director, will be in charge of the full production.

The festival will also feature a reading from her work "Cluny," adding that last year's creation of unique silk
articles, including wood carving, pottery, and beyond. The New London Craftsmen in the Connecticut area have been sent out to professional rubbings. Sally Strayer, Nancy Beardsley, and Karen Merson stated; "The physical education department has never had a good "critic" system. However, in recent questionnaires, we have been told that no person shall be failed as physical education for the sole reason of two absences.
Miss Merson added that "no person has ever been failed on the basis of absences alone."

“A Response 1967”

To topics in Drugs and Draft

Each spring the students of Princeton University conduct a three-day symposium to investigate an important social and political issue of the day. This year’s focus is on the “drug problem.”

Saturday evening will feature a display of" and sale of crafts produced by students of the arts or crafts. The sale will be held in the auditorium on Main Street, under the main entrance of the Connecticut College Library.

Friday evening will feature a candlelight dinner. Students may bring beer, but no flip-top cans.

Watermelons and refreshments will be served, and there will be a snack bar open as well. Box lunches may be obtained Saturday morning.

Candlelight Dinner

The candlelight dinner will be sponsored by the Arts and Culture Society and the Experimental Theatre. The event is geared to the absorption of enthusiasm and willingness to work.

The committee heartily encourages any frustrated and cre-
vationists, students or faculty members
who have spent the winter chiseling,
engraving, teaching, or dab-
bling to emerge from their ivory
tower and sell their wares. All those included will perform with great care.

Alumni and friends are invited to see the display of wares and to enjoy a
snack bar.

Over 50 invitations to participate
have been sent out to professionals
in the Connecticut area and beyond. The New London area.

The cruise will be held from 8 to 11 p.m.

Tickets for all occasions can be obtained from Lynne Sethin in Park 428. All students, regardless of the ability to attend the boat ride, will be allowed on board.

Summer Government

Interns Announced

Nancy Paul, '69, and Karen
Nolen, '69, have been awarded
im- mersed in government.
Nancy will work in the Office of the Secretary of Refugees in Geneva, Switzerland, while Karen will work in the Washington Office of Secretary Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania.

Price 10 cents

The Connecticut College Spring Festival will constitute the last program of the Festival Apr. 28 at 8:00 p.m. in Palmer Auditorium.
The Connecticut College Chorus, under the direction of James Ar-strom, the University of Connecticut Glee Club, under the direction of Richard Winslow, and the Eastern Connecticut Symphony will perform for this weekend's events.

The musical selections that will be performed are "Dellalou" by Gaetano, "German Requiem" by Schulz, and "La Passe-Passe" by Floury.

The chorus will imitate Monteverdi's echo effect by having a chorus on each side of the stage.

Claudel Monteverdi, primarily an opera composer, is the first great composer of the Baroque era, and probably best known of all European composers.

"The Crystals" and "Barry and the Remains" will perform at the jazz concert Sat., Apr. 29, highlighting "Great Sound and Wind." Burgundy will be sponsored by

Junior Class to Sponsor
Creative Arts Fair Tues.

A creative arts fair, offering a display of sale of crafts produced by students of the arts and crafts.

On Friday evening, a special program will be held. Members of the Trio will play Italian and a twenty-five percent commission
will be paid for all articles sold.

On Saturday morning, the Trio will play Italian and a twenty-five percent commission will be paid for all articles sold.

The committee heartily encourages any frustrated and cre-
vationists, students or faculty members
who have spent the winter chiseling,
engraving, teaching, or dab-
bling to emerge from their ivory
tower and sell their wares. All those included will perform with great care.

Alumni and friends are invited to
see the display of wares and to enjoy a
snack bar.

Over 50 invitations to participate
have been sent out to professionals
in the Connecticut area and
beyond. The New London area.

Tickets for all occasions can be obtained from Lynne Sethin in Park 428. All students, regardless of the ability to attend the boat ride, will be
allowed on board.

Drugs and Draft

Each spring the students of Princeton University conduct a three-day symposium to investigate an important social and political issue of the day. This year’s focus is on the “drug problem.”

Saturday evening will feature a display of" and sale of crafts produced by students of the arts or crafts. The sale will be held in the auditorium on Main Street, under the main entrance of the Connecticut College Library.

Friday evening will feature a candlelight dinner. Students may bring beer, but no flip-top cans.

Watermelons and refreshments will be served, and there will be a snack bar open as well. Box lunches may be obtained Saturday morning.

Candlelight Dinner

The candlelight dinner will be sponsored by the Arts and Culture Society and the Experimental Theatre. The event is geared to the absorption of enthusiasm and willingness to work.

The committee heartily encourages any frustrated and cre-
vationists, students or faculty members
who have spent the winter chiseling,
engraving, teaching, or dab-
bling to emerge from their ivory
tower and sell their wares. All those included will perform with great care.

Alumni and friends are invited to
see the display of wares and to enjoy a
snack bar.

Over 50 invitations to participate
have been sent out to professionals
in the Connecticut area and
beyond. The New London area.

Tickets for all occasions can be obtained from Lynne Sethin in Park 428. All students, regardless of the ability to attend the boat ride, will be
allowed on board.

"A Response 1967”

To topics in Drugs and Draft

Each spring the students of Princeton University conduct a three-day symposium to investigate an important social and political issue of the day. This year’s focus is on the “drug problem.”

Saturday evening will feature a display of" and sale of crafts produced by students of the arts or crafts. The sale will be held in the auditorium on Main Street, under the main entrance of the Connecticut College Library.

Friday evening will feature a candlelight dinner. Students may bring beer, but no flip-top cans.

Watermelons and refreshments will be served, and there will be a snack bar open as well. Box lunches may be obtained Saturday morning.

Candlelight Dinner

The candlelight dinner will be sponsored by the Arts and Culture Society and the Experimental Theatre. The event is geared to the absorption of enthusiasm and willingness to work.

The committee heartily encourages any frustrated and cre-
vationists, students or faculty members
who have spent the winter chiseling,
engraving, teaching, or dab-
bling to emerge from their ivory
tower and sell their wares. All those included will perform with great care.

Alumni and friends are invited to
see the display of wares and to enjoy a
snack bar.

Over 50 invitations to participate
have been sent out to professionals
in the Connecticut area and
beyond. The New London area.

Tickets for all occasions can be obtained from Lynne Sethin in Park 428. All students, regardless of the ability to attend the boat ride, will be
allowed on board.

Summer Government

Interns Announced

Nancy Paul, '69, and Karen
Nolen, '69, have been awarded
im- mersed in government.
Nancy will work in the Office of the Secretary of Refugees in Geneva, Switzerland, while Karen will work in the Washington Office of Secretary Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania.

Price 10 cents

The Connecticut College Spring Festival will constitute the last program of the Festival Apr. 28 at 8:00 p.m. in Palmer Auditorium.
The Connecticut College Chorus, under the direction of James Ar-
strom, the University of Connecticut Glee Club, under the direction of Richard Winslow, and the Eastern Connecticut Symphony will perform for this weekend's events.

The musical selections that
will be performed are "Dellalou" by Gaetano, "German Requiem" by Schulz, and "La Passe-Passe" by Floury.

The chorus will imitate Monteverdi's echo effect by having a
chorus on each side of the stage.

Claudel Monteverdi, primarily an opera composer, is the first great
composer of the Baroque era, and probably best known of all European composers.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A picture is worth...

Last week we received a letter written by a young man stationed in Vietnam to the girls who had written him. I have enclosed a copy for you as illustration, along with your opinions about a particular CO. [Note: The text contains a continuation on Page 5, Column 2.]

Wednesday, July 6, 1967

Dear Jack, Carla, Ann, Mary, Jeanne, Susan, Barbara, Gail, Jean, Pat, Linda, Susie, Carol, Carol, Sue, and Sandra.

I was struck by the heading on this letter as it is not proper and it is in bad taste. I would appreciate your advice on this for now. My grammar may not be the best, but I hope I am not as awful as the previous writer. However, I would need your help in this.

The student body is full of mistakes. As I have seen in this letter, there are several. I wish you all the best in your future studies.

N.W.F.

April 17, 1967

Da Nang, Vietnam

Dear Jack, Carla, Ann, Mary, Jeanne, Susan, Barbara, Gail, Jean, Pat, Linda, Susie, Carol, Carol, Sue, and Sandra.

I was struck by the heading on this letter as it is not proper and it is in bad taste. I would appreciate your advice on this for now. My grammar may not be the best, but I hope I am not as awful as the previous writer. However, I would need your help in this.

The student body is full of mistakes. As I have seen in this letter, there are several. I wish you all the best in your future studies.

N.W.F.
“Very Heroic” Girls Reside in Lazrus Spring Vacation

By Jackie Earle

Where did you spend your spring vacation? Florida? Nassau? Aspen? Or were you one of Cono's student teachers who stayed in Lazrus House to practice teaching at local schools during the week?

For the first time in its history, the College allowed a limited number of students to spend their Spring recess here. In addition to the teachers, a few girls not involved in the program also took up residence in the Coop. These were: Ellen Meyers '88, Kristi Nielsen, Jackie Howard '89, Lindsey Beeth '87, and Loretta Goodwin '88.

The fourteen girls participating in the teaching program taught for the week of March 27-31 at assistent teachers at local schools in New London, Waterford, East Lyme, and Norwich.

Peggy Kenen, '77, and Lu Miller, '88, were appointed co-house-followers of Lazrus for the week. Peggy said that the girls followed the same rules and curfews as the co-op students.

There was, however, one unusual aspect to the program. Each girl had to buy and cook her own food. According to Peggy, “This was done to help the girls realize just how much most of the girls didn’t know this until they arrived.”

Peggy went on to say that Miss Sannette Macpherson, coordinator of the Lazrus residence program, explained that this teaching experience was only one example of the hard work done by the students, whom she described as “very heroic.”

The fourteen girls involved in this program were: Carol Carter '87, Gall Chiavonli '87, Carolena Ela '87, Anne Gelpke '88, Sandra Haldane '87, Mrs. Pamela Heidt '87, Margaret Kenen '87, Esperanza Lust '88, Carolena Melich '87, Lucille Mit '86, Patricia Miller '87, Paul '88, Paula Weidlin '88, Mrs. Nanny Franklin '87.

Mareen-showers were also involved in the program.

MOVIE SCHEDULE

April 8 The Shangri-Las Old Lady, French, 1905, English
April 22 To Die in Madrid, Documentary, 1965, English
April 29 The Red Desert, Italian, 1969, English

Alumnae Presidents to Meet

Alumnae Association presidents and executive associate presidents from nine college's will meet at Cono Turs and Wed., April 11 and 12.

Colleges represented at the conference will be Bryn Mawr, Chaff, College, Gettysburg, Hollins, Randolph-Macon, Sweet Briar, Wheaton, and Wheaton.

Mrs. Charlotte Crane, executive director of Cono's alumnae association, explained that these colleges all have student bodies and alumnae bodies which are comparable in number.

Topics for discussion include alumnae magazines, budgets, student-alumnae relationships, alumnae councils, alumnae office procedures, relationships between alumnae offices and development offices, and class and club relations.

Mrs. Robert H. Wescott, Alumnae Association president at Cono, will be the hostess for the two-day conference, and Mrs. Loring P. Wells and Wheaton, Mrs. Charlotte Crane, executive director of Cono's alumnae association, will be the program chairman.

The conference will be held at Sweet Briar College, Sweet Briar, Va.

ON CAMPUS EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

BONNELL BELL

An innovation in cosmetic advertising

YOU Write the Copy
YOU Design the Layout
YOU Make up the Ad

REGISTER NOW!

Contest to be run in April
Prizes will be awarded in May 1st Prize-$25.00 2nd Prize-$15.00 3rd Prize-$10.00
WINNING ENTRIES WILL BE ADVERTISED IN THE NEW LONDON DAILY
Registration closes Friday, April 14

Entries must be submitted by May 1
All contestants will receive an assortment of Bonne Bell Cosmetics

BONNELL BELL
DE TO RT SERIES

Cleveland, Ohio

Clip and send to Box 421 by April 14

I wish to enter the Bonnell Bell contest.
I will try the products and submit my ad by May 1.

Name

Box

Dorm.
YALE AND CONN CHORUSES TOUR CANADA DURING SPRING VACATION

by Mary Garlick

Tues., Mar. 21

Two buses holding members of the Yale and Connecticut Choruses were driven to Champlain Falls tour, which started with a Harvard cheer. Thurs., Mar. 23 point M.-. Armstrong brilliantly renamed Yale songs: at which point everyernight classes.

was altered south around Lake

during the lighter

to

student and faculty received them

ew dining hall,

was claimed

to

and light hearts boarded the buses

to pick up the

p.m.

tunafish sandwiches,

The audience

The second day brought a heavy

snowfall and an apprehensive feel-

it

anguish arose when

bus would return some of them

in the area.

various homes as guests of families

Wed., Mar. 22

The second day brought a heavy

snowfall and an apprehensive feel-

it

anguish arose when

bus would return some of them

in the area.

various homes as guests of families

New London Camera Co.

Panelists such as William Buck-ley's National Review. The books are available to everyone on campus by a sign-out prooce.

Library of Conservative Newspapers,

Books, Magazines Opens in Freeman

CONSERVATIVE CONTEMPLATION—Marvin Brown, Dean Cavin

and their library

A library of conservative books, magazines, and newspapers has been established in room 219 of Freeman House by the Young Conservatives of Connecticut College.

The only regret, we all felt, was that it went too fast and ended with a sense of the group.

Library of Conservative Newspapers,

Books, Magazines Opens in Freeman

New London Camera Co.

What next?

Once you have saved your college di-

nances, what are you going to do

afterwards? The answer to this question requires you to utilize your colleges and to exercise your

judgment. You will be working directly with a young person. If you are seeking an even greater challenge,

you will always find an opportunity

to advance to an administrative position.

Gibbs offers a Special Course for

College Women. In just 10 months

proceeds to the position of an executive secretary.

What next?

Once you have saved your college di-

nances, what are you going to do

afterwards? The answer to this

question requires you to utilize your
colleges and to exercise your

judgment. You will be working directly with a young person. If you are

seeking an even greater challenge,
you will always find an opportunity

to advance to an administrative

position.

Gibbs offers a Special Course for

College Women. In just 10 months

proceeds to the position of an executive

secretary.
Sister Maria del Rey Maryknoll entered Maryknoll. She received a Journalism degree from Loyola University and an Art degree from New Orleans University in 1951.

Sister Maria del Rey has written several books dealing with her extensive travels in Africa, Asia, and South America. Her first book, Pacific Hopscotch, published by Scribner's, in 1955, tells of a three-year trip through Asia and the Pacific Islands. This year Scribner's will publish her biography of gold town, Sassa, in Nicaragua, by Sister Maria del Rey.

Bessie Becomes a Nun was published in 1956 by Farrar, Straus and Cudahy. In a setting of fine pictures, the life of a young girl entering a religious order is shown. I am confident that it will be used wisely.

Do You Measure Up?

1. Could you hold up under pressure in your job?
   Yes ___
   No ___
2. Do you have the potential and the capacity to assume increasing responsibility?
   Yes ___
   No ___
3. Could you and are you willing to remain objective in situations of which you don't really approve?
   Yes ___
   No ___
4. Could you and are you willing to remain objective in situations of which you don't really approve?
   Yes ___
   No ___
5. Could you and are you willing to remain objective in situations of which you don't really approve?
   Yes ___
   No ___
6. Would the possibility of attending graduate school at our expense interest you?
   Yes ___
   No ___

Yes answers indicate that you should explore the employment opportunities with the State of Connecticut in Social Services.

Representatives of the State of Connecticut will be on campus on April 19 for group discussions at 1:00 and 3:30 and to conduct the qualifying examination at 7:00.

Contact the Placement Office for additional information and sign up for meeting.

If you're not sure Social Work is your goal, stop over anyway. You may be surprised. You certainly won't be disappointed.
NEWS NOTES

Fredman Class Ring Day will be held Wed., Apr. 12, in the president's suite from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. Any student who wishes to purchase a ring may do so on that day.

A color print portrait of one of the theater's most famous five ladies, Eleonora Duse, has been given to the College by Mrs. Alan Walker of Guilford. It has been placed in the green room in Palmer Library. The portrait was drawn by C. A. Baudouin in 1893.

Anyone from the Class of 1970 interested in working for the Travel Bureau next year please send their name, dorm, and box number to Box 68 by Apr. 14.

Three Conn alumnus, Joanna Warner Kennedy, '44, Elizabeth Rockwell Case, '32, and Beth Murphy, '86, returned to discuss with seniors their college majors. Often the field a woman may pick up in is far from what she expected at the time of her graduation, the alumnae pointed out. The Board of Lectureship discussion was sponsored by the senior classes.

Joyce Belthausen was selected from 367 entries as one of 13 honorable mention winners in Glamour's 1967 "Ten Best-Dressed College Girls" contest.

Burnside students of American literature can now read a translation in their native tongue of the literature can now read a translation in their native tongue of the analysis made of F. Scott Fitzgerald by President Charles E. Shain.

The pamphlet is one of a series on American writers published in 1961 by the American Writers Institute. It was prepared by poet Shain when he was a Professor of English and Director of the American Studies program at Catholic College.

Miss Alice Beaumouth, assistant professor of physical education, and Miss Durga Pant of India, visiting lecturer in philosophy, attended the orientation conference of the U.S.-India College Exchange Program at the University of Va., Apr. 2-4. Miss Beaumouth attended the conference in preparation for her assignment to teach at Isabella Thorpe College in Lucknow against construction of a wall in the virtually all-white 6th district.

The NAACP opposes the school at change Program at the University of the U.S.-India College Exchange Program, while traveling, or whenever menstruation occurs, to "just hold a hot water bottle at the spot."

The Christian Science Organization will sponsor a lecture entitled "Why Not Think for Yourself?" by Martin N. Bower, a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ Scientist, Boston. The lecture will be held Mon., Apr. 17, at 4 p.m. in the Palmer room of the library. All members of the College are invited.

Theatre One is in the process of reorganizing the costume department. The work requires only basic sewing skills.

To erase membership into Theatre One a girl must work a total of 25 hours. After this goal is reached, one joins the ranks and, in Joanne's words when production comes to campus, "we just think of you first."

This year several girls journeyed to the Yale Drama Festival Mar. 21-23 for what Joanne described with depth, Eugene Ionesco's The Bald Soprano.

"You're are of yourself when you have Bistette. Here is a soft, Soil cloth, pre-washed, ironed, that cleans and reduces... easily hampers and disfigures. Use Bistette for intimate cleanliness at work or at home, during negotiation, while traveling, or whenever serious stress or activity cross the need for reassurance.

Ask for individually-wrapped, disposable Bistette at the next store you visit. It's a little package with a big benefit. A gay, double knit pullover, $4. All in Vycron® polyester and cotton. Interchangeable ties. The jersey stripe short-sleeve pullover $7. And the shell that could be taken for a double knit. Both in silken-yol Durene® cotton. Do see our collection in zingspinnle shades. At discarding stores everywhere.