The Diaz government of Nicaragua has several times made the proposal that the United States should assume joint control over that Central American republic. At present, however, President Coolidge has announced that he shall have no further communication with the Nicaragua Government so long as it has not promised not to assume any such form of control. At the same time the New York Herald-Tribune expresses the hope that American and Nicaraguan interests will be united in the control of this problem.

After Portland, it has been necessary to postpone further the concert of the Boston Symphony Orchestra at Boston, scheduled for the evening of the 15th. The Symphony now in progress at Boston, it has been necessary to postpone the date originally announced, to that of the 15th. The concert, when finally given, will be a concert of the Hamilton Orchestra furnished the accompaniment, and the program will consist of the works of Beethoven, Mendelssohn, and Wagner.

The new Student Government Cabinet has appointed Virginia Williams '28, as Secretary-Treasurer. The new Student Government examines the coming of the complete organization of 104 musicians, with section-musicians, and saves the concert from cancellation.

A new and unusual event in the track meet, which will be held Saturday evening at 7:15, is the grand march. The meet will be begun promptly at the scheduled time with this event, in which the track, formal glee, clogging and natural dancing squads will participate, although the natural dancing team, which is to give two exhibition dances, will beible.

Only seventeen members of the student body made the track squad, as a result of the coming of the complete organization of the Hamilton Orchestra. The Hamilton Orchestra furnished the accompaniment, and the program will consist of the works of Beethoven, Mendelssohn, and Wagner.

The call made a second announcement that the concert from cancellation.

The Independent, even now, goes:

"The protectorate offered because Diaz may hold his office part-time. There are several very reasonable objections to the proposition. Because Diaz may hold his office part-time, the protectorate would be somewhat unsatisfactory as to say that there have been few cases in which the protectorate has failed to this end."

BOSTON SYMPHONY POSTPONED

According to the strain and pressure upon the conductor and the orchestra by reason of the great Beethoven Festival now in progress at Boston, it has been necessary to postpone the New London concert of the Boston Symphony Orchestra from the date originally announced, to that of Tuesday evening, April 13.

Conditions wholly beyond control of the college and the committee in charge of the event, have made the change of date desirable, and although regrettable, the new arrangement assures the coming of the complete organization of 104 musicians, with section-musicians, and saves the concert from cancellation.

Although everyone enjoyed hearing men's voices, the Hamilton Glee Club concert, given in the college gymnasium last Saturday evening, was somewhat of a disappointment in many respects. The numbers chosen were not exactly college glee club type, and the Negro spirituals, although good, were stressed a bit too much. The novelty songs, supposedly introduced for variety in the program, turned out to be merely singing—a duet, a trio and a quartette. The most novel of these acts was a cornet and harmonica duet, but even this impressed one as being not as much of a success as it might have been. However, there were some redeeming features. Above all, the best number on the program was the Negro spiritual, "Go Down, Moses," adapted to the tune of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony. A violin duet was one of the pleasing features of this song. "Scandalize My Name" and the old favorite "手动's Coming Home" were other popular Negro spirituals which they sang. Although a taste of this type, the outstanding Glee Club numbers were the "Shadow March" by Proctor, and the Long Day Closeus" by Mr. Arthur Sullivan.

The instrumental club played very well, including in their group "Leander,, Gilbert, "Dream of Love and True," by Tally, and the other selections, "Volga Huntman" by Egan. The latter was particularly noteworthy. One of the most enjoyable numbers on the entire program was an excellent solo, "A Scotch Poem" by MacDowell, played with much expression by Mr. Green, the accompanist of the Glee Club.

The closing numbers on the program were two of the Hamilton College songs, "We Come To Hang Our Banner," by Forster, and "Stay," by Tandy. The former melody is a very happy one, the latter being Connecticut's Alma Mater, in which the words have been revised by the Glee Club.

The formal dance, after the concert, was held in Knowlton House and lasted until twelve o'clock. The Hamilton Orchestra furnished the music.
