Well-deserved Praise

Dear Editor:

Last month I wrote an irate letter concerning the bookstore. My boiling point seems to have been coincidental with the start of a book reorganization by a new manager. Certainly a wonderful job has been done. The books and glorious have been efficiently rearranged; the displays are attractive and easy to get at. There seems an interest in serving the customer.

I'm afraid it is too easy to criticize. Could I suggest "Well done?" Because my criticism was public, I think my praise should be too.

Speaks of Former Student MacNeice

by Mr. Robert Levens

Mr. Robert Levens, Visiting Professor, will discuss the works of the late poet, Louis MacNeice. MacNeice, who recently spent two years as Director of the British Institute in London, Connecticut, under the act of March 3, 1879, has arranged an exhibition of scenery and recital on Saturday night.

In his second year and had already acquired a reputation for his work, which had attracted favorable notice. His interest in poetry and other arts, however, did not prevent him from maintaining a busy schedule. After graduation he went to Birmingham University as a lecturer, where he recently spent two years as Director of the British Institute. Hence the vividness of his scholarly background to the students of the University. His interest in poetry and other arts was given a verse translation of Goethe's Faust, adapted for radio performance by Mr. Levens.

Three Saturday even•ings this month, the Department of English has presented three different plays, all of which were written by Henrik Ibsen, the Norwegian playwright. The first of these plays, "A Doll's House," was presented on December 2, and the second, "Hedda Gabler," was presented on January 13. The third play, "The Master Builder," is scheduled for February 3.

Theatre Director John O'Brien has stated that he chose these plays because they are "classics of the modern drama." He further explained that Ibsen's plays are "not only entertaining, but also thought-provoking." The director has stated that he hopes to "inspire his students to think deeply about the human condition."

Students Will Vie For Cady Prize in Open Competition

On Thursday, May 7, the contest for the Cady Prize in Reading will be held in Room 209, Palmer Auditorium, at 7:15. The amount of the prize is $25. Each contestant for the prize will be expected to read three pieces, two chosen by herself and one chosen by the judges. The pieces chosen by the contestants shall be one consisting of verse and one consisting of prose. Neither of these pieces shall occupy more than 2½ minutes in the reading. As this prize is for ability to read English aloud, the contestant is not required to commit the reading to memory.

Students intending to compete shall sign their names on the sheet that will be posted on the Radio Bulletin Board on the first floor of Fanning. An entry fee of thirty cents shall be required. The entry fee will be used to purchase refreshments for the event.

The pieces chosen by the judges are as follows:

4. "The City Dweller," by Robert Frost
5. "The Road Not Taken," by Robert Frost

The judges for the contest are: Miss Susan Lee, professor of English; Dr. John Smith, professor of English; and Dr. Mary Johnson, professor of English.

Students, Faculty To Use New Folder

In order to facilitate publicity of campus events, a folder has been placed in the Information Office where students, faculty, and administration are requested to use it.

The purpose of this folder is to centralize the sources of campus news so that all organizations and persons connected with college publicity can work from one place. With this one designated folder for publicity, it is hoped that everyone who has any news worthy material will contribute to it so that the publicity organizations can more efficiently do their jobs of covering campus activities.

Publicity chairman of clubs on campus are especially urged to make use of this folder to inform the college of the activities of their clubs, as it is very difficult to keep track of all campus organizations.

THE QUALITY CONTRAST

1. THE QUALITY CONTRAST between Chesterfield and other leading cigarettes is a revealing story. Recent chemical analyses give an index of good quality for the country's six leading cigarette brands.

   The index of good quality table—a ratio of high sugar to low nicotine—shows Chesterfield quality highest

   ...15% higher than its nearest competitor and Chesterfield quality 31% higher than the average of the five other leading brands.

2. First to Give You Premium Quality in Regular and King-size...much milder with an extraordinarily good taste—and for your pocketbook, Chesterfield is today's best cigarette buy.

3. A Report Never Before Made About a Cigarette. For a full year a medical specialist has been giving a group of Chesterfield smokers regular examinations every two months. He reports...no adverse effects to nose, throat and sinuses from smoking Chesterfield.

Lee Anderson, Mary Clymer Will Head Yearbook Arrangements for Next Year
