Locking the first floor door to the library stacks, which caused considerable inconvenience to many students last week, had a particular purpose behind it, in that it aided in the apprehension of an individual who has been removing and defacing books.

Mrs. Rebolledo called attention to the fact that she had regularly noticed the same man loitering in the library. He was in the habit of entering and leaving by the first floor door to the stacks. When the door was locked, the man was unable to leave, and was thus apprehended.

Cought on Campus: One Marriage; Four Betrothals; a Flag

To its rapidly swelling roster of news events, the semester's senior class has recently added the name of Sid Brown, Kincaid, at present a resident of Riverside, whose marriage to Pat Kincaid took place on April 7. The wedding was conducted at the Hotchkiss School, and from Yale with the class of '51, was recently stationed at Camp Gordon in Georgia. He is at present away on overseas orders. Sid and Pat met five years ago through his tennis partner, who, when away on leave, writes him letters.

Three Faculty Members End Career

M. Kelly Honored At Chemistry Society Banquet on May 8

by Deborah Phillips

Miss Margaret Kelly, professor of chemistry, here at Connecticut College, was recently honored at a testimonial dinner given her by the New England Section of the American Chemical Society on Saturday, May 16. The dinner was held because Miss Kelly, and also Miss Mary McKee, are both retiring from our faculty this year.

Miss Kelly has been a member of the faculty of Connecticut College for twenty years. She took a Ph.D. at the College as an Associate Professor from a similar post she held at Vassar College in Poughkeepsie, prior to this, she taught at Mount Holyoke and in the high schools of Pennsylvania, and finally, she has held the position of Associate Professor of Chemistry at New York University, City College.

Miss Kelly was born in Oklahoma, as a newcomer on campus, Sue Robbins, arrived on campus. Lisa Newbold, Alida van den Bosch, and Phyl Keller were the last affair to be given on May 6. The dinner was held at the Junior Women's Club, and from between the seniors, juniors and professors. Miss McKee has been a member of the faculty of Connecticut College, and her work is known to all students.

The Spring AA coffee was held last Saturday at noon, in the Call Club, headed by Irene Dye. The first time, trophies were awarded to the winners of the rifle, golf, and archery competition. The most popular event was the archery cup. The tournament was won by a newcomer on campus, Sue Robbins, a sophomore transfer, who scored 30 on 9 holes.

The club lists for the various sports were also announced. The tennis club, headed by Dean Hull, at the Sprague gymnasium, announced that there are 14 members of the tennis club, and that 10 of them are taking lessons. The Sprague gymnasium, managed by a junior member of the faculty, is one of the buildings on campus.

The Allied Maritime Transport League was founded in 1917. Miss Warner and her friend, Miss McKee, are both retiring from the faculty this year.

Miss Warner had the unusual privilege of serving in Europe on a transport in a wartime capacity when she was on duty for American Shipping Protection during World War II. She was chosen to serve on the Allied Maritime Transport League, and she was able to provide a unique perspective on the war effort.

Lauded, Play Script Criticized

by Jane Worthington Smyser

Thursday, with angels was written by Christopher Fry for the Festival in 1953. In view of the occasion for which it was written, the play is properly concerned with religious matters. The author's views, however, are contained in 500 A.D. The action gets underway when the Jutes return home from battle, the father of the family brings with him a young son, an Irishman whom he has captured. The father's son reads the hero's life over to him, even though he is lacking in character, and infinitely better. Ellen's verse is also more deeply felt than the others. She writes verse of which we are hardly prepared to breathe. She gives us a view in the Gautian style possible.

Infirmary Tour Innovation For Father's Day

By Hildy Rodulph

Father's Day, which is one of Connecticut's best-loved traditions, is about to receive a new touch. This year's schedule of events will be open to the public for inspection. Just before the opening of the Infirmary, between 3:00 and 5:00 p.m., a group of donors and friends will be guided through the Infirmary on a special tour. Then the group will be guided through the Infirmary on a special tour.

The St. John's Health and Insurance Company, the architects for the building, originally designed a three-story building. With the increasing costs in building and labor, however, the plans were changed to the modern and more serviceable one-story building which now we have.

The project was begun largely through the efforts of President Emeritus Katharine Blunt to get the building underway before her retirement. It is interesting to note that the new wing was set up with a group of donors and friends. The name of each donor is printed on a special card, and all called for a work worthy of the names of such talents. The work itself seemed just right; the lights were handled well, the movements on the stage were nicely calculated and each one effective. The acting was skillful, and a song that I can see, the most distinguished in my mind.

Sport Club Sends Four C.C. Sailors to Brown Regatta

Ten women's colleges were represented at the Brown regatta held last Sunday, May 11. C.C.'s representatives were: Dolly Com- mended '53, Lois Kneiting '48, Nancy Beaux '53, and Sue Lane '54. Playing late Sunday afternoon, they arrived in time for the fun and festivities, arranged by the Sailing Club.

In order that each school participating in the regatta could have the opportunity to sail each of the ten dinghies, the forty sailers were divided into two divisions. The tricky wind and tide, not to mention the skill of the crew, offered an exciting challenge to all the crews.

Plans for meets later with Malden, Hotchkiss, and Webb Institute of Technology are still tentative.

Next year, Sailing Club plans to hold monthly open meetings with movies and instruction and to attend more intercollegiate regattas. Local sailing may also be featured for those who have passed their swimming tests.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No.37...THE SWORDFISH

"They had me fencing with fancy facts!"

They crossed swords with the wrong man when they engaged this swashbuckling senior in combat! At first, he was foiled by the tricky "one-puff... "one-sniff", cigarette mildness tests.

But he parried their thrusts with this gleaming sword of logic: The only way you can judge mildness is by steady smoking. That's the true test of cigarette mildness!

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke, on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests...

B. Blaustein and H. Hayman to Present Final Piano Recital in Senior Series

Last in the series of Senior Recitals by music majors will be the one given by Betty Blaustein and Hope Hayman at Holmes Hall on Thursday, May 14, at 8:30 p.m. Betty's program includes: Sonata in E flat major by Beethoven; Capriccio in F sharp minor and Intermezzo in C major by Brahms; Interludium and Fugue from the Lieder Totals by Paul Hindemith; Impromptu in A flat major by Gabriel Faure; and Impromptu in C major by Ernst von Dohnanyi.

Betty Blaustein

A native of Pikesville, Maryland, Betty prepared for college at Park School in Baltimore. Throughout her college career, Betty has been interested in the musical activities of the college. She has been a member of Glee Club and Choir for four years and has served as secretary her senior year.

With Ann Busker, she wrote the music to the song of the class of '52 and teamed with MK Lackey in accompanying the Fathers' Day show last year. Betty is also a member of Five Arts Committee. Her other, campus activities include Knitting Yarns and NWSIL editorial staff for three years.

Interest in music has been a guiding force in Betty's choice of summer activities as well as college activities. During the summer of 1951, she studied at Tanglewood, where her choral director was Eugene Ormandy. Betty enjoyed other musical studies in 1947 and 1948 at National Music Camp in Interlochen, Michigan, where she studied radio drama, clarinet, and choral music. In the summer of 1950, Betty toured Europe and was greatly charmed by the sidewalk cafes.

Betty's major academic interest, at present, is finishing her paper on the individual study project which she and Ginger Dreyfus did at Northwestern State Hospital. They performed practical experiments in musical therapy.

Hope Hayman

Forest Hills, N.Y., is Hope's home, where she attended Forest Hills High School. Like Betty, she has studied piano with Miss Jacyn Newton all of her four years at Connecticut. Hope lives in Emily Abbey and was social chairman of her dorm her sophomore year, became vice-president her junior year, and is E.A.'s president this year.

Her program on Thursday evening will include: Partita No. 3 in C minor by Bach; Allegro moderato from the Sonata in A major by Schubert; Allegro from Finale symphonie unison by Wein; and Jardins annn is Flore by Debussy.

Hope showed her ability not only as a piano student, but also as a piano teacher, when she taught at Learned House last year. She has helped Mr. Quinby with office work for two years and also has done some secretarial work for Mr. Logan, since she is the Girl Scouts in directing folk dancing and group singing. Her summers have been spent counseling at camps and teaching sailing.

Big plans are ahead for Hope in the form of a bicycle tour through Europe. She will wend in New York to earn the money for Europe and hopes to sail in October '53. Her job plans for New York are not yet definite. She would like to work in an art gallery, or she may go into radio work. She will be teaching piano and studying art besides working at a full-time job, so her time in New York will be extremely busy and interesting.

McCarthyism, a threat to American Democracy was the subject of the Political Forum Prize Debate last Thursday night.

The pros and cons of the subject were set forth by the four speakers: Miss Halborn, Mr. Record, and Mr. Strider.

Her question, directed to the negative team, was "Do you think that the end justifies the means?"

The speakers had a tendency to circumvent the main question of whether McCarthyism is a threat to the free democratic way of life. The debate did not answer this important question, but it did succeed in arousing the interest of many students and perhaps will be a starting point for thoughts and discussions.
