
Seniors are Entertained.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Marshall gave a delightful tea to the seniors of the class in the faculty lounge. The decorations were in keeping, and the refreshments were served by Miss Sherer.

Mrs. Marshall, who was a very charming hostess, in dress, as well as in pastel shades, was assisted in receiving the guests, by President Marshall. Catherine Holman and Gertrude Hulterman also helped in receiving; and several members of the Sophomore Club Helen Hood, Frances Angler, Hazel Keerhulm, and Theodosia Hewlett "ensured." President Marshall told the girls the glad news about the new house which is to be built at the other end of the soccer field, facing New London Hall. It is to accommodate twenty girls, as a dormitory. There will be a dining hall in the house which will provide for sixty girls. A very particular feature of the building will be a large hall, one and three quarters times as large as the Gym, where college dances will be held. The house is to be built of stone quarried from college land. It will not clash with the Tudor buildings, since the Georgian Colonial lines of the Library have provided an appropriate opening for the addition of other buildings of colonial type. It is hoped that the house will be finished by next February, but in all probability, it will not be ready for opening until the middle of next school year. Plans will be on exhibition sometime next week.

The recitation of Miss Renwick was sung and whistled, to the accompaniment of her violins, for the entertainment of the guests. Harriet Warner played a solo song appropriately.

Most delightful refreshments, consisting of ice cream with strawberry sauce, cakes and salted nuts, were served during the afternoon.

The faculty room was beautifully decorated with flowers which were arranged by Miss Sherer.

Mandolin and Glee Clubs Give Concert.

The musical clubs, consisting of the Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Frederick Weld, and the Mandolin Club under the leadership of Marguerite Call 24 gave a joint concert in the gymnasium on Thursday evening, May 14. The program was as follows:

Forget-me-not Waits .... Frank McKee Mandolin Club
Son of Sorrow .......... Charles Fonteyn Manney Glee Club
Hermione ....... Tosselli-Schmidt Mandolin Club
(a) The Snow, Op. 26, No. 1 Mr. Edward Elgar Glee Club
(b) My Love Dwelt in a Northern Land Mr. Edward Elgar Glee Club
(c) Valde Lemno S. Victor Herbert Mandolin Club
(d) The Cherry in the Glass Paul Linke Mandolin Club
At the Ten O'clock F. Flaxington Harker Glee Club
(b) Mighty Lark's A Rose Ethelbert Nevin Mandolin Club
(c) Berceuse Avenue J. Lawrence Erb Glee Club
Lights Out .......... Earle F. McCoy Mandolin Club

The concert as a whole proved to be the best that has ever been given by these members within the memories of the writer. The quality of the voices and the music of the instruments seemed to have gained something in fineness and clearness over previous years.

The Glee Club selections were especially effective in tone coloring, particularly the pianissimo shadings. The quality of the soprano and second soprano parts seemed exceptionally rich and full, and the balance of the parts was at all times good. After the singing of the "Serenade" by Dr. James Lawrence Erb, who is head of the Music Department, the composer was given an ovation. The Club responded by encoreing the selection.

The Mandolin Club, augmented by some outside players, gave a very creditable performance. The quality of the violins showed great improvement over that of last year. At the end of the concert the Club very obligingly re- sponded with a number of encores.

The Glee Club had the assistance of Mr. Frederick Weld as Musical Adviser, and the Mandolin Club that of Mr. Victor Grinnell as its Musical Ad- viser.

A Third Party is the Favorite.

On Tuesday afternoon, May 13, at 4 o'clock a political discussion was held in the gymnasium on the question: "What party should I support in the coming campaign?" The discussion was prepared and presented by the Political Science Department and Dr. Lawrence was in charge of the meeting. The debate was presented by Ava Mulholland, that for the Republican party by Frederick Weld, and the Third Party was advocated by Amy Hilker.

Republican Party Advocated.

Ava Mulholland introduced her presentation of the Republican case by a satisfactory resume of the party platform and nominated its presidential candidate. She then took up the four principal items of the Tariff, (2) taxation, (3) foreign policy and (4) corruption. Miss Mulholland declared that the tariff does not cause high prices, as these depend upon what people will pay, which in turn is determined by competition. Money paid to foreign producers goes to the Treasury, and not to the foreign producers, thus fulfilling the idea of protective taxation. The Speaker was in charge of the meeting. The Republican platform was defended by Frederick Weld, and the Mandolin Club, that for the Democratic party by Mrs. Marshall, and the Third Party was presented by Ava Mulholland, that for the Democratic party by Mrs. Marshall, and the Third Party was advocated by Amy Hilker.

NATIONAL POLITICS ON THE CAMPUS

College students, as a whole, have little time for consideration of the victories and defeats of the political parties, but security, as they are, in their four years of detachment from the world of affairs, the noise from the political arena scarcely beats upon their academic ear-day. And yet these same people are going to take advantage of the franchise in two or three years. What kind of voters will they make?

If the results of the recent Political Discussion can be taken as indicative of the trend of college opinion in general, it would seem that the idealistic in political theory appeals to college students. The platform of the Third Party, as outlined at the meeting, includes distinctly progressive principles, free from the traditional catering to sectional classes. In advocating the right of war the Third Party takes a fundamental stand on the nation's interests.

Students in favoring a Third Party, have shown that they are not bound to the old parties, nor are they merely inserting. They feel free to choose a party which conforms to the individual party's purposes as well as to their students' when they find themselves struggling in the competition of the working world, will find it practicable to cling to their ideal, or whether it will not be more expedient to align themselves with power and money against progressive ideas? Will they have the courage of their ideals?

FREE SPEECH.

(The Editors of the Year do not hold themselves responsible for the opinions expressed in the following column.)

To the Editor: The political debate held in the gym at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, demonstrated admirable condition. The question of free speech was raised, and the discussion was carried on without interruption. It seems to me that the students are very much interested in the question of free speech.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF TIME EXTENSION FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE PRIZE PLAYLET CONTEST.

The Intercollegiate Prize Playlet Contest which was scheduled to close on May 25, 1924, has been extended until August 15, 1924. It was found that owing to the pressure of final examinations many students interested in entering the contest were unable to get their manuscripts ready. We therefore decided, in fairness to those who would like to utilize part of their summer holiday to prepare manuscripts, to extend the contest to above mentioned date.

For those who are not familiar with the conditions of this contest, a copy of the original announcement and rules will be sent on request.

The producers are offering a prize of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars to the winner as well as a royalty of Fifty Dollars for every week that the playlet appears in vaudeville.
