Written & Composed by

J. A. WADE, Esq.

New York, Firth & Hall, 7, Franklin Square.
I've wander'd in dreams to the moonlight's home, In fancy I've been where a thought could roam; I've blissfully gaz'd on the dew-y smiles, Of the maidens that dwell in the starry Isles; and have waken'd from slumber pure and free, From their airy charms to love but thee, To love, to love to love, to love but thee! I've wander'd in dreams.
dreamt about Eden's blissful bow'r's, And breathed the sighing of heav'n's own flow'r's I've heard the wild songs of the Paradise birds, But even in sleeping the memory of words once spoken by thee, came sweet on mine ear, And the music 'round me no more would I hear.
Colla voce.

No more no more I lov'd, I lov'd but thee, I I've wandered in dreams.
