The Honor Roll of Giving

Connecticut College Magazine

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Your generous support is directly responsible for the enriching experiences that take place daily at Connecticut College

I am thankful every day for the alumni, parents, friends and corporate and foundation donors who support the work of the college through their generous gifts. The annual Honor Roll of Giving gives me an opportunity to reflect on how we, as a college, have met your expectations and how close we have come to meeting the standards we have set for ourselves.

A Time To Lead: The Campaign for Connecticut College, a $125 million initiative with the triple thrusts of increasing Annual Fund giving, raising endowment and funding significant capital projects, is critical to the college's financial well-being — but its progress is also a good indicator of alumni and community support for the direction the college is taking. I am greatly pleased that this year's report shows impressive support: $13 million in commitments raised during the 1995-96 fiscal year, bringing the campaign total to $75.7 million by June 30, 1996.

Last year, in this space, I noted that our efforts to give high visibility to important issues of civil society — on campus, nationally and internationally — had met with success by bringing these issues to the forefront in many arenas. Increasingly, Connecticut College is becoming a focus for such discussions, with some of the most highly respected writers, scientists, artists and thinkers exchanging ideas with our students on campus. As the college has set itself to become a model or laboratory for life in a modern democratic society, the unparalleled opportunity to have personal conversations with experts in these fields is influencing the lives of promising young students at Connecticut College.

In the past year, Pulitzer Prize-winning psychiatrist Robert Coles, civil rights pioneer Ruby Bridges Hall, sociologist Robert Putnam, artists Christo and Jeanne Claude, and presidential historian Doris Kearns Goodwin have enriched the campus with their perspectives on human creativity and cooperation. The 1996-97 academic year began with a stirring convocation honoring Miep Gies, the protector of Anne Frank, and we expect campus visits from other internationally known scholars, including Nobel Prize-winning author Toni Morrison, photographer Jill Krementz, author Kurt Vonnegut, scientist Robert Pollack and 1980 Nobel Peace Prize winner Adolfo Pérez Esquivel.

Your gifts are directly responsible for these enriching experiences, just as they help us with bricks and mortar and other aspects of building a highly respected community of scholars. The Lyn and David Silfen Track and Field and the Joanne Toor Cummings '50 Art Gallery were completed and dedicated this fall. Hale Laboratory is being renovated to serve as an upper-level laboratory and student/faculty research center. The campus community is watching with fascination as the North Dormitory Complex (known for several decades as The Plex) is transformed into a modern student residence and meeting area.

Your giving has built the college's endowment to an impressive $87 million; however, this is still much less than the endowments at many of our peer schools. These gifts assist, for example, with scholarships and distinguished professorships and give donors the satisfaction of knowing that their gifts will be invested and continue to benefit the college for many years. With your help, I expect that Connecticut College will have tripled its endowment in 10 years, from $35 million in 1989 to more than $105 million by the end of the campaign in 1999.

Fiscal 1995-96 was a record-breaking year for the Annual Fund at $2.9 million. It is important to note that this impressive total was made up of gifts of all sizes, large and small. Achieving 50 percent alumni participation is something we, as a college, have set our sights on during this, the largest development campaign in the college's history. This goal is now within our reach and will further secure our place among the leading colleges in this country.

You honor the college with your gifts and the examples you set for others in your communities around the world. With this document we honor you for your commitment to liberal arts education and your enthusiasm for Connecticut College.

Full Speed Ahead

By far the most significant event of 1995-96 was the September 29 public announcement of the $125 million campaign to build a stronger financial foundation for the college through gifts to the Annual Fund, the endowment and capital projects.

Noting that during the "silent phase" of the campaign the college had progressed nearly halfway to its goal with $62.2 million in hand, Chair of the Board of Trustees Jack Evans said, "We have come very far, very fast. Tonight we celebrate that momentum." Since that public announcement, the pace has not slowed. During the past 12 months, each of the major campaign areas has achieved remarkable success:

THE ANNUAL FUND

The Annual Fund continued a Connecticut College tradition by surpassing its goal, raising $2,894,114 (107 percent of goal) from loyal alumni, parents and friends.

THE PARTY ISN'T OVER; IT'S JUST GETTING STARTED A cascade of college-blue and white balloons culminated the on-campus launch of the Time to Lead campaign September 29, 1995. In the year since, the college pulled $13.4 million closer to the campaign's $125 million goal — total commitments now stand at $75.7 million.

Trustees led the way by giving 13 percent of the total. Annual Fund gifts are available for immediate use and affect almost every aspect of campus life.

Giving societies showed a strong increase in membership: The 1911 Society gained 63 members and gave 58 percent of the Annual Fund total. The Laurels gained 15 members and gave 12 percent of the Annual Fund total.

Calls from a record number of Annual Fund volunteers — 437 — resulted in 43 percent alumni participation. The campaign goal of 50 percent alumni participation drew within reach as classes such as 1926, 1934, 1946 and 1951 surpassed 80 percent participation, following the example of the earliest classes, 1919, 1921, 1923 and 1925, which maintain a 100 percent giving record. Volunteers in all classes will be pursuing their more elusive classmates with phone calls and letters to meet the 50 percent participation goal by 1999.

Reunion classes topped records again this year with the classes of 1941, 1946, 1951 and 1966 setting new standards for reunion Annual Fund gifts, and the classes of 1956 and 1981 setting records for overall reunion giving. Reunion classes also raised an impressive 36 percent of the Annual Fund dollars in 1995-96.

Graduating seniors pledged $21,200 in gifts, with 70 percent of the class participating. Encouragement came from an anonymous alumna who offered a 2-to-1 match, and the Class of 1996 responded magnificently to this challenge, setting a new record for dollars pledged.

Parents gave 9 percent more than last year and Friends gave 45 percent more, helping boost totals and giving important endorsement to programs at the college. Many donors remembered to take advantage of corporate matching gift programs, bringing in an additional $194,989 from their employers.

PLANNED AND MAJOR GIFTS

With $5.2 million in commitments

this year, Planned and Major Gifts reached $29 million of its $57 million goal for the campaign. These commitments were in addition to $4.6 million received through bequests to the college. Some significant commitments in 1995-96 include: $1 million for unrestricted endowment, $1 million in trust to fund the CISLA director position, $500,000 to endow an associate professorship, $150,000 toward an associate professorship, $138,000 for scholarship endowment and an additional $1.1 million in trusts. The donors of these gifts responded handsomely to the campaign and the clearly identified need to increase endowment, including endowed faculty positions and scholarships.

Planned giving contributes to the long-term financial strength of the college and offers alumni, parents and friends of the college a wide variety of ways to make gifts to Connecticut College. One form of planned giving involves adding a bequest to a will, but there are many other types of trusts and annuities that benefit the college and the donor as well. The Heritage Society, established in 1989, recognizes people who have chosen to include Connecticut College in their estate plans. The Heritage Society now has more than 650 members whose gifts will help the college in the future. A recent $4 million bequest from the late Joanne Toor Cummings '50 will endow the Toor Cummings Center for International Studies and the Liberal Arts and fund renovations to the Cummings Arts Center.

CORPORATIONS AND FOUNDATIONS

Grants to Connecticut College in 1995-96 helped the college turn dreams into reality. Campus projects last year ranged from a fundamental study of the roles and responsibilities of faculty, funded by $30,000 from CAPHE (Consortium for the Advancement of Private Higher Education) and the Pew Charitable Trusts, to funding for conferences and musical events on campus. A fine example of a partnership that is changing the face of the campus developed when Pfizer, Inc. came forward to match an NSF grant to renovate Hale Laboratory. Continuing a long, community-based relationship, Pfizer is helping convert 1950s-style chemistry classrooms into modern upper-level teaching laboratories and space for faculty/student research projects. The college also completed a 2-to-1 match for a

$250,000 grant from The Louis Calder Foundation for a scholarship fund for disadvantaged students from metropolitan New York. Gifts and pledges from alumni and trustees made this $750,000 fund a reality. ■

BIG CHECKS AT REUNION: The Class of '51 (above) and the Class of '46 were among several reuniting class that successfully met challenges from their classmates. See page 18 for a class-by-class summary.

From a grateful campaign chair...

Dear Friends,

As national chair for the "A Time to Lead" campaign, it is a pleasure to add my voice of thanks to each and every one of you for your extraordinary generosity this past year. What a year to celebrate!

The Campaign for

Connecticut College is steadily climbing toward its $125 million goal. To date, we have raised nearly $76 million in trustee, alumni, parent, friend, faculty, staff and corporate gifts, which puts us at 61 percent of our goal. New records were set by trustees, alumni, parents and friends, who all exceeded their dollar goals. In addition, the newest members of our alumni family, the Class of '96, set a new record in giving through the Senior Pledge Program. It was a truly outstanding year, and I am deeply indebted for your continued loyalty and support.

The financial challenges of providing a first-class college education are never-ending. Each year we ask alumni and friends to renew their commitment to our mission, and each year you respond generously.

Your support has staggering effects on the lives of the young people who walk our campus today, and it will continue to make a difference in future years. Your gifts have built buildings, bought books, subsidized faculty and staff salaries, and provided financial aid.

Throughout its history, the Connecticut College community has responded to the immediate needs of our existing programs and new initiatives. Many of us have personally benefitted from the quality education provided by our college, and now we have an opportunity to invest in its future through this campaign.

Over the next three years we will be striving to reach and exceed a goal designed to build a financial foundation that will strengthen this noble institution and the liberal arts tradition it upholds. Every one of your gifts makes a difference.

To those who have already stepped forward, heartfelt thanks. And to those whose names do not appear in this special Honor Roll of Giving issue, I invite you to join me in helping to keep our college a leader in liberal arts education.

Sincerely,

Susan

Ad Astra Society

Ad Astra, to the stars, is the name of a sculpture by Professor of Art David Smalley that stands outside the college athletic center. It is also the name of a new gift club that recognizes alumni, parents and friends whose lifetime commitment to Connecticut College is $1 million or more. Their vision, leadership and commitment allow the college to sustain its traditions and create the educational innovations that help students reach for the stars.

SOCIETY

THE 1911 SOCIETY, named for the year the college was founded, celebrates leadership. Created to honor donors of $1,911 or more, this vital group makes an example of generous giving and encourages others to do the same. During the 1995-96 year, The 1911 Society accounted for 54 percent of the total Annual Fund.

This list recognizes 1911 Society membership based on gifts to the college received between 7/1/95 and 6/30/96.

Morton F. Plant Society

In 1911, New London industrialist Morton F. Plant assured the security of the fledgling Connecticut College by adding $25,000 to the original $100,000 that had been raised by citizens of the city. As chairman of the board, he further demonstrated his commitment to higher education with a historic $1 million gift for the endowment. Members of the Morton F. Plant Society gave $25,000 or more during 1995-96.

Mary Stillman Harkness Benefactors

A personal gift from Mary Stillman Harkness provided funds for Harkness House in 1934. Mary Harkness was a close friend of former college president Katharine Blunt and maintained a keen interest in campus life, frequently visiting "her" dormitory. Her concern that there was a center for religious life on campus prompted her to build Harkness Chapel in 1939. Mary Stillman Harkness Benefactors gave between $10,000 and $24,999 in 1995-96.

New London Circle

When the founders of Connecticut College were looking for a place to build their new school, they not only wanted an ideal physical site, they wanted a community that would take pride in the college and help it grow. The people of New London proved their worth by mounting a grassroots fund-raising campaign in which every citizen from washer woman to shopkeeper to whaleship owner contributed what they could. The New London Circle was established in 1991 to recognize the ongoing collaborative generosity of the campus and local communities. Members of the New London Circle gave $1,911 to $4,999 in 1995-96.

The Laurels

The Laurels, established in 1964, is the college's oldest giving club. The laurel leaf represents academic achievement and vitality, bringing to mind the traditional laurel chain at the college's commencement ceremony. Laurels recognizes donors of $1,000-$1,910.

Tales of Reunion Giving

SHIRLEY WILSON KELLER '46 AND JOAN JACOBSON KRONICK

'46 HAD TWO GOALS IN MIND when they started planning fund-raising strategies for their class's 50th reunion: To raise the level of giving and to unite the class.

"As a wartime class we were somewhat scattered," noted Kronick.

The CAC dynamic duo got plenty of help. "We could never have done it without the help of 18 class agents," says Kronick. "All of them spoke the case for the college wonderfully."

The culmination of hard work and the support of people who allowed their sights to be raised resulted in the successful completion of a $100,000 class challenge and a new record for 50th Reunion annual giving: $303,136. Participation was a remarkable 82 percent.

What was especially gratifying, says Kronick, was the extraordinary sense of togetherness at reunion and that giving was evenly spread out among class members.

Tales of Reunion Giving

CONTACT AND PARTICIPATION, those were the key concepts for Co-CACs Phyllis McCarthy Crosby '51 and Jeanne Tucker Zenker '51 in their stunningly successful efforts for 45th reunion giving. The Class of '51 set records for both 45th Reunion annual giving and participation, which reached a startling 84 percent.

"Alumni support impresses foundations and corporate donors," said Crosby, who is stepping down after five years as class agent chair. "Foundations like to see that graduates are solidly behind the work of the college, so we put a lot of emphasis on participation."

Zenker and Crosby nurtured that participation by updating their classmates regularly on how the $75,000 challenge grant Zenker helped arrange was going. "We kept people informed by mailing updates a couple of times leading up to reunion, and we did a lot of talking on the phone with one another," Zenker said.

The strategy worked. The class exceeded the challenge and raised a total of $199,810.

Tales of Reunion Giving

CLASS OF '56 CACS JOYCE BAGLEY RHEINGOLD, JILL LONG LEINBACH AND SUZANNA MARTIN REARDON CONTACTED A LOT OF PEOPLE PERSONALLY and kept after them. "I have a big mouth and just kept pushing," says Rheingold. "We wrote a lot of letters and urged two things: come to reunion and give to the college."

The results? Successful completion of a 1:1 class challenge which totaled $117,018; 75 percent participation; and new records for 40th Reunion annual giving and overall 40th Reunion gift.

New London Calling

Phonathons keep ringing

The phonathon, that fund-raising classic, continues to prove an effective method of communication and connection. This year, callers brought many unengaged alumni back into the fold while helping the Annual Fund to the tune of $190,402.

At regional phonathons in New York City, Hartford and Boston, volunteers had fun talking to fellow alums about the college and their continued connection to it.

On campus, 70 student callers spent 30 nights encouraging support for CC. At the same time, they were able to get the scoop about the way Connecticut College used to be and find out what it's like in the "real" world.

Many thanks and congratulations to our students and alumni for another successful year of phoning.

Heritage Society

The Heritage Society, founded in 1989-90, recognizes individuals who have chosen to include Connecticut College in their estate plans. Today, the society has more than 655 members. It includes those who plan to leave outright gifts, those who have named Connecticut College as a contingent beneficiary — no matter the size or the remoteness of the bequest — and those who have made a life income arrangement with Connecticut College through a Pooled Income Fund, Gift Annuity, Charitable Remainder Trust or Retained Life Estate. This year alone the college received planned gifts or pledges from 70 donors, 42 of whom are new to the planned giving program.

The Heritage Society continues to grow as donors realize the additional benefits they receive by making a planned gift, as well as the benefits such a gift provides both for the college's current needs and its long-range goals. This is confirmed by the $6.7 million in planned gifts received during the 1995-96 fiscal year, which includes $2.1 million in trusts, $800,000 from individual estates, and $4.4 million in bequests pending.

Whether with an outright gift or a planned gift, the continued generosity of alumni, parents and friends illustrates their desire to help Connecticut College remain one of the nation's top liberal arts colleges.

Frances Walker Chase is moving to North Hill, a retirement complex almost around the corner from my home in Needham, MA. Before moving, she spent the summer in England.

Roy and Anne Oppenheim Freed have moved to a retirement village in Canton, MA, after taking a trip to see the Hermitage in St. Petersburg, Russia. Anne still works at Boston College with doctoral students.

Check with me or the Office of Alumni Relations, 860-439-2300, if you need the address or phone number of an alum.

During reunion weekend, Bill and I met on campus with Harry and Selma Silverman Swatsburg and May Nelson for the Sykes Society luncheon at the Hood Dining Room at Blaustein. Matt Fay, director of dining services, served a delicious salmon luncheon complete with pansies adorning the salad. While on campus, we touched base at Becker House and took a brief tour of the beautiful and manicured campus.

Over Mother's Day, I flew to Laramie, WY, to visit my oldest son who is a professor of engineering at the U. of Wyoming. While there, the whole town turned out to greet the Union Pacific train carrying the Olympic flame. It stopped briefly at the railroad station for Gov. Jim Geringer and Secretary of State, Diana Ohman to thank everyone for coming.

Submission of Class Notes

Class notes may be submitted to your correspondent at any time. However, if you would like to have your notes appear in a specific issue please note that Connecticut College Magazine publishes six issues yearly: Winter (Jan./Feb.), Spring (March/April), Commencement (May/June), Summer (July/Aug.), Honor Roll of Giving (Sept./Oct.) and Fall (Nov./Dec.) — please make sure your class correspondent receives your news by the deadline listed below.

Issue	Your Deadline
Winter	Nov. 15
Spring	Jan. 15
Commencement	March 15
Summer	May 15
Honor Roll	July 15
Fall	Sept. 15

All classes may contribute to each issue. If you need further information about submitting your news for class notes, please contact your class correspondent or Mary Farrar, assistant editor, Connecticut College Magazine, 270 Mohegan Ave., New London, CT 06320-4196.

Reunion: May 30-June 1, 1997

McLean, VA 22101

Audrey Nordquist Curtis and Fred saw a number of classmates during annual trip to FL. The first was Marge Till Chambers, in her beautiful condo in Naples. Marge was in CT for Christmas with her children; she returns to Cape Cod every summer. In Alexandria, VA, Audrey and Fred saw Verner Ramsing, husband of our classmates Sylvia Martin Ramsing, who died in '93. He reported that Ginny Martin Pattison, whose husband died in '95, has moved to a retirement center. In Baltimore, MD, the Curtises saw Ray and Ellie King Miller and Flo Crockett Harkness, who was in Baltimore visiting her son at the time. Flo's husband, Loring, died while they were on a trip to HI in '95.

Shirley Jaeger Millwee talked to the Curtises by phone from her home in Westport, CT. Ellie showed off her art work, an impressive collection of pastels and oils. Her portraits are truly exceptional, says Audrey. They also saw Louise Spencer Hudson in Cedar Grove, near Paterson, NJ. She is again mobile after recovering from a broken leg.

Our class was well represented at Insights, volunteer training on campus, this year. Audrey was there and roomed with June Perry Mack, Helen Lederer Pilert, Barry Beach Alter and Connie Hughes McBrien also participated. This committee started organizing our 55th reunion, scheduled for May 30-June 1 of next year. It will be here before you know it, so put the dates on your calendar. Pres. Claire Gaudiani had the alums spellbound with plans for the future of CC. Audrey describes the president as "awesome!"

Franny Hyde Forde is also working on our reunion committee. She had planned to go to the college for Insights, but got snowed out ... again! It was a very long winter! Franny's son-in-law is retiring from the Coast Guard, so he and Nancy are moving to Saybrook, CT. Franny is delighted.

Alice Richard Waldschmitt, who lives in Tortola, British Virgin Islands, is "into" gardening in a big way. She chaired the annual flower show for the BVI Botanic Gardens. Two years ago, she toured gardens in England, ending up at the Chelsea Flower Show, and last year, she did the same in France. "All those botany classes at CC rubbed off," she wrote. Her son, Robert has two children, 3 and 5. She spends summers with him at his home on Chesapeake Bay, and he visits her in the fall.

Janet Swan Muens still enjoys the Round Robin that her "group" has been writing for more than 50 years. Son, Bob, and his wife, Jody, have moved from DC to Key West, FL, — much closer to Janet's home in Palm City, FL. Jody was transferred by The Nature Conservancy, and he is starting his own book-binding business.

Shirley Wilde Andrews gave her mother a big 100th birthday party last Oct. Shirley's mother lives in an apartment in NJ with Shirley's younger sister. After being married to Jim for 53 years, Shirley finds life without him lonely. But she talks to her two daughters, Susan in San Francisco and Nancy in Baltimore, weekly. Susan's son is studying art and architecture in NYC. Shirley plays golf and bridge, is addicted to double acrostics, enjoys gardening and loves to read.

Lenore Tingle Howard has endowed a professorship intended to attract promising young teacher/scholars to the college. We in the Class of '42 thank her.

I am sorry to report the death of Jane Guiney Pettengill on 3/10/96 in Hartford. She leaves her husband, Daniel, two daughters, Ann Shea and Sara Petersen, and four grandchildren.

Correspondents: Charlotte Hosfeld Tapy, 50 Pequot Road, Pawtucket, RI 02861 and Jane Storms Wenneis, 27 Pine Ave., Madison, NJ 07940

Barbara Batchelor Hamlin, who founded and ran the Children's Center in New Milford, CT, retired last year. She is now deeply involved in advocacy work for children in her hometown of Litchfield, CT. Before she founded the center, she worked with Head Start. Now, she is particularly interested in the role of music in education. Barbara lunches with Jean Kohlberger Carter and Sylvia Klingon Eisen in NYC periodically.

Jane Folts Lewis and Dale Bredon were married in April in San Diego and honeymooned in Cancun. We wish you many happy years ahead!

Mary Ann (Mak) Knotts Walsh had a special birthday surprise this year — an eight-pound grandson Jared! She reports that Eleanor Horsey Blattmann visited with her last Nov.

Last Sept., Lois Anne (Taus) Nagel Martin and Ralph visited their son and family in Baltimore and their daughter in Fairfax, VA. They helped their daughter with her wedding preparations. Watching the newlyweds sail away on their new yacht for their honeymoon was "wonderful."

Mary Louise (Shoe) Shoemaker Lind has little contact with other alums except for reunion. Her family has grown from 33 to 34 members with a new grandchild, so family reunions are big news! This spring, she enjoyed a trip to Greece (where a daughter lives) and visited several of the Greek Isles, Rhodes and Turkey.

Constance Smith Hall and Gene went on the CC sponsored Danube trip this July. There were other grads from '38, '44, '51 and '58 plus travelers from Dartmouth and Williams. The lecturers were great and the day trips excellent from Pasau to Budapest. She and Gene enjoyed every minute.

Mary Louise Williams Haskell has nine grandchildren who love to visit her home on the water in Yarmouth, ME. (I, Jane, incorrectly reported that she had only one grandchild!) Mary Lou writes that the welcome mat is out for her CC friends.

We express our sympathy to Betty Hammink Carey on the death of her husband, Frank, on 1/10/96.

Correspondents: Elise Abrahams Josephson, 25 Antigua Rd., Santa Fe, NM 87505 and Alice Anne Carey Weller, 423 Clifton Blvd., E. Lansing, MI 48823

Phyllis Miller Hurley and Jack took their children and youngest grandchild to Barbados in Jan. They were glad they did so, because since then, Jack has had a third stroke that will curtail travel. Now they will be content with their own lovely yard and pool — at least until it gets too hot in Houston.

Lila Sullivan Murphy attended a fine Elderhostel in Santa Fe where she also visited Elise Abrahams Josephson who is recovering from a serious accident. "She has a great house and was most hospitable." Lila says, "Come to Newport. It's a great place to live."

Catherine Wallerstein White writes, "After three trips from the East Coast to the West Coast, a couple of weeks in Spain and trips to AL and PA, I swore that I wasn't going to travel this year. But I had three grandchildren graduate from college (U. of Michigan Law, Stanford Business and Cal. State/ Bakersfield). Now I'll stay put, but I have a grandson coming to medical school here in Richmond."

Caroline Townley Von Mayrhauser is pleased with the apartment, good food and many things to do at her retirement home in Prairie Village, KS. Children and grandchildren visit often, and she has been east three times to visit the VA and RI families.

Martha Reid Hudson who lost her husband in '93, paints, exhibits and teaches. She lives on the eastern shore of MD — lots of woods and water.

Ruthe Nash Wolverton enjoyed her summer in ME observing eagles, seals and other wildlife. When it is cool, she wears her 50th reunion jacket to keep warm. Quite a change from the weather at their home in MD. For them, it's the best of both worlds, climate-wise.

Virginia Weber Marion reports lots of travel and winters in Captiva, FL. She had her knee replaced in April. "First time I've had a straight leg in many years — very exciting." Virginia's grandchildren are growing up — she has a 24-year-old in med. school, three out of college, one in college and two in high school.

Stratton Nicolson McKillop is spending three months in Old Lyme, CT, with lots of children and grandchildren visiting. "Great winter and spring with life treating me very kindly."

Jean Loomis Hendrickson drove to Richland, WA, to visit her son, Paul; daughter-in-law, Kay, and grandsons, Jon and Jay, during Memorial Day weekend. She watched the boys play Little League, and heard Jon sing a duet in Latin. The family took roses to the grave of Jean's infant granddaughter, who died at the age of four mos. after the death of Jean's husband, Hal.

Elizabeth Swisher Childs writes, "My beloved husband of 50 years died of cancer in April at age 82." You and your family have the sympathy of your classmates, Libby.

Correspondents: Beverly Bonfig Cody, P.O. Box 1187, Harwich, MA 02645 and Marjorie Lawrence Weidig, 77 Quanset Road, Box 1176, Orleans, MA 02653

Doris McEvoy Molowa writes, "I lost my husband almost 10 years ago and my oldest son two years ago. A terrible time to go through, but we survive." Dee plays golf and tennis and volunteers at Children's Specialized Hospital and on the Town Board of Adjustment.

Jeanne Mendler Davies went on a safari to Tanzania and Kenya in Feb. and photographed many African animals. "They didn't seem fazed at all by our presence." She saw lions, wildebeest, zebras, impala, gazelles, but Jeanne's favorite was the giraffe, "so graceful and serene." In addition to the Serengeti in Tanzania, they visited Olduvai Gorge, where the Leakeys excavated, and the fossilized Ngorongoro Crater, "an extinct volcano that is a Shangri-La for wildlife." The high point was staying at an inn called Giraffe Manor in Nairobi. "Upon arrival, the resident giraffes greet you by poking their heads through the front door, looking for a snack. Don't miss Africa. It's truly wonderful!"

The Class of '45 sends sympathy to the family of June Sawhill Proctor, who died on Jan. 18. Our freshman year song leader, a dorm president, senior class president, cum laude graduate and Phi Beta Kappa member — June was definitely one of our stars.

Anne Woodman Stalter, our 50th reunion chair par excellence, reflects on the wonderful weekend: "As I look back on our 50th reunion and the five years before it, I feel that I have gained so much in personal friendships with classmates. Let's keep in touch! Those who were not able to attend were sincerely missed, and I hope 'Glimpses' helped them feel connected.

"Pres. Claire L. Gaudiani '66 has a wonderful vision for the college and society, and she acts on that vision. I hope the 'civil society' that she promotes on campus will spread across our country and the world. Everything is possible if people really care.

"The campus was beautiful and has grown without losing the basic appearance we all remember. Thank you all for coming and making this so much fun."

Following the weekend, Ann, attended her granddaughter's graduation in Needham, MA, and later in the week spent five days relaxing in Québec City.

Catherine (Sis) Tideman James and Tom extended their visit to the East with a cruise from Newport to Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard.

Janet Kennedy Murdoch, our capable president, and John went north to MIT for John's 50th reunion, and Jesse MacFayden Olcott and Bob went west to Williams College for Bob's 50th.

Windham was made even more welcoming with exquisite flower arrangements from Bobby Miller Gustafson, Barbie Smith Peck and Lee Minter Goode and the artistic arrangement of classmates' work and memorabilia by Ann Bloomer Patterson. Without the tireless efforts of Bobby and Bob, who made coffee, hauled ice and stocked refreshments for us, we probably would have spent the entire weekend shyly eyeing each other hoping to remember "who" and "where."

Sarah Nichols Herrick and Alice Willgoos Ferguson, on the piano, led a wonderful and nostalgic song fest in Windham living room. They even provided song sheets for those who forgot the words!

Honeymooning at reunion were Ethel Lawrence Woodbury and her husband, Henry Herbert Allen.

Nancy Head Bryant and Harry are "barely retired," but on the go. Their travels have brought them as far west as Manitoba, visiting friends who tend 900 horses producing estrogen for us old females. "Don't believe those stories about the horses being treated poorly, not so at all," writes Nancy. Nancy is in good health, though she sets all the gongs and whistles off in airports with her two knee replacements and the metal rods in her back. Nancy and Harry are very happy with their rebuilt house in Kanai. Nancy talks with Emily Estes Whalen and Bobbie Kite Yeager and Bill.

Mary Alice Clark is relishing retirement — going to art classes, growing orchids, indulging her pup's whims, being a great aunt and discovering the wonders of her PC.

Janet Alden Carrick and Bill enjoyed their Chicago winter; Janet worked hard at duplicate bridge. She asks, "Any other bridge buffs out there?"

Nancy Beam Harnett and husband, Joe, spent the winter, as usual, at Lost Tree

Village, North Palm Beach, FL. Nancy reports, "My favorite activity is my art lessons: brush painting and watercolor — mostly entertaining myself. Also I dabble in the computer world. After several courses, I'm getting up to speed with Windows '95." Joe is very active in the village, as he is responsible for both its water and sewage utilities and also heads up the Grants Committee.

After spending a month in Egypt and 10 days in Israel visiting friends, Phyl Hoge writes from HI, "I have had a year like no other — visiting the VA Center for Creative Arts for six weeks, the Wurlitzer Foundation in Taos for a month and Yaddo in upstate NY for five weeks." Phyl is writing two books and beginning a third. During literary lulls, she takes care of her two grandchildren for daughter, Kate, who is teaching Hawaiian at a nearby college. By the way, Polly Amrein was host to Kate over Christmas vacation in Berkeley, CA. We are wondering if Phyl has official duties as winner of the '95 Hawaii Award for Literature?

Ginny Keifer Johnson occupies herself with various stimulating Elderhostel trips — one featuring Habitat for Humanity and another a tour of Spain.

Mary Lou McCredie Apgar saw Jean Ritti Miller and Alice (AV) Smith Barrett at a reunion on the shore in Aug.!

Peggy Lucas Gunther, with the help of daughter Tess, continues to enjoy her imported Italian fashion jewelry business. In the spring, mother and daughter go to Italy to find the newest designer temptations. In the fall, they take their traveling boutique on the road, attending shows in Milwaukee, Louisville and Oklahoma City. On the home front, Peggy's son, Jon, married in Oct. '94.

Shirley Ross Donahue, FL snowbird, missed "the worst winter in a century in NH." Shirley says that the FL sun is what brightens every day.

Prudence Tallman Wood attended the big animal rights march in DC in June. She and Marge Reichgott Sosnik carry on a lively correspondence.

Marilyn Sullivan Mahoney and Jack, retired physician, are really making up for all the years they couldn't travel. This year, they joined five other couples for a week's stay in an Irish Manor House. This was their base for a week of day trips. Second and third weeks, the Mahoneys traveled most of Ireland and Northern Ireland. They enjoyed the pastoral charm of Erin, waiting for example, for sheep to cross the road. Each night they stayed at a different B & B and ate lunch in pubs, where the life of Ireland is. Marilyn also toured NYC for a few days with her lawyer daughter and granddaughter, Caitlin, 9.

Ruth Fanjoy King is enjoying retirement with skiing, tennis, taking courses and a work-study with the Heifer Project International that took her to Thailand and Vietnam. She also is active in volunteer work, "proving that retirement can be even busier than full-time employment."

You will notice that my e-mail address is included with this column, making it oh-so easy to contact me with your news. I'm being pulled, kicking and screaming, into the computer era, but as I watch my 6-year-old granddaughter work the computer like a pro, I know I have no choice but to join the flow.

Joanne Cohan Robin wrote from an airport while waiting for a flight to Eastern Europe with her daughter. (See, classmates, you can correspond with me from anywhere!) Joey represented CC at the inauguration of Joanne Creighton as president of Mt. Holyoke. Joey is a music therapist who works with people who have Williams Syndrome (WS) and, who, despite this developmental disability, are extremely musical. In the summer of '95, while working at a WS music and arts camp in Lenox, MA, Joey met Dr. Oliver Sacks, who was there with a BBC television crew for a series called "Perception." Dr. Sacks spent two days with Joey and one of her students discussing what life is like for someone with the disability. The segment is scheduled for release in England this fall and will come to this country at a later date. Joey finds it "very exciting to be involved in an area with new discoveries going on."

During Christmas weekend '95, Holly Barrett moved to a small retirement village, Apache Junction, 40 miles east of Phoenix. Although she is a long way from the ocean, Holly calls this home her "sea shanty" and has decorated it with a nautical theme. Holly's exercise routine includes hiking in the Superstition Mountains.

Remember '50 + 50 = 2000! Several of us are already looking forward to our reunion. Sue Little Adamson urges 100-percent attendance, and Selby Inman Graham wants to "walk the landscape of memory."

Hope to hear from all of you!

Joan Herman Nabatoff is doing remedial tutoring in NYC after leaving the admissions office of the Hewitt School. Her daughter, Diane, is a Hollywood movie producer. Her most recent movie was "Operation Dumbo Drop." One of Joan's sons, Richard, is with Warner Studios in Burbank, CA. Her other son, a lawyer in DC, has three children. "I am a proud grandma," notes Joan. She often sees roommate Judy Yankauer Astrove, as well as Dr. Robert Strider, who lost his wife in the summer of '95. Joan's husband, Dr. Robert Nabatoff, continues to do varicose vein surgery and lecture.

Farewell and warmest thanks to Ellie Erickson Ford, who has resigned as co-correspondent; she and Bud have undertaken a serious volunteer counseling project at their church in Westbrook, CT.

Welcome and thanks to Edie Fay Mroz for her offer to share the job of class correspondent with me. You will receive two postcards to gather news for the magazine each year. One will be sent in the spring, and the other will accompany Margie Lewin Ross' president's letter in the fall.

Of course the reunion was great — thanks to the large number of '56ers present on Friday (and more came on Saturday).

There was reminiscing with old friends — some for the first time in 40 years — and discovering new ones. Class members joined forces in J.A. dining room to collate the Reflections booklet. Owing to time gaps, we were all a bit cautious at first, but almost at once there was a lot of talk and laughter.

Chairmen Anne Browning and Debbie Gutman Cornelius credit the success of the reunion to the large number of volunteers who helped with the event — from fundraising to the hospitality suite on the weekend.

There were some rather amazing talks during the weekend: Pres. Claire L. Gaudiani '66 spoke about the college, and Doris Kearns Goodwin gave an awesome lecture. The food was very good (and prepared with our futures in mind), and the weather positively glittered.

At our class meeting we decided to create a class history and planned to hold group discussions of serious issues at the next reunion. All agreed that sleeping, eating and meeting in the same dormitory worked very well.

What's ahead? Who knows? Reading the class notes from the earlier classes in Connecticut College Magazine makes me wonder if there might be a rule: "the older one gets, the more active one becomes"?

When you receive a postcard requesting news for the magazine, answer at once. And if you have updates at any other time, be sure to send them to us. Also, there's a space on the annual giving return envelope for class notes: fill it out and the news will get to us.

We sadly report the death of John Ladley, the warm, generous-hearted husband of Janice Simone Ladley, in May. Our sympathy goes to Ginger and sons, Mark and Chris.

What an interesting group of people in this issue. The theme seems to be (loosely) art and the art of living.

Ruth Barngrove Sauer left NYC in '91 after 25 years but goes back several days a week to work as a grant writer for the Ford Foundation. She and husband, Peter, live in Salem, NY (near the VT border) in a renovated hunting cabin with a studio for each of them. He is now a writer, after a career as a museum director. She paints and teaches art to adults and children both privately and through the New York State Council on the Arts. Their children are in Schenectady, Brooklyn and Dallas. Ruth sees Aggie Gund and stays in touch with Jeanie Chappell. She says she realizes what a good education she got at CC, including a great foundation in the arts.

On the West Coast, I interrupted another painter, Fielden Willmott Harper, who was stripping wallpaper on the hottest weekend of the summer. She and husband, Alex, moved to CA from KY right after college. He's a stockbroker, she does her art and teaches. When CA gets to be too much, she escapes to their married daughter's home in Santa Barbara and one in Los Angeles. Fielden drew on her quilting roots from Kentucky for a show of small boxes, thematically tied together with the use of cloth. She has a show at Watts Towers in Jan. '97. Art interests take her to NYC occasionally, where she sometimes stays with Aggie Gund. Fielden also stays in touch with Frances Gillmore Pratt and Debbie Morreau Bogen, who lives nearby.

Mardie Roth Brown lives in a row house in the middle of DC, behind the Capitol. She can walk to the Mall, and enjoys a very diverse, supportive atmosphere in a city whose reputation is not always the best. Mardie has an administrative position at the Library of Congress, helping to preserve the library's collection. Her son, George, is in the eighth grade, so his activities keep her busy, but she managed to take a watercolor class on Monhegan Island in Maine this summer.

I caught up with Carolyn Sharp Brodsky, and found out why I haven't reached her before. I was calling her home in Newport, RI, while she was in FL for the winter. She and husband, David, are avid boaters, sailing to Martha's Vineyard, Nantucket and ME. David sold his business (manufacturing disposable medical products), and now they're doing things they didn't think they would be able to do for another 10 years. They traveled to Greece, Turkey and Israel for the first time — Carolyn, a former history major, really enjoyed the archaeology. She has done interior design work, and raised three children. Son, Jim, went to CC and then transferred, and is now in marketing. One daughter is in graduate school at Wharton, and the other is married with two children in Boston. Carolyn enjoys the grandchildren, and her two dogs.

Judith Solloway Kleiman works part time as a program director for the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and is on their regional board. She has also done volunteer work for the American Heart Association. Her daughter lives in Atlanta, and her son is a city commissioner in FL. The Kleiman's have four grandchildren. Husband, Elliott, is a college professor and owner of an electronics business. Judith met Karen Widder Lewis for lunch and occasionally sees Sally Feinberg Aronson.

Once again, our lives weave together in ways we would never suspect. It's wonderful to hear the connections and share them with you. Please let me know what you're doing so we're not strangers when we meet again at Reunion '00!

Ellen Watson Payzant has moved to Boston, where her husband, Tom, is superintendent of the public schools. They had been living in DC, where Tom was assistant secretary for elementary and secondary education. Ellen enjoyed her years in the nation's capital where she often met Ginny Wardner Bradford. She did volunteer office work for the U.S. Vice President's staff and took in all the museums she could. Ellen's two daughters live in San Diego; one is married with a 9-month-old son. Ellen's son, who lives in Minneapolis, is also married and has two children, 5 and 2. Ellen plans to attend our reunion.

Barbara Nichols Bennett still resides in Panama, where her husband, John, is deputy chief of mission at the embassy. She writes that this will be an interesting four years for Panama as they prepare to take over full operation of the Canal. She met Melva Lowe Goodwin '68 while there.

While on a British garden tour of Cornwall and Devon with the Delaware Center for Horticulture, Louise Brickley Phippen met fellow alumnae, Pam Goff Sapko '78 and Ellen Corroon Petersen '64. See the photo on the next page! You never know when you will meet up with alums!

Married: Susan Kane Breitman to Lester Gross, 12/94; Bonnie Campbell Billings to Joe Wauters, 4/95.

To catch you up on my life, both our children are back in school. (Tod '91 is in his second year at Columbia Business School, and Andy is at the U. of Colorado getting his master's and Ph.D. in English.) Gene and I continue to enjoy our empty nest, traveling and golfing. I continue to serve on the boards of the New York Philharmonic, Young Audiences and Connecticut College.

In July '95, Nancy Allen Waterfill and Joe joined a group of CC alums on a 12-day cruise around the Greek islands. She is an active Atlanta Symphony volunteer, bridge player and sometime golfer.

Marian Bingham majored in art and finally graduated from CC in '91. She received her master's from Wesleyan in '95.

Marian has been in numerous shows in the tri-state area and runs a B & B called Woodbridge Farm in CT.

Laurie Blake Sawyer still loves HI. She keeps herself busy with ceramics, painting, tennis, golf, scuba diving and, true to her CC spirit, volunteer work.

Carol Borden Taylor is still selling real estate in VA, MD and DC. She works at Planned Parenthood as an R.N but still finds time to travel — spending a month in Mexico this past winter.

Nancy Budde Nightingale and Bob spend their spare time sailing on Lake Erie and “roughing it” at their cabin in Ontario. Nancy loves her work as vice president and trustee of the Friends of the Hudson Library and Historical Society.

Sarah Bullock Desjardins’ daughter, Gillian, is a sophomore at CC.

Bonnie Campbell Wauters invited a number of classmates to celebrate her marriage: Roberta Slone Smith, Carolyn Boyan Torok, Diana Altman and Elana Brown Anderson.

Agnes Cochran Underwood had another banner year as headmistress of National Cathedral School. Aggie and Jill Davidson Brett, who is the public affairs officer of the Library of Congress, had lunch together in May.

Although Kit Converse Schelter left Connecticut after her sophomore year, her daughter, Jennifer, graduated in '88. Kitsie runs trips abroad, and two years ago Nancy Schoepfer Sanders joined her. They met Faith Gilman Cross in Venice for dinner.

Retired after 25 years of teaching English, Nancy Cooper Rustici is now writing mystery novels and short stories. Two of her four children are alumni.

Theodora Dracopoulos Argue manages a church bookstore and volunteers at the Seattle Art Museum.

Connie Cross and Lou went on a barge trip in France with Barbara Drexler Lockhart, George and Helen Frisk Buzyna, Haig and Ginny Olds Goshdigian and Chantal Le Honerou.

We seem to be a class of travelers, but I think that Jane Engel Francoeur takes the prize. Jane, who is an interior designer, particularly enjoyed her trip to eastern Turkey with her daughter, Laura '90.

On second thought, Becky Holmes Post and her husband, Bob, are right up there as world-class travelers.

And I certainly can't leave out Ruth Roney McMullin and Tom who have been to China, HI, Africa and Denmark while still remaining active in the volunteer and business communities.

Sally Haines Welty and Dick love San Diego. Sally teaches third grade in a “wonderful” school district.

For Sally Hobson, Ph.D., teaching at Adelphi takes second place to the Internet and obedience and field work with her golden retriever. Sally's e-mail is THREE CAMELS IN A BOWER. While on a British garden tour of Cornwall and Devon with the Delaware Center for Horticulture, Louise Brickley Phippen '62 met fellow alumnae Pam Goff Sapko '78, director of the center, and Ellen Corroon Petersen '64. Sarah Hewson Seiler sent me a fabulous picture of her branding calves in her Connecticut sweatshirt.

Josephine (Joey) Johnson Williams is busy looking for a full time job.

We have our very own presidential expert in Martha Joynt Kumar, who teaches political science at Towson State U. Martha served as the co-chair of the editorial board of Presidential Studies Quarterly, a post she has relinquished to become co-editor of Congress and the Presidency.

Irene Lau Ku is a nutritionist extraordinaire and received her master's in dietetics, food and nutrition. Both Irene and her husband are ordained pastors and volunteer their services at a small church in NY.

Still enjoying her empty nest years, Diane Lewis Gately remains active in the art world as a volunteer — when not traveling, gardening or going to the opera.

Judith Long, editor of The Nation magazine in NYC, loved attending Susan Kane Breitman's wedding — an added bonus was seeing Patsy Wyhof Norman (computer wizard and producer of educational science videos) when she visited the Gross's in FL.

Molly-O Lore Wagner and Jack were volunteers at the Olympics this summer.

Gail Martin Reed says that she's too old to be the mother of a teenage boy (son, Jay, is 15). She writes that “the teenage issues of the '90s are horrifying.”

Marcia Mueller Foresman and her husband are fulfilling their dream of living year round in Chatham, MA. Last winter, they traveled to Australia and New Zealand with some Boston friends, including Nancy Schoepfer Sanders.

After 12 years of living abroad, six in Bonn, Germany, Judith (Jo) O'Donnell Lohmann has returned to the USA.

Bea Robinett Enright sells “Magnetic Relax Products” — part of the alternative medicine revolution.

Beverly Ruffle Brookes went to the Republican National Convention as an elected delegate from PA.

After 20 years of raising children and volunteering in her community, Patricia Said Adams is starting a practice as a hypno-therapist.

Chick Schriener Barnes is a VP of investments with Prudential Securities and music director of several community theater productions.

Deborah Scott and her partner, both practicing psychologists, have been together for 10 years. Deborah is enjoying her empty nest, gay and lesbian activities and owning her first home ever.

Diana Sherman Peacock loves to travel and play golf.

Marcia Simon Bernstein continues to teach deaf kindergartners and sings with the DIA (Disabled in Action) Singers — one of the few “temporarily able-bodied” singers in the group.

Substitute teaching, tutoring students for their SATs, volunteering with the elderly, travel and kayaking keep Margot Smith Gilbert busy.

Joan Snyder Abelson works as a communications consultant — editing magazines, writing brochures, annual reports and case statements.

Susan Stietzel Schilke writes that she is “busy, busy, busy and loving everything I do!”

Joan Weisberg Keiser devotes most of her time to the Rosenbach Museum and Library in Philadelphia and advocacy for the learning disabled.

The Class of '63 sends sympathy to the family of Bibi Besch, who died on Sept. 7. See Obituaries on page 93.

Jane Wiener Taber and Fred are approaching 23 years in Los Angeles. "We are practically natives!" Their daughter, Jennie, 16, is a jr. in high school and is very active in local theater. Son, Joshua, 10 is active on the Internet. They are all enjoying life in their dream home that they built in '90.

A year ago, Terry Reimers Byrnes and her husband took up flying. Now they are both licensed private pilots and have bought a small, single-engine airplane for family vacations and weekend fun. "It's a great way to travel and see the country. Our son, 13, wants to bump one of us to the back seat, so he's learning, too!"

Allyson Cook Gall still lives in Morristown, NJ, and would love a call "out of the blue" from the past! She is assistant director of the American Jewish Committee in NJ ("what else would a zoology major do?"); one of her perks last Oct. was leading a group to Israel and Jordan. She also traveled to Israel for two weeks in April to visit her 16-year-old, who lived there for a year.

Ricki Chapman McGlashan writes that the only change in her family is that son, Scott, 26, is in the Dominican Republic in the Peace Corps, and that Tyler, 23, is working in Costa Rica. She and her husband visited both over Christmas. "It's a global life!"

Susan Kennedy Bishov teaches public school music in Haverhill, MA. She is also the accompanist for the Acton Community Chorus. Susan lives in Chemsford with her husband, daughter and three cats. Daughter Deborah is an avid high school violist with the Greater Boston Youth Symphony Orchestra. In the summers, Deborah is a Russian language student at Concordia in MN.

Barbara Brodsky Ringel of Manhattan writes, "My husband, Paul, and I took our son, Peter, to CC's Alumni Sons and Daughters Program last Feb. It was an eye-opener for all of us! Peter had a great time and met many CC students who have invited him back to visit again! He learned a great deal about the admissions process, as did the whole group. Paul and I found Claire Gaudiani's energy and vision for the college inspiring."

Jane Ranallo Goodman still works as director of communications for the Flight Attendant Union. She states that all is well in DC, "despite politics that keep the city on the edge of financial collapse." Son, Alex, plays soccer. Husband, John, is writing a book on retirement — "which he will never do — nor I!" She spent her 50th birthday in Paris and is in the process of purchasing a house in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Cynthia Stork Gerber writes, "Carla Marcus looks exactly the same so it was easy to recognize her outside our daughter's door during Middlebury's Parents' Weekend, Sept. '95. I know that Dinny Stearns Taylor also has a daughter there. Anyone else? We could have a mini-reunion!"

In her work as a fitness specialist, Joan Pekoc Pagano of NYC has been focusing on women's health issues, especially those that pertain to our age group. She has been developing and presenting practical fitness programs for osteoporosis, weight management, cardiovascular disease, menopause and breast cancer. She spent a long weekend in Paris "for winter mental health therapy — very restorative to the spirit!"

Donna Matthews is busily working on her next employment opportunity. She enjoys having options! Presently, she is a certified teacher and a registered nurse and soon she will complete an internship as a school psychologist. "Who knows what will come next!"

Mayda Pasternack Podell writes, "This is the first time I've ever written any news, but I wanted to express my positive feelings about the school. I transferred after one year in search of an urban environment and a co-ed experience. However, my elder daughter graduated from CC with the Class of '95. She greatly benefited from the CISLA (The Toor Cummings Center for International Studies in the Liberal Arts) program and the close relationship with professors in the Japanese department. She is working in Japan and loving every minute of it."

I keep hoping that I will go to the mailbox one day and it will be filled to capacity with responses from CC classmates. Alas, that has yet to happen. Instead, I'm averaging about one note every other month. Let's do better!

Karen Nielsen Bevan, who lives in Bronxville, NY, reports that she and husband,

Stuart, "sang small leads in a special 'Tribute to Gilbert and Sullivan' at Carnegie Hall with Skitch Henderson and the New York Pops."

Alexandria, VA, resident Lucy Thomson, reports that her older daughter is a top student, busy Girl Scout and athlete who "sings in the choir and plays a cello as large as she is." Younger daughter, Tory, is also an excellent student who is involved with the Brownies and soccer. Last year, Lucy joined all the Thomsons in St. Maarten for a "spirited celebration" of her parents' 50th wedding anniversary. She is a member of the planning committee "for a first-ever DC Bar summit on women in the legal profession."

Russ Josephson is teaching at the Kiana Elementary School in AK. The town of Kiana is north of the Arctic Circle and has a population of 450. "We have two lazy rivers which join together nearby and mountain ranges all around. With running water and sewers, the aurora borealis blazing overhead and moose and caribou wandering nearby, Kiana is considered the garden spot of the Northwest Arctic school district." When not in Kiana, Russ and wife, Vera Benedek, visit family and work on their house in HI.

Born: to Mark Gero and Natasha Ban, Chiara Nicole Gero 4/16/96; to Elise Mallon Ford and Mills, twin girls, Brinley Rhodes and Haslan Stone 1/9/96.

Holly Babbitt Cobb's two daughters, Whitney, a high school sr., and Blair, a freshman, are both great tennis players. Whitney will be captain of her high school's team this year. Holly's husband, Bill, has his own business providing software for retail bank scheduling. Four years ago, Holly left IBM and its demands of travel and long hours. Since then, she has become active in community affairs and also works locally in advertising sales.

Barbara Bakach Ferrer officially feels "old" now that she has a son in high school: Rodrigo Jr. is 15, Christian, 12, and Sara, 10. Barbara works as a sr. software engineer at United Health Care, formerly Metrahealth, originally known as the Travelers. Barbara has been married to Rodrigo for 19 years. She keeps in touch with Debbie Portman Peter. Life is busy with work, kids and two ferrets, Juan and Felipe.

Two years ago, Margaret Beard left the field of social work and is now working as the extension ministry director at the Continental Headquarters of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations. After living in the south for 20 years, she and husband, Rick Eddy, are learning to adjust to winters in MA.

Cynthia Campbell Hitchcock has requested that her latest entry be corrected to say that after teaching high school and surfing in CA for many years, she now lives in TX, where she is busy with children, volunteer work and painting.

Nancy Cannon is married to Bob Zajac and they have two children, Charles, 5, and Valerie, 2. The family spent this past summer fishing for Atlantic salmon in Quebec.

Donna Lee Cartwright has been happily married to Steven Smith since '84. They have a daughter, Kristyn, 7-1/2. For the past year, Donna has been an assistant professor of marketing at St. Louis U. This fall, she began teaching at Webster U.

Barbara Childs is a travel agent and teaches other prospective travel agents at PG Community College in MD. She keeps busy with her two cats and horse and enjoys traveling and sailing in the Chesapeake Bay.

Caroline Louise Cole and Bernard Zelitch were divorced in March '96 following a three-year separation. They maintain separate homes in North Andover, MA, and are happily co-parenting, Rosie, 11, and Sam, 9. Caroline continues as a reporter for The Boston Globe, and Bernie is a computer systems administrator at NYNEX in Boston.

This past year, Karen Davidson has traveled to the Dominican Republic, Los Angeles, England and Scotland. She also went to Atlanta with Roz Rustigan '73 to visit Mark Wasley and his significant other. Last winter, George Aelion visited with Karen; he is doing well in Rome. Being a trial lawyer continues to be fun and challenging for Karen.

Sarah Dean Peck has become friends with Elaine Frey Hester '70 since both of

"LIFE IS BUSY

WITH WORK, KIDS

AND TWO FERRETS,

JUAN AND FELIPE."

Barbara Bakach Ferrer '74

their ninth grade sons were in the same confirmation class last year. Their daughters, who are in seventh grade, are also good friends.

As a result of the merger of Connecticut Mutual and Mass Mutual, Warren Erickson has been promoted to second vice president, Corporate Human Resources, as head of the company's Leadership Institute. Warren enjoys his new responsibilities but dislikes the long daily commute from his home in Ashford, CT. As a trustee of the college, Warren is pleased to be part of the positive changes his alma mater. He also enjoys seeing both Anita DeFrantz and Carol Ramsey at trustee meetings.

Jody Fabso Cassell just performed her own choreography in the Decatur (IL) Arts Festival. She also participated in the Fringe Festival of Contemporary Dance and Performing Arts in Atlanta prior to the Olympics. Jody was accepted to the Arts Education Partnership for the State of GA, the Touring Roster of the State of GA and the Young Audiences program. She also writes articles on dance therapy for the magazine, Dancer. Jody writes that she's happily married and likes to garden and mow the lawn.

Cheryl Freedman still lives in the suburbs of Philly, where she recruits physicians and spends every spare moment cycling. This summer, she rode with the Toronto Bike Club on a five-day trip, covering more than 500 miles from the Grand Canyon to Nogales, Mexico. She is still unmarried, but continues to search for a significant other. Cheryl says that she is a great catch and welcomes any and all referrals. Contact the Office of Alumni Relations, 860-439-2300, for Cheryl's address and phone number.

Mark Gero recently spent almost three years in Italy carving wood and living quietly. In Aug. '93, he met Croatian Natasha Ban in Florence. They were married last year in Zagreb, Croatia, and their daughter, Chiara, was born in upstate NY this April. "At the end of the year, we will return to find a home Zagreb, capital of the young and beautiful country of Croatia."

Pam Gleason Swearingen has been a pediatrician at the Lahey Clinic in Burlington, MA, for the past 15 years. She, husband, Christopher, and their 8-year-old son vacationed in London and Deer Isle, ME, last year. During the winter months, the family cross-country skis in VT.

Kathleen Hanagan Fimmel is very busy with her three children (18, 16 and 15) and her practice in psychotherapy. To keep fit, Kathy does yoga and enjoys spending time in DC. This summer she toured Italy with her daughter, sister, niece and some friends. Although separated from her husband, the two are doing a good job of co-parenting.

Scott Jezek may be forced to give up his East Haddam law practice in order to have more time for the Lions Club, Little League, School Building Committee meetings, fishing, golf, marathon training, hunting, skiing, cycling ... If anyone has ideas on how he can pay for son Jesse's tuition at the U. of Hartford and Zak's tuition at the William's School, please let him know.

Laurie Lesser Hodgson traveled from FL to Northern MI on the family boat this summer with her husband, three daughters (Emily, 16; Jessie, 13, and Elizabeth, 1) and their dog. On the way up the coast, the Hodgsons visited Donald Kane and his wife, Yael.

Many, many thanks to all of you who updated us on your lives. We received more than 42 responses! Due to the large amount of notes and limited amount of publishing space, some notes will have to be published in the next issue of Connecticut College Magazine.

Married: William Sheffield to Eve Vanderschmidt, 6/1/96.

Born: to Catherine Tharin and Monty, Cecelia Stefania 3/18/96; to Sarah Rabinowitz and Russ Mogroni, Elizabeth Rebecca 11/4/95.

David Keep was recently involved in selling the company he works for to a larger company, Tenneco Automotive. Wife, Molly, conducts corporate stress management programs and helps individuals to quit smoking. Sons, Jamie (6) and Brit (8), love to play soccer. For fun, David is building a sailboat in his garage. He extends an invitation to all to visit him in MI.

Kate Halsey left the deli business she started with her sister in CT. After traveling to New Zealand, Bangkok and Hong Kong, she worked at a ranch in Jackson Hole, WY. While there, Kate was inspired to study massage therapy and is now a licensed massage therapist with certification in sports massage. Kate is on the National Sports Massage Team and was chosen to work the finish line in the VIP tent at the Boston Marathon. She lives in Great Barrington, MA, doing massage, personal training and strength training.

Catherine Tharin retired in '95 from the Erick Hawkins Dance Company — she had toured with the company for more than six years. Catherine is now a choreographer but continues to teach dance.

Sarah Rabinowitz sent an impressive resume full of art exhibitions, classes and workshops. She enjoys rural life in NJ, and was reports that her son, Joshua, had his bar mitzva in June.

And now, Tom (Bear) Kobak's report: Isa Borrás writes from sunny Puerto Rico with her two sons at her side. Oscar,

F. Edward Cranz, Rosemary Park Professor

Emeritus of History, received the Paul Oskar

Kristeller Lifetime Achievement Award from the Renaissance Society of America. The award is given "in recognition of a lifetime of uncompromising devotion to the highest standard of scholarship accompanied by exceptional achievement in Renaissance studies. Dr.

Cranz received the honor on April 16 at the annual meeting of the Renaissance Society at the University of Indiana, Bloomington.

10, wanted to note that his mom received her master's degree from NYU in administration and supervision of schools. Isa is planning to start her Ed.D at the U. of Puerto Rico. Daniel, 5, through the use of crayons, depicted that Isa has been working as a guidance counselor at the Caribbean Preparatory School for seven years and that she still plays volleyball, softball and a game that is either tennis or some type of roller ball derivative. Isa keeps in touch with other '78ers, including Carol Riley Berwind, Michael Berwind and Martha Forger.

Donald Capelin and his wife, Beth, have three children: Alexandria, 3, and twins, Jonathan and Daniel, 1. He plays basketball once a week. A personal call to his boss revealed that Don sells high yield institutional bonds (Don, please note, per your instructions, we did NOT say "junk") for Chase Manhattan in the Really Big City and that his desk is very neat.

Bruce Collin got married in Dec '93 to a southern belle — a blind date/long distance romance set up by CC'er Mark Zashin. (Movie rights still available.) The blissful couple lives in Plano, TX, near Dallas. Bruce says he is an account executive with McGraw-Hill. Wife, Sara, is a first grade bilingual teacher. Bruce runs a co-ed softball group, promotes Republican politics and still dreams of the day when Miss Piggy will win the Academy Award.

In Algodones, NM, a small village halfway between Albuquerque and Santa Fe, Julie Grey is building an adobe home. (Although she didn't mention it, we're sure she'd love to receive any mud bricks you have laying about the house.) She married lucky guy Jeff Revels in June '95 and changed jobs from sr. editor of communications at a local utility company to public relations at The National Center for Genome Resources in Santa Fe — one of four genetic research centers world-wide. Julie has lived in NM for 15 years. (She'd probably love it if you also wrote a personal note on that brick you'll be sending so it can become a personal part of her home.)

Dana Pierson has left the field of CD-ROM development and accepted a position as managing editor of a public relations firm in

New Haven that works primarily with non-profit organizations. She leads rituals in earth-based spirituality for groups around CT and teaches a class in sacred circle dance at Educational Center for the Arts in New Haven. When she isn't in New Haven, Dana can be found dancing at Noyes Rhythm School in CT; the dawn dances in Brattleboro, VT; the Clearwater Hudson Revival and Falcon Ridge Festival, NY; the contras in Concord and Greenfield, MA; at NEFFA in MA and NOMAD in CT; and the sacred circle dances in Fairfield, Storrs and Mystic, CT.

Charles Cissel did not write, but we caught him acting in an off-Broadway play. Our review, "Good stuff." The New York Times stole our review and said the same. We attempted to interview him post show, but he apparently feared The National Enquirer-type approach some "other" CC class notes reporters take and refused comment.

Peter Gibson wrote a great letter which we LOST! We believe it got sent along with our mortgage payment to Citibank. Peter, please write again. Our entire staff apologies, and we have revamped our filing system to include a file.

Adopted: by Barbara Lynch and Greg Sinay, Zoe Jing.

Born: to Nina Sadowsky and Paul Kleiman, Raphaela Devin 6/93; to Kathleen Boluch Dickerman and Kevin, Ariel Summer 8/5/95.

Where, oh, where has the summer gone?! I am staring Aug. 1st in the face and frankly have no idea what happened to June and July! (I have a feeling the same thing can be said about one's 30s.) Thanks to everyone who responded to our request for news. Those postcards worked like a charm.

David Stern wrote back in Feb. (sorry, David) that he has joined Showtime as vice president of business affairs. He's responsible for business aspects of the company's motion picture production. He still lives in Los Angeles with wife, Nancy, and their two children, Jacob, 6, and Rachel, 2.

Mary Brown has been living in Ithaca, NY, since graduation and, for the past seven years, she has worked as a political advocate and grass roots organizer for Planned Parenthood. In her spare time, she shovels out from under frequent snow storms to study modern dance and performs with the Firehouse Dance Co.

John Wait wrote that he and Barbara Hricko Wait moved from Plymouth to Andover, MA, in '92 and have since had two children, Andrew William (8/14/92) and Elizabeth Carrie (6/1/95). John has worked in publishing at Addison Wesley since '90.

Barbara Goodman Wilson changed jobs last year and is now a landscape designer at Millone Nurseries in Cromwell, CT. In Feb., she was nominated as full commissioner of the Inland Wetland and Watercourse Agency in Middletown. Last summer, Barbara and her family hosted a relaxing CC reunion on Lake Winnepesaukee, NH, with John Wait, Barbara Hricko Wait, Bill and Barbara Spiess Miller, Cathy Wrigley Lincoln and Carolyn Shores Ness.

Kathleen Boluch Dickerman; husband, Andrew, and Ariel, 1, divide their time between Little Compton, RI, and their home in West Tisbury on Martha's Vineyard. Kathy is a freelance copywriter with Saabye and Co. in Providence, RI.

Chris Martire and Christine Fairchild had a ball watching Vance Gilbert perform at Club Passim's in Cambridge. He is fantastic — the same old Vance in many ways, but he has obviously been honing his craft and has emerged as a wonderful, accomplished performer. Run, don't walk to the nearest coffeehouse!

Joan Prescott Busk lives in Cohasset, MA, with husband, Joe, and sons, Andrew, 10, and Prescott, 8. She works part time as a sales rep. for a cordage company and is surrounded by CC alums, including three in her neighborhood!

Allison Davis Barnow ran into Professor Woody at the Arendt/ Schurmann Symposium at the New School in Oct. '95 and was subsequently invited to dinner at his sabbatical apartment with Mimi Ginnot '77, Larry Eyink and Sue Schulman. Allison says that she is "taking forever to finish her master's degree in philosophy." She has been working at various businesses, most recently Memorial Sloan-Kettering.

Cindy Gray Carey lives in New Canaan, CT, with husband, Chris, and children, Liza, 8; Sam, 4, and Caroline, 2. Cindy is director of sales for Chartrek Travel in Norwalk and reports that at the age of 40 and after 10 years of marriage she's still having lots of fun. Cindy sees John Bush, who is the godfather of her oldest child, and Carter

Sullivan and Anne Dempsey Sullivan, who live nearby.

Barbara Lynch and her husband, Greg Sinay, are happy to announce the adoption of their daughter, Zoe Jing, born in Hengyang, Hunan Province, China. They traveled to China for two weeks and brought her home on 11/24/95. Congratulations!

Barbara Bates Sedoric and husband, Tom, live in Rye Beach, NH, with her two children, Holly and Boone Davis. Barbara sings in the Portsmouth Women's Chorus, which performs twice a year, and also plays USTA tennis and is involved in fundraising for the Rye library and schools.

Kathy Moser, M.D., M.P.H., lives north of San Diego in Poway and since '89 has run the tuberculosis unit at the San Diego County Health Department. Husband, Rick Channick M '80, is on the faculty at UC, San Diego Medical Center, Pulmonary Division. Kathy and Rick and their children: Thomas, 9; Kimberley, 7, and Jessica, 4, live on several acres in the country and have 130 avocado trees.

Tina Gould Reardon continues to live in Litchfield, CT, with husband Michael Reardon '79 and their three daughters: Libby, 8; Claire, 6, and Brigid, 3. Tina works part time at the Harvey School doing college counseling and has begun teaching a course in Asian studies at the UConn campus in Torrington. Tina and family travel to CC frequently, including a trip to Michael's reunion in June.

Vicki Chesler writes from NY of last summer's busy activities, including a sailing trip from Newport to Edgartown with her husband, Matt, and kids, Melissa, 8, and Kelsey, 5. She visited Amanda Marshall, Chris Zingg '77 and their three-year-old son, Marshall, on Block Island. Martha Rago and Howie Bernstein '76 and their daughter Emily, 2, also visited with Vicki. Vicki and Matt's magazine,

The New York Cooperator, is doing well, and Vicki completed a new book, Co-op & Condo Ownership, last spring.

Nina Sadowsky writes from the Los Angeles area that she, her husband, Paul Kleiman, and daughter, Raphaela Devin, moved into a new house last Nov. In addition, Nina started her new job as president of Pruffrock Pictures, Meg Ryan's company at 20th Century Fox. "Whew!"

Anne Garrison is an architectural photographer in business with her husband, David Hewitt. Their photographs for architects and trade magazines, have appeared in Architecture, Architectural Record, The Los Angeles Times Magazine and Progressive Architecture. Anne and David moved to San Diego from Boston in '90 and welcomed their daughter, Alice, in June '93.

Chris Martire, has, at last, returned to Boston from the tundra known as Syracuse, NY. "When I wasn't shoveling snow in Syracuse, I was marketing director for New Readers Press, the educational publishing division of Laubach Literacy International. I am now product manager for SilverPlatter Information, an electronic publisher of reference database products on CD-ROM and the Internet. (I note with much satisfaction that the CC library is a very large customer of my employer.) I'm busy traveling around the country (and to a couple of international destinations) in search of the world's great reference databases. I continue to have fun with my Connecticut College pals: Christine Fairchild (my trusty class co-correspondent), Jim DeLucia '78, Jeff Siegel, Larry Menna '80, and try to keep up with the busy lives of Tricia Cutler Silber, Greg Silber '78, Betsy Smith and Debbie Turner Steranko. My latest adventure with CC alums was a visit to the Bronx Zoo with Jeff, Larry, Jim and Christine. If you see Jeff or Larry, ask them about the polar bear's 'moonwalk' — even Michael Jackson would have been impressed."

Christine Fairchild is a little embarrassed to report that after 17 years, she's still employed by the same "parent company," Harvard U. "After spending 10 years working for the Harvard Art Museums in membership development and public education, I moved over to the Harvard Business School as director of alumni relations. It's a terrific job — great people, challenging work and lots of opportunity for travel. Finding the balance between work and a personal life is tough, but I'm, determined to make it a priority this year. Boston continues to be home base (until I figure out a way to move Harvard Business School to San Francisco!)."

If you weren't at Reunion '96, I hope you'll start planning now to be back in '01! We had a fantastic time, and while we may have been small in number, we were very big on fun. Here's what's new:

Laura Allen lives in Brookline, MA, is married and has "no kids, but two very demanding cats." Laura is enjoying the investment business with the Wellington Management Co. in Boston. She and Norman Livingston did a great job as reunion co-chairs. Many thanks, Norm and LJ!

Andrea Bachike Wallace and husband, Bill, live in a converted barn in Stockton, NJ, where she has her own graphic design advertising business. Andrea keeps in touch with Dana Friedman Kiesel and Judy Ford.

Bill Barrack lives in Wellesley Hills, MA, with his wife, Katie, and children, Wilkie, 6; John, 3, and Jenny, 1. Bill works in commercial real estate for Spaulding & Slye.

Tom Bates and his wife, Martha, have two kids, Sara, 7, and Emily, 4. They live in East Haddam, CT, 30 miles from CC. Together, they operate Bates Accessories, a manufacturer of belts — yes, the kind you put around your waist. Tom has been in the business for 11 years.

Christy Beckwith Bensley and husband, Christopher, live in Cambridge, MA. She is taking time off from her publishing job to be with baby Ian, who is quite adorable.

Tom Burke got married in '90. He and wife, Caroline, have two daughters, Emily, 3, and Caitlin, 1. They live in Darien, and Tom works for West Point Stevens in NYC.

Kim Carlson Stevens lives in East Greenwich, RI, with husband, Jeff, and two children, Myles, 6, and Julia, 3.

Sue Cole Ross; husband, Jeff, and sons, Matt, 13, and Tom, 11, are leaving the suburbs for a sabbatical to Holderness, NH, where she will continue her educational consulting practice and home school the kids.

Our ever-faithful and charming Class President Paul Escoll still lives in Los Angeles where he is a personal manager in the entertainment industry — representing writers, directors and actors. Paul sees Dana Friedman Kiesel and lots of other CC alums from various years. We are developing quite a tradition at our class dinners — once again, Paul serenaded us with "Mack the Knife," truly a highlight of the weekend.

David Geller was married in June '95 to Emily Walk. They live in Needham, MA, and Dave sells warehouse equipment from Boston to Worcester.

Ken Goldstein is an attorney in general practice in Brookline, MA. His wife, Demee, is an ad manager for Natural Shopper magazine. Ken serves on his town planning board and, in his spare time, is developing a dazzling vaudeville act featuring plate spinning and jumping poodles. He plans to take his act on a Vegas tour in '97.

Ann Goode Quinn lives in Glastonbury and works in public relations.

Russell Gregg and his wife, Marcia, live in Boston where Russ is an environmental attorney. They brought along Christina, 4, and Willie, 1, who, not to be outdone by Paul, also entertained us during dinner with his vocal talents.

Cindy Heston lives in Greenwich and works for an investment firm. She stays in touch with Anne Lane Jones, who lives in San Diego with her two sons, ages 9 and 7.

Janet Hinkle Wilcox lives in Stonington, where she is renovating a Cape Cod house. (She's getting very good at roofing and plastering!) Janet just returned from Guangzhou, China, with her baby girl, Lily, who is "perfect." She works at a local company teaching training techniques to Russians for the safe operation and maintenance of nuclear power plants.

Holly Hofmann lives in Baltimore with her husband, Jeffrey; Abigail, 1, and four cats. Holly has exhibited paintings and drawings throughout the mid-Atlantic area and teaches at several colleges around Baltimore.

Martha Jove-D'Amato lives in Gales Ferry with husband, Jim, and two children, Peter, 9, and Annemarie, 7. Martha is in private practice as a clinical audiologist working with hearing-impaired children and adults. Jim is an anesthesiologist.

Brian Kelley and his wife, Judy Dow '83, live in Wellesley, MA, with Drew, 3, and Taylor, 1. They both work for Fleet Bank and keep in touch with Sally and Scott Williamson.

Mindy Kerman was married in '89 to Ken Gellerman. They live in Westchester, NY, with Carly, 5. Mindy is the special education director in an inclusionary model preschool that mainstreams disabled children.

Sally Langer has been living in NY for 15 years. She edits law books, keeps up with the music scene and stays in touch with Marie Abraham, Amy Bernhardt and Holly Hofmann.

Norman Livingston lives in Manhattan and works in real estate. His pre-reunion bachelor party in NY was attended by Rick Gersten, Tom Seclow, Cris Revaz and Laura Allen's husband, Ken. Details of the event were sketchy; all I heard, according to Cris, was that "Norm looks beautiful in feathers."

Andy Mahony and wife, Mary Ellen, have been married for six years and live in Norwell, MA. Andy works for Bay Bank, and Mary Ellen is in alumni affairs at Harvard.

Vicky McKittrick Oliva lives in Cambridge, MA, with her husband, Mark Oliva '82. Vicky and Mark run a Montessori preschool from their home.

Andy (Hick) McMurray was also spotted at reunion. He is reportedly a contractor living in New London.

Peter O'Connor moved from New London to Boston two years ago where he is a real estate lawyer. He sees Scott Williamson and Brian Kelly.

Cris Revaz and wife, Cindy, live in Alexandria, VA. Cris is an international trade attorney, and Cindy is a flight attendant with USAir.

Marie Richard Abraham and her husband, Philip, live in Vienna, VA, with Thomas, 6, and Jonathan, 5. The family has plans to move to New England. Marie is completing her doctorate in early intervention. Philip owns a "wild tavern" in Vienna. Marie sees Sally "all the time" and Amy "whenever I can catch her."

Kati Roessner writes, "Working for Connecticut College Magazine and living only 10 minutes from campus, I had no excuse to skip our 15th. Good thing. It was great meeting classmates I didn't know, as well as hooking up with long lost fellow Abbey-ite, Holly Hofmann." Kati's been designing the college's award-winning magazine for the past two years and lives in Mystic ("For those of you who remember, the Mischievous Carrot is no longer.") with kids, Tommy, 7, and Annie, 5. "To all other Abbey-folk out there, time for another shindig of our own, yes?!" Kati can be reached at kkroe@conncoll.edu.

I, Chris Saxe Easton, live in Farmingdale, NJ, with my husband, Chas, and sons, Charlie, 6, and Michael, 3. Chas is marketing manager for PGI Nonwovens; I devote most of my time to home and family, particularly to my older son who has leukemia. When I can find a moment, I do network marketing for a telecommunications company.

Dawn Schall Deslauriers has recently gone back to work at WCVB-TV Boston following a six-year leave of absence and the birth of three boys. She lives in Franklin, MA, and looks forward to vacationing on the family ranch in MT.

Ces Fernandez-Carol '87 and Peter Hall were married on March 30. Front row, left to right: Carlos Garcia '88, Richard Greenwald '87, Marcel Dardati '87 (with daughter, Alexandra), Matthew Charde '87, Duncan Robertson '85 and Ross Dackow '87. Back row, left to right: Lucinda Eng-Garcia '87, Debbie Eng Richter '86, Eddy Castell '87, Jennifer Croke '87, Hugh Fraser '87, the groom and bride, Toki Strong '87, Martha Denial Kendler '87, Julia Moran Morton '87, Hedi Dur '90 and Chris Durkin '89.

San Francisco Bay Area. He and wife, Ann, have two kids, Jonathan, 6, and daughter Alex, 3, and two pet rats. Tom is an ad. exec. at Foote, Cone & Belding. He also coaches soccer and T-ball. Tom reported on several classmates: Rick Gersten lives in DC, works as a management consultant and has a son, Nathan, 5. Scott Hefter also lives in DC with his wife, Ann, and Allison, 2. Scott is a child therapist. Steve Rust is a lighting director and lives in Montclair, NJ. Paul Costa is an attorney living in Niantic.

Demi Voudouris Frawley is an attorney in NYC. She and husband, Michael, have three children: James, 10; Justin, 6, and Rebecca, 2.

Ruth Wagner Earl has two sons, 9 and 6, and is moving from Long Island to Kinderhook, NY. She is hoping to attend physical therapy school. Pal Leona Mazzamuro '82 joined Ruth at our dinner.

Natalie Ward Harris has three kids: Morgan, 9; Phoebe, 6, and Madeline, 2, who keep her running. Talie reports, "If I'm not at the Shop & Save or doing the car pool thing, I'm writing the great American novel (possibly screenplay if Andy Mahoney's brother will buy it!)." She is also studying for a master's in psychology.

Scott Williamson and his wife, Sally Everett '84, live in Wellesley, MA, with Laura, 4, and Reid, 2. Scott works for a software company in Cambridge, and Sally is an attorney in downtown Boston.

David Zieff and his wife, Alison, are both attorneys in Boston. They have two kids, Katelyn, 3, and Joseph Jerry, 1 (named for Jerry Garcia, of course).

Jacqueline Zuckerman Tynan and husband, Rob, have a new baby girl, Megan Alexandra, born 12/26/95. Jacquey has her own marketing research company.

Also sighted, but unfortunately not interviewed, at reunion (I know some people hid when they saw me approaching, pen and notebook in hand) were Cathy McCormack Sulli, Neil McLaughlin, Linda Rosenthal Maness (and her little girl) and John Terenzi. I apologize if I missed anyone.

One final note: there is still a limited number of our beautiful Class of '81 15th Year Reunion hats which may be purchased for a nominal fee. Please contact Paul Escoll at 310-477-8552. See you in '01.
