VOICE

Sweet-est girl I ev-er saw, Was sell-ing ci-der in a groc-'ry store, At first I saw her with a straw, Said I to "she," "What are you doing that for?" Said half-past six when the sun would set, I used to go to see my pet, She'd she to me: "Why dont you know, That sip-ping ci-der's all the go?" She take the key and lock the door, We'd get some ci-der and a big long straw. was so sweet, as sweet can be, But sip-ping ci-der was the end of me.

CHORUS.

There are BLUES that you get from wor - ry,.... There are BLUES that you get from pain, And there are BLUES when you're lone -
 - ly, For your one and on - ly, The BLUES you can nev - - er ex - plain,.. There are BLUES - that you get from long - ing.... But the blu - est BLUES that be.... Are the sort of BLUES that's on my mind, They're the very mean - est kind, The BLUES my naughty sweetie gives to me. There are me.

CHORUS.

You did - n't want me when you had me,.. So why do you want me now? You fooled around 'til you found I was yours from the start Then like a child, with a toy, you just played with my heart, You nev - er meant the things you told me, You couldn't be true, some - how...
 You have heard the sto - ry of the moth and the flame, What a fool I'd be to play with fire - a - gain, You did - n't want me when you had me,.. So why do you want me now? You did - n't now?
