Families living on Bedloe's Island can secure copies six days in advance, (and be hanged to them.)
PRICE, (if the change is made,) 50 cts., otherwise, 51 cts.
"Passengers can procure change from the driver."

Entered according to act of Congress A. D. 1864, by FIRTH SON & Co, in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York.

1.

Folks, I'm a Jarsey notion;
It isn't any braggin.

My Father fit in the Revolution,
He driv a Baggidge waggin,
And one fine day he started out,
All for to git some fuil,
But came back badly wownded,
Cos he had been kicked by a Muil.

"Jes' so, Jes' so;" strange things do come to pass!
Some pesky critter stole from me a borril o' apple

2.

I courted Patty Bigelow,
But for a friend made tracks,
Or John Ellsley would have been my son
If he hadn't been old Zack's.
A Brindil Cow Case I have got;
I'll win it, for I swow,
A smart young lawyer sure could ride
To Congress on my Cow.
"Jes' so, Jes' so;" strange things do come to pass!
Some pesky critter stole from me a borril o' apple
sass.

3.

I called upon a merchant big,
And on young Ellsley, too;
Ses I, "Whoa-oh, you CATTILL, (spoken.)
Why, Mr. Winslow—how doo you doo? (spoken.)
My waggin's standin' jest outside,
To a post my mare I tied her,
And I want you temperance cuss to pay
For that ere borril o' cider.
"Jes' so, Jes' so;" strange things do come to pass!
Some pesky critter stole from me a borril o' apple sass.

I pried about, an' I looked around,

But didn't do nothin' rash;
I found a pistil, a flask o' rum,
And the account of Doctor Cash.
And while I talked about old Si,
And Nobby, my bloomin' lass,
Some critter from my waggin stole
A borril o' Apple Sass.
"Jes' so, Jes' so;" strange things do come to pass!
Some pesky critter stole from me a borril o' apple

"Perhaps," thinks I, "this Otis Boy,
Who stole a watch and chain,
Did steal my sass;" so off I starts,
And into Court I came,
Got swored right through, and tuk a cheer,
But felt a little Noddy,
For I had three cents worth of clams,
And a glass o' good rum toddy.

"Jes' so, Jes' so;" strange things do come to pass!
Some pesky critter stole from me a borril o' apple
sass.

6.

"Next witness!" I was called upon
Jes' for to speak the truth.
Ses I, "Here, Jedge, hand me a pen;
I want to pick my tooth!"
I bothered all the law chaps;
They thought I was an ass;
They made but little out o'me,
Or my Borril o' apple sass.
"Jes' so, Jes' so;" strange things do come to pass!
Some pesky critter stole from me a borril o' apple
sass.

MORRIL.

Any feller what 'ud steal a watch,

'Ud steal a borril o' sass;

It's main strength with them critters,

No pints o' morals pass.

Be careful how you let hot rum,

An' clams togither mingle,

And when the Sass Case DOES come off,

Jes' call on Solon Shingle!
