Say John-nie Jones, you'd like to be my beau — But you act too mean; — I I saw you share your pie with An-nie Gray — She's not nice like me; — She's saw two big red ap-ples on the desk — Now — don't you lie, I seen! — I got a pug nose and her hair is red — She's as ug-ly as can be. — Why!

"I Wish I Had a Girl"

THE GREAT

$10,000

SONG

THIS IS THE WAY THE CHORUS BEGINS:

CHORUS Not too fast

Gee, — I wish that I had a girl like the oth-er fel lows had, —

Always aiming to have the best there is, and at all times, for the lovers of popular music, we have just purchased, from the original publishers, the greatest song written in years—and it cost us an even $10,000 for the copyright. Once before and only once has there been anything bordering on such an amount paid for a musical work, and that was "Hiawatha"—the greatest hit on record. We paid the $10,000 for "HIAWATHA"—and we paid the $10,000 for "I Wish I Had a Girl"

THIS IS THE WAY THE CHORUS ENDS:

And "I'm lone-some, aw - ful lone - some." Gee, I wish I had — a girl. —

Every measure of the song is just as bright, tuneful and charming as the excerpts found above. Ten Thousand Dollars seems a fabulous price to pay for a song, but "I Wish I Had a Girl" is worth every cent of it. Copies can be had at all music dealers, or by sending direct to us. "You want 'popular' music—we supply the want." Write for Illustrated Catalogue—free.
