King and Tommy Bieber, son of Mr. Bieber of the French department, were the spokesmen for this year's pep rally. Leading the cheers for the team were Ann Lewis, Lloyd Camp, Dorothy Laury, and Jane Haynes. The football team made its entrance solemnly in a 'float' bearing the name of the school; the band, with its big bass drum, was the most welcome. When she suggested the theme for the rally, Ann Lewis provided that something that would make a loud and exciting noise. One band arrived from Windham in a "float" bearing the name of the school. Signs, streamers, and tin horns were blown up with music and singing. All you can add an adjective for this almost perfect harmony, except that I have to say it. The Athletic Association is the driving force behind the no football pep rally for no football team! Well, this is your malady, don't despair! AA has the cure for ever-thing when she suggested the theme for the rally. The watchbird returns to campus. Views Rally; Hunt, Freshmen

The Watchbird had a mighty confusing week; all right; in some cases on the 29th, can I wear your shoe-birds?... "To be or not to be,"... "hi! Hip! Hooray!"... "football team" and spectators give a cheer at Pep Rally held in the parking lot Friday night, October 7.

Wellesley Lengthens Weekend; No Eleven-Forty Sat. Classes

Wellesley, Mass. (T.B.)—Eleven-forty classes on Saturdays will be a thing of the past at Wellesley College, beginning this fall. This decision to abolish the last hour of morning classes was reached by the Academic Council after over a year of research and discussion on the problems of week end cutting. The Education Committee of College Government worked with the Faculty Curriculum Committee compiling and appraising the information which led to the ruling.

Dean Ella Keats Whiting said, "Throughout the study of the problem the Education Committe...
Snack Shop "Vicky" Celebrates 20 Years Working at College

by Vicky deCastro

Have you ever stopped to think how many people working here on campus go by relatively unnoted? These people do the small jobs which make our life on campus more pleasant. They keep up the grounds; they run the library and the bookshop; they serve us in the Snack Bar. It is not that we do not appreciate these people, we just do not know them very well.

Working in the Snack Shop is a wonderful lady we know as Vicky. She is Mrs. A. Vickory. A local New Londoner, Vicky was born and brought up here. Her grandfather and great-grandfather were sea captains back in the days when New London was a salty, sea town. Vicky's maiden name is Cisstare, an old Spanish name, of which she has right to be proud. She has one son, who served with the Air Force in World War II.

This year is Vicky's twentieth year with Connecticut. In 1935 she began serving candy and soda in a across the hall in the same corner. It was a real problem that little while house just across from the old infirmary. In 1942 when the present Snack Bar with its modern soda fountain was opened, Vicky was right there helping out. Vicky loves working here at Connecticut and she has one son, who

Mascot Hunt
Mascot Hunt was at an end. The climax of the whole hunt occurred after the Junior banquet, when Mascot Hunt was ragged sophomore out from under the very noses of the Juniors. Dean Burdick closed the speech with these words: "Every fact and shade of meaning, every play of the mind adds an exercise in resiliency. These are the things that happen; and the over-whelming majority who have no idea what has happened,"
