FALL GAMES BEGIN.

The first games of the season, in which the Juniors played the Seniors in hockey and the Sophomores in soccer, took place on the soccer field. The central figure of a double victory for the Juniors. A more perfect day for both games could not have been asked for, and a fair number of spectators turned out to cheer the players. This was the first time the Annual Match of hockey in the history of the school had been played on the official field.

On Saturday, October 21st, with the result of the double victory for the Juniors. A more perfect day for both games could not have been asked for, and a fair number of spectators turned out to cheer the players. This was the first time the Annual Match of hockey in the history of the school had been played on the official field.

The line-up for the Junior-Senior hockey game was as follows:

Juniors.

H. Douglass... E. H. Kreykenbohm
H. Hill... J. A. Reddick
I. Marin... E. J. Warner
B. Clay... M. H. Avery
D. Brown... R. E. Franche
C. Holmes... N. C. Clark
J. Englewood... W. D. McMurtry
A. Hiller... N. W. LeWitt
J. Casteels... J. L. H. Hemmingsway
K. Shelton... E. E. Dickerson
G. Burnes... J. J. Bigelow

The same as a whole was remarkably pretty to watch. There was little bumping, and the positions were kept well. The team work which the Juniors displayed was especially to be praised. There was no lack of the results of the fall coaching in the way the half-backs followed up the forwards.

On the Senior side, the work of Warner as full-back and Avery as half-back, was one of the obstacles which the Juniors found hardest to overcome. Captain Bigelow put up a great fight but lacked the support of her forward line, which failed to keep up with her. Kreykenbohm, as goal, did some pretty stopping, although he was generally realized not only how tired she was but also how much of the game she could have been asked to do. When the game reached the point where they could see the lights gleaming from "the college by the sea" everyone was out of the way.

Hikers go to Miller's Pond.

On Columbus Day the girls, under the guidance of Dr. Lawrence, went to Miller's Pond for the first time. It was a wonderful day, just cold and snappy enough to make walking a pleasure. The way led out through the woods, gay in their fall costume. As the party reached its destination, some of the girls played "Run, Sheep, Run," while the rest had the fire-places set up for the whole party to gather around. After they had eaten ready-made steaks, chops, bacon and eggs, and roasted cheese sandwiches with glorifying legs, later, as the whole party was walking wearily back along the state road, a big auto truck drove up and gave them all a ride home.

A good deal of fun for all concerned.

To the Editor of the News:

The much discussed training rules, where have they gone? The Sport Committee evidently meant only to enforce one of last year’s training rules for the fall sports. The rule which is in effect this year is that concerning eight consecutive hours of sleep every night. This is a very necessary rule, to be sure, but is it enough?

If girls are to be the “quiver” of Student Government, they are not merely breaking a rule, they are committing a far worse sin. She is offending against her honor, her self-respect, for she is acting directly contrary to rules which she herself is pledged to support. She is abusing a privilege which is indeed a privilege, one which all students do not enjoy and which one cannot afford to abuse. It matters not the size of the fault—as a fault. It is the spirit of the thing that counts. It matters not whether it is two minutes after ten or thirty minutes after—the offense is the same, and if it excused there can be none. In our class work we are asked to keep an account of “lapses of memory,” or because “we didn’t think.” Why should we be in regard to Student Government regulations?

No, to feel the “quiver” of Student Government, one considers this system of self-government to be a privilege as much as any other of the student’s affairs. The little things, why have Student Government at all?

ALUMNAE NOTES.
Every Alumna Owes a Threefold Debt.

I. Membership dues of two dollars payable on January 1 to Grace E. Douglas, Main Street, Bristol, Conn.

II. To secure prompt delivery of your Association Box, mail to the Campus Secretary, Margaret Baxter.

III. A local chapter, wherever there are six or more graduates.

If there is no chapter where you are, you owe it to your college to start one. Gather your six members together and apply to the Association for a charter, elect your officers and plan your winter's work.

Election of officers of local chapters should be held in October. There is no time to lose. Organize now! You were a loyal and enthusiastic worker for Connecticut College while you were a student. Do not be ashamed to be a member of a pioneer college. Do not be ashamed to be a pioneer alumna. Be the first to send notice of your organization and your plans for the season.

FALL GAMES BEGIN.
Consolidated from page 1, column 3.

The Junior-Sophomore soccer game proved to be even more exciting than the hockey game, for the two teams seemed more evenly matched, as is shown by the final score, which was 5 to 0, in favor of the Juniors.

The form displayed was not so pretentious as that of the hockey game, for the players did not keep their positions so well.

The line-up was as follows:

Juniors.
Sophomores.
E. McInerney ..... E. Locke
H. Hedrick ..... f. A. Roos
M. Armstrong ..... r. f. E. Deckelman
M. Mahan ..... C. Bliss
K. Slayter ..... c. h. P. Hard
M. Calhoun ..... F. M. Demarest
E. Walsh ..... i. w. C. Beckwith
M. Gardner ..... C. W. Hendrick
K. Converso ..... T. G. Trickey
E. Wilcox ..... r. i. K. Boyle
M. Higgins ..... C. J. Goodrich

On the Junior team, the star of the game was the goal, McInerney, who handled the goalies when in a penalty kick and sent it soaring through the air towards the Junior goal. Hedrick and Armstrong made a strong defense, while Mahan surprised the Sophomores with her skillful back-kick. As wing, Gardner shot down the field with unanswerable speed, and Converso did some especially brilliant work. On the Sophomore side, however, the defense was better than the forward line.

Locke, on the Sophomore team, did a great deal towards keeping the score down. Allen, Beckwith and Ward each played a good game. The team as a whole put up a good defense and made the Juniors work hard for their victory.

JUNIORS "ADVERTISE" FOR FRESHMEN.
Consolidated from page 1, column 3.

The soft glimmer of candle light and the pleasant glow of a fire awakened our sense of anticipation as we entered the dining hall on Saturday night after the double victory of the Juniors. Special tables were reserved for the teams, and everyone was enthralled. But—where were the Seniors? All was quiet as we turned to watch the entrance of the vanquished hockey team, led by their captain, Jessie Bigelow, who hobbled in with a strained expression on her face. In spite of bandages, adhesive tape and splints, we recognized the indomitable spirit of the class of '22, who started the evening with their song, "See our colors, Black and Blue..." From then on, clever songs, toasts, and cheers were exchanged between classes. The Sophomores showed their originality by their "talking songs," which were eagerly answered by the spirited Juniors.
