Sly Soph is Class President

By Betty Joan Moss

Jeanie Chappell, newly elected Class President for the Sophomore class, has been a figure of silence and secrecy ever since the running of the election. With the lifting of the mystery, the secret of Mascot Hunt, the name of the new Junior class, was revealed to our readers the true story of who and what is Jeanie Chappell? For the Inquisitive Junior who asked of three Sophomores: "Have any of you heard of Jeanie Chappell?" and who was answered in the negative by Jeanie and for those others of you who have not had the pleasure of meeting Jeanie, here is Jeanie Chappell, leader of the class of 1960.

A resident of Lakeville, Conn., Jeanie, who is a junior at William Penn High School, Jeanie has no experience in Student councils or government and did an excellent job of keeping up the Sophomore end of Mascot Hunt. Punning into the excitement of the event immediately after her election, Jeanie tried to keep her identity hidden for as long as she could, although complete secrecy was impossible. She did make a personal appearance of several Juniors at the Sophomore class meeting at which she was nominated.

During her Freshman year here at Conn., Jeanie served as a member of the Ambrose Fellowship and was elected to the Classics class, where she was a member by this year. She also represented her house in the Common Council and was a plan major in English or English literature and became a tutor of the younger grades. She is studying a diversified course of study, much of which is among which are English and Psychology. Jeanie enjoys all the courses which she is taking.

Asked about the amusing incidents which occurred during the course of the mad events of last week, Jeanie told of the time she took three of her Junior guards to the zoo while Mr. Lowenstein entertained them with tales of the zoo and, of the many horrible moments when Junior guards crowded her room at all hours and night. At one point, she recalls, a Sophomore secret meeting was held in back of the Infirmary at which Jeanie was informed in the morning by her Junior guards that she did not know where she worked and were more than delighted to see Jeanie walking back into the dormitory where she had left her the night before.

Looks and still enjoyed after the three days of festivities, outrunning and burning were, Jeanie counts as one of the most rewarding results of the Hunt the many new friends she made in the Junior class. She extends thanks to the Sophomores for their cooperation in the Hunt and to the Juniors on finding the "Welcome Back Home Dinner." Should any of the readers who did not actively participate in the event wish to know more about the mad happenings of Mascot Hunt or what it feels like to be an object of suspicion for 72 hours a day, they can go over to Freshman and Visit Jeanie Chappell and the banner which shares half of her room.

BLOOMMOBILE

Campus Life Gains Momentum; Clubs Complete Fresh Plans

By String Quartet

The Outing Club has planned several activities for the Fall season, including a day at the "great outdoors" which will have ample opportunity for a hey-day in the next few weeks.

On November 11 to 13, girls signed up who will be in the Harkness Chapel at 7:30. A graduate of Hope College, Dr. Warnshuis attended New England As- sociation Seminary, and the School of Education at Columbia University.

Following his ordination, Dr. Warnshuis was missionary in India where he was head of a Christian school. After that, he was a minister of the Reform Church, Brooklyn, New York. He is presently retired in New London.

Jeanie Chappell is the head of the Connecticut College Infirmary.

New England Group To Meet Saturday

Campus Life Gains Momentum; Clubs Complete Fresh Plans

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.

By String Quartet

The Reverend John H. Wurts, chaplain of Wesley College, will hold a Freshman Freshman Sing (7:30) in the Auditorium.
Quantity or Quality?

Among the numerous items which daily fill the ConnCensus box in the post office, we found one that gave us a jolt. It was a press release from Athens, Ohio, reporting the findings of the Conn. Admissions Policies' study on the great increases in enrollment that are taking place. Those of us in administration who have certain limitations in involving very low ability, poor preparation, and lack of motivation, the state-supported institutions in Ohio. We need to provide educational opportunity with quality rather than quantity for all high school graduates as we apply for admission.

The above-in-the-quotations expression is commensurate with ability, for this, we think, will have a multiplying effect on the development of the community. In accepting students from Ohio, as well as increasing numbers of students flood the schools, individual attention will become extinct. This is not to say that "get away with it" will attempt "to get away with it" doing even less, which will in turn lower the standards.

The whole idea of lowering standards raises the age-old question of whether it is better to produce greater quantity with less regard to quality or quality rather than quantity.

But how does this affect us, the students of Connecticut College? It should have a rather sobering effect in that we should realize the enormous academic opportunities that are within our reach. It should make us happy that our standards are high enough so that we at least think we have something to strive after. How much better is our situation than the reverse; for though we may not graduate thousands, the few at least are of quality—E.K.S.

EDITORS' NOTE

The following poem was submitted by several of our friends at the recent Lakeville Freshman party. The title is their impression of the Coast Guard "reception" as seen through the eyes of the Conn. freshman. It is reprinted here for the enjoyment of all.

"Go on Grab"

I was a memorable Saturday in late September. An affair took place. We shall always remember. It was a perfect day. We had flown to Washington. Yes, we had flown. How much better is our situation than the reverse; for though we may not graduate thousands, the few at least are of quality—E.K.S.

But how does this affect us, the students of Connecticut College? It should have a rather sobering effect in that we should realize the enormous academic opportunities that are within our reach. It should make us happy that our standards are high enough so that we at least think we have something to strive after. How much better is our situation than the reverse; for though we may not graduate thousands, the few at least are of quality—E.K.S.

This is not to say that "get away with it" will attempt "to get away with it" doing even less, which will in turn lower the standards. The whole idea of lowering standards raises the age-old question of whether it is better to produce greater quantity with less regard to quality or quality rather than quantity.

But how does this affect us, the students of Connecticut College? It should have a rather sobering effect in that we should realize the enormous academic opportunities that are within our reach. It should make us happy that our standards are high enough so that we at least think we have something to strive after. How much better is our situation than the reverse; for though we may not graduate thousands, the few at least are of quality—E.K.S.

This is not to say that "get away with it" will attempt "to get away with it" doing even less, which will in turn lower the standards. The whole idea of lowering standards raises the age-old question of whether it is better to produce greater quantity with less regard to quality or quality rather than quantity.

But how does this affect us, the students of Connecticut College? It should have a rather sobering effect in that we should realize the enormous academic opportunities that are within our reach. It should make us happy that our standards are high enough so that we at least think we have something to strive after. How much better is our situation than the reverse; for though we may not graduate thousands, the few at least are of quality—E.K.S.

This is not to say that "get away with it" will attempt "to get away with it" doing even less, which will in turn lower the standards. The whole idea of lowering standards raises the age-old question of whether it is better to produce greater quantity with less regard to quality or quality rather than quantity.

But how does this affect us, the students of Connecticut College? It should have a rather sobering effect in that we should realize the enormous academic opportunities that are within our reach. It should make us happy that our standards are high enough so that we at least think we have something to strive after. How much better is our situation than the reverse; for though we may not graduate thousands, the few at least are of quality—E.K.S.

This is not to say that "get away with it" will attempt "to get away with it" doing even less, which will in turn lower the standards. The whole idea of lowering standards raises the age-old question of whether it is better to produce greater quantity with less regard to quality or quality rather than quantity.

But how does this affect us, the students of Connecticut College? It should have a rather sobering effect in that we should realize the enormous academic opportunities that are within our reach. It should make us happy that our standards are high enough so that we at least think we have something to strive after. How much better is our situation than the reverse; for though we may not graduate thousands, the few at least are of quality—E.K.S.
Panel Analyzes College Aim

Conn. bneCODnCe08U8

For Talk on UN Observations

by Dorothy Cleveland '51

Conn. Host to Mrs. Ruebhausen

Women Voters' League

Sponsors Open Session at Lyman Allyn Museum

by Mrs. Oscar M. Ruebhausen, a member of the League of Women Voters, will speak at the opening session of the Lyman Allyn Museum on Thursday, October 17, at 8 p.m. The League of Women Voters, which sponsors the event, will be represented by Mrs. Ruebhausen.

Panel Analyzes College Aim

Mrs. Ruebhausen, a member of the League of Women Voters, will speak at the opening session of the Lyman Allyn Museum on Thursday, October 17, at 8 p.m. The League of Women Voters, which sponsors the event, will be represented by Mrs. Ruebhausen.

MRS. RUEBHAUSEN

Clubs

(Continued from Page One)

Organization Woman Emerges Clad in a Gray Flannel Suit

So you want to be a career girl? Are you aware of the web of difficulties that must be overcome to reach this goal? Miss William Whitely, Fortunately for you, has William Whitely, Fortunately for you, has

See "Employed"—Page 5

Conn. General Panel Has Talks, Sings Planned This Year

The General Panel has announced its plans for the coming year, including talks and singing events.

Bloodmobile

See "Employed"—Page 5
Dear Diary,

I got through French and History all right today, but English was rather trying. For a long time I thought the word "juxtaposition" was a Greek word, and kept insisting on its use. But when I saw her walking down the hall in dirtylevi's, dirty shirt, and fuzzy slippers, I spent the day creeping around corners for fear I'd meet her the day following. After the game we had dinner and then the College Personnel Officers attended a meeting. I convinced them we had to go. Sometimes deadlines on 12-30 deadlines are a blessing.

Friday, Oct. 13
Dear Diary,

I woke up this morning after spending hours past my normal time of sleep. My mind was not on biology and psychology, which was held for the "C" quiz. This morning passed quickly enough in various meetings, but my mind was not on biology and psychology, which was held for the "C" quiz. This morning passed quickly enough in various meetings, but my mind was not on biology and psychology, which was held for the "C" quiz. This morning passed quickly enough in various meetings, but my mind was not on biology and psychology, which was held for the "C" quiz.

Sunday, Oct. 13
Dear Diary,

I hope I never see another Sunday like this. After a long day of going to the Chapel, I finally had a chance to go out this afternoon. I was traped. As I turned the corner after church who was sitting in the wooden bench in the front, Mr. C.G.A. himself. I couldn't scream. While I was sitting with him, he asked me another coxie set me to asking. Not being one to turn on temptation, I accepted.

Well, we went sailing. Anyway it looked like we were. What really was done was to get out in a boat, a calm, sit and eat so much that we all turned green. It was a wonderful evening. We went off to shore by C.G. Rescue Squad.

When I got back to the dorm, the seas were getting rough. I went back over the Watchdog himself. That was it. I found the head of my hair, so much love.

Monday, Oct. 14
Dear Diary,

My mother has always been "Do a good deed every day" so this morning she sent me and visited a friend of mine that is sick in the hospital at the Chest Center. In answer to my mother's questions, the doctor said that she was perfectly all right today.

I'm feeling better about doing my good deed that I rounded up two other girls and we delivered the Red Cross Center that afternoon.

My sick friend seemed to be better too. He asked me how he was feeling. I'm glad he's feeling better.

In fact, I'm glad I had two friends to protect me. In fact, it was

-oh well, I'm tired. More to follow.

Love,

Tuesday, Oct. 15
Dear Diary,

I got up late today after spending hours past my normal time of sleep. My mind was not on biology and psychology, which was held for the "C" quiz. This morning passed quickly enough in various meetings, but my mind was not on biology and psychology, which was held for the "C" quiz. This morning passed quickly enough in various meetings, but my mind was not on biology and psychology, which was held for the "C" quiz. This morning passed quickly enough in various meetings, but my mind was not on biology and psychology, which was held for the "C" quiz. This morning passed quickly enough in various meetings, but my mind was not on biology and psychology, which was held for the "C" quiz.

Wednesday, Oct. 16
Dear Diary,

I really hate to admit this to you, but I have been spending a lot of money for my personal use. I am in the midst of the college's most expensive period, and it is about the time that I should be making my parents proud of me. I have spent money too much for food, clothing, and entertainment. I have also spent money on things that I prefer to keep private. I have spent money in a way that I think is not proper. I have spent money in a way that I think is not proper. I have spent money in a way that I think is not proper. I have spent money in a way that I think is not proper. I have spent money in a way that I think is not proper.

The old raccoon coats are seen everywhere about the campus. And no wonder - these are blind dates recommended to us by the college. And no wonder - these are blind dates recommended to us by the college. And no wonder - these are blind dates recommended to us by the college. And no wonder - these are blind dates recommended to us by the college.

Thursday, Oct. 17
Dear Diary,

Oh, what a dull, dreary, disheartening, discouraging, year? This college is for you. Classes creep by, but I am not interested. I was interested, but now I am not interested.

I washed my hair and did every chore that I was assigned for a super-deep-weekend. I am so glad I have been home and anticipation for Saturday. Sleep well.

Love,

Fieldman & Clark Florists
186 State Street
Crocker House Block
Telephone 3-5588

Everybody meets Under The Clock at the BILTMORE

The old raccoon coats are seen everywhere about the campus. And no wonder - these are blind dates recommended to us by the college. And no wonder - these are blind dates recommended to us by the college. And no wonder - these are blind dates recommended to us by the college. And no wonder - these are blind dates recommended to us by the college.

Star Bros.
REXALL DRUG STORE
110 State St., New London

Business Phone-GL 2-3542

Stockton & Reed
DAILY FREE DELIVERY

Cosmetics Shoes Groceries

Photo Dept. Charge Account

Glenison 2-4461

DAILY FREE DELIVERY

CASHIER LASSER

Carroll Cut Rate

PERFUMERS

152 State Street

BILTMORE

ALL YOU CAN

FIND IN THIS PAGE

BILTMORE

Medium Avenue at 42nd St., N.Y., 17, N.Y.

At Grand Central Station

Other BEAUTY Notec-Harvey's Park & Lane

Harry & Robert, Owners

Our Family, February 1957
Until They Sail
by Carol Plants '60

Gals and guys, each of which has convinced himself and herself that he or she is in love—except Paul Newman. Paul is not going to get involved with any woman, not even Jean Simmons. He dissipates himself each night with his whiskey bottle and survives very well.

It's at this point that the story ultimately poses the big question:
how are the nice girls and men to manage when their sweethearts and husbands are away at war? Well this question never gets answered, but it appears that the girls manage pretty well despite their loneliness during war time.

This picture deserved more of Paul Newman's interesting charsacterization of the determined soldier and much less of the sor-rowings of Jean Simmons and Piper Laurie.

Calendar of Events
Saturday, October 19
Meeting of Connecticut Section of the Classical Association of New England . WMI
Campus Movie
Freshman Mixer with Yale — Knowlton, 3:30 p.m.
Tuesday, October 22
Student-Faculty Dinner Entertainment.
Auditorium, 7:30 p.m.

NASSER'S
Everything for the College Room
Bates Bedspreads
Drapes (any size) — Rugs
Desk - Floor Lamps
Throw Pillows
Bookcases
225 State Street
FREE DELIVERY

BY POPULAR DEMAND
ONE MORE WEEK
Your tremendous response to our "Welcome Back" specials has induced us to continue it for one more week.

Sale Positively Ends Saturday, October 26, 1957

Our "WELCOME SPECIAL"
$1.00 OFF — Your Choice — Any L. P. also 20% OFF — Anything in the Record Department

Which Includes: Players, Racks, Records, Cases, Diamond Needles, etc.

MALLOVE'S
74 State Street New London

We invite charge accounts and offer the following services: Watch, Clock, Jewelry, and Record Player Repairs.
Checks cashed. — Feel free to browse.
Mademoiselle Holds Contest For Career-Minded Students

Mademoiselle is now accepting applications from undergraduate women for membership in its 1956-1957 College Board.

The magazine's College Board Contest offers a chance (for the freshman as well as the senior) at winning one of the twenty Guest Editorships—a month on the staff of Mademoiselle. Those who are accepted on the College Board do two assignments during the college year. Assignments give College Board Members a chance to write features about life on their campus; to submit art work and fashion as well as feature, fiction or promotion ideas for possible use in Mademoiselle; to develop their critical and creative talents; to discover their own abilities and job interests; to win cash prizes and possibly publication for entering a number of the successful entries; to discover their own abilities and interests; to win cash prizes and possibly publication for outstanding work submitted during the contest.

The top twenty Guest Editors will be brought to New York next June to help write, edit, and illustrate the August COLLEGE Issue. They will be paid a regular salary for their month's work plus round-trip transportation to New York City.

While in New York, each Guest Editor takes part in a full calendar of activities. She interviews a celebrity in her chosen field, visits newspaper offices, fashion workrooms, stores and advertising agencies, besides working daily with the Mademoiselle Editors to whom she is assigned. The twenty Guest Editors get help in finding positions in their special fields, and each year several join Mademoiselle's own staff.

November 30 is the deadline for applying for College Board Membership. The tryout assignment this year gives more latitude than ever before for indicating your particular talent in writing or art, fashion or advertising, promotion or merchandising, or publicity.

For further information on various aspects of the contest see Carlene Newberg '59.

ESSO RESEARCH works wonders with oil

Bright promise of pleasure

ESSO RESEARCH works wonders with oil

- Weekend Wonderland

NEW YORK CITY:
The Stalter
The Savoy-Plaza
The Waldorf-Astoria
The Plaza
WASHINGTON, D.C.:
The Stalter
BUFFALO:
The Stalter
BOSTON:
The Stalter
HARTFORD:
The Stalter

HILTON-STATLER HOTELS

AT LOW STUDENT RATES
... await you at any of these

FOR RESERVATIONS when the student returns; or in any hotel of the chain: Hilton-Statler Hotel, New York, N.Y. Any hotel of the chain will accept reservations for the Statler or for the Hilton.

*On their way from manufacturer to store to you, metal parts stay bright thanks to a thin coating that prevents rust. You can't see it. You scarcely feel it. But these petroleum-based products of Esso Research are also helping roller skates to stay bright, knives and razor blades to stay keen. Often in such unusual ways, ESSO RESEARCH works wonders with oil.