Eight Seniors Are Inducted Into Phi Beta Kappa Society

Yesterday at the convolution exercises held in the auditorium, the names of the eight seniors recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa were announced. They are: Barbara L. Tabb, Lois Banks, Beverly Bensonsom, Joa Dimaio, Phyllis Hoffman, Olga Krupen, Paula Melcher, and Patricia Roth. Frances Noodleman, who will graduate in fall, is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Following convolution the new members were initiated in Room 202 of the auditorium. Last night a dinner was given in their honor.

Membership in the society of Phi Beta Kappa is awarded in recognition of scholarship excellence. The Connecticut College chapter was installed in 1935.

Dance Session Will Be Held for Fourth Connecticut College dance session will be held on the campus at New London for six weeks beginning July 9.

The school will again be under the direction of Mr. Ethel Pethick of the Connecticut College faculty, and Martha Hill, in charge of the dance program, at New York University and Bennington College.

The dance school, which has been recognized as the center for modern dance in the United States, will be on its faculty this year as the world standing figures in modern dance. Returning will be JoAnn Aloma, June Dudley, Louis Horst, Marsha Madow, William Bales, and others who were on the staff in previous years.

Mary Wigmans to Teach

Mary Wigmans has also accepted an invitation to be in residence in many to be in residence and teach at the dance school. Her last visit to the United States was in 1940, when she toured the US with her dance company. During the past few summers she has taught dance in Switzerland, and American students have gone there to study with her.

Many of the artists on the faculty will appear in the fourth annual American Dance Festival, also sponsored by the college, which will take place in Palmer Auditorium during the last week of the school session.

The School of the Dance is a six-week comprehensive session, encompassing all phases of modern dance. Although enrollment is limited, students have come from over the United States. The school is designed for college students of modern dance, graduate students, professional dancers, and teachers of dance, and is co-educational. Inquiries are being received at the college for passing time.

Jones, Stallwell, to Star in Class Dance Gala

The final tryouts for the spring production of Wieg and Candle production, The Glass Menagerie, were held February 22 in Palmer Auditorium. Gloria Jones has been chosen to play Laura, and Ruth Stovel will play Amanda, also a part in the cast.

Two members of the Yale Drama Club are taking the male part of Laura Wingfield, and the part of Southern Gentleman. The dance session will be presented by the Psychology Club, and is directed by Josephine E. James, who is also in charge of the dance company.

1951 Class Play Competition Will Open in Palmer Friday

Stimpson, Holtz, and Molinsky Will Direct '51, '54 Offerings

CC's 1951 class play competition will get underway when the senior class present their offerings Friday, March 2, in Palmer Auditorium, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Molinsky will direct She'll We Join the Ladies, by James M. Barrie, for the class of 1954. The play is a social comedy. Mr. Holtz is assistant directors with John Field- gosse as secretary. Mr. Barrie is in charge of make-up, costumes and scenery. Mr. Stimpson will be in charge of lighting, and will also direct.

Miss Fairfax, College Author, Will Speak on the Individual and Belief

The second speaker in the 17th annual interfaith month now in progress at Connecticut College and for the second year will be Rabbi Bernard J. Bamberger of the West End Synagogue of New York City. A native of Balli- ne Webster, Jan Parker, Janet Fielding, Joan Peverly, Helen Stimpson are co-directors.

A native of Balli- ne Webster, Jan Parker, Janet Fielding, Joan Peverly, Helen Stimpson are co-directors.

B. J. Bamberger to Be Second Vesper Speaker of Month

The second speaker in the 17th annual interfaith month now in progress at Connecticut College and for the second year will be Rabbi Bernard J. Bamberger of the West End Synagogue of New York City. A native of Balli- ne Webster, Jan Parker, Janet Fielding, Joan Peverly, Helen Stimpson are co-directors.

A native of Balli- ne Webster, Jan Parker, Janet Fielding, Joan Peverly, Helen Stimpson are co-directors.

B. J. Bamberger to Be Second Vesper Speaker of Month

The second speaker in the 17th annual interfaith month now in progress at Connecticut College and for the second year will be Rabbi Bernard J. Bamberger of the West End Synagogue of New York City. A native of Balli- ne Webster, Jan Parker, Janet Fielding, Joan Peverly, Helen Stimpson are co-directors.

A native of Balli- ne Webster, Jan Parker, Janet Fielding, Joan Peverly, Helen Stimpson are co-directors.

B. J. Bamberger to Be Second Vesper Speaker of Month

The second speaker in the 17th annual interfaith month now in progress at Connecticut College and for the second year will be Rabbi Bernard J. Bamberger of the West End Synagogue of New York City. A native of Balli- ne Webster, Jan Parker, Janet Fielding, Joan Peverly, Helen Stimpson are co-directors.

A native of Balli- ne Webster, Jan Parker, Janet Fielding, Joan Peverly, Helen Stimpson are co-directors.

B. J. Bamberger to Be Second Vesper Speaker of Month

The second speaker in the 17th annual interfaith month now in progress at Connecticut College and for the second year will be Rabbi Bernard J. Bamberger of the West End Synagogue of New York City. A native of Balli- ne Webster, Jan Parker, Janet Fielding, Joan Peverly, Helen Stimpson are co-directors.

A native of Balli- ne Webster, Jan Parker, Janet Fielding, Joan Peverly, Helen Stimpson are co-directors.
An Affirmation of Faith

International Weekend had many good points but there is one which stands out as being far more important than any other. With the world situation as it is the spirit which pervaded the entire project came like an affirmation of faith; it was this firm confidence, of speakers, delegates and onlookers alike, which gave International Weekend its distinctive stamp.

The United Nations has been roundly abused in the last few months, especially "indefinite" and even "farcical" have been thrown around carelessly. Men are free with their criticism when a seeming impasse is before them; they denounce the vehicle which took them to it, and remember nothing of the past "impasses" through which that same vehicle has penetrated.

The United Nations is beginning the end of international anarchy and all the violence which accompanies anarchy. The beginning of this end is always the slowest and the hardest, especially when the old is so entrenched that it seems natural. And loss of faith is one of the quickest ways to end the beginning. That is why it was such a pleasure this weekend to be able to breathe the air of confidence. Here were people who look to the past for confirmation of the abilities of the United Nations, who look to the present as time for practical work, who look to the future for the promise of peace. And in past, present, and future, their guide is a practical, necessary faith. Therein lies the well-known secret of accomplishment. Progress is not the work of cynics.—AMT

Nomination Intentions Must Be Filed in Branford by Fri.

OFFICES
for which nominations are made by petitions are:

President of Student Government
Chief Justice of Honor Court
Speaker of the House
Vice President of Student Government
President of AA
President of Service League
Chairman of Chapel Activities

INTENTIONS to take a petition for any of these offices must be filed in the Student Government room in Branford basement between 5:00 and 5:45 on the following days:

President of Student Government
Chief Justice of Honor Court
Speaker of the House
Vice President of Student Government
President of AA
President of Service League
Chairman of Chapel Activities

Be sure to obtain the candidate's consent before filing the intention and deliver either the candidate or her written consent to run for office.

PETITIONS will be issued from the Student Government room at Chapel time on the following days:

President of Student Government
Chief Justice of Honor Court
Speaker of the House
Vice President of Student Government
President of AA
President of Service League
Chairman of Chapel Activities

If you have any questions call Judy Clippinger in the Post Office at New London.

College Organizes Civilian Defense For Emergencies

Due to the present world crisis, Connecticut College has been asked to cooperate by the State's Civilian Defense Service to organize, in cooperation with this campus, measures for mobilization in case of war when Connecticut would be called upon to serve its country.

The purpose is to have the student body ready at a moment's notice for the call to duty and to go into action immediately.

The plan for the campus and a plan for off-campus areas will be made and distributed to each class for filing for action when the order is given.

Current Events

The Current Events programs during the second semester will be held on Mondays, at 10:00, in Ball Hall 106.

The following faculty members will be the speakers:

March
3 Dr. F. Halpin
12 Dr. Dayler
19 Mr. Cobblestone
26 April
5 Dr. Cranz
12 Miss Hocho
19 Miss Mulvey
26 May
7 Miss Finney
14 Mrs. Wissel

Sally Backes Wins Chemistry Honors

Sara Backes, class of 1932, has received an award for outstanding talent and aptitude in chemistry from the Connecticut Valley Section of the American Chemical Society. This event took place at the annual meeting of the Connecticut Valley Section.

The award is given to the American Chemical Society and a subscription to a society publication. Twelve other outstanding college and university students of chemistry were also honored by the Connecticut Valley Section recently at its annual meeting at St. Joseph's College, West Hartford.

Calendar

Thursday, March 1
Soph Singers Distributed ... Men's Faculty Lounge, 11:00-12:00
Friday, March 2
Competitive Plays:
5-7 Act from "The Tempest, Shakespeare
By Arthur Barrie
Auditorium, 8:00 p.m.
Saturday, March 3
Movie, "I Know Where I Am Going...Auditorium, 7:30 p.m.
COCO-Yale-Outing
Buck Lodge, 5:00 p.m.
Sunday, March 4
Vespers: Rabbi B. J. Hamberger, West End Synagogue, New York City, speaker
Chapel, 7:00 p.m.
Wednesday, March 7
Psych Club Movie
Bill Hall, 7:30 p.m.

Chapel

Thursday, March 1—Jean Fairtax
Friday, March 2—Dr. Leibbrandt
Monday, March 4—Current Events
Tuesday, March 6—Miss Park
Wednesday, March 7—Rabbi Klinefelter

Morgan’s Shoe

Beautiful Shoes for Women

Photo 420
22 Green St.
NEWLY ELECTED MEMBERS OF PHI BETA KAPPA

BEVERLY BENZERSON  PATRICIA ROTH  JOAN DE MINO  PHYLIS HOFFMAN  OLGA KRUPEN

Phi Betes Enjoy Literature, Sports, As Well As Studying

by Allie Weible

Beverly Benson is the girl who caused a mild sensation among CC circles when she asked the professor of Italian to give her an exam answer in Italian. Beverly, who is a transfer student from George Washington University, here for her last year and the only one of these new members who has been concentrated largely on work for Phi Beta; noted that almost all of the profiles which will appear in the next publication. A Feb. graduate, Beverly, along with the first will be married next Sunday to a Dartmouth graduate. After a honeymoon in the Virgin Islands, the couple will live in New York, where Beverly hopes to do literary work.

Eliza Babbott, our Student Government president, who lives in Detroit, Michigan, is an Emily Abbey larist. For her work on News and as president of Manchester, Connecticut, of its honorees. Known on campus for her work in literature, sports, and social work.

Joan De Mino is another English major who attained Phi Beta honors. A native of Detroit, Michigan, she is known on campus for her work in literature, and as president of the campus radio station.

Paula Meltzer, a social anthropology major who came to Conn. a transfer student from Purdue University, is a member of Wig and Candle. After graduation, she plans to do research in Africa and Germany for the Ford Foundation.

PAULA MELTZER  LOIS BANKS  ELIZABETH BABBOTT  PHYLIS HOFFMAN  OLGA KRUPEN

Honors List Standards Topic Of Much Student Discussion

by Nancy Morton

With the arrival of those little yellow envelopes in our mailboxes, the moment we have been dreading for the past year has come; the. Honors List day.

On the other hand, we have a vast group who hold to the idea that the standards should be lowered to accommodate all. This group is generally divided in their opinions.

Lucia Boyle and Betty Blaustein formed the group who believe that our standards of A's and three B's for honor credit should be maintained. They based this opinion on the desire to keep Connecticut's high scholastic rating, for they felt that lowering honors standards may eventually lower our academic prestige.

The fact of the matter is, however, that the standards are broad enough to accommodate almost everyone.

If a student is working full time at a job, he has the right to request something that he can work on instead of doing his homework. Sometimes, he may have to take a part-time job, and other times, he may be going through a crisis.

The suggestion that professors have varied conceptions of the value of each grade is true. The most popular suggestion concerning honors was offered by Esther Hammacher and Margy Ohl. They believe that we should keep the standards as they now stand, but that there should be some recognition of the B average students. This could be done by adding the distinction of either honorable mention or second honors to those students who attained a 3. average.

If such a system were put into effect, our present standards would be maintained and therefore our academic rating would be upheld. Yet there would also be some form of credit bestowed on those students who achieve a 3. average, which it appears to be desired by the majority of students. What do you think?

Sophomores to Receive Class Rings Tomorrow

Sophomores will be given the class rings which they ordered last year, Thursday, March 1, between the hours of 3:00 and 5:00, in the Faculty House Lounge. Those who ordered rings should call for them in person, to make sure that the size is correct.
Recommends

Miss Wylie's Interests Cover Various Fields Besides Psych by Virginia Bowman

"Do things that are new," says Miss Wylie."As a girl, any of it. So her interest in her classes and of her later studies. Music is Miss Wylie's primary interest. She likes to listen to classical compositions, and she also plays the piano. Last year she played in the annual musical of the psychology department. It was the favorite sport of this psychology professor. Hill runs a close second, along with an enjoyment of automobile trips. This latter ac-

By Allie Wohl

East Lynn, melodrama in three acts derived from the novel of that name written in 1821, was acted by Margaret Schuman. based on our reel-to-reel programs and a greater pleasure to the audience will keep them.

The opening chorus of the Prescrib was well supported, and from then to the end of the section def- erred because of the change in the dress rehearsals at the beginning and the stronger tonal effects which followed. The changes in the dresses were sharply delineated, and she had a nice sense of the shape of the piece.

Harriet Putnam's interpretation of Debussy's Danse sacre de Delphes was sensitive, but her pedaling was too clean and the fortissimo passages too sharply struck to achieve the maximum amount of Impressionistic flavor. The ex- tra effort which Jeanne Starg ex- pended in overcoming the prob- lems of a head cold resulted in one of the more expert performances of the evening. Her second song, Richard warming Bldg. Tel. 7395

The callie of Brahms for Production program, melodically and in- ternally with special reference to the music of Schubert, showed a very sound experience with Brahms's G minor Rhapsody, the reduction in her part, very nice. She added the comic touch. Phyl Dechter of Plant House is a member of the alumnae. Her primary interest is also active in some of the junior class. The support of his right hand, because his bad morale booster, at that! Her act, as played by the United States Sub- Bridgeport Brass Co. The couple proceeded from Franklin and Mar-

Miss Wylie successfully characterized the sensuousness of Schumann's melody in a yel- low suit, especially on the fourth of the Sophomores to proved its talent in writing and

Peter Paul's of St. John's Street

Goldsmith Bldg. Tel. 36249

Specializing in Ladies Tailoring and Alterations

CAMPUS DAIRY BAR AND RESTAURANT

The House of Good Food WE DELIVER

Tel. 9838

405 WILLIAMS STREET

DRESSES

Velveteen

Satin

Brocades

Taffetas

Tissue Faille

bernards

STATE STREET

Page Four

CAMPUS DAIRY BAR AND RESTAURANT

The House of Good Food

WE DELIVER

Tel. 9838

405 WILLIAMS STREET

Responding to the present time she is a member of the Meditation of the Sophomore who emerged from this piece. "It's

Miss Wylie's melodic and piano Chopin, whom she performed at the University of Vir-

Resident of Plant, is en-

Jill Adkins; Richard Hare, of

Barbora Hare; Barbara Ann Eckelson; Miss Carlyle, Eliza-

Joan met her fiance two years ago and camping run a close psyworking on their future plans. The changes in her part, very nice. She added the comic touch. Phyl Dechter of Plant House is a member of the alumnae. Her primary interest is also active in some of the junior class. The support of his right hand, because his bad morale booster, at that! Her act, as played by the United States Sub- Bridgeport Brass Co. The couple proceeded from Franklin and Mar-

Next year's Crop was a competent accompa-

By Allie Wohl

VICTORIA SHOPPE

Modern Corsetry and

Plisse Skirt

243 State Street, New London

Peter Paul's of St. John's Street

Goldsmith Bldg. Tel. 36249

Specializing in Ladies Tailoring and Alterations

CAMPUS DAIRY BAR AND RESTAURANT

The House of Good Food

WE DELIVER

Tel. 9838

405 WILLIAMS STREET

DRESSES

Velveteen

Satin

Brocades

Taffetas

Tissue Faille

bernards

STATE STREET

Caught on Campus

John Eli Shoe Store

Spring Footwear for

Campus and Dress

Perry & Stone

LEATHER GOODS—NOVELTIES

Watch and Jewelry Repair

205 State Street

FISHER FLORIST

Varsity Flowers

for All Occasions

Wire service to all the world

Tel. 205 186 State St. Tel. 2008

David Walsh

Lebro Bartolucci

New London Sporting Goods

If it's Wilson's it's the Best

Telephone 3304

30 Meridian Street

New London, Conn.
Around the Town

The next time you write for theater tickets, address your envelope to "The Alvin Theater," 62nd street west of Broadway. Claude Rains is playing in an adaptation of Arthur Koestler's novel, Darkness at Noon. A "must" on the list of anyone interested in a good acting, in well-acted sets, and in a play which is of pertinent interest, Darkness at Noon is the story of an old-guard communist intellectual, Rubashov, played by Claude Rains, who is caught in the Russian purges of 1937.

The curtain opens with a very startling set. On the side of the stage are actual cells, whose walls are sliced away so that the audience actually feels as though it, too, were in the jail. The cells are presented on tiers, allowing one to meet Rubashov's fellow prisoners, some of whom are obviously delighted that the man responsible for their imprisonment is now caught in his own machinery; others are worried, for his arrest means more torture for them and their certain death.

The story is handled in a series of flashbacks, all of which take place on the other side of the stage. In one, Rubashov, alias Mr. Rains, who merely walks from his cell into the flashbacks, is to be on stage during all but two minutes of the entire play. Only by changes in his voice, carriage, and facial expressions is he able to give the impression that the scene has gone back ten years.

His performance is excellent; one is never conscious that Rains is acting or even on a stage, only Rubashov is seen. The plot itself is an excellent piece of propaganda, and as I was leaving the theater I heard a young man remark that the Army should have an enlistment booth stationed in the lobby.

Yet it is obviously based on truth. Rubashov is one of the intellectuals of the Revolution who believed in the sacrifice of everything and everyone for the Communist Party, including his mistress. Finally the Party decided that he must be tried and the lists of the purges, and Rubashov was faced with making a decision to keep his philosophy of "all for the party" or to revert to the Party and all that it now stands for.

In the excess of his self-investigation, he comes to realize that the high ideals of the first revolutions have become perverted, and that now the Party is composed of young men who know how to make a living, but know nothing of the ideals that once fired the early stages of the Revolution.

Rubashov, after weeks of mental torture and hours of questioning, finally appeals to the demoralized Party that he endures the humiliation of a public trial in England, as he comes to his crimes and becomes an example to the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.

His last words before he is shot are addressed to his guard, a product of the Party, and that he may know that before he is shot he realizes his crime and is conscious of the Russian people. He does convince, but it is a remarkable confession: outwardly, it is a confession of crimes against the State which he committed; inwardly, it is a realization of the many personal crimes, his own mistakes in becoming a member of the Party.
Europe Tour Travel-Packed; Trip Includes Many Countries

Two and a half travel-packed months in Europe this summer await the girls who join the Connecticut College trip to Europe sponsored by Simmons Tobacco Inc., and led by two seniors, Olivia Brook and Judy Clippingber. The girls will visit the Connecticut College girls and their friends traveling second class with the opportunity to meet students from the countries visited. Sailing from New York on the M.V. Georgia, June 28, the tour will return September 10.

The group will land in Liverpool and travel north to Edinburgh, Scotland where the old castle, the University and surrounding country will be visited. Travelling south to London where exhibits of the Exposition of Britain will be held, the girls will visit Westminster Abbey, the Tower of London, St. James’, Palace, scenes in the House of Parliament and other points of interest. A trip to historic Oxford University will also be made.

After leaving England the group will begin the tour of the continent by visiting Holland, the Queen’s Palace and Parks museum in Amsterdam, and the picturesque country of windmills and canals. Travelling through Belgium the itinerary continues to the famous city of Cologne, Germany, whose majestic and miraculously undestroyed cathedral will be seen. At Cologne a steamliner will be boarded for a two-day trip to the Ruhr industrial area which affords a rare chance to see the panoramic views of Rhine valleys, medieval towns, and Roling scenery often missed by the tourist. Three days will be spent in Heidelberg with a chance to meet the German students of the famed old University.

Free Time Allowable

Several days in Lucerne, Switzerland, provide the opportunity of an excursion to Lake Geneva and of making excursions of mountain climbing or sightseeing to the surrounding castles. Six days of free time follow. This period of free time is included so that students may visit Austria, Venice, the Italian Alps or other parts of Switzerland and can be made. Accommodations are not arranged for this period, but upon request the tour leaders will plan the free time for anyone who so wishes.

Italian and Mexican village rare visitors will visit the journey to Rome. In Rome five days will be spent in the city seeing St. Peter’s Basilica, the Papal Palace, the Colosseum, attending the outdoor operas and other points of interest in and near Rome. On the trip north to Florence via Sienna the group will ride the famous CFF train in the mountains. After Florence the trip stops in Montreux, near Nice on the French River. Accommodations at a resort hotel on the Mediterranean offers a chance to relax in the magnificent climate and scenery. Day trips are planned to the Monte Carlo Casino, old French castles and quiet towns in the region. This will give a picture of the varied life along the Cote d’Azur.

The Lighthouse Inn

Recommended by Courmier’s Guide to Good Eating, Silver Circle and Dunlin Hours

DANCING SATURDAY NIGHTS 9-1

Comfortable Rooms

Tel. 3-631

Open All Year ’Round

New London, Conn.
Janie Gerhartz reports that Life Saving is going very well. Twenty-seven girls manage to hike down to the Coast Guard base every Monday night, in spite of rain, snow, and zero weather. The three instructors, Joan Partlett, Sally Lane, and Annette Brudsal died doing a terrific job. Right now they are patiently hushing the hair pull away and the cross-country snow carry — so far so good, but, wait till they start diving for the ten pound rock!

A Ticket a Basket, Look Who Found the Basket!

The Juniors and the Seniors really went to town last Thursday night. They were the victors of the all-college basketball evening. The Seniors (or the Old Gray Mares, as they so aptly named themselves) beat the sophs 36-32 Streakey and Janie Schaumann were the outstanding senior forwards, and played the entire game. That is quite a feat when you consider that the seniors are kept under wraps except for the class team games. The junior guards, Jo Willard and Joan Henney did a great job at keeping the sophs away from their basket. It looks like the seniors are gearing for the class cup.

The Juniors beat the freshmen in the other game of the evening. The freshmen didn’t fare too well in the hands of a junior team that played one of its best games. The junior passes were tricky and Daffy shooting was amazingly accurate. The guards kept the freshmen forward very much off balance so that they did not have time to develop a funk. Really the freshman team is made up of good players who were not at their best in the first game of the season. With more practice and less in fancy cases they should develop into quite a team.

Panel Discussion

(Continued from Page One)

achieved by bettering the economic and social conditions for all mankind.

Professor Neumann was the first speaker. He gave six assumptions concerning the world conditions today. These include: we are living in a second 30 years war period with nationalism at stake now; the UN is trying to organize during the aftermath of a war; there are two super powers in the world today; the UN has to guide us through this aftermath; Europe is still alive; and international politics are everyone’s concern.

Dr. Chamberlain stated that the UN is the only hope the world has left. After asking the question, “Where is the UN going?” He said that it was going where the governments of the 60 members wanted it to go. He concluded by saying that Russia has blocked the UN all along and therefore the United States must remain in a strong position in order to stave off a world war.

“To be human is to be in danger,” stated Professor Coon, and then exemplified his remark by describing the world situation today. He emphasized that wars can be prevented but it should be prepared for. We should strengthen ourselves militarily, socially, and psychologically. The measure of America’s foreign policy depends upon an estimation of Russia’s plans and the reactions of Europeans and Americans. The public now has three false assumptions: the two world powers simplify world conditions, conditions are normal; and negotiation is possible. He concluded by saying that if we can get away from these beliefs we might be able to form a new foreign policy.

It was the sensible test! . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as a steady smoke — on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you’ve enjoyed Camels — and only Camels — for 30 days in your “T-Zone” (T for Throat, T for Taste) you believe you’ll know why!

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
Diamond Speaks On Home Furnishings

On Thursday evening, February 22, Freda Diamond, home furnishing designer and coordinator, spoke to a group of economics majors in the Faculty Lounge.

In her speech on home furnishings, Miss Diamond differentiated between style and fashion. Style, she said, is the mode or manner of the furnishings at a particular time, whereas fashion is the acceptance of the current style. At the present time there is no longer the long lapse before a style becomes generally adopted. Rather, because of the trend of mass production, the minute a fashion is accepted in a price bracket, anyone can have it.

Miss Diamond also discussed the limitless opportunities in the field of fashion in home furnishings. A woman interested in the field can enter phases of interior decorating, buying, training, designing, coordinating, advertising, etc.

Following the lecture there was an informal question period.

SENIOR POLL

Seniors, it’s time you took stock of yourselves. How you will fare in the future is the burning question. NEWS is conducting this Gallup-like poll to determine who of you will shake the world with your astonishing talents and abilities. Just tear out this blank with your selections and put it in the NEWS box in Fanning by Saturday, March 3.

POLITICS — Who will become the President of the United States?

LITERARY — Who will win the Nobel Prize in Literature?

BEAUTY — Who will become the Powers model?

THEATRE — Who will make Cornell look like a novice?

ABST — Who will make you forget Picasso ever existed?

HUMOR — Who will win fame as a comedienne?

SPEECH — Who talks faster than Hope?

MUSIC — Who will keep the world in song?

TEACHING — Who will become the teacher of the wise?

Cut out that if fifty-two nations resigned from the UN they could later form a constitution for another UN, excluding Russia. He thinks, however, that an opening should be left for Russia when she wishes to return. He believes that Russia can not afford not to join again.

EDWIN KEENEY COMPANY
Greeting Cards
School Supplies
Tel. 8217
15 Main St.

EASIEST TEST

IN THE BOOK

SAYS: BARBARA JEAN SMITH
COLORADO '52

SMELL 'EM

SMOKE 'EM

MAKE THE TOBACCO GROWERS MILDNESS TEST YOURSELF...

YES... Compare Chesterfield with the brand you’ve been smoking... Open a pack... enjoy that milder Chesterfield aroma. And—tobaccos that smell milder, smoke milder. So smoke Chesterfields... they do smoke milder, and they’re the only cigarette that combines MILDNESS with NO UNPLEASANT AFTER-TASTE.

CHESTERFIELD

LEADING SELLER IN AMERICA'S COLLEGES

Copyright 1951, LIGGHT/TOBACCO Co.