Many Students
Answer Civil Service Call

Seniors and juniors have answered the call, according to the numbers of applications forthcoming. These applications being distributed by the Personnel Office. Many seniors and juniors have taken the examinations and others have filed applications.

Last fall a few seniors took a test for the Civil Service exam-nation for Junior Business Analyst, Junior, for the year 1942-1943. They are the six seniors who have taken the examinations and the applications have been forwarded to the office.

Four home economics majors will take the Student Examination this fall, to enter the civil service, with a year's apprenticeship and a position after the war.

Applications for a federal Translating examination will be open until the end of February, and the Civilian Service examines will be held in New Haven.

War Information

The American Library Association has adopted a statement of principles concerning the war, in which the following statement is made: "We are all engaged in the war effort.
Officially or unofficially, every library is a center of war information in which are currently available all publications for public use. These are being used to inform the public of military activities, regulations, and instructions for public use.

February 20, 1942

Dear Editor:

We hesitate to write this letter but are doing so in hopes that it will serve the student body a spirit of loyalty and responsibility, if not appreciation.

Last Thursday evening, February 19, a Musical Concert was given in the chapel by the Chapels Choir, Miss Porter, and a soloist from Columbia, Harold Gordon, known by many through the radio. There were enough people in the audience mostly faculty, to amount to one glance! We wish every student could have seen the expression on Mr. Gordon's face when he saw the few people who came, sprinkled here and there who had taken the time to come to New London the day before to practice with the choir. And Miss Porter had given her time to direct the choir in extra rehearsals.

This evidence, certainly, a lack of college spirit, as do the Vespers attendances to which we wonder speakers travel miles to speak to most handful! And what kind of a reputation will this sort of thing extend to the college? Our campus is known to many through the radio, and if we start letting our speakers have to come to speak to an audience more interested in ball games, then what will we have, what will we be?

And what will the speakers and Mr. Gordon have not left our campus with a feeling of apprehension? If not a feeling of pride for their personal attraction and ability. This embarrassing situation is a serious matter for which every student should feel responsible for correcting.

Two freshman choir members.

CANDIDS

By Patricia King '42 and Eleanor King '42

Said Mrs. King, "The Connecticut college... may seem that con-" found all the pagan souls who have never been baptized. On one side were the philosophers, Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle, and Empedocles and the category of love and hate as the suns which ruled the universe. On the other side was the represented the senses of Dido, Cleopatra, Helen and others. Above those are the deities devoted to the prophets, who, because they concern themselves only with seeing into the future, appear at the last judgment as the wise of their own time. In spite of the complete raised appearance of this fresco at first glance, Dr. Wind made evident the high degree of organization which went into its production, with the one principle of God's justice and mercy interweaving throughout every element of the gigantic composition.

Virtues Of Buying
Defense Stamps
Revealed To Katie

Katie didn't go to Haiti. Not at all—some do, but this Katie wanted to learn more than a good rhumba technique. So she went to Europe and enrolled in a good college for young women in a far-away land called New London. Katie liked it, and they liked Katie, and all went along rather nicely until the INCREDIBLE happened. War was declared! And Katie was swept along in the whirl of college defense activities—there were meetings and drills and meetings. And here the bitter truth was revealed! Katie had a split personality. Or maybe she just didn't realize what was happening. She couldn't go to Dartmouth Winter Carnival, but she went to the U.S.O. dance. And she knitted. But was she inconsistent? She knew that her Government was fighting to preserve those ideals which Americans hold so dear, and to face nations from the brutal tyranny of dictatorship. She knew that thousands of boys like her Freddie were being called to arms. And she wanted to help—but she didn't realize that one of the most valuable things she could do was to buy U.S. Savings stamps, which would help support the Government in its career for ultimate salvation.

Dr. Wind began his lecture by explaining the meaning of the dagger and the dove on Savonius' medal. The dagger, representing the wrath of God, and the dove, representing God's mercy are one and the same as it was the Christian belief that punishment in purgatory was necessary for ultimate salvation.

With the help of slides, Dr. Wind explained the history of the Sistine fresco and the region of Limbo which most people mistake as a section of heaven. Here are...
“Russia And Her Role In The War” Discussed At I. R. C. Meeting

Sally Clark ‘24 spoke on “Russia And Her Role In The War” at the International Relations club meet on Wednesday evening, Feb. 18. The talk began with Russian occupation after the first World War, the development of Communism as derived from Marxian and the factors leading up to Russia’s entry into World War II. An international discussion followed based on such questions as “How can Russia’s government be compared with ours?” and “What common ideals are present in both democratic and communist theory?” A meeting has been scheduled sometime in March when the club will elect its officers for next year.

Basketball Tryouts Held This Week for Interclass Meets

Tryouts for class basketball teams were held as part of the physical fitness schedule for this week. Tryouts for juniors and freshmen were Monday evening, February 23 from 8:00-9:00 and senior-sophomore and freshmen from 7:30-8:00. Practices begin March 2. Juniors and freshmen have practice from 7:00-8:00 and seniors and sophomores from 8:00-9:00. On March 4, there is a practice for sophomores and freshmen from 7:00-8:00 and for seniors and junio rs from 8:00-9:00. On March 11, the last practices before games will be held. The juniors and sophomores will practice from 8:00-9:00 and the seniors and juniors from 9:00-10:00. The schedule for the interclass games is as follows. March 13 there is a game between the juniors and seniors. First and then the seniors and sophomores. March 19 the first game is between the seniors and freshmen and the second the juniors and sophomores. March 25 the last two games will be played. The first will be between the junior-senior game and second the sophomore-freshman. All of the games will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m.

There will probably be practices between the scheduled games, but they will be scheduled later. Expectations should be on hand also, to support their class team with some healthy cheering.

“Day” To Feature C.C. Defense Work

Mrs. Katherine T. Floyd, Publicity Director of the college, and Press Board are working on a full page of pictures and a number of Connecticut college students as they work in the various defense and disaster services at the college. The pictures will appear in the New London “Day” on Saturday, February 28.

Conn. College Declares Open
War On Caloric Forces

By Nancy Troland '44

The Elm Tree Inn, Thursday morning, Tuesday night.

Conn. College has at last awakened and declared open war against the fifth column activities of Caloric forces, which have been slowly sapping the efficiency of student efforts.

The first bullets from the fields of battle began to appear last week, when active Steps were taken against the subtle encroachments of the enemy. Miss Lemon, explained by the CCMD (Connecticut College Doctors' Situational Declaration), has declared the war, and various rooms have been attacked through the medium of peanuts, candy bars, and fantastic ideas of the Lowellites. It is expected that the enemy will continue to attack in force, and that every student must be prepared to resist.

In the case of the Peanut Bar, the enemy has been officially declared by the CCMD, but despite the fact that bulletin has been withheld until the present time so that the enemy would not gain essential information.

The reports that the war is being fought by the following forces have been received.

1. The newest and most glamorous of the enemy groups, having propagated by the enemy to dislodge the enemy is officially denied by the CCMD.

2. The most effective of the weapons against the enemy is officially denied by the CCMD, but detailed bulletin have been withheld until the present time so that the enemy would take advantage of the war.

3. The most effective of the weapons against the enemy have been officially denied by the CCMD, but detailed bulletin have been withhold until the present time so that the enemy would not gain essential information.

The following forces have not been officially denied by the CCMD, but detailed bulletin have been withheld until the present time so that the enemy would not gain essential information.
