All of the Connecticut College classes will be represented at the Student Scientific Conference which will be held at Mount Holyoke College on April 11, 1931. The morning session will be at ten o'clock in the morning and will close at one o'clock. There will be exhibitions of flora and fauna and various experiments and demonstrations of laboratory experiments in the fields of Physics, Chemistry, Home Economics, Botany, Zoology, Mathematics, and English. Each college will give a number of demonstrations and ten-minute reports on the work and special experimentation.

Cross, now governor of Connecticut, has just been published by D. Leib, a book on Calvinism and the Church. The translator, Apollonius de Calais Differ- entialis in 1606. The author of the book, who has been taught in the Sheffield Scientific School at Yale University.

From Yale University comes the announcement that Dr. Gerald E. Jensen, assistant professor of English here at college, has been appointed by the President of the college to the newly created chair of English. The appointment came as an unexpected recognition of the work of an outstanding young man of the college. Dr. Gerald E. Jensen is a member of the English Department of the college and has been teaching there for the past three years. He is a native of Henry Fielding. It was under the guidance of Dean Williams, dean of the college, that Dr. Jensen prepared and published the first complete and definitive edition of Fielding's Works. This work will enable him to assist the keepers of rare books in getting the best copies available.

A new book, "The Mikado," has just been published by C. Heath and Company, its authors being Dr. John Lawrence Erbe, head of the music department; and John J. Kendal, director of music in the Der- nby School. The book is especially prepared for use in the Der- nby School, and is the only one of its kind in the country. The book is a valuable addition to the music library of the school, as it contains all the music of the Mikado, as well as many other operas.

Returning Alumna To Speak at Vespers
At vespers on Sunday we will wel- come as our speaker an alumna re- garded as one of the most useful and influential of our college. Her name is Miss Alice Mcconnon, all of the class of '31, and she is a student at the School of Social Work in the New York School of Social Work, and in Union Theological Seminary.

Her topic on Sunday will be "Pres- ence." The message will be read from the platform, and the service will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. John Lawrence Erbe. The service will be open to all members of the college and to their friends and guests.

Who is the Criminal?
Three undergraduates, three seniors, have been suspected of being responsible for a series of crimes which have been committed here on our campus. The nature of the crime is such that it is difficult to determine whether or not it was committed here on our campus. But that it was committed here on our campus is now being investigated by the police. It is not yet known whether or not the crime was committed by residents of the college or by visitors. It is not yet possible to say whether or not the crime was committed in the daytime or at night. It is not yet possible to say whether or not the crime was committed by one person or by a group of people.

It seems the new phone booth has a double use. People find it an excellent place to rest books and you need such smart little frocks as the Reding;te and Cloth Frocks in bright Shades.

Now that all the Basketball teams have bloomed in class colors, we can't wait to have the Freshmen appear in little Firemen's models.

With all of February's holidays exhausted, we feel rather at loose ends. What we mean is after all, it's a very nice thought for the day.

The best we can do is wish you many happy returns of February 28. It's the last day of the month and you may arrive at this conclusion by recalling the formula, "Thirty days hath September."* * * Not to be confused with Leap Year, which runs next on February 29, 1932.

The performers in the Christmas Pageant met this week to have their pictures taken. Now the question is—Which Christmas?

Murder! Murder! everywhere! When visitors come there are ten posts directing them to the various buildings. We profit by this because sometimes we forget the way to Fanning and land over by Homeport or the Tender. The performers in the Christmas Pageant met this week to have their pictures taken. Now the question is—Which Christmas?

Murder! Murder! everywhere! And what's more, the guilty party is sure to have his "Noo tu" on.

Rockwell's Annex Explains

Because so many enquire

Our Annex has a variety of features, but its primary achievement is value. By this we do not mean simply a measure of material and an amount of labor on sale for a sum of money. Rather, we mean that timelessness, suitability and good taste are combined, at prices which permit complete wardrobes for little incomes.

So in the Rockwell Annex you will find little day-time dresses for as low as $9.75, yet, each has that air of irreproachable smartness. You will find slick evening gowns, formal clothes and sport togs at only $15.95.
