She also held the office of Treasurer of A. A.

The New Honor Court judges, elected at the meeting, are: Juniors, Barbara Scott and Sabrina Burr; Sophomores, Priscilla Spalding and Elizabeth Parsons; and Freshmen, Ann Ford and Phyllis Forrey.

VESPER Speaker Chooses "WHAT IS LIFE FOR?" AS SUBJECT

"For what shall we plan?" This was the question answered by Raymond C. Knox, Chaplin of Columbia University at Vespers last Sunday evening. Wherever we look today we can see that men are urgently seeking a new vision of life. This search is the most significant and conspicuous sign of our times. The facts and circumstances of the way in which we live demand it. Even the most practical men of affairs are beginning to realize that there is a connection between high ideals and their welfare. A need is felt for a means to enlarge man's limited capacities, to increase his vigor and to direct his actions toward a new goal. In other words we need a definite answer to the question, "What is life for?"

Jesus brought the message of God on earth. As to when and how, he bade his followers to discern the signs of their times. We must, therefore, understand the events that are happening now.

With regard to doing this there are three great tasks that must be met and performed. The first problem is, "What to do with poverty?" There is no justification for the poverty that is so widespread.

"Governing a State" was the subject discussed by Governor John C. Winant of New Hampshire at the Convocation on Tuesday, March 13th. Governor Winant took a philosophical point of view, stating that happiness has to do with government because government has to do with people. Consequently it is difficult to work with and to govern people who are irritated or unhappy. There must be vision in government in order to produce a satisfied group of citizens; where there is no vision, the people perish.

What should our objectives now in government and in our general political and economic policy? Governor Winant sets two goals for us to strive towards—namely: abolishment of war and abolishment of poverty. Those of us who are old enough to remember back to 1914 have gone through one of the most destructive wars in the history of civilization and have lived to see one.

Sister, can you spare a carrot? Otherwise we may discover that a certain long-eared, twingly-nosed member of the unmeployed will have directed his energies in the wrong way. He's rather fond of the greenage near Thames Hall, it seems.

Did you see the Lady in White—or was it a gentleman—having her picture taken outside Blackstone the other day? 'S no joke—and we mean that literally.

What with snow coming and going, and hints of spring in the air, we can't decide just when we should develop spring fever. Bring back your snowshoes to play tennis, my little ones—at least that should discourage the March lion.

We wonder what a certain house elf thought when she came in one night to find the members of first floor Blackstone playing "tag of war"!! The most astounding part of it was that they seemed to prefer the corridor to their rooms.

We've got to be careful of what we say in this column. Seems that a certain neighbor of ours appreciated a recent (and none too admirable) witticism of ours.

Sih! Soph's—on the eve of mas- cot hunt! Does this mean anything to you? . . . . . . And Juniors, how about this? . . .

The Mascot hunt is going as strong as ever in my mind. Soph has even raced around to get a pair of field glasses so she could watch from across the quad the actions in a certain Junior's room. Whether she discovered the es-sential truths as a result of such original sleuthing still remains a mystery.

Kitty Coram
Rabbi ben Rabbi

INQUIRING REPORTER INTERVIEWS RABBI AND RABBIT

His long ears twitched as I approached him and now his twingly nose twingly hungry towards the carrot I offered. "Thanks," he squeaked. "Once a vegetarian, always a vegetarian, that's what I am. I attribute my good health to that," and he munchked thoughtfully.

"And who's this?" I inquired, as his companion rubbed against my leg.

"Meet Kitty Coram," he answered, between nibbles on the carrot. "Just a little waif I befriended. A fine girl—but, I must say, her ideas on eating are distinctly radical. Meat, doncha know, and all that sort of thing. Once a vegetarian, always a vegetarian, that's what I always say. She'll ruin her health if she keeps on."

Kitty purred, and looked at the Rabbi reproachfully. "Silly thing."

"Do you mind if I take your picture?" I asked, taking out my camera. The Rabbi came forward eagerly, but retreated on discovering that it wasn't munchable.

"No-o, but wait a minute. Coram, old girl, come over by this tree, better background, doncha know."

The Rabbi sat down, gazing off into space, and Kitty snuggled up beside him, watching me carefully.

"Ready! All right, then, hold that ear steady—Kitty don't twitch your tail. I clicked the camera, and then Kitty continued his rumina-tion munching.

"Do you know anything about the mascot?" I asked suddenly.

"Why, er, no," I replied. "Do you?"

"Oh my, yes!" and he twingly nose twitched his nose. "Do you remember, Kitty, the two Juniors came to our hole and asked if they might bury it there? Was sorry to refuse them, but really, it's just big enough for Coram and me to lie in."

"No-o, rubbish!" said Kitty rather tattlesly.

"Merely platonic," he answered quickly, and kerumphed off, his tall white tail hobbling in the sunlight.
Governor Winant said that we must in the future come to narrow down the financial disparity that exists between our rich and poor society, claims that are caused by cutthroat competition, starvation wages, and decreasing profits which result from the violent fluctuations in the business cycle. The evil of competition is one that must be controlled because there is a woman in public life, maintains it is done by intelligent and constructive criticism that exists between classes in our world is so thrown off balance that a woman in public life, maintaining. It is done by intelligent and constructive criticism.

The problem should be kept in mind; we must recognize our mind; we must recognize our mistakes and then to dare to follow it despite the protests of those that may be injured. Disregulation must be administered, and those who do not approve should offer intelligent and constructive criticism rather than destructive criticism, because which is not in the interests of the welfare of the people.

Governor Winant closed his talk with a few words in regard to the plan which is being attempted in his state. New Hampshire has recognized that too heavy a tax has fallen on real property, and that the heaviest element of cost to confer the public has been incurred by the necessity of caring for the unemployed. Consequently a plan has been worked out whereby social relief has been completely separated from politics, and trained social workers have been engaged. This plan is not always popular, partly because the politicians have objected, and partly because there is a woman in charge of the program. However Governor Winant, who has great faith in the opportunities for women in public life, maintains that women have been elected "as a vote of appreciation for all your past accomplishments.

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE NEWS

FREE SPEECH
Dear Editor:
Student Government is the pride of a new set of officers. We believe them capable of doing some of the positions for we, ourselves, have chosen them.
What better reason could we have for standing with them off with our utmost cooperation and encouragement? An official position is no small task. A tactful administration is no good without some "pep" and it is a difficult thing to get up before House of Rep, for example, and be a live of tired college girls with the enthusiasm that is needed to make each dorm and off-campus house an active and wide awake part of college. To those of us in particular who are familiar with activities of Student Government the opportunity and duty are given to stick by these to individuals to the end.
Next year promises to be an eventful one. With every new term, office changes and in the idea and new remedies, we would work towards a greater perfection of our entire college system.
For the simple reason that it is to our every advantage to see the new staff through, we shall support them whole-heartedly. We look forward to the future with hope and animation. We have new worlds to conquer in the field of Student Government.

RESOLUTIONS OF SMITH ANTI-WAR CONFERENCE

The following are the Resolutions and the Preamble of the Connecticut Valley Student Convention Against War which was held at Smith, February 24 and 25 and in which Connecticut College took an active part. Student interest in them is necessary if any good is to come of the conference.

Preamble

The world today is faced with the imminent danger of a second world war, a war which has been so widely condemned in Italy and Hitler in Germany openly espouses a philosophy of war. The recent conflicts in France and Austria point to the possible introduction of a similar Fascism in these countries. Japan and Germany have already withdrawn from the League of Nations. Japan's provocative policy towards the Soviet Union may any day now plunge those two countries into a conflict which might well end in a general world conflagration. Actual wars are not the only ones being waged in South America.

In the United States over half a billion dollars has been turned over to war preparations in the largest peace time appropriation in our history. The pending Vincent Navon Construction Bill provides for $570,000,000 more over the period of five years. Assistant Secretary Woodring admits the militarization of youth in the Civilian Conservation Corps and further asserts that by this summer a million young men will be enrolled in the C.C.C.

Only by understanding the fundamental causes of war, can a logical plan of opposition to war be found. We consider these basic causes to be enshrined in the need of imperialist nations for foreign and colonial sources for raw materials and markets.

Student groups which have been formed in opposition to militarization and armament conferences are co-confrmed with the Reserve Officers Training Corps in their fight against war. From 1921 to 1931 the Federal Government spent $507,000,000 for R. O. T. C. At the same time that this and other manifestations of militarization are being spread among the youth of the nation, the need of imperialist nations for raw materials and markets.

State, and Maryland Colleges for opposing the R. O. T. C.

In line with militarization in the colleges, war propaganda is becoming increasingly prevalent. Prominent among organizations advocating militarization and propaganda are the American Legion, the Reserve Officers' Association, the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Hearst newspapers.

We know that in the last war, colleges were converted into barracks and military training camps.

Efforts must be made to prevent the formation of militarization committees of educational institutions for such a purpose.

We realize that students acting by themselves are ineffective. We recognize that it is the working class that is the decisive factor in the fight against war. We therefore conclude that the most effective way for students to combat war is to unite with the working class.

With the resignation of Germany and Japan from the League of Nations, it has become increasingly evident that the "official" agencies of world peace have failed. The League of Nations, the Kellogg Pact, the International Court of Justice, will not be able to prevent war should it arise.

The situation, therefore, calls for the immediate action of all who are opposed to war. As a minimum basis for the united action of students in the Connecticut Valley, in conjunction with the nation-wide opposition to war, we have adopted the following resolutions.

Resolutions

1. We, the students of the Connecticut Valley, declare that we will support the government of the United States in no way that it undertakes.

2. We demand the complete abolition of the R. O. T. C., the funds thereof to go as federal aid to education.

3. We will oppose the utilization of the resources of educational institutions for the furtherance of war propaganda, whether in text books, courses, or lectures; we will also oppose war preparations in the chemical laboratories of our science departments.

4. We demand complete freedom of the schools, and complete freedom of speech and action in the schools. We demand the unconditional reinstatement of the students who were expelled from C. C. N. Y., California, Ohio.

5. We are opposed to the militaristic program of the United States government manifested directly in the $570,000,000 Vincent Navon Construction Bill, $1,000,000 allotted for Public Works funds for army and navy purposes; and indirectly in the militarization of youth under the guise of public works and unemployment relief, such as in the C. C. C. and R. O. T. C. We further recommend that the money used for these purposes be used for unemployment insurance.

6. We pledge our active support to the various campaigns, and the working class against war.

8. We pledge ourselves to observe April 6 to April 13 as Anti-war week, to publicize that the principle aim of the League of Nations is to prepare for war. We, further assert that by this sum-

19. We condemn the Fascist tendencies both in our own government and in any campus organization specially espoused to the recent attack of the Austrian government and the Austrian Heimwehr on the Austrian American League.

10. We pledge ourselves to support the peace policies of the Soviet Union for total and universal disarmament, and the peace policies of any other nation which will institute, or cooperate in, any such movement.

11. We pledge ourselves to cooperate individually with any organization working against war, and work for the formation of a National Student Anti-war Committee to cooperate with any such organization.

12. We resolve that the Connecticut Valley Student Convention Against War support the adopted program of this con-

13. We resolve to re- lory 1931 the Federal Government spent $507,000,000 for R. O. T. C. At the same time that this and other manifestations of militarization are being spread among the youth of the nation, the need of imperialist nations for raw materials and markets.

14. We declare ourselves in support of the National Student Anti-war Committee to be made up of delegates from all University anti-war committees.

15. We resolve not to rely passively on international disarmament in order to uphold the peace, but to support their stated objective and supplement their activity by all we ourselves can do against war.

Hey—Mr. BARRY! Haven't you a letter for me?

When you meet an old girl—from way back when—what is the first question that she asks you? Isn't it an inquiry as to whether a certain very popular man is still coming day after day to Connecticut College?

And why is it that so often the Freshmen and Sophomores in the off-campus houses are late to the 9 o'clock and 3 o'clock classes?

Well, by this time you have solved the riddle of how Mr. Barry got his new job, and know it who is that lives on in the memories of past Seniors and all those who saw him, rain or shine, Winter or Summer, walking as if the pack on his back were not a load or a duty or part of a job—but instead something that contained a surprise for every little homesick girl—or gifts from the ends of the earth for the Student.

Mr. Barry came to the college as Postman early in September, 1925. For eleven years he had taught classes come and go and he has known the girls in those classes perhaps better than any other person in the college. His knowledge of the girls has con-

The situation, therefore, calls for the immediate action of all who are opposed to war. As a minimum basis for the united action of students in the Connecticut Valley, in conjunction with the nation-wide opposition to war, we have adopted the following resolutions.

Resolved

1. We, the students of the Connecticut Valley, declare that we will support the government of the United States in no war that it undertakes.

2. We demand the complete abolition of the R. O. T. C., the funds thereof to go as federal aid to education.

3. We will oppose the utilization of the resources of educational institutions for the furtherance of war propaganda, whether in text books, courses, or lectures; we will also oppose war preparations in the chemical laboratories of our science departments.

4. We demand complete freedom of the schools, and complete freedom of speech and action in the schools. We demand the unconditional reinstatement of the students who were expelled from C. C. N. Y., California, Ohio.

5. We are opposed to the militaristic program of the United States government manifested directly in the $570,000,000 Vincent Navon Construction Bill, $1,000,000 allotted for Public Works funds for army and navy purposes; and indirectly in the militarization of youth under the guise of public works and unemployment relief, such as in the C. C. C. and R. O. T. C. We further recommend that the money used for these purposes be used for unemployment insurance.

6. We pledge our active support to the various campaigns, and the working class against war.

8. We pledge ourselves to observe April 6 to April 13 as Anti-war week, to publicize that the principle aim of the League of Nations is to prepare for war. We, further assert that by this sum-

19. We condemn the Fascist tendencies both in our own government and in any campus organization specially espoused to the recent attack of the Austrian government and the Austrian Heimwehr on the Austrian American League.

10. We pledge ourselves to support the peace policies of the Soviet Union for total and universal disarmament, and the peace policies of any other nation which will institute, or cooperate in, any such movement.

11. We pledge ourselves to cooperate individually with any organization working against war, and work for the formation of a National Student Anti-war Committee to cooperate with any such organization.

12. We resolve that the Connecticut Valley Student Convention Against War support the adopted program of this con-

13. We resolve to re- lory 1931 the Federal Government spent $507,000,000 for R. O. T. C. At the same time that this and other manifestations of militarization are being spread among the youth of the nation, the need of imperialist nations for raw materials and markets.

14. We declare ourselves in support of the National Student Anti-war Committee to be made up of delegates from all University anti-war committees.

15. We resolve not to rely passively on international disarmament in order to uphold the peace, but to support their stated objective and supplement their activity by all we ourselves can do against war.

(NSFA)—Mrs. Roosevelt and Secretary of Labor Perkins have evinced interest in a plan proposed by a college professor's wife that all able-bodied youth between 18 and 26 years should be conscripted into a vast class called the commons to grow and process food, run the nation's transportation systems and basic industries and supply the entire population with food, clothing, shelter and transportation without cost. On reaching 26 years, after eight years of public service, the "commons" becomes a member of the capitals. The necessities are provided to him but luxuries will be produced under the capitalistic system as at present. He must work if he wants the capitalistic system as at present.

We hope you like them. They are not like others.
