NEW LONDON LANDMARKS

FALL 2011 INTERNSHIP

- New London Landmarks is a non-profit corporation that promotes the preservation and development of the urban environment of New London, Connecticut, including significant individual structures, streetscapes, neighborhoods, and open spaces
- They actively work to preserve New London's historic resources through educational programs, house tours, collaborations with New London Main Street, a National Trust program, and other historic organizations in the city

SANDRA CHALK

- My mentor was Sandra (Sandy) Chalk at New London Landmarks
- Sandy and I worked together to create a historical guide that emphasizes New London's rich history and its significant buildings for OpSail 2012
- The guide offers pedestrians and cyclists an opportunity to explore the depth of New London's role in history while drawing attention to its architecture and research centers
- The guidebook, called "New London: Trails and Tales", will be free to visitors and distributed by local museums and information centers
