The piano introduction is in 3/4 time, key of B-flat major. It begins with a treble clef and a bass clef. The treble staff contains a series of chords and single notes, while the bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The tempo is marked 'Moderato' and the dynamic is 'f' (forte).

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the treble clef and piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "They say it's in Heav-en that all An-gels dwell, But I've come to Per-haps in the fu-ture I'll meet her a-gain, In that world where". The piano accompaniment is in the same key and time signature, with a dynamic marking of 'mf' (mezzo-forte).

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "learn they're on earth just as well; And how would I know that the no one knows sor-row or pain; And when that time comes and the". The piano accompaniment continues with chords and single notes.

The third line of the song concludes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "like could be so, If I had-n't found one down here be-low: last word is said, Then place on my bos-om, her band of red:". The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord.

CHORUS Tenderly

A sweet lit-tle An-gel that went o'er the sea, With the em-blem of God in her hand, — A won-der-ful An-gel who brought there to me, The sweet of a war fur-rowed land — The crown on her head was a rib-bon of red, A sym-bol of all that's di-vine, — Tho' she called each a bro-ther, she's more like a moth-er, Sal-va-tion Las-sie of mine. A mine. —

HERE it is—the song book of America—a Pocket Book of Songs—the soul of America's war-time spirit expressed in songs of cheer. Here are the songs our boys sing when they march away—the choruses they sing in trench and dugout over there—the songs they'll sing when they come marching home from victory. All of them are songs of cheer, that you love to hear, and sing and play.

They are the inspiration songs of today, the memory songs of tomorrow. You will enjoy every whit of this little volume now—and in later years you will cherish it as a treasure.

Ideal for Community Sings

"Songs of Cheer" is admirable for Community Sings and Patriotic Meetings, when everyone "voices" their loyalty and patriotism in songs of the war, of America and her fighting sons. It contains just the songs for patriots—the national anthems of America and her Allies, the war songs of today, the songs of bygone days. Then, too, its handy, pocket size makes "Songs of Cheer" very convenient to use.

Large Firms and Corporations are ordering copies of "Songs of Cheer" for all their men in the Service. No remembrance that you could send them would be so thoroughly appreciated as this little "joy bringer from the office." Figure out how many boys you have in the Service, figure all the cheer that this little book will give them for the trifling cost of 15c, and send them one today. Special attention is given to these orders.
