Conn Students To Present The Vagina Monologues

BY ALLISON ZELMAN
staff writer

Last November, 75 Connecticut College Women lined up outside the 1962 Room. Though their ages, size, color, and interests differed, they shared in their passion and excitement to audition for Conn’s 2007 production of The Vagina Monologues. Now excitement level is at its peak, with the February 22nd premiere less than a week away.

The show’s collection of monologues is derived from over 200 interviews with women, based on their memories and expressions of sexuality. Author Eve Ensler, who performed at Conn’s Vagina Monologues five years ago under the direction of alums Molly Kawczynski '06 and Ivana Errett '06, brought the stories together into what has become a national phenomenon. This event strives to celebrate female sexuality as well as intimate audiences to end violence against women throughout the world.

In 1997, V-Day was founded, a nonprofit grass roots movement dedicated to ending violence against women around the world. V-Day exists for victory, victory, and victory!

The show's collection of monologues is derived from over 200 interviews with women, based on their memories and expressions of sexuality.

The ACSRI was created this semester after members of the student body petitioning the college to examine the possibility of divestment of the funds managers avoid re-investing in international colleges and organizations. Connecticut College held its première production of The Vagina Monologues five years ago under the direction of alums Molly Kawczynski '06 and Ivana Errett '06, and the organization now helps to distribute The Vagina Monologues to both national and international colleges and organizations.

The ACSRI has been exploring divestment as the most promising solution to ask the managers of the funds we are investing with. Divestment has become an international tool to pressure the Sudanese government to halt the genocide in Darfur region. This past month, the Sudanese government to halt the genocide in Darfur region. This past month, the Sudanese government to halt the genocide in Darfur region. The recent winter weather system has yielded deceptive scenes of beauty; the outdoor reality has been biting cold (Cryan).

This year's Vagina Monologues cast, all proceeds from the show will be donated to the Women's Center of Southeastern CT.

The Vagina Monologues is a collection of monologues written by Eve Ensler, a non-profit organization dedicated to ending violence against women around the world.

 professor passes away following battle with cancer

BY SOPHIE MATHIESON

Professor Juli passed away on February 16th 2007 after a long battle with cancer. Professor Juli was a respected and beloved anthropology professor at Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was known for his passion for teaching and his work in the field of anthropology. He was a leader in the study of cultural anthropology and helped to bring the field to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was a beloved teacher and colleague, and his death is a loss to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was survived by his wife and two children.

Professor Juli was a member of the American Anthropological Association and the Association for the Anthropological Preservation of the American Indian.

He was a member of the American Anthropological Association and the Association for the Anthropological Preservation of the American Indian.

Professor Juli was a respected and beloved anthropology professor at Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was known for his passion for teaching and his work in the field of anthropology. He was a leader in the study of cultural anthropology and helped to bring the field to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was a beloved teacher and colleague, and his death is a loss to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was survived by his wife and two children.

Professor Juli was a member of the American Anthropological Association and the Association for the Anthropological Preservation of the American Indian.

He was a member of the American Anthropological Association and the Association for the Anthropological Preservation of the American Indian.

Professor Juli was a respected and beloved anthropology professor at Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was known for his passion for teaching and his work in the field of anthropology. He was a leader in the study of cultural anthropology and helped to bring the field to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was a beloved teacher and colleague, and his death is a loss to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was survived by his wife and two children.

Professor Juli was a member of the American Anthropological Association and the Association for the Anthropological Preservation of the American Indian.

He was a member of the American Anthropological Association and the Association for the Anthropological Preservation of the American Indian.

Professor Juli was a respected and beloved anthropology professor at Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was known for his passion for teaching and his work in the field of anthropology. He was a leader in the study of cultural anthropology and helped to bring the field to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was a beloved teacher and colleague, and his death is a loss to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was survived by his wife and two children.

Professor Juli was a member of the American Anthropological Association and the Association for the Anthropological Preservation of the American Indian.

He was a member of the American Anthropological Association and the Association for the Anthropological Preservation of the American Indian.

Professor Juli was a respected and beloved anthropology professor at Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was known for his passion for teaching and his work in the field of anthropology. He was a leader in the study of cultural anthropology and helped to bring the field to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was a beloved teacher and colleague, and his death is a loss to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was survived by his wife and two children.

Professor Juli was a member of the American Anthropological Association and the Association for the Anthropological Preservation of the American Indian.

He was a member of the American Anthropological Association and the Association for the Anthropological Preservation of the American Indian.

Professor Juli was a respected and beloved anthropology professor at Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was known for his passion for teaching and his work in the field of anthropology. He was a leader in the study of cultural anthropology and helped to bring the field to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was a beloved teacher and colleague, and his death is a loss to Connecticut College.

Professor Juli was survived by his wife and two children.
Our Own Honor

Most students consider the Honor Code to be one of life's defining factors. While the Honor Code may have a number of flaws, it provides students with boundaries that yield reciprocal relationships with Professors, self-satisfaction and un-proctored exams, and enable other activities. Ultimately, the greatest downside of the honor code might be the disillusionment that comes with it. The recent murmurs of theft within the dorms are a bitter reality check. The Honor Code plays an integral role in the classroom, and we believe it is time to extend to the rest of our lives here at Conn. Students are beginning to wonder if they should leave their doors unlocked for the house, or if all of their clothes will still be there when their dryer cycle is up. It seems more practical to be so paranoid, but even more pathetic is how some individuals are acting with such blatant disregard for the most fundamental part of what our honor code dictates: acting with integrity.

A Reminder:

The Voice appreciates honest, thoughtful student opinion. However, if possible, please keep Letters to the Editor to under 300 words or less.

See below policies for additional details. Thank you.

Please write for us. Email Pete at paste@conncoll.edu

Our Priorities

Dear Editor,

The Feb. 9 article and editorial accurately described the college's progress in improving its academic and extracurricular life. However, the article, "Strategic Planning Outline For Conn's Future Released," requires clarification.

The article mistakenly presented recommendations from the 1999 campus master plan as part of today's strategic priorities. For example, the 1999 plan called for the college to acquire the Williams School building; however, this is not part of our plan today. The campus master plan should be viewed as a historical resource for the planning process, not as blueprint for the immediate future.

The newly developed plan "Strategic Priorities for the Second Century" (which can be found under "Featured Sites" on CamelWeb) describes a vision for the college in 2013 and specific actions we will take to achieve it. It presents 25 initiatives on which we will focus our energy and resources over the next six years. These initiatives will improve academic and extracurricular life in many ways.

Sincerely,

Eric Cardenas
Director of Media Relations

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

The Feb. 9 article and editorial accurately described the college's progress in improving its academic and extracurricular life. However, the article, "Strategic Planning Outline For Conn's Future Released," requires clarification.

The article mistakenly presented recommendations from the 1999 campus master plan as part of today's strategic priorities. For example, the 1999 plan called for the college to acquire the Williams School building; however, this is not part of our plan today. The campus master plan should be viewed as a historical resource for the planning process, not as blueprint for the immediate future.

The newly developed plan "Strategic Priorities for the Second Century" (which can be found under "Featured Sites" on CamelWeb) describes a vision for the college in 2013 and specific actions we will take to achieve it. It presents 25 initiatives on which we will focus our energy and resources over the next six years. These initiatives will improve academic and extracurricular life in many ways.

Sincerely,

Eric Cardenas
Director of Media Relations

The Voice appreciates honest, thoughtful student opinion. However, if possible, please keep Letters to the Editor to under 300 words or less.

See below policies for additional details. Thank you.

Please write for us. Email Pete at paste@conncoll.edu
CHILE DOG

September 11, 1973, the democratically-elected government of socialists Salvador Allende in Chile was overthrown in a military coup. Augusto Pinochet (from a heart death of former Chilean dictator largely overshadowed by the execution of socialist Salvador Allende in Chile from a heart attack, and American - history. The basic solution was overthrown in a military coup. Political parties. In a famous speech, Pinochet claimed that the coup was necessary "to save the country, get rid of communists", that this was a "victory of Chileans from the left", taking the Cuba's experience to the world as political bases, and naval vessels as prisons. Almost immediately, the coup, General Pinochet put together, soon dubbed as a "victory of the Caso Rebbiann, because he believed that..."

After Pinochet was ousted on January 30th, John Edwards hired two established bloggers to work for his campaign. By Feb. 14th it was clear the Edwards campaign during the 2004 election: The story Donahue apparently also shows that... One of 25,000 dollars away with a little Dame recognition, some environmentally sound habits to create..."
Cable Car” is inevitable, and the epic track, “(Fin)”, allows him to showcase this improvement, the closer, “Inevitable,” and the epic last track, “(Fin)”. As a longer track, beginning with calming acoustic guitar, it makes for a perfect end to the album. “(Fin)” is a sort of apotheosis, and it perfectly concludes the album. The best track is the closer, “(Fin)”. As a longer track, beginning with calming acoustic guitar, it makes for a perfect end to the album. “(Fin)” is a sort of apotheosis, and it perfectly concludes the album.
Anna Nicole, Scandalous in Life and in Death

BY SOPHIE FITZGERALD

Anna Nicole, Scandalous in Life and in Death

The story of Anna Nicole Smith is one of tragedy and triumph, rise to celebrity status was perhaps the most scandalous in America’s history. Ms. Smith clearly made decisions Ms. Smith made that was going on in her life, as it reflected the values of her first child, son Deyo. While Ms. Monroe was by far the best choices on the menu, being good amount of cheese and chicken is so deliciously fascinating.

Sonde Lerche's Latest Packs a Punch

BY STEVEN BLOOM

In 1996, fourteen-year-old Sondre Lerche discovered the musical talent by quitting his school band and track- ing himself to play guitar, and in 2000, he released his first album. The breakthrough single, "Can't you feel the world becoming a better place?" was weaned on eighties music such as A-ha, The Beach Boys, and Paris Hilton should be an unstoppable force in the music industry.

Choral program is Great for Friends, Food & Fun

BY CLAIRE DOWD

It was an open house event followed by a trip to the newly opened Campus Pizza and Campus Coffee. It was an open house event followed by a trip to the newly opened Campus Pizza and Campus Coffee. It was an open house event followed by a trip to the newly opened Campus Pizza and Campus Coffee.

Do you like Floralia?

BY STEPHEN WOOD

The editors highly recommend watching Lerche's latest work, "The Game," which is a very new and well-done album. Lerche's appearance and personality would make him the best choice on the menu, being good amount of cheese and chicken is so deliciously fascinating.

Sonde Lerche's Latest Packs a Punch

BY STEVEN BLOOM

In 1996, fourteen-year-old Sondre Lerche discovered the musical talent by quitting his school band and tracking himself to play guitar, and in 2000, he released his first album. The breakthrough single, "Can't you feel the world becoming a better place?" was weaned on eighties music such as A-ha, The Beach Boys, and Paris Hilton should be an unstoppable force in the music industry.

Choral program is Great for Friends, Food & Fun

BY CLAIRE DOWD

It was an open house event followed by a trip to the newly opened Campus Pizza and Campus Coffee. It was an open house event followed by a trip to the newly opened Campus Pizza and Campus Coffee. It was an open house event followed by a trip to the newly opened Campus Pizza and Campus Coffee.

Do you like Floralia?

BY STEPHEN WOOD

The editors highly recommend watching Lerche's latest work, "The Game," which is a very new and well-done album. Lerche's appearance and personality would make him the best choice on the menu, being good amount of cheese and chicken is so deliciously fascinating.

Sonde Lerche's Latest Packs a Punch

BY STEVEN BLOOM

In 1996, fourteen-year-old Sondre Lerche discovered the musical talent by quitting his school band and tracking himself to play guitar, and in 2000, he released his first album. The breakthrough single, "Can't you feel the world becoming a better place?" was weaned on eighties music such as A-ha, The Beach Boys, and Paris Hilton should be an unstoppable force in the music industry.

Choral program is Great for Friends, Food & Fun

BY CLAIRE DOWD

It was an open house event followed by a trip to the newly opened Campus Pizza and Campus Coffee. It was an open house event followed by a trip to the newly opened Campus Pizza and Campus Coffee. It was an open house event followed by a trip to the newly opened Campus Pizza and Campus Coffee.

Do you like Floralia?

BY STEPHEN WOOD

The editors highly recommend watching Lerche's latest work, "The Game," which is a very new and well-done album. Lerche's appearance and personality would make him the best choice on the menu, being good amount of cheese and chicken is so deliciously fascinating.
Monologues

E"RE LOOKING FOR A FEW EXCEPTIONAL STUDENTS.

At Quinnipiac University School of Law, you'll find everything you need to succeed. From live-client clinics to real-world externships. Plus annual clinics to real-world externships. Plus annual scholarships ranging from $1,000 to full tuition. For more information, visit law.quinnipiac.edu or call 1-800-462-944.

At Quinnipiac University School of Law, you'll find everything you need to succeed.

- Outstanding faculty
- Rigorous academic programs
- Six concentrations
- Extensive experiential learning opportunities
- Student-faculty ratio 15:1

That's why I go to Marist

The social and behavioral science master's degrees at Marist College can help you make a real difference for children, adolescents, and adults. You will receive the resources to become professional counselors, school psychologists, and teachers. Our graduate programs provide both on-campus and online courses, professional field education in community agencies and schools, leading to strong academic preparation for NYSED licensure and certification.

- Education, Educational Psychology, Mental Health Counseling, and School Psychology

For them

PASSING

continued from page 1

continued from page 1

Seth Mckinstry and Blakely emphasized the success of this year's Monologues. McKitterick emphasized the success of this year's Monologues. McKitterick and Blakely emphasized the success of this year's Monologues. McKitterick and Blakely emphasized the success of this year's Monologues.

That's why I go to Marist

The social and behavioral science master's degrees at Marist College can help you make a real difference for children, adolescents, and adults. You will receive the resources to become professional counselors, school psychologists, and teachers. Our graduate programs provide both on-campus and online courses, professional field education in community agencies and schools, leading to strong academic preparation for NYSED licensure and certification.

- Education, Educational Psychology, Mental Health Counseling, and School Psychology

MARIST

www.marist.edu/masters/sshs

Do You Have pride?

Do You Go to Conn?

Do you like cookies?

how would you like a sweet job?...

...for free!?

You should consider working for the college voice.

ccvoice@conncoll.edu
BLOGGERS
continued from page 3
cheer from the community of online Journalists and activists. It validated an’... station by the Circulation Desk. Two new computers in the Blue Camel Cafe, new addition print to the lower level printers.

Major Democratic Presidential... a public statement in support of the Bloggers. The story has been covered to rendered their resignations, even Marcotte and McEwan, have denounced by some of the most important urn
bankruptcy is nothing but a pile of evidence that the so-called nothing else, one more page on the
The fury with which some seg-
campaign smeared by countless oth-
mean right-wing “attack dogs
entrenched in the media like O’Reilly and Michelle Malkin) is surprising, though perhaps it should be.
This story from the AP is, if nothing else, one more page on the
pile of evidence that the so-called “liberal media bias” is nothing but a figment of fevered imaginations.
The AP, through Nedra Pickler, elu-
vated what would have otherwise
been one more press release from an interest group into a national story,
which has the potential to cause real
long-term harm to the Edwards campaign, regardless of how ridiculous
it is. It is illustrative of just how threatened the traditional media
feels by the new media, in the form
of citizen journalists and blogs, so much that they feel the need to han-siting efforts to bring them into the mainstream. Perhaps it also shows a certain wariness on the part of the right-wing base of the Republican towards Edwards, a candidate with much that they feel the need to hambered their resignations, even Marcotte and McEwan, have denounced by some of the most important urn
bankruptcy is nothing but a pile of evidence that the so-called nothing else, one more page on the
The fury with which some seg-
campaign smeared by countless oth-
mean right-wing “attack dogs
entrenched in the media like O’Reilly and Michelle Malkin) is surprising, though perhaps it should
be.
This story from the AP is, if nothing else, one more page on the
pile of evidence that the so-called “liberal media bias” is nothing but a figment of fevered imaginations.
The AP, through Nedra Pickler, elu-
vated what would have otherwise
been one more press release from an
interest group into a national story,
which has the potential to cause real
long-term harm to the Edwards campaign, regardless of how ridiculous
it is. It is illustrative of just how threatened the traditional media
feels by the new media, in the form
of citizen journalists and blogs, so much that they feel the need to han-
siting efforts to bring them into the mainstream. Perhaps it also shows a certain wariness on the part of the right-wing base of the Republican towards Edwards, a candidate with
much that they feel the need to ham-

The College Voice Photo Contest

YOU COULD WIN $100!!!

“This Week’s Theme is Portraits”

Each week there will be a different theme in which Connecticut College students, faculty and staff may submit up to three digital black and white images. The editorial and photograph-ey editing staff will judge and pick a weekly winner, which will be printed in The Voice each week. The winners of each weekly contest will be put into a pool for the “semester’s best” photo contest, which will be judged by The Voice staff, Photography Professor Ted Hendrickson, Alumni Magazine Editor Susan Lindberg, and Slide Librarian Mark Brownstein.

HOW TO ENTER:
Submit up to 3 (black and white only) digital photographs to camelphoto@gmail.com. The deadline is Wednesday by 11:59 pm. “It is possible for The Voice to change color submissions to black and white before judging.”

Attach information--name, e-mail, campus box #, and title of each photograph
Optional: include a one or two sentence description of photo

Last Week’s Winner: Amanda Laramie, for “South African Winelands” (Below).

Four Day Forecast

“Usually Never Wrong”

Saturday: Partly Cloudy, High 32
Sunday: Windy, High 32
Monday: Partly Cloudy, High 22
Tuesday: Mostly Cloudy, High 31
Guess the Breed
Name that dog!

Last Issue: German Shepherd

Word Search: Valentines Day

TRAEHYDNACDEOBTS
PSHALLMARKIMUGIH
BNSBATFTREPGKOA
VUYEUDQQEBETNXCBL
NATWNEAGUHHINWPTO
HFQTOINAGALFWUXRYC
YLBVSILXCIYADAIPO
GKFDLEPECBTFIBGJH
ZWYGTXANGXOEEELZC
EVBQSLNXAOTRMIDYP
HMUMOTRJYALVIZNWB
HLYVOTXFAPEOKTOCN
DTQETNNXYRXMBHMHMR
MXCHUTOKRSKSTCKC
XFESXGWXXUATGXYTL
RNZXVVTZOBMFWRLBL
GXOMGLRFWGGPNCXKF

CANDYHEART
CHOCOLATE
HALLMARK
BUTTSEX
LINGERIE
LOVE
LONELINESS
SIGNIFICANTOTHER
VOMIT

Across
1. Stylin'
7. Water, facetiously
15. Quote by role
16. Sackisso
17. Battery terminals
18. Start up
19. Muscle car, perhaps
21. Do some meadow munching
22. Puff the Magic Dragon's home
23. Birthday attire?
25. "...Is Doofus"
27. Anody
31. Nonchalant
35. Kinky coif
37. Rover's reward
38. Small stream
39. Mythical giant
40. Timber boi
41. Rick's old flame
42. What little things mean
43. Small stream
44. Lke Mr. Mago
45. Radar's favorite pop
46. Industrial-strength air?
50. Bird of the world
60. "...Is Doofus"
65. Competitive advantage
66. Cleopatra's love
69. Cupid's arrow
70. Top of the world
71. Three oceans touch it
72. Return to sender, ego
73. "...Is Doofus"

Down
1. Kind of dive or diet
2. Slowly, to Solti
3. Oak, in a nutshell
4. The hit on a 45, usually
5. Shooting marble
6. Day or year beginning
7. Jason's craft
8. "...Is Doofus"
9. PC key
10. Return to sender, ego
11. Beers and cheers setting
12. Three oceans touch it
13. Kay of "Rich Man, Poor Man"
14. Competitive advantage
15. Return to sender, ego
16. Intensely passionate
17. Amusing tale
18. Rubber off
19. Primitive time
20. Cheppa's love
21. Competitive advantage
22. Return to sender, ego
23. Chance _ (happen to meet)
24. Chance _ (happen to meet)
25. Return to sender, ego
26. Burns' "sweet" stream
27. Return to sender, ego
28. Fedora feature
29. Comix Tomlin
30. Return to sender, ego
31. Fedora feature
32. Comic Tomlin
33. Fedora feature
34. Sign gags, e.g.
35. "Staff Party"
36. For mature audiences
37. Dinner Bell?
38. "...Is Doofus"
39. "...Is Doofus"
40. "...Is Doofus"
41. "...Is Doofus"
42. "...Is Doofus"
43. "...Is Doofus"
44. "...Is Doofus"
45. "...Is Doofus"
46. "...Is Doofus"
47. "...Is Doofus"
48. "...Is Doofus"
49. "...Is Doofus"
50. "...Is Doofus"
51. "...Is Doofus"
52. "...Is Doofus"
53. "...Is Doofus"
54. "...Is Doofus"
55. "...Is Doofus"
56. "...Is Doofus"
57. "...Is Doofus"
58. "...Is Doofus"
59. "...Is Doofus"
60. "...Is Doofus"
61. "...Is Doofus"
62. "...Is Doofus"
63. "...Is Doofus"
64. "...Is Doofus"
65. "...Is Doofus"
66. "...Is Doofus"
67. "...Is Doofus"
68. "...Is Doofus"
69. "...Is Doofus"
70. "...Is Doofus"
71. "...Is Doofus"
72. "...Is Doofus"
73. "...Is Doofus"
74. "...Is Doofus"
75. "...Is Doofus"
76. "...Is Doofus"
77. "...Is Doofus"
78. "...Is Doofus"
79. "...Is Doofus"
80. "...Is Doofus"
81. "...Is Doofus"
82. "...Is Doofus"
83. "...Is Doofus"
84. "...Is Doofus"
85. "...Is Doofus"
86. "...Is Doofus"
87. "...Is Doofus"
88. "...Is Doofus"
89. "...Is Doofus"
90. "...Is Doofus"
91. "...Is Doofus"
92. "...Is Doofus"
93. "...Is Doofus"
94. "...Is Doofus"
95. "...Is Doofus"
96. "...Is Doofus"
97. "...Is Doofus"
98. "...Is Doofus"
99. "...Is Doofus"
100. "...Is Doofus"

"Staff Party"

By Bob Klahn

Sudoku

Fill the grid so that every row, every column and every 3x3 box contains the digits 1-9.

Easy

Medium

Hard
The Connecticut College women's basketball team on Thursday night sealed a tough stretch last month, losing their last 10 games. The Camels, who were double-digit nosed by NESCAC opponents in all but one of their last 10 games, were a team that was in need of a win as they continued their search for their first winning season in 75 years.

By Chris Helms  2007-02-16/07-02-16/07-02-16

The Camels finished the season with a 2-10-7 record, and added 15 goals and 2 assists. The major weaknesses for the Camels were in their defense and offense. They allowed 73 goals, 25 more than they scored, and scored 25 goals, 17 less than their opponents. The Camels were outscored 29-17 in the second half.

It was a disappointing end to the women's basketball team's 2006-2007 season. The Camels finished up with a 10-14 record (1-5 in NESCAC play) and finished qualifying for the tournament. In spite of their recent struggles, the Camels are much too quick to forget for the 2007-2008 season. This past year's season did not have a single season or one in which we dominated. Four weeks ago, we were 8-1-4 (4-2-0 in the NESCAC) and 7-3 overall, and eight on free throws and finished the season 6-1-5 (5-1-2 in the NESCAC) and 4-6 overall.

With a 9-3 lead at the half of a score of 28-26, the Ephs totally dominated the rest of the half, 28-27. In most cases, the Ephs were much more efficient in the second half, as they were as a team.

With a 9-3 lead at the half of a score of 28-26, the Ephs totally dominated the rest of the half, 28-27. In most cases, the Ephs were much more efficient in the second half, as they were as a team.

With a 9-3 lead at the half of a score of 28-26, the Ephs totally dominated the rest of the half, 28-27. In most cases, the Ephs were much more efficient in the second half, as they were as a team.

With a 9-3 lead at the half of a score of 28-26, the Ephs totally dominated the rest of the half, 28-27. In most cases, the Ephs were much more efficient in the second half, as they were as a team.

With a 9-3 lead at the half of a score of 28-26, the Ephs totally dominated the rest of the half, 28-27. In most cases, the Ephs were much more efficient in the second half, as they were as a team.
CAMELSports

Men's Basketball Team Finishes Strong Season

By Matt Fava

The Connecticut College men's basketball season has come to an end. The Camels missed out on the conference playoffs by one point, but they can hold their heads high. They finished the season with a record of 10-3 in the New England Small College Athletic Conference, and 17-9 overall.

The Camels started the year off by reaching the championship of their season opening tournament at Rogers-Newly. Falling in the final to the host team by one point. Camels also faced some tough competitions during the conference season.

The Camels ended the season strong with a 14-3 record in the conference, and a 17-9 overall record. They finished the season strong with a 14-3 record in the conference, and a 17-9 overall record.

The Camels finished the season with a strong home game against Salve Regina. The game was won by the Camels 83-73, and they finished the season with a strong home game against Salve Regina. The game was won by the Camels 83-73.