Professor Tillich Of Harvard Speaks At VesperS Sunday

The speaker at the vesper service on Sunday night will be Paul Tillich, appointed last year to the high er office of university professor at Harvard University. Preparing his education in Germany, he has taught in the Universities of Berlin, Marburg, Dresden, Leipzig, and Frankfurt on Main, Continuing to America in 1933, he has been, until his Harvard appointment, professor of philosophical theology in Union Theological Seminary, New York.

Dr. Tillich is recognized as one of the outstanding religious thinkers in the world today, and an authority not only in theology and the philosophy of religion, but in social ethics as well. He is the author of numerous volumes, notable among which is his Systematic Theology. He has also written several plays which have been published in leading social and religious periodicals.

Professor Tillich has been a free-

C. Ch. Choir, MIT Glee Club Give Israel in Egypt

On Sunday, March 18, at 4:00

P.M., the Pennsylvania College

Choir together with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Orchestra will present a performance of Israel in Egypt, by Georg Friedrich Handel. The performance will be in the Eastern Connecticut Symphonic

Orchestra. The soloists will be

Helen Bonnkorst, soprano, Mrs.

Mary Langdon, contralto, and Gay by Cornelia Otis Skinner.

Reserved tickets will be available in each dormitory through the activity of the Senior play it profitably with Italian opera. His first successes were therefore with operas in La Scala at Rome. He then turned to oratorio frequently in order to oblige him. In 1927 he made an concerto as a ballet to attract an audi-tence, and it was with this combination that Israel in Egypt was first performed on April 15, 1738.

The performance of this oratorio will be the same as Saul and two years before Quebec—Charlottetown.

That is, it will be well received, at least in some quarters, is evident from the following excerpt from a letter written probably by Richard Wesley, which appeared in the Lo-nector.

The fame of Handel today rests largely on his oratorios. However, when this German born composer first came to England in 1711, London was infatuated with the Italian style. He made a forty with his Italian opus. His first successes were therefore with operas in La Scala at Rome. He then

DELIVERY TO THE CAMPUS EVERY DAY

Dear Sue,

I have always found the Connecticut College News to be a valuable source of information for the students. It covers a wide range of topics, from campus events to local news. I appreciate the efforts of the editors and staff to keep us informed.

Carol Reeves

Nancy Dorian is a candidate for Speaker of the House. Last year Nancy was first dorm President of Winthrop, then Class President and this year she is an Honor Court Judge. Nancy is majoring in English, and besides it her interests range from sports to music. She is head of AA and Individual Sports Coordinator on the AA council. Music-wise Nancy sings in the Choir, and as she is skilled with a mandolin, she has played in short mandolin-guitar concerts at various club meetings on campus.

President of AA

Peggy Shaw

Physical Education major. Peggy's first connection with AA was as Dorm Representative for Visual, her freshman year. The following year she was Sports Photographer on the AA Council and as a junior she is Team Sports Co-ordinator for AA. For the past two years Peggy has won the Charlotte A. Payne Memorial Trophy for her year's best all-round athlete. Her athletic prowess is revealed in the fact that she has been a member of the basketball, hockey, volleyball and softball Honor teams and played on her class teams in all those sports plus tennis. In an office outside the college Peggy is President of the New London Hockey Club under the Spyvaneau Hockey Association. Aside from sports Peggy has this year and last been Treasurer of the Rec Hall Fund of the Student-Alumnae Building Fund Committee and this year is House Junior for Vital Cottage.

College Bills Due May 15 This Year

Attention should be called to the fact that the date for the first payment of $100 on college bills for 1956-1957 has been changed from July 15 to May 15, 1956. A notice to this effect is on the All College bulletin board in Panama.

The reason for this change has been given by President Park: "Because of the increased number of applicants for the Freshman Class, it is necessary for the College to know by May 15 how many present students expect to enroll next year."

Students are asked to notify their parents of the change in date for this $100 payment. An official statement will be sent to parents by the Bursar's Office in April.

Payment of this $100 must be made by May 15 in order to hold a place on the College list for the academic year 1956-1957.
