D. MERRILL CHOSEN AS PRESIDENT OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Body has again voted for the office of Student Government President and chosen Dorothy Merrill to lead them for the next year.

She has been one of the most outstanding members of the class of 1934. As a Freshman, "Dodie" was Chairman of Parentage, which was one of the finest ever presented. The next year she was chosen as President of the Sophomore Class, in which position she distinguished herself as leader and organizer. This past year she has been Speaker of the College Representatives, and thus proved herself fitted for the work of governing the student body.

"Dodie" came here after taking a Post Graduate course at Newton High School, Newton, Mass. She is the daughter of a member of the faculty of Aleppo College in Aleppo, Syria, and has spent most of her previous school life at the American School in Beirut, Syria.

DATA BEING COLLECTED ON Colds AT C. C.

(For Dr. Scoville, M.D.)

We should like to announce for the benefit of you who faithfully turn in weekly reports of illness —that these records are not filed away unnoticed. The tabulated reports finally reach the doctor's office where the data contained are being compiled for study and comparison with other studies of a kindred nature.

We know how many colds are reported by each class each week, and we know how many colds are by classes, the percentages for the entire student body, the total for this year, and the average of colds by classes, the present Sophomore Class, a large increase in the averages of the present Sophomore Class.

Class of 1934 — Catherine L. Baker, Emily Smith Etting, Ruth M. Lister, Elizabeth Cary Bauer, Anne G. Shewell, Alice Galante, (Continued on page 4, column 1)

FACULTY TO GIVE PLAYS

The faculty, under the direction of Mr. Heggarty, will produce A Night at an Inn by Lord Dunsany. Shall We Join the Lads? by Sir James Barrie, and Riders to the Sea by John Synge. Although the date is as yet uncertain, the plays will probably take place on the twenty-first of March in the gymnasium. There will be a charge of twenty-five cents admission for faculty and students, to cover expenses incurred by payment for royalty.

Those participating in the plays will be: Dr. Roberts, Dr. Leib, Mr. Selden, Mr. Kinsey, Dr. Daghlin, Mr. Abbot, Dr. Lautenstein, Miss Ebert, Mrs. by, Mr. Cobbledick, Mr. Trotta, Mrs. Morris, Miss Felker, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Sumner, Miss Oakes, Mr. Heggarty, Miss Ramsey, Miss Fielding, Miss Woolley, Miss Blagg, Miss Chevaller and Miss Wheaton. Miss Hanson is the stage director.

DAME CROWDY STRESSES NEED FOR WOMEN IN INTERNATIONAL WORK

"The greatest work of international significance done by women has been in the fields of health and social welfare. This work is valuable because women really expect to influence world affairs until they are in the Diplomatic Services," said Dame Rachel Crowdy, who spoke at Convocation, Tuesday afternoon, March 7. Her subject was "Women in International Affairs."

So far women have not gained very much influence in international affairs. Their right to vote has not brought a Utopia. At present eight or ten countries have women consuls, and but two have had women as ministers. Of the few women sent to the League as representatives, only three have been distinguished.

Two Scandinavian women have been influential on the commission and in the work of rescuing Armenian women and children sold by the Turks as slaves after the war. Miss Grace Abbot, an American observer, and head of the child welfare department, of the division on labor, has been active in influencing the investigation of the white slave traffic, and the resulting passage of laws in many countries increasing the marriage age.

Women may gain more influence if they will be more than students of it. Another is a certain human sympathy and understanding of the world. Women, for example, have been much interested in the development of women in the League may be interested in the development of women in the world. Women, for example, have been much interested in the development of women in the world. Women, for example, may have been much interested in the development of women's sports, and in the work of rescuing Armenian women and children sold by the Turks as slaves after the war. Miss Grace Abbot, an American observer, and head of the child welfare department, of the division on labor, has been active in influencing the investigation of the white slave traffic, and the resulting passage of laws in many countries increasing the marriage age.

Women may gain more influence if they will be more than students of it. Another is a certain human sympathy and understanding of the world. Women, for example, may have been much interested in the development of women's sports, and in the work of rescuing Armenian women and children sold by the Turks as slaves after the war. Miss Grace Abbot, an American observer, and head of the child welfare department, of the division on labor, has been active in influencing the investigation of the white slave traffic, and the resulting passage of laws in many countries increasing the marriage age.
It's no time for hysteria and panic. Neither will help mend the situation. There are always some, there always will be, some people that spirit and high intelligence which has carried us through former crises. This is no time for whining or worse, indifferently. We have not seen the worst side of this depression. We have not the intelligence to see that this is the time to do likewise, or by hoarding and the like. They have not the intelligence to understand that the way to get out of the banks, by influencing others, or by waiting, or by hoarding. They are not the type and even if I were I would not do any such thing as wear one and add to the colossal conceit of the opposite sex. When my brothers come around and plead with me to loan them my wedding ring—that, I hope, will be time enough to don masculine apparel.

I'll see you next week. Doggedly,

DIZZIE.

MISS TOYLESER SPEAKER

Miss Tousley, assistant director of the Charity Organization Society, will be the guest speaker on Monday, March 16th, at four o'clock in Fanning 206. Miss Tousley has been a social worker for forty years. She is a member of the Juvenile Court and from a small position to her present one, which is largely a position of interpretation, an exceedingly hard task in the critical situation that the world is in today.

She is visiting Connecticut especially to talk informally, Monday evening at President Blunt's house, to Juniors, who are interested in "Junior Month." She is particularly qualified to do this because she is a graduate of Wesleyan University and has Athlete's Foot.

I'll see you next week.

DIZZIE.

STUDENTS DINE WITH THE ACADEMY CLUB

The Rotary Club of New London entertained about thirty members of the student body at dinner at their meeting on Thursday night, March 12th. The students were daughters, nieces or granddaughters of Rotary Club members from all over the country. Mr. Frederick S. Weld, the Club President, welcomed President Blunt and the student guests. The speaker of the day was Dr. James L. McConaughy, President of Wesleyan University. The affair was greatly appreciated by those present for it gave them an opportunity to meet some of the leading citizens of New London.

DR. COFFIN AT VESPERS

(Often interpreted as a commentary on the present crisis.

WHAT IS OUR ATTITUDE TO BE IN THE PRESENT CRISIS?

This "Youth Movement" suggested it will be entirely a serious one, with the aim of educating those of us who are interested—and we all should be—becoming useful and important factors

CAMPUS CHARACTERS

She is quite short and a bit plump, with merrily twinkling eyes, and rosy cheeks. Her dark curly hair is most amazing—one day it Hottentot's about her head, and the next it is just the ordinary, calmly growing into the neat roll in the back. She is a peppy soul, and enthusiastic about most everything. Most of us won't forget her, with her "little girl" dress, and yellow hair ribbon cocked on the top of her head; and curiously imitating certain characters around campus! She sees the funny side of everything—books, people, events, and all. And yet she has her serious moments, too.

THE PROFESSOR'S CHAIR

Here is another test given to a Psychology class. It is a study of the effectiveness of slogans in popular movements. Because of the many brands represented, the following slogans can you remember? The answers will be given next week.

1. Time to retire.
2. The Instrument of the Immortals.
3. Great as it Sweeps as it Cleans.
4. Ask the man who owns one.
5. The Eves of the World.
6. Sweats it with.
7. The skin you love to touch.
8. Hasn't scratched yet.
10. But imagining how good one would taste right now!
11. It's dated.
12. His Master's Voice.
13. Sweetheart of the Corn.
15. Her longest walk is from the house to the car and yet she has Athlete's Foot.
16. It floats.
17. The beer that made Milwaukee famous.
18. Eventually, why not now?
19. When it rains it pours.
20. The flavor lasts.
21. All the news that's fit to print.
22. No. 1 for teeth easy to whiten.
23. Good roads at low cost.
24. It's toasted.
25. Chases Dirt.
26. It's toasted.
27. Its toasted.
28. It floats.
29. The flavor lasts.
30. All the news that's fit to print.
31. No. 1 for teeth easy to whiten.
32. Good roads at low cost.
33. It's toasted.
34. Chases Dirt.

Congratulations, Mr. President, for your splendid reception of the students of Wesleyan University and for the beautiful reception which you and Mrs. President so kindly gave to the students of Connecticut College. It was a welcome sight on your part to see the students of both colleges so enthusiastically enjoying each other's company. It is something that Connecticut College needs to be able to do in order to make its students feel at home in New London.

Lizzie and Dizzie
questions. As he is a Socialist, he advocates a socialization of banks. He stated the fact that there are fewer banks and that these banks are controlled by the government. This does away with most of the capitalist power and the profit sought by private owners of banks. One of the most important effects of socialist and national control is the tendency to socialize under socialized banks.

An impartial president or board is more likely to control one of the main causes of the present depression—the over-expansion of industry.

Mr. Niebuhr agrees with Walter Lippmann in the fact that this present crisis is a “good one.” If everyone is “in the same boat” and all of the banks go under, a radical action will have to be taken. But if public interest wanes through any alleviation of the trouble and merely make shift laws are passed, there will be no doubt that another depression will come similar to this one.

One of the most interesting topics discussed was that brought up by a group of students who are interested in starting a Youth Movement among the students of this country. The speaker was asked to give his ideas on what could be done while one was still in college and had the advantage of a fresh, impartial, and detached view of affairs. Dampening the spirits of all there, he said that help can only come after one has gotten out in the world and has a stake there. He said that all through history it was the students and the women who were the liberated ones who never managed to accomplish any great change in the world. He suggested that one become settled in some one business, “get a stake” and then begin to do whatever one could to make the world better.

The need today is for campus organizations for discussions that will make the student alive to the complex situations of the world and make them determined not to falter in the face of difficulties.

VACATION COMING!

The railroad representatives will be at the college in room 110 on Tuesday afternoon, March fourteenth, from twelve to four o’clock, to take advantage of the reservations for spring vacation, and again on Tuesday afternoon, March twenty-first, from twelve to four o’clock, to deliver their reservations.

University of California students who have a grade of “A” for a course at the end of the first four weeks do not have to continue the course. They get a five dollar refund on their tuition.

COLLEGE STUDENTS

We are in the position to let you know that we are allowing you to replace the same with a new pair of leather from Top to Toe in Rockwell & Co. 253 State Street.
The senior crisis has very definitely put American students on a plane of spiritual fellowship with European students, said Professor Clarence Shed the at Vespers on March 8. We, over here, are now experiencing what the foreign students have known for ten or more years. We can learn much from their example.

It is true as Roosevelt said in his inaugural address, that we are a "stricken nation in a stricken world." All countries are in trouble, and we are now serious trouble ourselves. Those hardest hit are the youth of the nations. Their future is obscure. Even through planning and imagination we cannot look ahead. American youth is coming to feel a spirit of fellowship with Europe and other young people who have been blocked, whose future is so uncertain and who are suffering financially, materially and psychologically.

What has the youth of other nations done? What must we do to them this stricken world? We must learn to respond to a new kind of obedience and leadership. The youth of the world is looking to its leaders, in religion and political fields. We must find leaders but we must be prepared to give them open obedience.

We should follow the example of European students and start self-help from within. We should see that our colleges are filled with a spirit of self-sacrifice and Christian ideals for the life of the whole world.

According to the Southwark Phoenix, one of the Greek-lettered gentlemen who had lost his pin, went to a pawn shop in search of a new one at a nominal fee—and the dealer refused to sell him one, saying that he had a standing order from a group of Christian ideals for the life of the whole world.

The Chamber of Commerce of New London is considering the project of a municipal golf course. Connecticut College has offered some of the college property for the course, and the father of Dorothy Prude of the class of 1929, of New Haven, a golf architect, has made the college a gift of plans for the course. The decision of the Chamber of Commerce will be announced sometime in the near future.

Clark's Beauty Parlor
PEARL R. HOPKINS
Permanent Waving and All Branches of Beauty Culture
17 Union Street Phone 7448

Get it at
STARR BROS., INC.
Druggists
For Appointment Tel. 3202

High Grade Portraits at Popular Prices
CASTALDI STUDIO
84 State Street Crown Building Discount to the College

SLIP ON $1.75

The Mariners Savings Bank
A Mutual Savings Bank founded in 1867

For SMARTNESS for DURABILITY and ECONOMY we recommend
"WEAR RIGHT" KIDS LOVES at $1.98-$2.50-$2.98 a pair

Every WANTED FALL SHADE and STYLE
THE BEE HIVE A DEPARTMENT STORE