GOVERNMENT'S OBJECTIVE IS TO END POVERTY
SAYS JOHN WINANT

He is Convocation Speaker

Problems of Today's Crisis

Are Due to World War

Must Find New Plan

"Governing a State" was the subject discussed by Governor John C. Winant of New Hampshire at the Convocation on Tuesday, March 13th. Governor Winant took a philosophical point of view, stating that happiness has to do with government because government has to do with people. Consequently it is difficult to work with and to govern people who are irritated or unhappy. There must be vision in government in order to produce a satisfied group of citizens; where there is no vision, the people perish.

What should be our objectives now in government and in our general political and economic policy? Governor Winant sees two goals for us to strive toward: namely: abolition of war and abolition of poverty. Those of us who are old enough to remember back to 1914 have gone through one of the most destructive wars in the history of civilization and have lived to see one.

(Continued on page 3, column 4)

DEPEW AND HARBURGER ELECTED
HEADS OF SERVICE LEAGUE AND A. A.

BY UNANIMOUS VOTE OF STUDENTS

JO MERRICK ELECTED
 SPEAKER OF HOUSE

SAWTELLE CHOSEN VICE-PRESIDENT OF STU. G.

Honor Court Judges Elected

At the third Student Government meeting held in the Gym on Thursday, March 8th, Josephine Merrick '36, was announced as the new Speaker of the House of Representatives. "Jo" is well known around campus, having held the office of president of her class during Freshman year and taken an active interest in all sports activities both last year and this. This year she also held the office of Treasurer of A. A.

The New Honor Court judges, elected at the meeting, are: Juniors, Barbara Scott and Sabrina Burr; Sophomores, Priscilla Spaulding and Elizabeth Parsons; and Freshmen, Ann Ford and Dulcille Forcier.

Priscilla Sawtelle has been elected Vice-President of Student Government. Previously she has been very active on campus, holding many offices, including class song leader and Speaker of the House.

CENTRCONCATED ACTIVITY

IS FEATURE OF DRIVE FOR SCHOLARSHIPS

"Depression Dinners" Will Help Raise Money

Off-Campus Activity
Will be Bridge Parties

Held in Main Cities

Something new has been started this year in the way of a drive for scholarship funds. President Hulitt made a point at this drive in her regular talk at chapel on Tuesday. The activity has been divided into two sections—an off-campus drive, which will take the form of bridge parties to be held in the main cities over the country on the Wednesday of vacation and an on-campus drive which will take the form of two or three "depression dinners." Mary Carlow '34, is in charge of the off-campus drive, and Barbara Stott '35, will take charge of the on-campus activities. Various girls will be appointed as sub-chairmen to take command of the bridge parties in which it is hoped that students and alumnae will.

(Continued on page 3, column 4)

ALBREE CHOSEN HEAD OF DRAMATIC CLUB

Marion Warren Elected
Editor-in-Chief of "News"

Dworski Heads Pressboard

Five new officers were elected at the Student Government Amalgamation Meeting in the Gym on Monday night. In quick succession two unanimous motions for the President of Service League and the President of the Athletic Association were taken. Hazel Depew '35, and Charlotte Harburger '36, were elected respectively.

Hazel Depew has held many offices while in college, one of which was director of Freshman Pageant. This past year she has been Chairman of Entertainment in Service League and the many pleasant dances and concerts are the result of her initiative and hard work.

Harburger is well known for her amazing good-will.

(Continued on page 5, column 4)

SPANISH CLUB MEETING

Mexican Dancing
Spanish Songs
Discussion Refreshments

April 10th

at 7:30 in Knowlton House

TWENTY-FIVE FROM CONN.
COLLEGE ATTEND THE 7th MODEL LEAGUE

Procedure Consistent

With League at Geneva

The seventh annual meeting of the Model League of Nations took place on the campuses of Harvard and Radcliffe colleges on March 8th, 9th and 10th. Thirty-one colleges from all over New England were represented. The procedure at the League was very formal and in accurate accordance with that of the League of Nations at Geneva.

The delegation from Connecticut represented Roumania and Czechoslovakia, each delegate being assigned to a specific committee. The committees and their subjects were as follows:

Committee No. 1—Legal and Constitutional Questions. Subject: The Reorganization of the Covenant of the League and the Peace Treaties. Marjory Looser and Lydia Albree were the dele-

(Continued on page 5, column 5)
Connecticut College News

Published by the students of Connecticut College since 1916.

Published every Wednesday except during mid-years and vacations.

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE NEWS

ConnecticutCollegeNewsESTABLISHED 1916

Published by the students of Connecticut College...

Sister, can you spare a carrot?

Otherwise we may discover that a certain long-eared, twinkly-eyed member of the unmeployed will have directed his energies in the wrong way. He's rather fond of the greengrease near Thames Hall, it seems!

Did you see the Lady in White over it a gentleman—having her picture taken outside Blackstone the other day? It's no joke—and we mean that literally.

What with snow coming and going, and hints of spring in the air, we can't decide just when we should develop spring fever. Bring back your snowshoes to play tennis, my little ones—at least that should discourage the March lion.

We wonder what a certain houseelf thought when she came in one night to find the members of first floor Blackstone playing "tag of war"! The most astonishing part of it was that they seemed to prefer the corridor to their rooms.

We've got to be careful of what we say in this column. Seems that a certain neighbor of ours appreciated a recent (and none too admirable) wisecrack of ours!

Ssh! Sophia—on the eve of мас- cat hunt? Does this mean anything to you? ...and Juniors, how about this? ...and...

The Mascot hunt is going as strong as ever in this month. Sophia has now even raced around to get a pair of field glasses so she could watch from across the Quad the actions in a certain Junior's room. Whether she discovered the essential truths as a result of such original sleuthing still remains a mystery.

Inquiring Reporter Interviews Rabbit-Rabbit

His long ears twitched as I approached him and now he twirled hungrily towards the carrot I offered. "Thanks," he squeaked. "Once a vegetarian, always a vegetarian, that's what I am." He attributes his health to that, and he munches thoughtfully.

And who's this? I inquired, as his companion rubbed against my leg.

"Meet Kitty Coram," he answered, between nibbles on the carrot. "Just a little waif befriended. A fine girl—but, I must say, her ideas on eating are distinctly radical. Meat, doncha know, and all that sort of thing. Once a vegetarian, always a vegetarian, that's what I am. She'll ruin her health if she keeps on." Kitty purred, and looked at the Rabbit reproachfully. "Silly thng!" he said.

"Do you mind if I take your picture?" I asked, taking out my camera. The Rabbit came forward eagerly, but retraced on discovering that it wasn't munchable.

"No-o, but wait a minute. Coram, old girl, come over by this tree, better background, doncha know?"

The Rabbit sat down, gazing off into space, and Kitty smuggled up beside him, watching me carefully.

"Ready! All right, then, hold that eye steady—Kitty don't twitch your tail!" I clicked the camera, and ben Rabbit continued his rumina-tive munching.

"Do you know anything about the mascot?" he asked suddenly.

"Why, er, no," I replied. "Do you?"

"Oh, my yes!" and he twinkled his nose. "Do you remember, Kitty, the two juniors who came to our hole and asked if they might bury it there? Was sorry to refuse them, but really, it's just big enough for Coram and me to live in."

"Oh, well," Kitty的研发, tawny tawny towards the carrot. "Merely platonic," he answered quickly, and kerfiumped off, his white tail a-bobbing in the sunlight.

In a certain long-eared, twinkly-eyed dorm-

Reading from Left to Right:
Kitty Coram
Rabbi ben Rabbit

- Reviewed on page 1, column 4

FREE SPEECH

The Editors of the Review do not hold themselves entirely responsible for the views expressed in this issue. We do, however, reserve the right to publish material which might otherwise be ruled unsuitable. We believe in the freedom of expression, and that it is a fundamental right of all citizens.

Dear 1937:

The Review is not "aroused, excited, and dismayed" when Freshmen are found smoking in their rooms; in fact, they took it quite calmly, and composed four girls who were caught. After that, it was rumor that about this information was circulated, but was a prevalent crime in nearly every wooden dorm. Honor Court, in an attempt to be fair, sent a letter to the president of every wooden dorm—not to the Freshmen alone. In spite of the fact that they were simply advised to cease smoking, no litigiousness—nearly all of the 200 students who were found smoking had been given a chance to see the error of their ways, before they were actually threatened with the loss of their jobs.

We suggest that you do not smoke in your dormitory, but that you do so in a more considerate fashion. We wish you well in your endeavors to live up to the high standards of the college, and we hope that you will enjoy your college years to the fullest extent possible.

Member of Honor Court.

(Continued on page 4, column 5)
Governor Winant Speaks at Convocation

(Ooncluded from page 1, column 1)

in the most violent depressions that a government has ever had to cope with. Although some of the causes of such calamities are inherent in the nature of man, still we should guard against them. It is always true that a recurrence of them as a goal ever before us in wise governing
in the present age. Vision is needed.

Prior to 1914 few people had the vision to foresee the disastrous events which were to follow, and those few who did foresight that enabled them to advocate plans for peace, received no attention. The problem of peace is a major one today, for millions of men who died in the Great War did so because those who had foresight were disregarded
and. Now, due to the war, the whole economic system of the world is so thrown off balance that we are to be feared in the depression of grave nature. Many are paying the price of the world's indifference.

Governor Winant said that we must in the future come to nar-down the financial disparity that exists between the large society, claims which are caused by cutthroat competition, starvation wages, and decreasing pros where which result from the violent fluctuations in the business cycle.
The evil of competition is one which is not in the interests of the good of goods, to do as much as possible for existing agricultural difficulties, at the same time looking out for industry.

The problem should be kept in mind; we must recognize our country, and then dare to follow it
up. We should try to establish sound values, and according to Governor Winant, the pursuit worthy putting time into must be idealistic in purpose, must be accomplished with such determination and precision, and must have in it an element of sportsmanship. These criteria should be applied to our country's present problems, so that millions will not starve for the sake of the personal profit of
few. Capitalist policy.

NIRA program represents an honest effort to apply these principles and to plan production and consumption according to a standard of values, thus preserving a reasonable amount of economic order. The fault is not with production or its methods,
but with the machinery of distribution. We need the brains
that a government has ever had to cope with. Although some of the causes of such calamities are inherent in the nature of man, still we should guard against them. It is always true that a recurrence of them as a goal
ever before us in wise governing
in the present age. Vision is needed.

Prior to 1914 few people had the
vision to foresee the disastrous
events which were to follow, and
those few who did foresight that enabled them to advocate plans for peace, received no attention. The problem of peace is a major one today, for millions of men who died in the Great War did so because those who had foresight were disregarded
and. Now, due to the war, the whole economic system of the world is so thrown off balance that we are to be feared in the depression of grave nature. Many are paying the price of the world's indifference.

Governor Winant said that we must in the future come to nar-
down the financial disparity that exists between the large society, claims which are caused by cutthroat competition, starvation wages, and decreasing pros where which result from the violent
fluctuations in the business cycle.
The evil of competition is one
which is not in the interests of the good of goods, to do as much as possible for existing agricultural difficulties, at the same time looking out for industry.

The problem should be kept in mind; we must recognize our country, and then dare to follow it
up. We should try to establish sound values, and according to Governor Winant, the pursuit worthy putting time into must be idealistic in purpose, must be accomplished with such determination and
precision, and must have in it an element of sportsmanship. These criteria should be applied to our country's present problems, so that millions will not starve for
the sake of the personal profit of
few. Capitalist policy.

NIRA program represents an
honest effort to apply these principles and to plan production and consumption according to a standard of values, thus preserving a reasonable amount of economic order. The fault is not with production or its methods,
but with the machinery of distribution. We need the brains

FREE SPEECH
Dear Editor:

Student Government is the proud possessor of a new set of officers. We believe them capable of doing their respective positions for us, we ourselves have chosen them. What better reason could we have for standing them off with our utmost cooperation and encouragement? An official position is no small task. A tactful administration is no good without some “pep” and it is a difficult thing to get up before House of Rep and, for example, be a fire of tired college girls with the enthusiasm that is needed to make each dorm and off-campus house an active and wide awake part of college. To those of us in particular who are familiar with the students of Student Government the opportunity and duty are given to stick by these individuals to the end.

Next year promises to be an eventful one. With every new term there is an office to be gained. In ideas and new remedies, we can work towards a greater perfection of our entire college system. For the simple reason that it is to our every advantage to see the new staff through, we shall support them wholeheartedly. We look forward to the future with hope and animation. We have new worlds to conquer in the field of Student Government.

37
New Group Under C. C. O. C.

C. C. O. C. has organized a new group called the Explorers Club, the purpose of which is to further student-faculty relationship. One member of C. C. O. C. board will have charge of this club alone. At first, until the club becomes better known and interest is aroused, the members are to be selected by invitation. Later, it is hoped that many will want to join, so that invitation will be no longer necessary. The plan at present is for a group of five to six to go on a hike together, each one bringing her own lunch.

(Alumni Association)
OFFERED—A $1000 AWARD FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE

At last civic achievements of local organizations are to be given due recognition. In the April issue the Community Forum of the Ladies’ Home Journal announces an award of $1000 to the organization composed exclusively of women, of the coming year, which during the year 1933 performed the most constructive piece of community service. Five nationally known women, of which our own national president among them are judges. The purpose of the award is to swing public attention back to the importance of community betterment which the Journal considers as one of the most vital problems facing America today.

Since any type of civic project, whether it raises cultural or citizenship standards or borders upon social service or philanthropy, will be eligible for the award, practically everything that is done for the good of the community can compete. In this contest therefore it seems a distinct challenge to our membership.

(Continued on page 6, column 3)

ELMORE SPORT SHOES
Are always styled correctly...

ELMORE SHOE CO.
11 Bank St.
Next to Whedon's

THE BEAUTY SHOP
All Lines of Beauty Culture
Dewart Building
(Formerly Pratt Building)
Main St. (322)

GOOD FOOD!
Come and enjoy a real Italian dinner at Musante's Italian Restaurant
282 Williams Street

For Luggage Repairs
Laundry Mailing Cases

Let's Knit!
Get the finest wool and the quickest needles at THE SPECIALTY SHOP
State Streets
New London

REFRESH YOURSELF!
from the house "calces" to a filling, delicious lunch at The Boston Candy Kitchen

THE BEAUTY SHOP
All Lines of Beauty Culture
Dewart Building

Vespers
(Concluded from page 1, column 3)
spread today. It can and should be done away with. …

The second great problem is the social problem, the question that I raise is: why not do the same for such other organizations as Service League, Drama Club, and Dress and Decorations? If both of these require a president who has worked at least a year as an officer, one who is interested in it, and one who “knows the ropes.” A perfect stranger cannot walk into such a job and run it as well and as smoothly as it should be run. Cannot someone see that such a regulation is made? It would be for the best of the college if we can find a reason so that an untrained person did not by chance become elected to such an office.

Dear Editor:

I think that congratulations are in order to those who this year changed the method of selecting the president of Dramatic Club. Undoubtedly only those who are interested in an organization and who want to work with it, know what people are best suited to hold offices in it, especially the important ones.

But the question that I raise is: why not do the same for such other organizations as Service League, Drama Club, and Dress and Decorations? If both of these require a president who has worked at least a year as an officer, one who is interested in it, and one who “knows the ropes.” A perfect stranger cannot walk into such a job and run it as well and as smoothly as it should be run. Cannot someone see that such a regulation is made? It would be for the best of the college if we can find a reason so that an untrained person did not by chance become elected to such an office.

Mascot Hunt to End

With Junior Banquet
(Concluded from page 1, column 3)
the Sophomores have worked hard in an effort to find the right mascot. They still have some time left until the telegram must be sent in announcing their results. Perhaps they will succeed, and once more the school will be surprised by such achievement. The banquet is being managed by Harriet Simon and the decorations by Hazel Depew. The Freshman class will entertain their sister class at the dinner.

A new sorority to honor Girl Scout leaders and to train camp counselors has been formed on the University of Illinois Campus. It is called Alpha Pi Delta.

(Alumni Association)
RESOLUTIONS OF SMITH ANTI-WAR CONFERENCE

The following are the Resolutions and the Preamble of the Connecticut Valley Student Convention Against War which was held at Smith, February 24 and 25 in which Connecticut College took an active part. Student interest in them is necessary if any good is to come of the conference.

Preamble

The world today is faced with the imminent danger of a second world war, in which Fascism and National Socialism in Italy and Hitler in Germany openly espouses a philosophy of war. The recent conflicts in France and Austria point to the possible introduction of a similar Fascism in these countries. Japan and Germany have already withdrawn from the League of Nations. Japan's provocative policy towards the Soviet Union may any day now plunge those two countries into a conflict which might well end in a general world conflagration. Actual wars are only being waged in South America.

In the United States over half a billion dollars has been turned over to war preparations in the largest peace-time appropriation in our history. The pending Vinton Naval Construction Bill provides for $570,000,000 more over a period of five years. Assistant Secretary Woodring admits the militarization of youth in the Civilian Conservation Corps and further asserts that by this summer a million young men will be enrolled in the C.C.C.

Only by understanding the fundamental causes of war, can a logical plan of opposition to war be found. We consider these basic causes to be the absence of any international machinery in the need of imperialist nations for foreign and colonial sources for raw materials and markets.

Students for a Democratic Society is co-confronted with the Reserve Officers Training Corps in their fight against war. From 1921 to 1931 the Federal Government spent $17,000,000 for R. O. T. C. At the same time that this and other manifestations of militarism in a continent, five thousand schools have been closed in a wave of educational retribution which has also seen the abandonment of all educational facilities of the schools.

We are impoverished but not the R. O. T. C.

In line with militarization in the colleges, war propaganda is becoming increasingly prevalent. Prominent among organizations and agents of militarizing such propaganda are the American Legion, the Reserve Officers' Association, the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Hearst newspapers. We know that in the last war, colleges were converted into barracks and military training camps.

Efforts must be made to prevent the further militarization of educational institutions for such a purpose. We realize that students acting by themselves are ineffective. We recognize that it is the working class that is the decisive factor in the fight against war. We therefore conclude that the most effective way for students to combat war is to unite with the working class.

With the resignation of Germany and Japan from the League of Nations, it has become increasingly evident that the "official" agencies of world peace have failed. The League of Nations, the Kellogg Pact, the International Court of Justice, will not be able to prevent war should it arise.

The situation, therefore, calls for the immediate action of all who are opposed to war. As a minimum basis for the united action of students in the Connecticut Valley, in conjunction with the nation-wide opposition to war, we have adopted the following resolutions.

Resolutions

1. We, the students of the Connecticut Valley, declare that we will support the government of the United States in no war that it undertakes.

2. We demand the complete abolition of the R. O. T. C., and the funds thereof to go as federal aid to education.

3. We will oppose the utilization of the resources of educational institutions for the furtherance of war propaganda, whether in text books, courses, or lectures; we will also oppose war preparations in the chemical laboratories of our science departments.

4. We demand complete freedom of the schools, and complete freedom of speech and action in the schools. We demand the unconditional reinstatement of the students who were expelled from C. C. N. Y., California State, and Maryland Colleges for opposing the R. O. T. C.

5. We recommend to the militaristic program of the United States government manifested directly in the $570,000,000 Vinton Naval Construction Bill and the allotment of $147,067,283 of Public Works funds for army and navy purposes; and indirectly in the militarization of youth under the guise of public works and unemployment relief, such as in the C. C. C. We further recommend that the money used for such purposes be used for unemployment insurance.

6. We will pledge our active support of the policy of American imperialism in the Far East, in Latin America, and particularly in Cuba; and we oppose all forms of intervention, whether by arms or by political and economic means.

7. We will pledge our active support of every organization and every agency of world peace.

8. We pledge ourselves to observe April 6 to April 13 as Anti-War Week, and we call upon the students of the several colleges in the United States to observe this period. We believe that on April 13 there be a general protest with demonstrations on the various campuses; we recommend that the students form a general student and faculty strike against war between 11:30 and 12:00 o'clock on that date.

9. We condemn the Fascist tendencies both in our own government and in other governments particularly as favoring the recent attack on the Austrian government and the Austrian Heimwehr on the Austrian workers.

10. We will pledge ourselves to support the peace policies of the Soviet Union for total and universal disarmament, and the peace policies of any other nation which will institute, or cooperate in, any such measures.

11. We pledge ourselves to cooperate individually with any organization working against war, and we urge that the Student National Anti-War Committee to cooperate with any such organization.

12. We resolve that the Connecticut Valley College Student National Anti-War Committee to continue until the adopted program of this convention in an active and effective manner; that it have these resolutions printed; that it provide for a vigorous campaign in carrying them out in the various colleges. We call upon the students of the Connecticut Valley to unite in the struggle against war and against all forces that make for militarism. This struggle is a part of the larger movement toward a world program of universal anti-war committees.

13. We resolve not to rely passively on international disarmament, but to support their stated objective and supplement their activity by all we ourselves can do against war.

CASTALDI'S
New Modern Studio
Daylight and Electrical Photography
38 State St., Opp. Croton Theater.
Meet your friends for a cigarette or coffee-walk in the new reception room.

Katharine Gibbs School
SPECIAL COURSE FOR COLLEGE WOMEN
Secretarial and Executive Training Course begins July 5 and September 25
For catalog address College Course Secretaries.

Mary Elizabeth Beauty Salons
241 State St., New London, Conn.

Let us help you find the book to suit your particular taste or needs

Telephone 8802

Fine Food Fine Service
DINING OUT?

THE BOOKSHOP, INC.
Church and Meridian Streets
New London, Conn.

The remedy for professorial tardiness at the University of Bologna in 1158 was to withhold the professor's salary for the class at which he arrived late. The professors paid the professor in the exact amount of the fees he was able to collect. A reckoning day being set, they were about twenty-five girls in Saxton house when Mr. Barry arrived late morning as he came along.

"Have you got a letter for me this morning, Mr. Barry?" And just as regularly cheerful, he replies, "Don't believe so, but I'll be sure to have one for you this afternoon." That's what often helps him when things can happen in eleven years, too many to recount here; a lot of girls can come and go, too many for us to remember names, but no one ever forgets them or their names, and he in turn can be certain that in all the years, no matter how far away we have been gone or may go, he will always live in our memories of Connecticut College.

The Official Model League
 connecticutcollege.edu

The official and unofficial delegates from Connecticut chartered a bus on which to go to and return from Cambridge. There were about twenty-five girls in all from here. The League proved not only enjoyable but very interesting and the work was taken very seriously.

steps of Fanning) and wept over it because the man she had met during the week-end and was madly in love (?) with had written nary a word. It was the climax of the show—real Grecian tragedy (produced by Saxon house) when Mr. Barry brought the long awaited epistle—but lo and behold, no sigh of relief went up from the audience, no weeping eyes were in their hearts for the poor little heroine sitting on the fake steps of a fake Greek temple. "Nothing ever happened; they, in a body, forgot the play, forgot the tragedy being enacted before their very eyes, and instead a sound like an avalanche swept the gym. There was clapping and stamping of feet and their Favorite, without a single word had stolen the show and was acclaimed unanimously the star.

SPECIAL COURSE FOR COLLEGE WOMEN
CONNECTICUT COLLEGE NEWS

HEYY MRS. BARRY!

Haven't you a letter for me?

When you meet an old girl—from way back when—what is the first question that she asks you? Isn't it an inquiry as to whether a certain very popular man is still coming day after day to Connecticut College?

And why is it that so often the Freshmen and Sophomores in the off-campus houses are late to the 9 o'clock and 3 o'clock classes?

Well, by this time you have solved the riddle, and know that it is that lives on in the memories of past Seniors and all those who saw him, rain or shine, Winter or Summer, walking as if the pack on his back were not a load or a duty or part of a job—but instead something that contained a surprise for every little homesick girl—or gifts from the ends of the earth for the boys.

Mr. Barry came to the college as Postman early in September. For eleven years he has been classes come and go and he has known the girls in those classes perhaps better than any other person in the college. He was appointed to the job, but

Mr. Barry

Mary Elizabeth Beauty Salons
241 State St., New London, Conn.

... 3.

... 2.

... 1.

... 0.

Mary Elizabeth Beauty Salons
241 State St., New London, Conn.

Mary Elizabeth Beauty Salons
241 State St., New London, Conn.

Mary Elizabeth Beauty Salons
241 State St., New London, Conn.

Mary Elizabeth Beauty Salons
241 State St., New London, Conn.

Mary Elizabeth Beauty Salons
241 State St., New London, Conn.

Mary Elizabeth Beauty Salons
241 State St., New London, Conn.

Mary Elizabeth Beauty Salons
241 State St., New London, Conn.

Mary Elizabeth Beauty Salons
241 State St., New London, Conn.

Mary Elizabeth Beauty Salons
241 State St., New London, Conn.
Offered—A $1,000 Award for Community Service

Commenting on the contest, Mr. John A. Lang, President of the National Student Federation says: "The Ladies' Home Journal through its Community Award contest is doing an excellent piece of work in fostering a better and more wholesome life in the cities and communities throughout the country. Cities everywhere are certainly interested in work of this sort and they no doubt will be anxious to take a part in this program to improve the civic life of our people."

Terms of the contest in full are available in the April issue of the Ladies' Home Journal.

After graduation.—N. Y. Evening Sun.

A special course for counsellors in summer camps is being offered by the University of Michigan school of education.

HISTORICAL CALENDAR
FOR MARCH

You may get ideas for features or advertising tie-ups from the many anniversaries that are celebrated in the first half of this month. A calendar for the second half of the month will appear in the next issue of the Collegiate Publisher.

March
1—Nebraska admitted to the Union in 1867.
2—Carl Schurz, famed soldier, statesman and publicist, born in 1829.
3—Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, born in 1847.
4—This was formerly inaugurated in the first half of this month.
5—Gold discovered in California.
6—Michael Angelo born in 1474.
7—Luther Burbank born in 1849.
8—Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr., born in 1841.
9—First daily newspaper was published in England by E. Mallet in 1702. It was called the Daily Courant.
10—George Berkeley, famed philosopher, born in 1685.
11—First post office established by act of Congress in 1789.
12—Joseph Priestly born in 1733.
13—The Ides of March.
14—This was formerly inaugurated in the first half of this month.
15—First post office established by act of Congress in 1789.
16—First daily newspaper was published in England by E. Mallet in 1702. It was called the Daily Courant.
17—George Berkeley, famed philosopher, born in 1685.
18—Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr., born in 1841.
19—First daily newspaper was published in England by E. Mallet in 1702. It was called the Daily Courant.
20—George Berkeley, famed philosopher, born in 1685.
21—First daily newspaper was published in England by E. Mallet in 1702. It was called the Daily Courant.
22—George Berkeley, famed philosopher, born in 1685.
23—First daily newspaper was published in England by E. Mallet in 1702. It was called the Daily Courant.
24—George Berkeley, famed philosopher, born in 1685.
25—First daily newspaper was published in England by E. Mallet in 1702. It was called the Daily Courant.
26—George Berkeley, famed philosopher, born in 1685.
27—First daily newspaper was published in England by E. Mallet in 1702. It was called the Daily Courant.
28—George Berkeley, famed philosopher, born in 1685.
29—First daily newspaper was published in England by E. Mallet in 1702. It was called the Daily Courant.
30—George Berkeley, famed philosopher, born in 1685.
31—First daily newspaper was published in England by E. Mallet in 1702. It was called the Daily Courant.

"Special Supper Served"
From 6 to 8:30—Me Coffee, Tea or Cocoa. Celery served with sandwiches or cake is now or Peterson, Inc.
127 State St., New London

Not like others...

Even so... you can say Chesterfields are "not like others"

Not two people in the world look alike... act alike. So it is with tobacco... just like folks.

No two leaves are the same.

And it's the same with cigarettes... no two brands are alike.

Furthermore, not only are the tobaccos different, but the way the tobaccos are handled is different.

This, you can understand.

You know just as well as we do that no two manufacturers use the same kinds of tobaccos, or blend them or cross-blend them or weld them together in the same manner.

We do everything that science knows and that money can buy to make CHESTERFIELD as good a cigarette as can be made.

We hope you like them. They are "not like others."

Chesterfield
the cigarette that's MILD
the cigarette that TASTES BETTER