Exactly 150 students and three professors at Akron University signed a petition in which they agreed to commit mass suicide by decapitation February 27. The college editors pulled the stunt to see how many would sign a document before reading it.

What America really needs is a Dictator of Speech, according to Dr. James F. Hender, of the College of the City of New York faculty, who has just completed a survey of the speech defects of screen stars.

Scholarship application blanks for 1934-35 may be obtained from Miss Smith in the President's Office.

All applications must be returned to her on or before May 15th.

A DISCUSSION ON WORLD PEACE IS HELD HERE

Students Present Their Views on The Subject

BETH FLANDERS PRESIDES

On Thursday morning, April 19, a discussion was held during chapel, on the possible means for achieving world peace. This meeting was called in behalf of the anti-war action, taking place all over the country. The speakers were introduced by Elizabeth Flanders, '34, president of the International Relations Club. She urged that discussions and questions come from the audience, when the speakers had expressed their viewpoints.

The first speaker was Barbara Meaker, '34, who spoke on "International Cooperation". She said that the League of Nations had greatly weakened, and thus it showed the need for something new. "Averting war will be a long process, but this process must be long, if peace is to endure. The peace conferences, which have been held, failed, because each country was grabbing for itself. She stressed the point that we will succeed in our peace movement, only if we give authority to men who want peace. Armament is a waste of money. What is needed is a way by which we can understand each other. Peace can be achieved by a truly international spirit".

WEIGHT DANCE TO BE GIVEN IN KNOWLTON

Service League Prepares For a Novel Way of Admission

APRIL 28th IS DATE SET

The International Student Dance to be given on Saturday, April 28, is for the purpose of securing enough money so that we may have a foreign student who is doing well on the campus and who needs help. This dance is sponsored by the International Relations Club. The Committees in charge of the dance are: Beth Flanders, Chairman; Len Waldenkre, Head of Waitresses; Elizabeth Farnum, Head of Publicity; and Marion Belsey, Head of Decorations.

The Chapersons are: Dr. and Mrs. Leib, Dr. Roach, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence, and Dean Burdick.

The waitresses are to be dressed in foreign costumes and the foreign idea is to be carried out throughout the entire dance. President Blunt has been kind enough to arrange means by which the foreign student will attend classes and have her meals free of charge. This dance is to obtain money for her room on campus. We all agree that the world needs more international relations of a peaceful sort and this is indeed a fine way to carry out this idea.

The dance will be 50 cents for the girls and a charge of one-half a cent for each pound the man weighs is charged for her escort. It is to be a formal dance in Knowlton Salon at eight o'clock. A course in soap sculpture has been included in the new curriculum of Westminster College. It is a non-credit course.

MR. WM. BAUER, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF MUSIC AT C. C. DIES AT 33

In the death of William Bauer, Associate Professor of Music, Connecticut College has lost another of the devoted group of Faculty members who saw the beginnings of the institution and have been connected with it ever since. Whatever Connecticut College has become, is due to the intelligent planning and faithful service of the faculty and administration through the years. In a very real sense, therefore, Mr. Bauer has had an important part in making this College the institution which we love and which the world respects, for its high achievement; and, at its best, the College reflects the qualities which made students and his fellow-faculty-members admire him.

We think of him first as a musician, for it is in that capacity that everybody on the campus knew him. His long and dignified service in connection with the daily Chapel exercises, the frequent and highly enjoyable appearances as soloist and accompanist, the unflagging, excellent showing of his pupils kept him in the good graces of all who contributed in generous measure to the beauty and inspiration of campus life. And he was a musician of parts—throughout his years with the best American and European traditions, possessed of a brilliant and facile technique, good taste and keen intelligence, his performances were invariably on a high plane. There was nothing shabby or shoddy about his work. His inflexible devotion to the highest ideals made him an exciting and inspiring teacher; but, still more, a stern and incorruptible man of his craft. Cleanness or sensationalism had no place in his musical philosophy. His unflagging search for the best made him a force for musical righteousness which has been of inestimable value to us and has done much to create and maintain the excellent reputation which the Music Department has always borne. His generosity in giving his time and that of his students and faculty of Connecticut College extend their most sincere sympathy to the family of Prof. William Bauer.

FREE SPEECH
(The Editors of The News do not hold themselves responsible for the opinions expressed in this column. In order to give more room for the opinions of our undergraduates, we are free to express our own views.

Dear Editor:
Some time ago, the subject of having the library open Sunday morning as well as Sunday afternoon was brought up in House Meeting. Since then, we have heard more about the matter. Has anything been done about it, and if so, what? If we cannot have this privilege, we would like to know, lest it be our fault if the plan went into effect? Now that spring is here, in reality, there is hardly any of us who isn't tempted to sit in the sun, take long walks out-of-doors, or, for the more lucky, take a spin in the car. We are up and doing fairly early in the morning. That is the time of the day we want to work on Sunday morning. Therefore, I think that it would be greatly appreciated by the student body as a whole if we could have this privilege of studying in the Libe Sunday mornings, and if we could have it as soon as possible, so that we can enjoy all the more the warm days.

ALUMNAE NOTES
After three years the C. C. Alumnae Register ceases its ghostly moans and earthly lightnings and crescendos once again to walk the earth. It is now an integral part of its past, under the capable eye of the printer, and will take up its new public life some time before college cassettes for the summer. In its still weak state it softly cries: "Don't forget to give three cheers for Miss Moss, our Alumnae Secretary, and her almost superhuman revival.

The State Social Workers Conference will meet at C. C. this month, with several alumnae returning from its meeting or perhaps "in (social) conference". Helen Ford, '21, will be here from the State Hospital, and as for the optimistic she is a psychiatric social worker. Anna Selig, '23, will also return to campus, these several years having established her as placement officer for the State Department of Social Welfare in Hartford.

The New Jersey chapter of the alumnae held its big meeting of the year on the 16th of March, at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Vernon, '27, in Montclair. Eight students who will enter C. C. next year were present. The drawing of the winning ticket for the trip to Bermuda was held, and as a result Marilda Beall, '25, New London, sister of Marjorie Belcher, '36, spent Easter weekend under Southern skies.

The Hartford chapter of the alumnae held a meeting April 3, at the home of Mrs. Rockefeller. The alumnae officers, by the way, should know the names of the new officers.

CAMPUS CHARACTER
She is rather a small person, yet full of energy. Her round cheeks, rounded turn-up chin, and short nose remind one instantly of the kewpies drawn by Rose O'Neill. Her black eyes are always dancing and her black hair shingled and slightly waved usually looks wind-tossed. The proverbial "cheshire cat" grin is invariably present, and her "Hello-o!" said in her own characteristic voice—that voice!—one would recognize anywhere. Her real first line is a line well-known, the name of an actress whom she was thought to resemble, (whom geometry) given to her in her freshman year, has stuck to her. In an attempt to "get the jump" on the Juniors at mascot time, she first pretended that "gentleman prefer blonds," but the Juniors aren't gentlemen, and still prefer the brunette. Such a well-deserved reward!

Complete two-way radiophone equipment is installed on both engine and caboose of the train permitting the engineer and brakeman to communicate at all times without difficulty.

APPLICATIONS FOR VINAL AND MOSIER ARE DUE MAY 1ST AT LATEST

Applications for residence in Vinal Cottage and Mosier House for the year 1934-35 are due on or before May first. Girls desiring to live in either of these houses should get in touch with Miss Ramsey and return them to her before the above-mentioned date.

Residence in these houses is limited largely to girls in need of financial assistance. Scholastic records will also be considered in the selection of the girls. In Vinal Cottage first preference is given to students who are majors in the Department of Home Economics since here the girls receive valuable practice in the administrative duties of a homemaker. Other students are included in the group. Each girl has certain weekly duties which involve comparatively little time. The amount saved during the year by girls who live in Vinal Cottage is $150.

Students who live in the cooperative house, Mosier, do all of their planning of menus, food preparation and care of the house and are able therefore to earn some money. Three hundred dollars or more is saved yearly by the girls living in Mosier House.

In both houses the work is supervised by a member of the Home Economics Department. Information concerning either of these houses may be secured from the Department of Home Economics, Room 405, New London.

A Discussion on World Peace is Held Here (Concluded from page 1, column 5)

Eugene Hersee, '34, spoke on "Communistic Attitude for World Peace." She explained the communist philosophy, of changing the world at one time into communism. This would eliminate economic, political and industrial motives, which are very human. She said that only Communists have made this fully understood. She also added, that it was time to face facts, for peace will never be accomplished by sitting around a table and dreaming. A communist war will be a war to end war.

The last speaker was Alice Taylor, '34, whose speech was "The Socialist Platform of World Peace." She said that a wasteful and unintelligent, and maintained that we must accept its challenge. Socialism offers a plan by which it is possible to remove the causes of the war. The Socialists are building their platform on the idea that you can't get anything intelligent about war, if we educated others, and if we supported important legislatures. This will set a world peace and advance the cause.

There was some discussion of the arguments, which was limited because of lack of time.

BREAKFAST ON ISLAND IS SERVED BY C. C. O. C. TO A GROUP OF THIRTY

Thirty-three eager-to-eat hikers went to the Island for Sunday breakfast. The meal was prepared by C. C. O. C. Immediately upon their arrival at the Island, they started to suck their oranges while waiting for the fires to be built. Before long, however, the call for "burned bacon" came through and strips of bacon were eagerly consumed with other edible articles. After being comfortably (or uncomfortably filled), walked about the Island or sun-bathed until they were ready to return to the college.

Jean Vandebilt '36, chairman of the Club, was assisted in her preparations for the breakfast by "Ginny" Deuel '37 and "Emy" Moore '37, Those interested were asked to try out for C. C. O. C., which will take on new members this week.

These programs prepared by C. C. O. C. and attended at all C. C. O. C. Attend one and you will want to attend all. C. C. O. C. will probably have more breakfasts on the Island. If you have missed this one, don't miss the next.
