CONN. COLLEGE WILL SEND DELEGATE TO STUDENTS UNION IN GENEVA

BETTY GERHART '35 APPOINTED

Betty Gerhart, '35, has been appointed by President Blunt to be the Connecticut College representative at the International Students Union in Geneva. Each college of a selected group sends its delegates for an interview with Mrs. Hadden, Vice-president of the International Students Union in New York, who eliminates all but twelve, who spend the summer at the Hotel School in Geneva. The students will sail for Europe on the S. S. Westerland, June 30th and return, September 4th. They will spend some time traveling and six weeks in school at the school, attending seminar groups and lectures.

This is an excellent opportunity for the student lucky enough to be in a college to form her college through publications and club work due to the personal contacts with and study under international authorities.

Betty is a transfer from Mt. Holyoke College, where she was elected to the membership of the American Oriental Society. She is a major in History and Political Science. Besides having been recently elected Secretary of the Spanish Club, she is an honor student.

NEW SYSTEM OF VOTING AT ELECTIONS PASSED AT STU. G. MEETING

Changes Made in Signing Out Additional Cards Used
SNOWING RULE FOR WOODEN DORMS GIVEN

Another Student Government Meeting was held, due to the fact that many of the girls present at the previous meeting had failed to cast their vote on the matter of changing the voting system here. This failure on their part was due to the voting incorrect, and it was necessary to have a re-vote, which resulted in an amendment to the constitution.

The temporary change in the smoking rule for off-campus houses was announced. The new rule is that smoking will be permitted in the living rooms after 11 o'clock, but the girls must be very careful to smoke only in the living room. It was decided to

FRESHMAN PAGEANT GIVEN IN THE AMPHITHEATRE SYMBOLIZES MONTHS

Blanche Mapes is Manager

The Freshman Pageant representing "Pictures Through the Months," was given Tuesday afternoon, May 22, in the Amphitheatre. The manager was Blanche Mapes, and the chairman of the various committees were as follows: Costumes—S. Vester; B. Stiles; Dancing, S. Cohen; Properties, B. Becker; Music, G. Boscou; Make-up, M. Millhausner; Finance, O. French; Programs, E. Thompson.

The ideas for the months were worked out admirably, each one being symbolized by clever pantomime. The month of January was depicted as "cold, and in February, and a new beginning; March, and hearts beat warm despite the cold; March, jigs and shambles; April, new life and hope forever; May, nature awakens and man rejoices; June, 'till death do us part; July, heat and noise; August, a sandy beach, a strip of blue, gay sunbeams and storms; September, praise to the god of corn; October, trees tire of green, and pumpkins ripe; November, for these Thy gifts, we thank Thee; December, amidst chaos—a prophet and a star; Finale, in praise, Connecticut." SPRING PLAY "HAY FEVER" BY COWARD PRESENTED BY DRAMATIC CLUB

Good Selection of Cast
Made for the Most Part

REVIEWER CONSIDERS PLAY ONE OF MOST FINISHED PIECES GIVEN HERE

An epidemic of figurative Hay Fever, brought on through the legendarium of Noel Coward, gave to the current personnel of Wig and Cask an opportunity to show the college audience what it can do by means of casting that was far above average, intelligent acting, skilled coaching, and willing cooperation.

One may well question the wisdom of staging the play. A frothy comedy, it has neither marked dramatic merit nor intellectual value to recommend it. It is a measured success; and depends for its entertainment upon absurd situations, and lines that occasion occasional glitter. There is no denial that it is funny. But viewing the capable acting of last Friday, one may be pardoned for wishing that some of the powers of the same cast had been challenged by a play of established literary merit. What has become of Sheridan's comedies, of Goldsmith's, and Shakespeare's, that our college dramatic society passed over to the more bittersweet modern "vehicles"? Is Coward to be the Shakespeare, the Moliere of our time? : a question to be asked a deploring a de

Meeting of Connecticut and R. I. Vocational Guidance Association Held

DR. KELLER WILL SPEAK

An Open Meeting of the Connecticut and Rhode Island Vocational Guidance Associations is being held at Connecticut College today in order to discuss the Changing Aspects of Guidance. Among those subjects to be discussed is "Group Guidance" on which Dr. Richard D. Allen, Assistant Superintendent of Schools of Providence, will speak. A demonstration will be held with a class of students from the Robert E. Fitch High School of Groton. Other topics are "The Transition from High School to College" and "Relationships between School and Business." At the luncheon meeting to be held at Thames Hall, Dr. Franklin J. Keller, Director of the National Occupational Conference, of which Miss Blunt is a member, will speak on "The Same Door Wherein I (Continued on page 6, column 3)
I suppose you've all heard about the Freshmen who, when told not to leave tennis balls in the middle of the court for fear of broken ankles, answered, "But how can I break my ankle when the ball is over there and I'm here?"

And then there's the story of the Blackstone senior who broke the camera when having her picture taken! Shall we judge her by such face value?

LITERARY EVENING READINGS

On May 16, the last of Miss Ernst's literary evening readings on contemporary poets is held. At various times during the year, a few of the students taking the Contemporary Literature course as well as Dean Nye, Miss Hier, Miss Chevalier, Miss Chase, Miss Hafkesbrink, and Mrs. Hartman of Stonington, have met at Miss Ernst's home. Various poets' works have been read, among them Ernest Hemingway, Verlaine, Paul Claudel, Paul Valery and "Don Juan" by Rostand. The French Club was invited to attend the reading of Verlaine. These evenings have been very enjoyable, and probably will be continued by Miss Ernst next year.

VASSAR HOST TO INTER-COLLEGIATE COLLEGE READING CONTEST

2 From C. C. Speech Dept. Attend

Miss Cockrill of the Speech Department and Dorothy Simmons attended the sixth Intercollegiate Reading Contest, held at Vassar May 12. Connecticut, Vassar, Harvard, Barnard, Smith, Pembroke, Amherst, Adelphi, Bryn Mawr, College of the City of New York, and Brooklyn were represented.

The purpose of these gatherings is to have those interested in excellence in poetry reading come together and gain insight. Inasmuch as a contest between the colleges is not intended, a change in the name to Intercolligate Reading Festival has been suggested.

The main program consisted of various types of reading and recitation: narratives, lyrics and sonnets, given by the representatives from the various colleges. A reception followed, at which the students and faculty made plans for next year. It was decided to hold the contest either at Mt. Holyoke or Harvard. The

AROUND CAMPUS WITH PRESSBOARD

This is the way I look at it. I have gone to some dances stag, and enjoyed dancing with myself and my friends, but I have always tried to notice when the last dance is being played and, at this time, I refrain from cutting in. I have also taken escort dances to, and more than once I have had the slightly unhappy experience of being left standing three or four times during the last dance. Once or twice at the end of the dance I have noticed a stage of glasses. Naturally I want my escort to have a good time, but I do think that it is not too much to ask that the girls should not leave at the beginning of the last dance or refrain from the enjoyable pursuit of cutting in.

I would like to know whether anyone joins me in this opinion. If the majority feels this way, I think we might start the custom here at Connecticut. In other words, "I make a motion" that stage refrain from cutting in when the dance begins. I can't help but add that I hope this will be passed and go into effect at an early date.

Press Board Tea

Press Board held a tea at Light House Inn, Tuesday afternoon, May 26. President Blunt, Miss Ramsay, Mrs. Floyd, and Marion Warrington were the guests. Editor-in-chief of News, were the guests.

After Sylvia Dworski, '35 made a few introductory remarks, E. B. Haring, retiring president of Press Board, presented keys to the five members who had been on Press Board for two years: Harriet Ikerwood '34; Marion Anello '35; Sylvia Dworski '35; Merion Ferris '35; Ruth Worthington '32.

IDEALS TO BE APPLIED

Shailer Matthews, of the University of Chicago Divinity School, was the Vesper speaker last Sunday. The substance of Dr. Matthews’ talk is as follows: If one is to understand a religion, one must observe the mutual reaction of the organism and the environment. There are various movements that have taken place in the field of religion recently. The first may be called the “tired soul” movement. To this belong the disillusioned group who want to get away from the world. There are those that think they can geographically remove themselves from society. These hermits, so to speak, make their own lives uncomfortable and “mistake the resulting feelings for piety”. Another movement thinks that one can experience Christianity by not having a good time, that is, by abstaining from social activities.

There is a general belief that Christianity does not have any immediate bearing on the social problems of today. We need to realize that where Christianity has been efficient there has been great excitement and change. In the midst of great penetration of culture, there is a constant fermenting power of the Christian religion. It is through this penetration that the Christian movement is effecting other religions. In many of the new religions which have recently been formed we find elements identical to Christian ideals.

One great opportunity for Christian work is carrying of ideals into the operation of forces which the church did not originate.
