NEW
LONDON

F. Edward Cranz

a warm friend
with a ready smile,
as eager to discuss
the history of a
superior Bordeaux,
as the "problematic
inheritance of the Western world"

a recognized humanist scholar not buried in the past; he prepares his students for the future by leading them through the sources of knowledge

It is with sincere fondness and profound respect that we dedicate Koiné '73 to you, F.
Edward Cranz, Rosemary
Park Professor of History.

The changing of sunlight to moonlight

Reflections

of my life
How they fill my mind

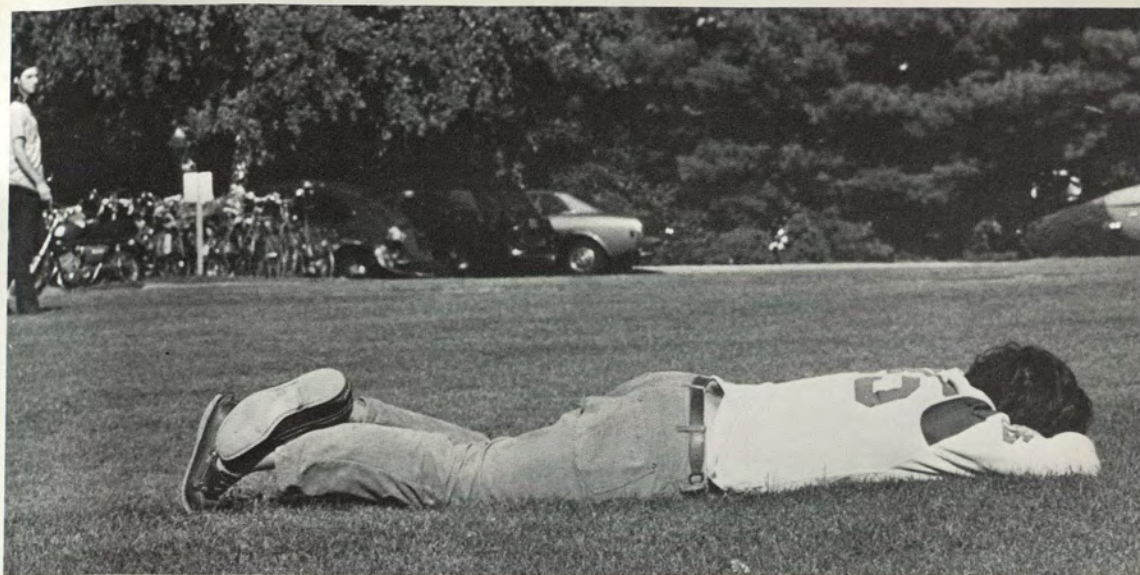

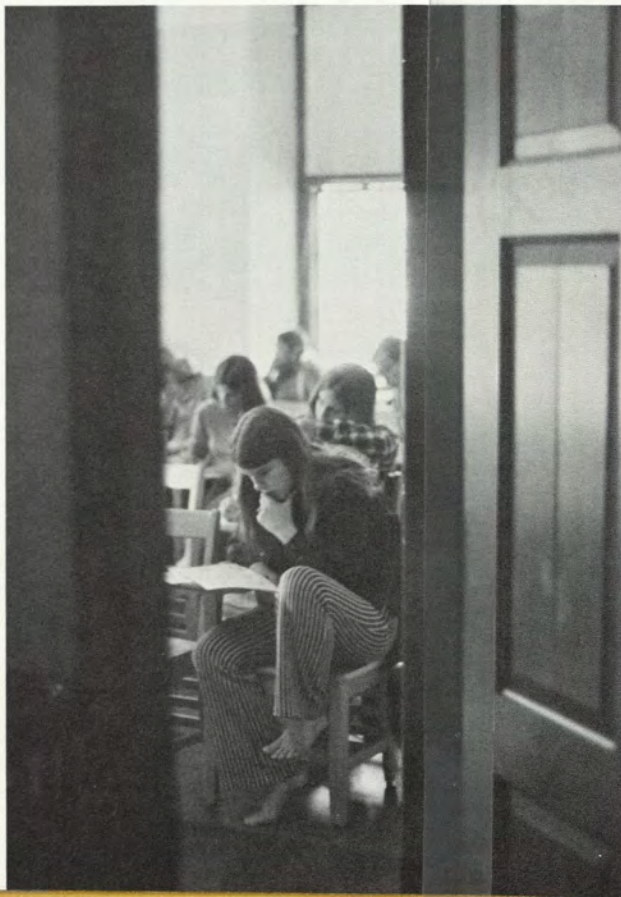

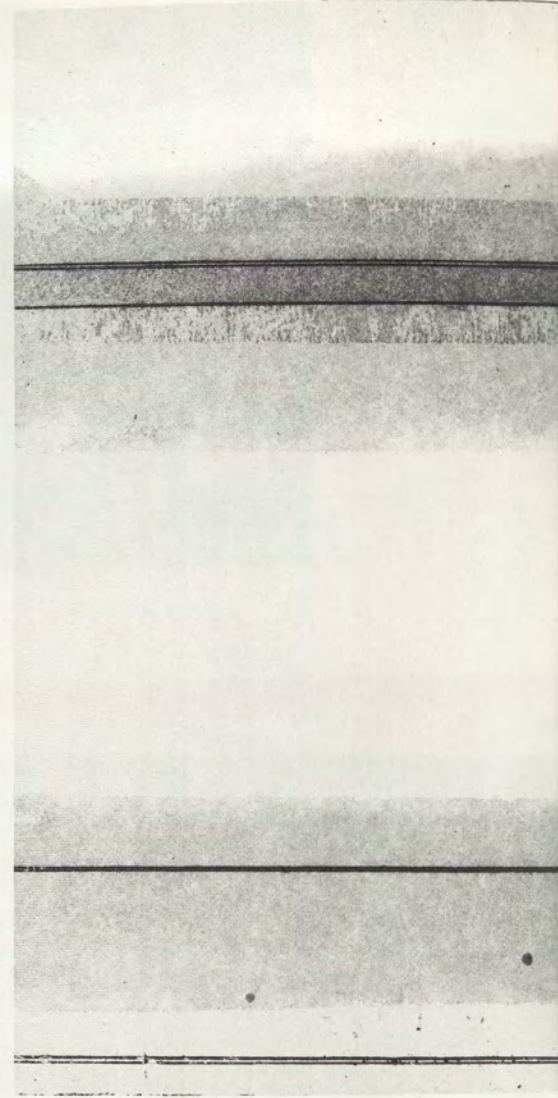

I sit alone erasing
every half-smile
that presses on my lips, filtering each word
that dares escape my head.
Today I must reside
in this neat container
and not allow
a single restless thought to spill.

The sun forgot to rise
this morning—I did too.
I've a hundred things to do, all trying
to drag me from my bed, but I have a need to lie in sleepy consciousness and listen to the raining world outside my window.
