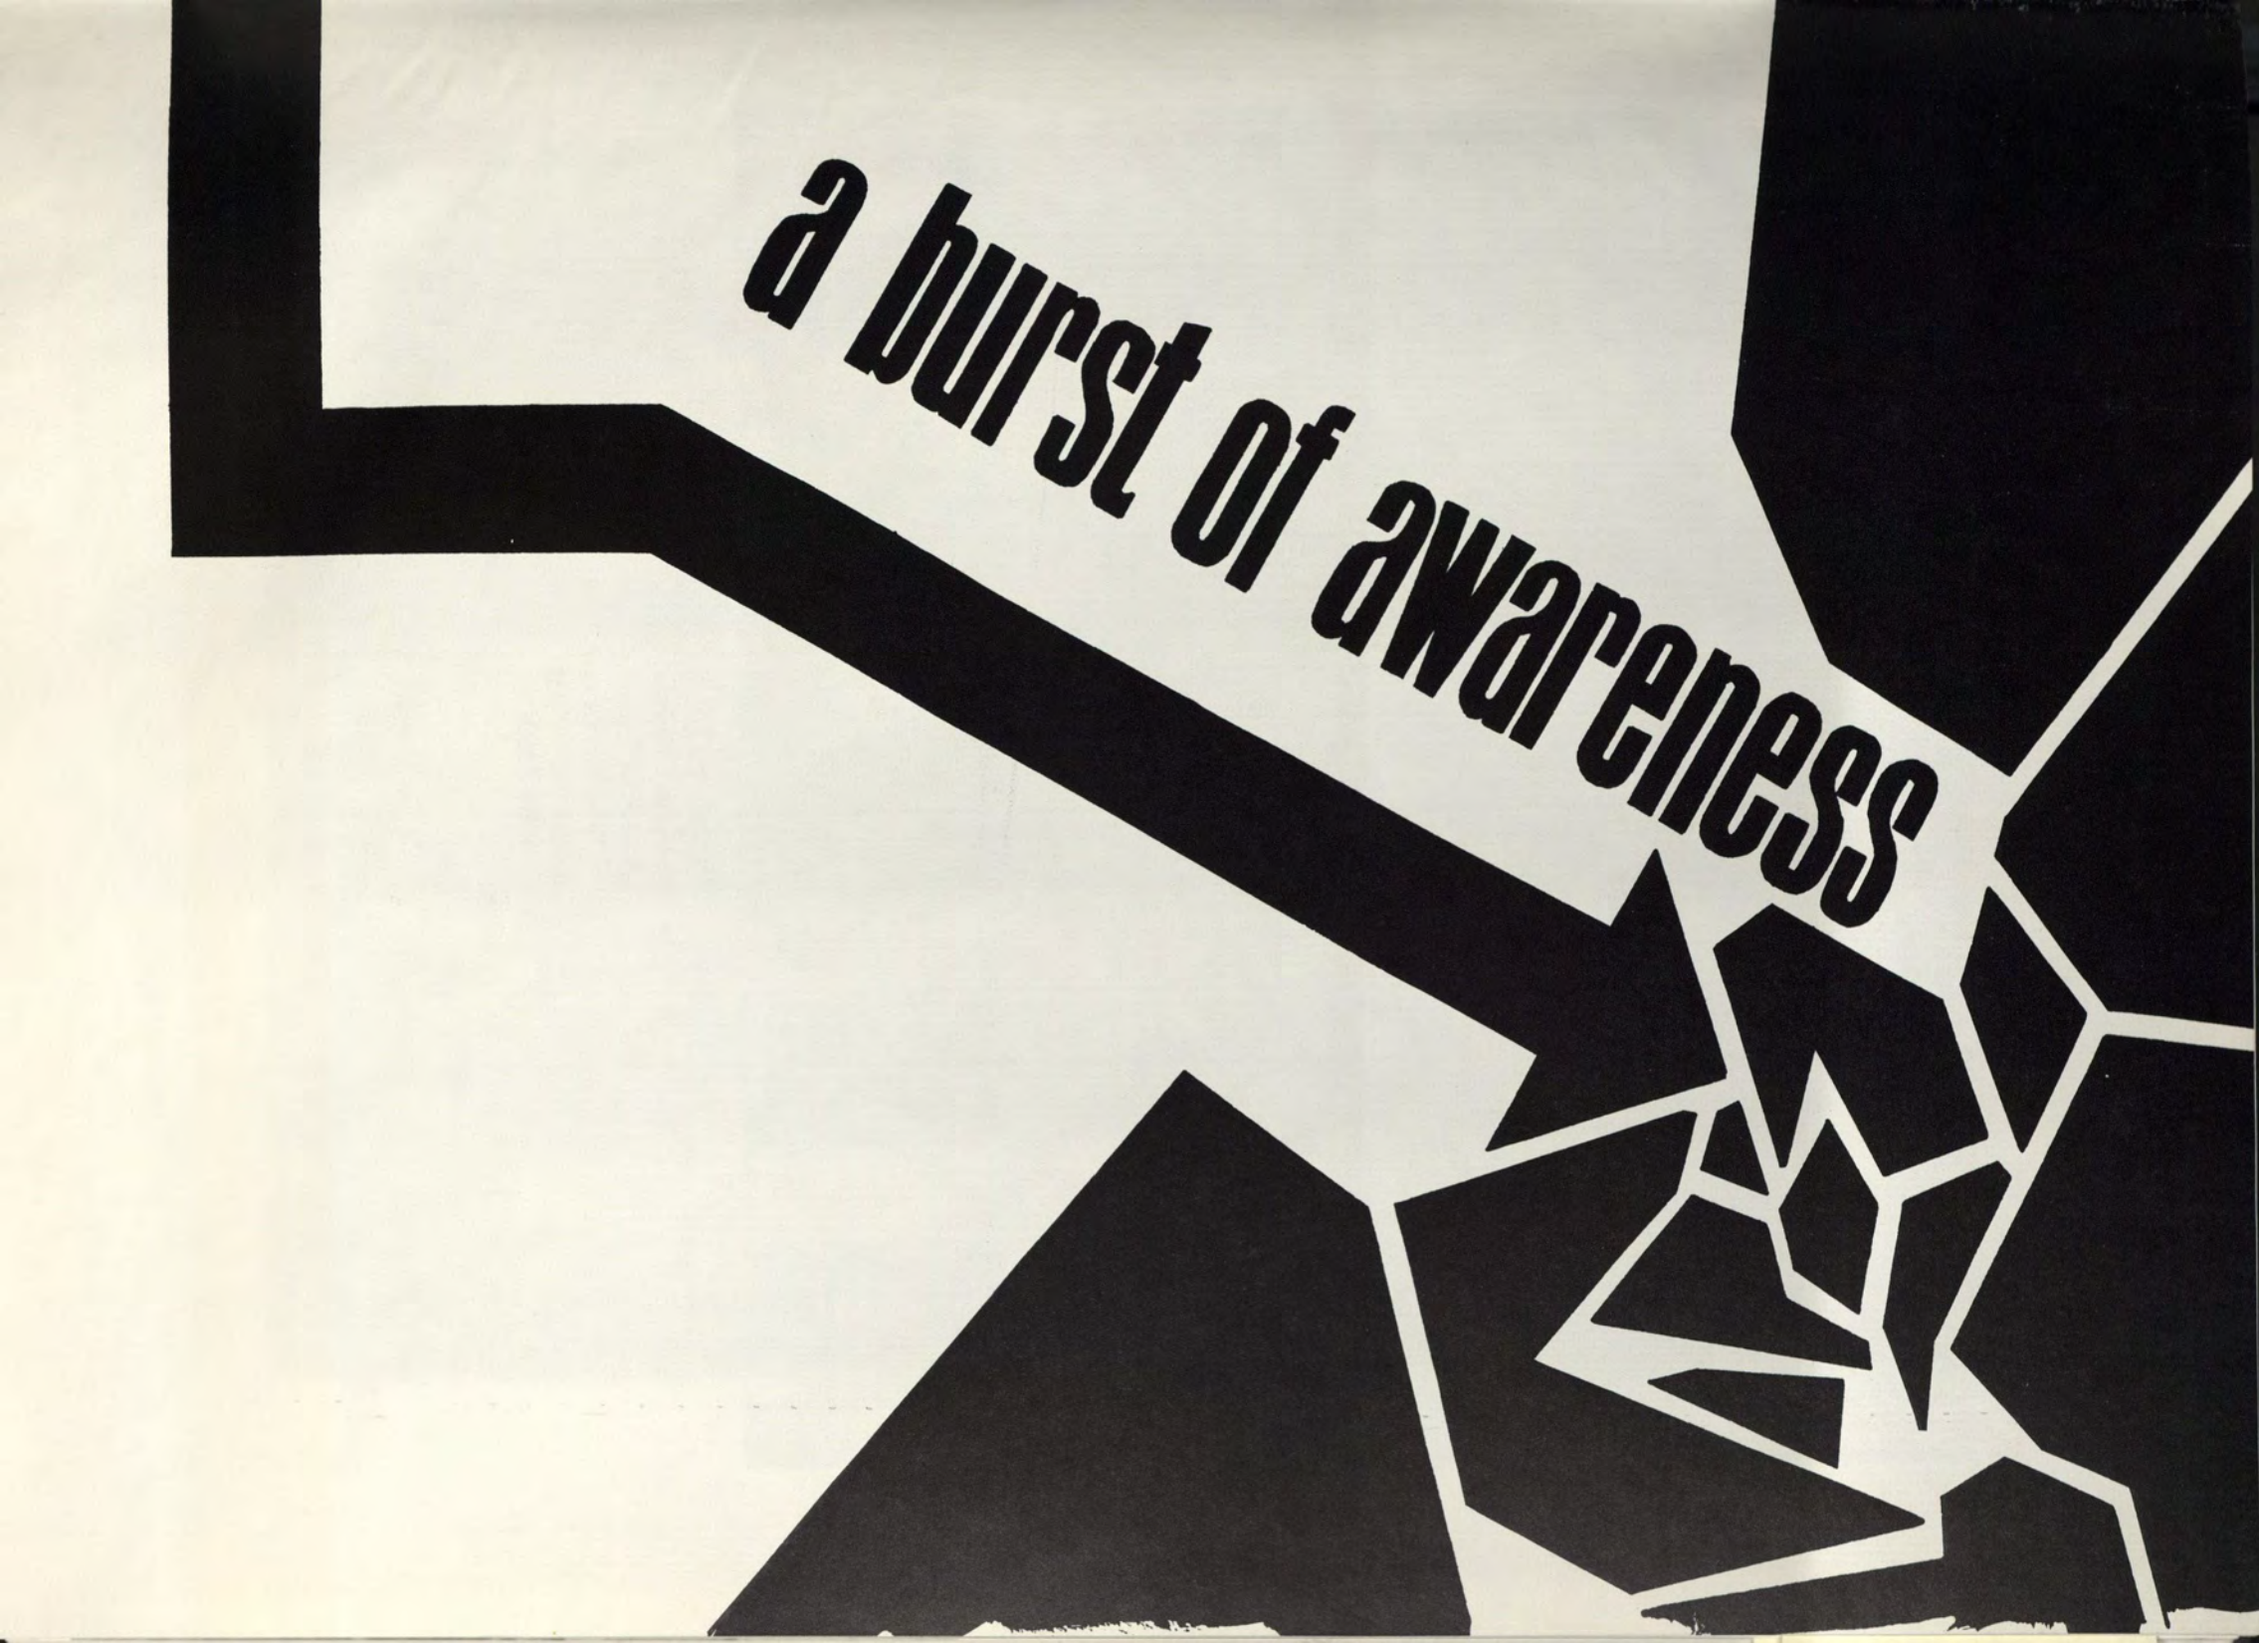
koiné '69

connecticut college, new london, connecticut



a burst of awareness

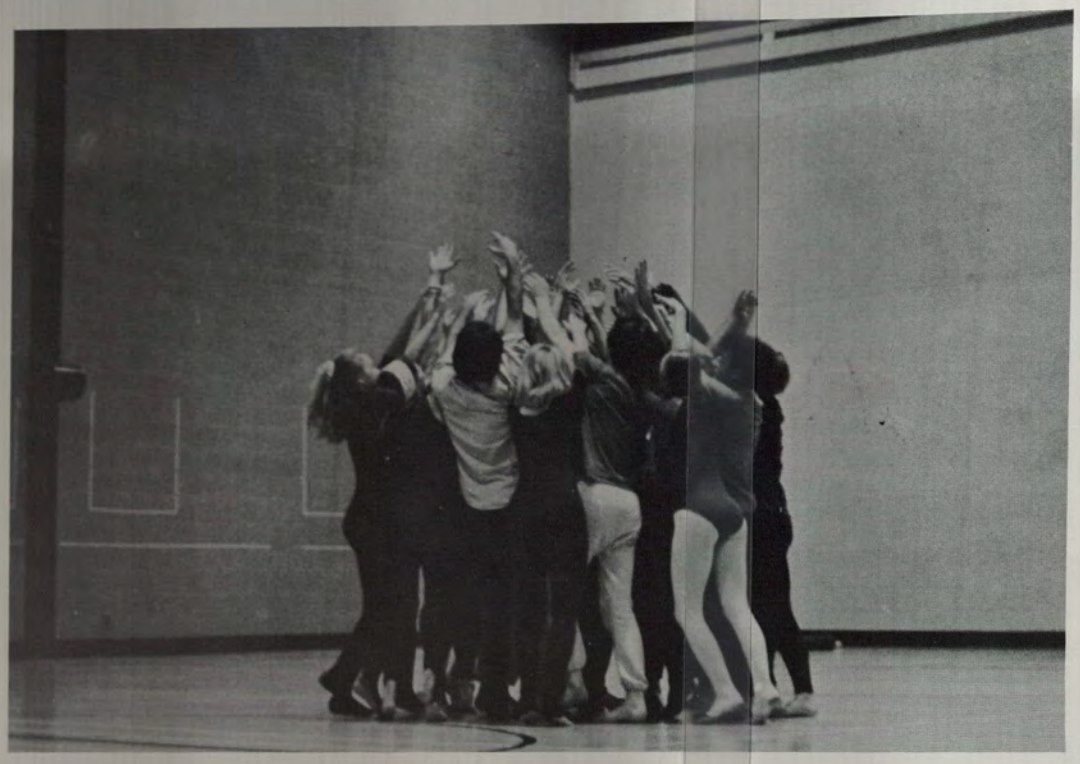
DEDICATION:

Gertrude E. Noyes
Professor of English
1954-1969
Dean of the College
1958-1969

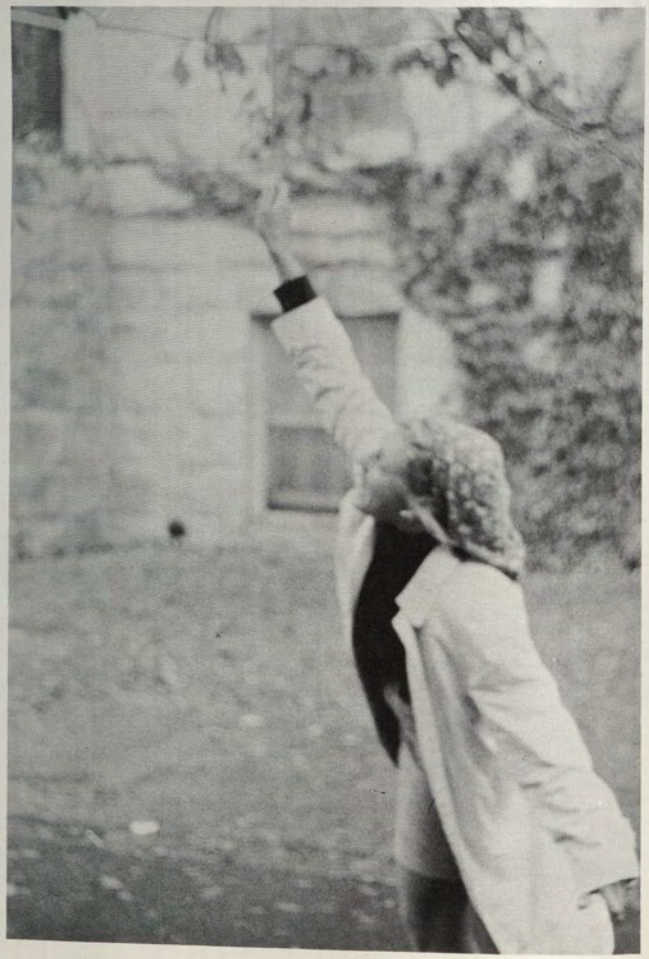
It is difficult to express what Dean Noyes' forty years of dedicated service to the Connecticut College community have meant to all of us who have had the opportunity of enjoying her patience, wisdom, and delightful sense of humor. Her personal concern for the development of Connecticut as an educational institution as well as for the development and well-being of its students has been one of the prime forces in the growth of the college. Students here, since 1929, have profited from the sense of direction which she has given them. We dedicate the 1969 Koiné to Gertrude E. Noyes, a graduate of Connecticut College, and teacher, mentor and advisor to its students. Her work within the college community is, itself, the finest tribute to Miss Noyes. She is indeed a part of all that she has met.

"Who are you whom I address?
Who takes down what I confess?
Are you a teacher of the heart?
A chorus answered Yes."
—Leonard Cohen

Each of us must find a way to say "Yes."

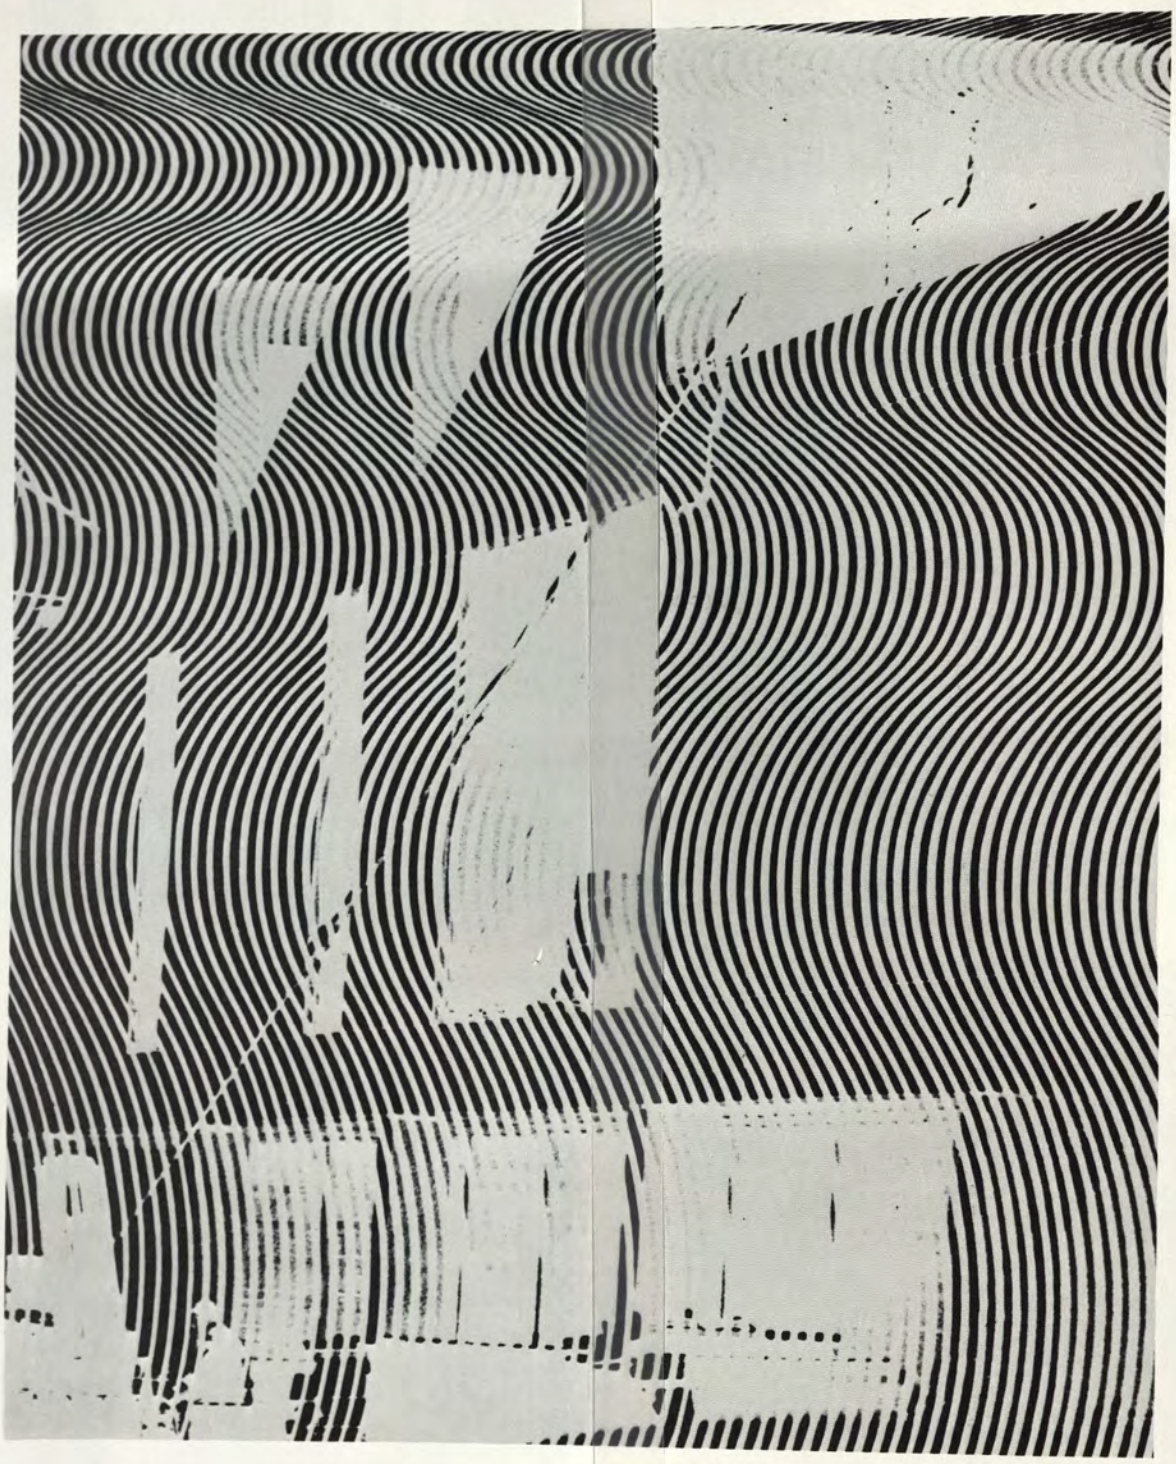


In full chorus. . . .



or solo.

The important thing is to sing.



"Late at night when I look out at the buildings
I swear I see a face in every window looking back at me
and when I turn away
I wonder how many go back to their desks and write this down."

—Leonard Cohen

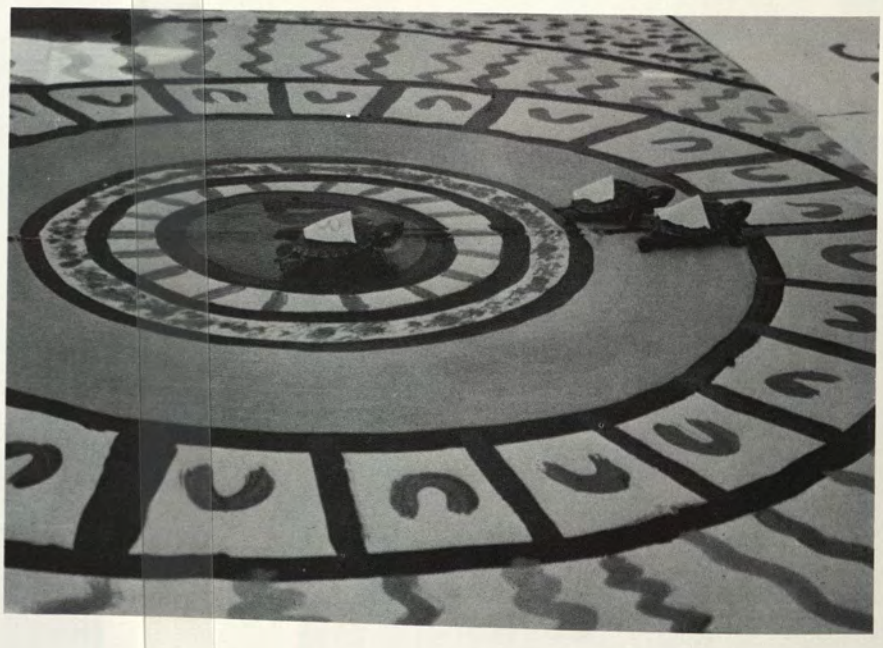
"We will walk on our own feet,



We will work with our own hands,

We will speak our own minds."
Ralph Waldo Emerson

"The enduring change that brings new directions and meaning into life comes on like a new day . . .

not all at once, but in a growing definition of shapes . . .

and finally a growing fullness of light and movement."
—U.S. Commission
on Mental Illness.

It seems we're always waiting.

"... and I am waiting for some strains of unpremeditated art to shake my typewriter."
Lawrence Ferlinghetti

I began here alone,
and though I grow toward others,
sometimes I must retreat into that first solitude of self—in the corners of nature or spaces of my mind.

HARKNESS

when the silence of my own voice is not enough . . .

I seek my friends
come the same long way.

"Here we are at the window. So long I've tried to give a name to freedom, today my freedom lost its name, like a student's room travelling into the morning with its lights still on."

—Leonard Cohen

"How can I further encourage you to go about the business of life."
—Virginia Woolf

OKS TO BE DELIVERED OUTSIDE
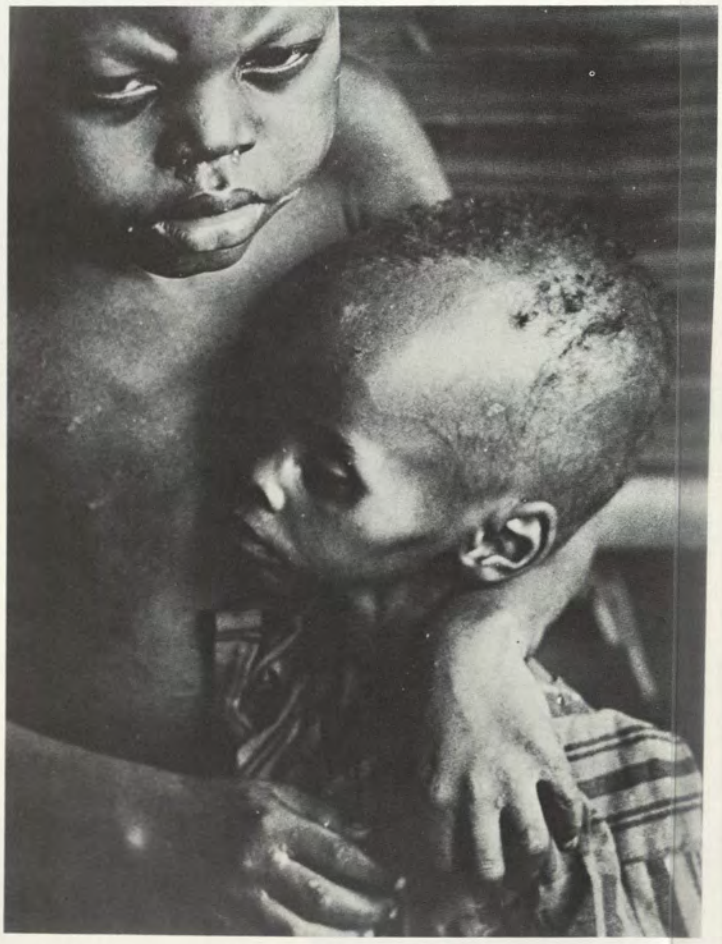
E. LIBRARY

My mind is only one mind and my needs are small ones, but my cares must extend from the grassy path I walk daily to the hard road upon which we all must tread—otherwise I am not man.



I dream a world where man
No other will scorn,
Where love will bless the earth
And peace its paths adorn.
I dream a world where all
Will know sweet freedom's way,
Where greed no longer saps the soul
Nor avarice blights our day.
A world I dream where black or white,
Whatever race you be,
Will share the bounties of the earth
And every man is free,
Where wretchedness will hang its head,
And joy, like a pearl,
Attend the needs of all mankind . . .

. . . of such I dream—
Our world!
Langston Hughes

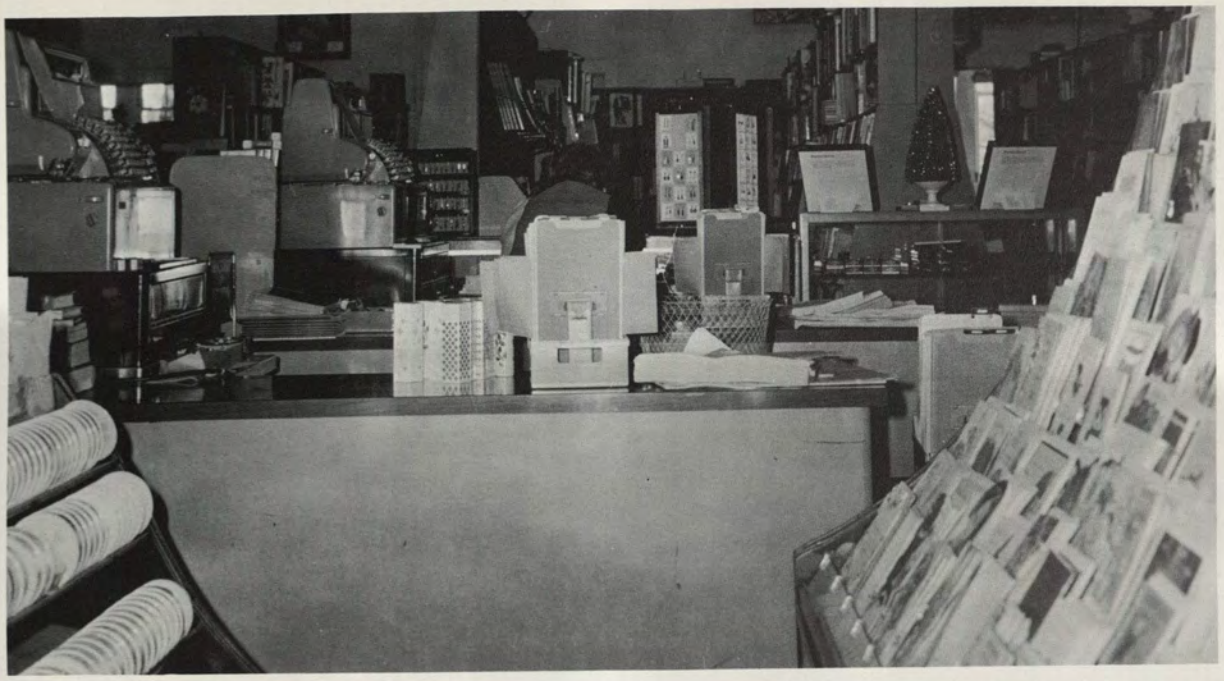
EXIT



Steps to take, stairs to climb to reach the top and the end of the climb and then I look back and see myself climbing the steps and I am the stairs soaring toward myself.

"Constellation Consternation, or
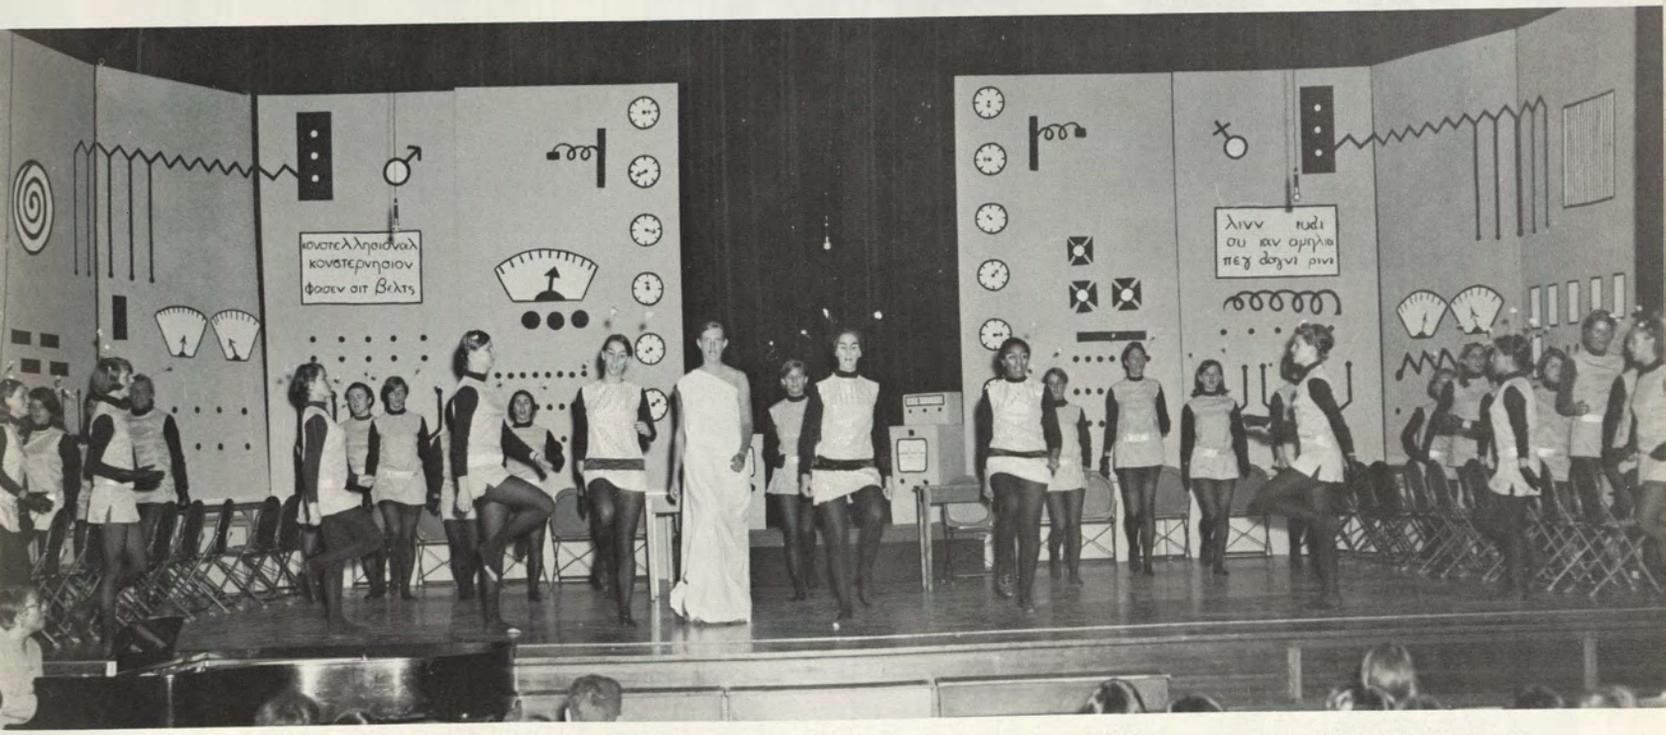
All She Needs is Love"

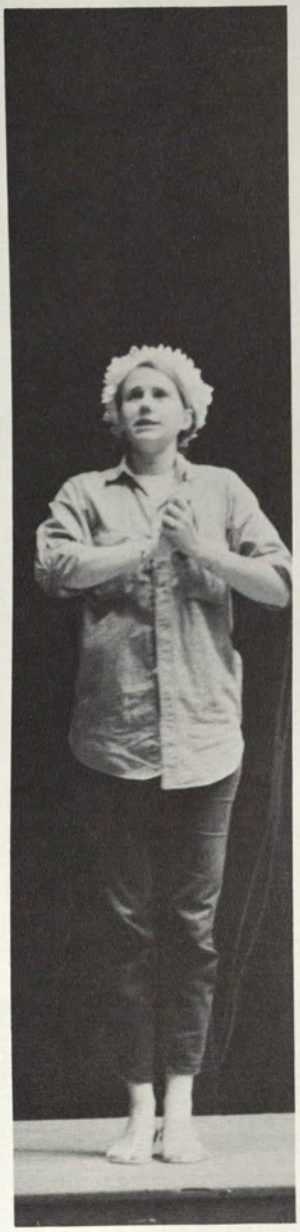
Junior Show, May 3 and 4, 1968



"What's a nice girl like you doing in a place like this?"
"My sister-in-law recommended it."

Whoever thought I'd see the day
That I'd finally meet my fiance . . .
We'll always be together.

We rehearsed.



We performed.

"What does it mean to feel?
Can it be something real?
I don't know why or how.
I have not lived 'til now."

The Peppershakers!

And finally!

sweet Virginia

"a truly hair-raising experience"

"all due to that fruit"

"I feel a, (puff, puff) shortness of breath, a quickening of my pulse, and a rapid beating of my heart!"

Is it the drama in our lives or the ham?

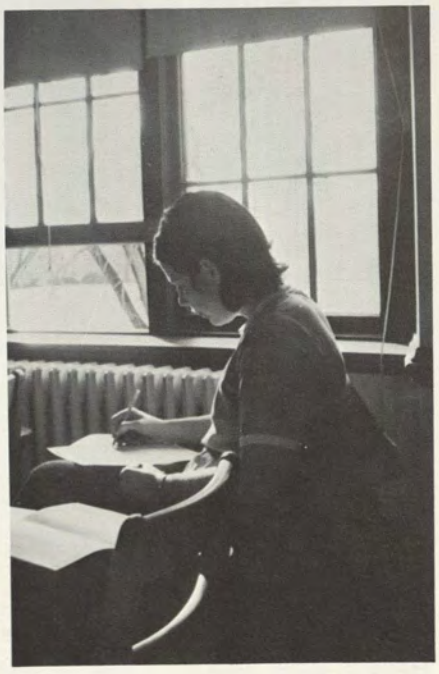
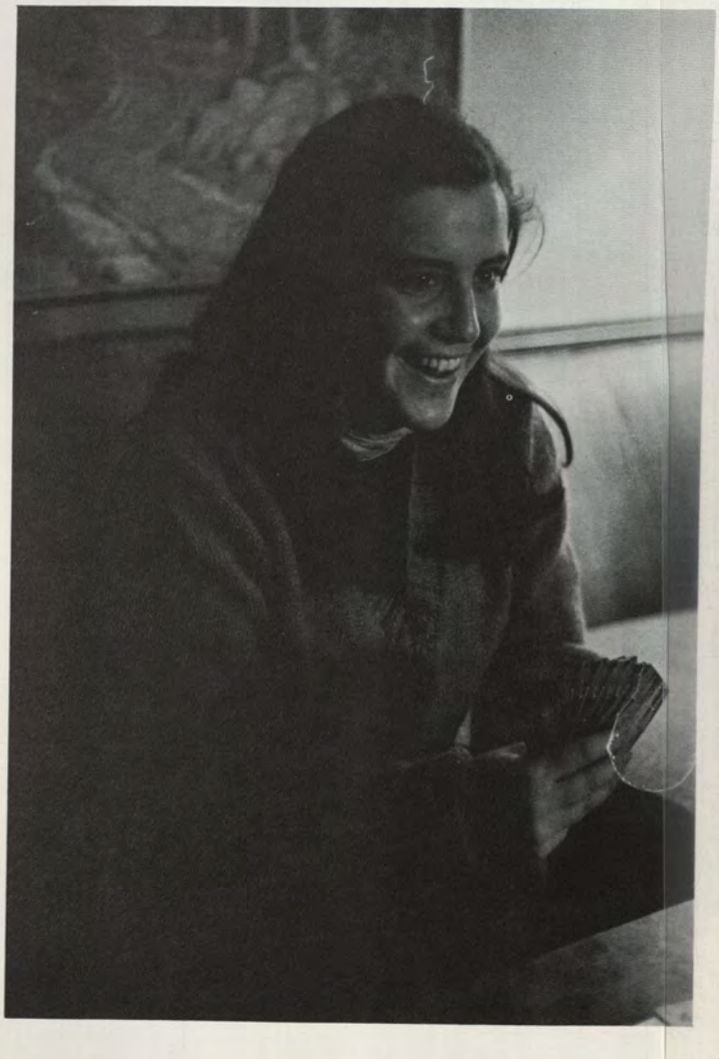
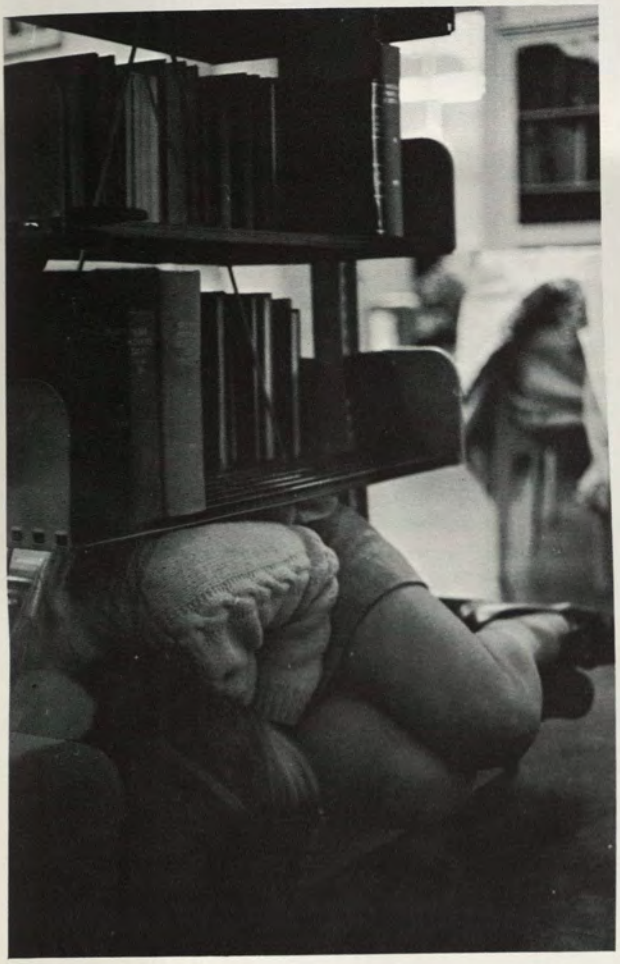
A curious mixture of both—

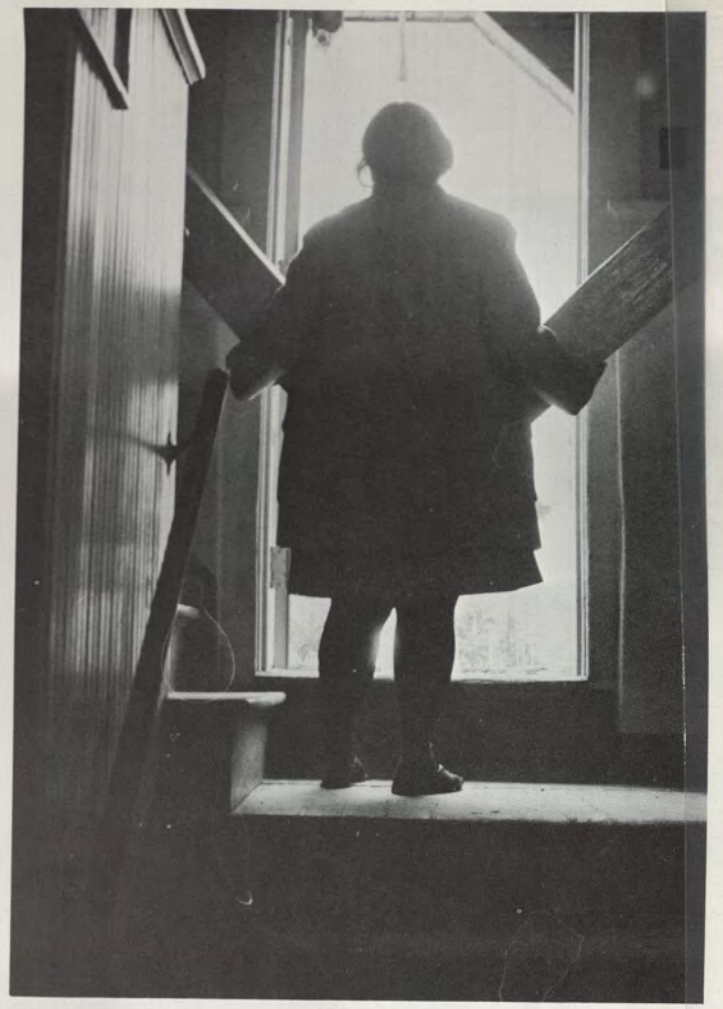


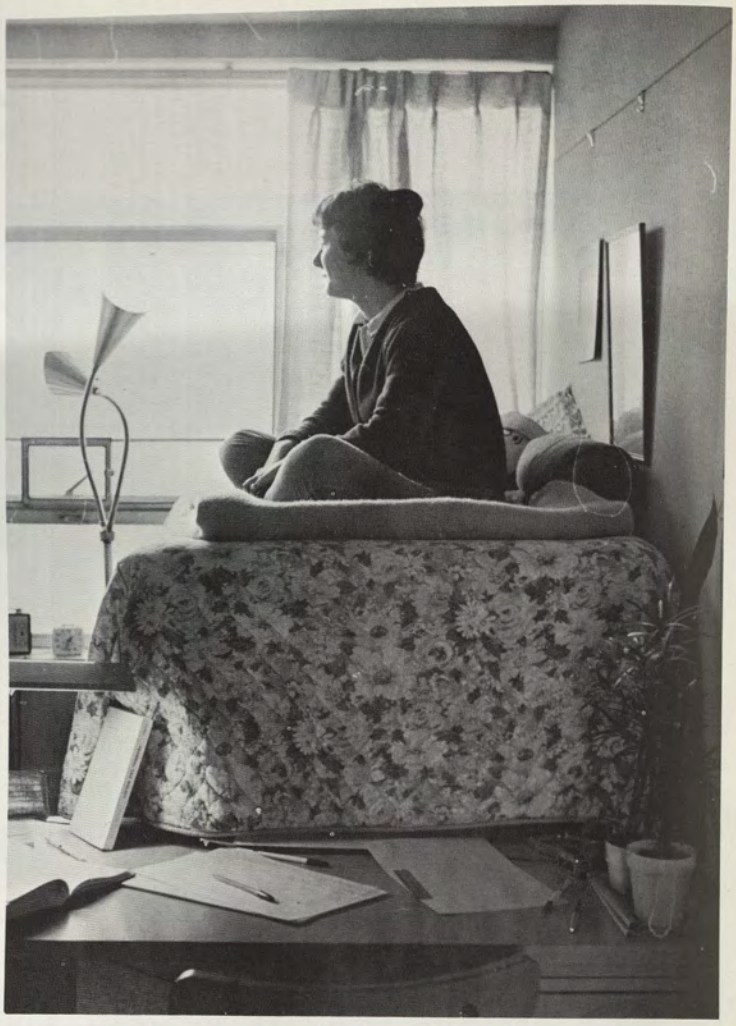
To study

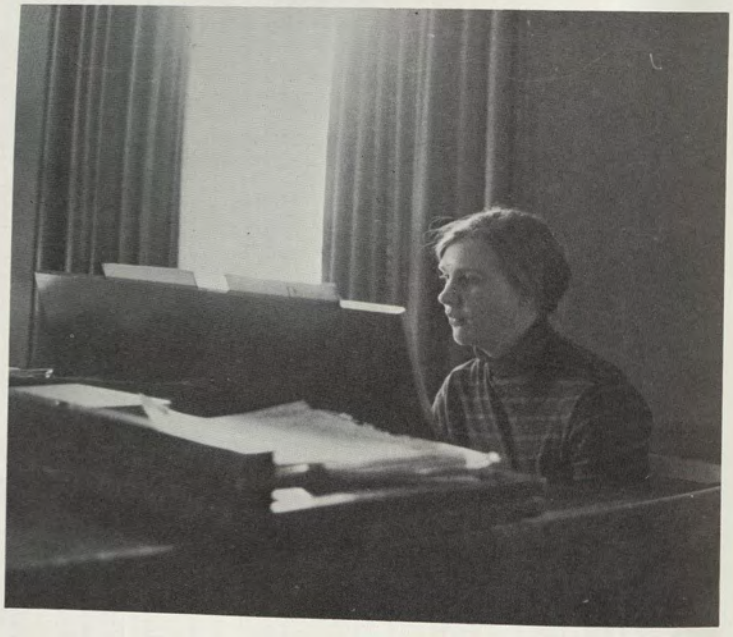


To study?
To STUDY?









"You bet your sweet bippy"

"The arrangement contains the desire of The artist. But one confides in what has no
Concealed creator. One walks easily
The unpainted shore, accepts the world
As anything but sculpture . . .

. . . Good-bye,
Mrs. Pappadopoulos, and thanks."
Wallace Stevens

"You stay right there. Hell, you can take over the History Department just as easy from there as anywhere else. God knows, *some*body's going to take over the History Department, some day."

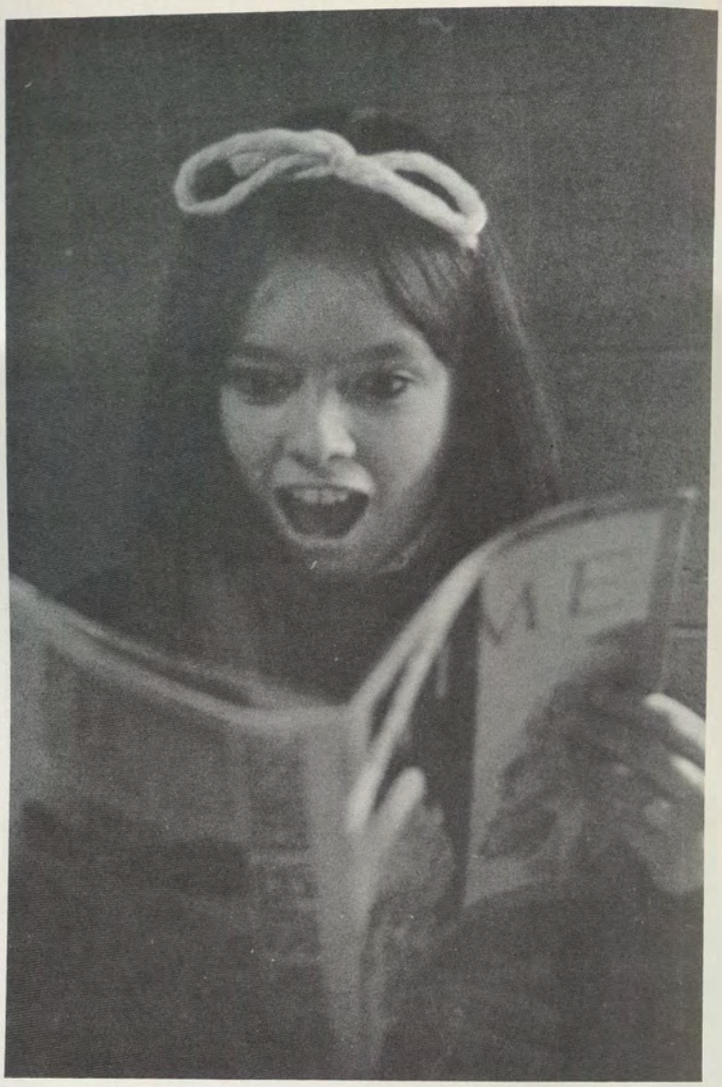
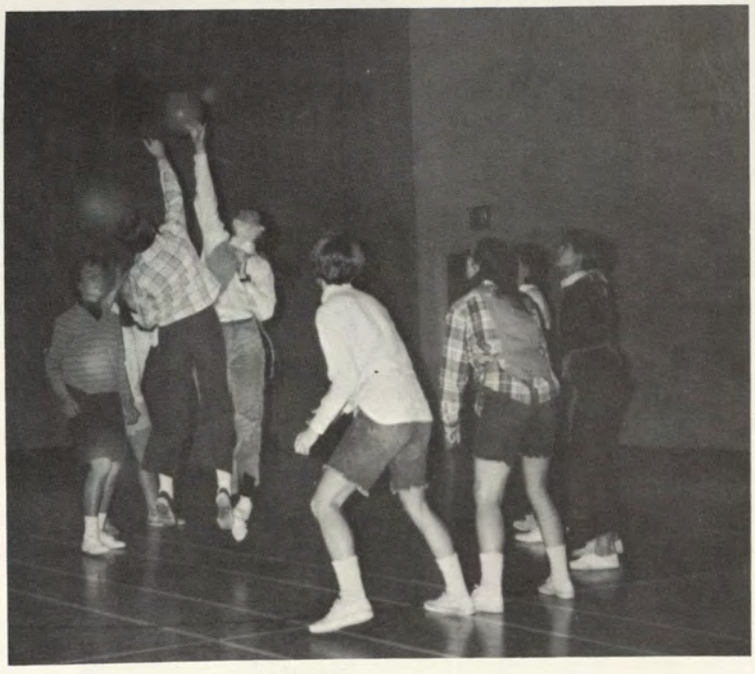
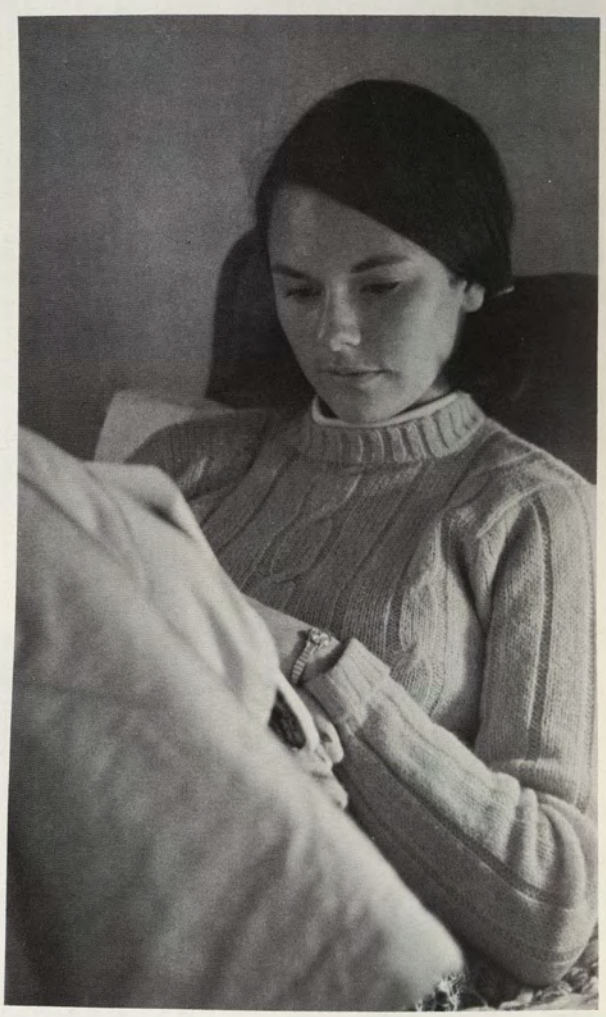
I've been a College Student for 1,300 days and what have I to show for it all besides fifteen extra pounds of flesh, bitten nails and a callous on my writing finger? I don't know. Some days I just don't know.

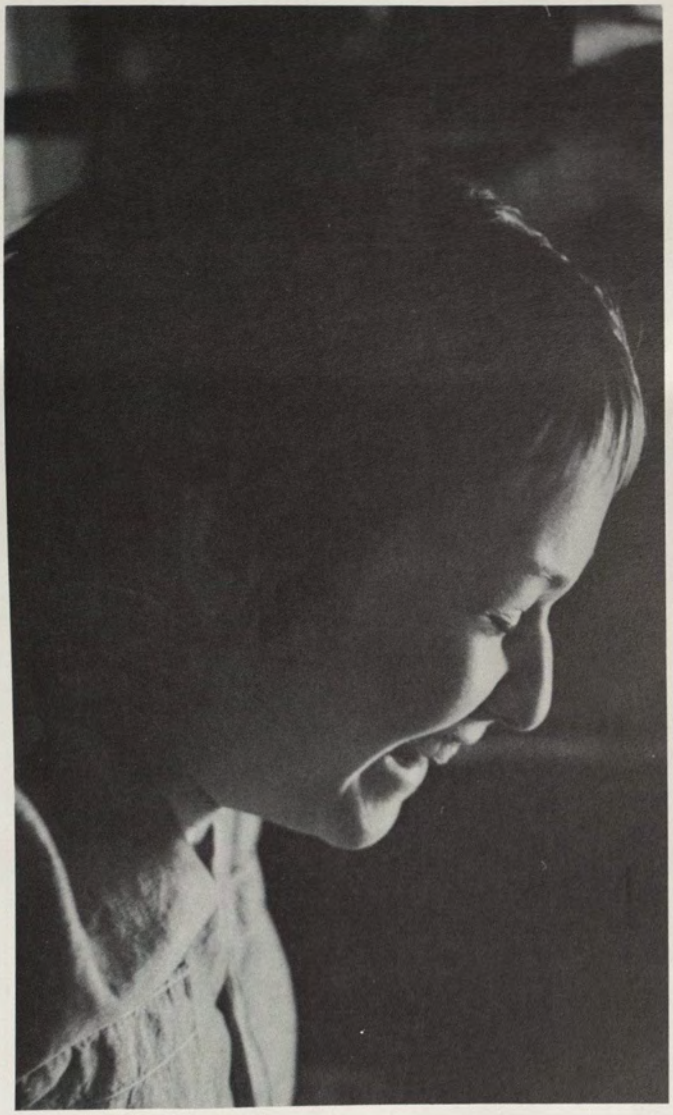
The world spinning madly,
It drifts through the dark,
Swings through a hollow of haze;
A race around the stars,
A journey through the universe ablaze
With changes.

—Phil Ochs

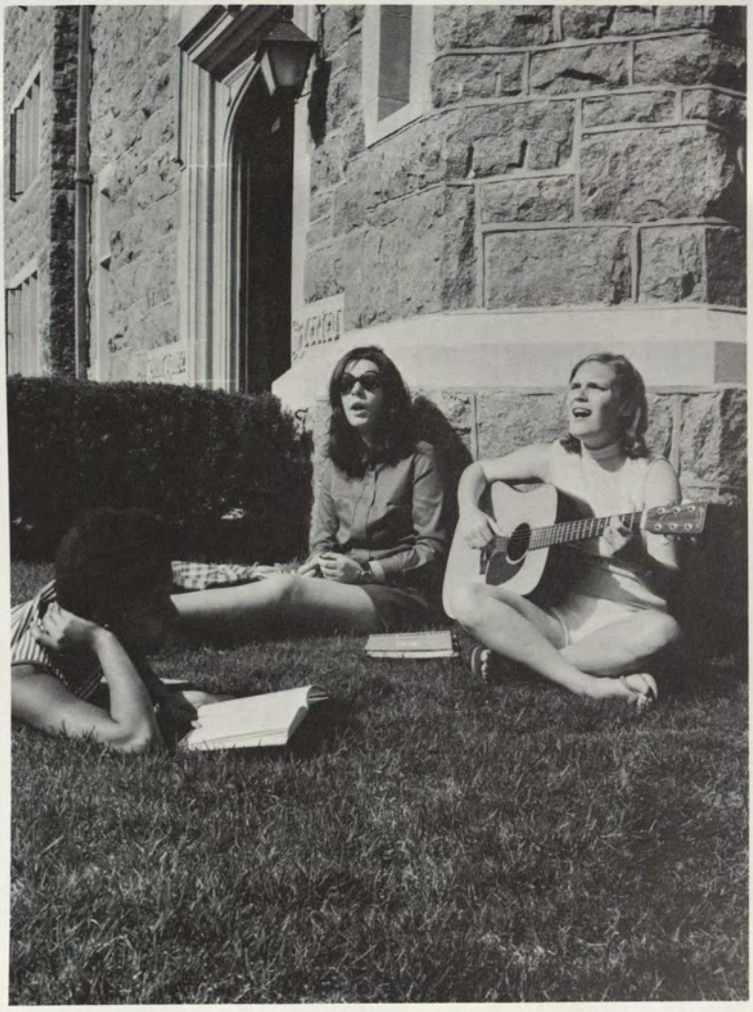




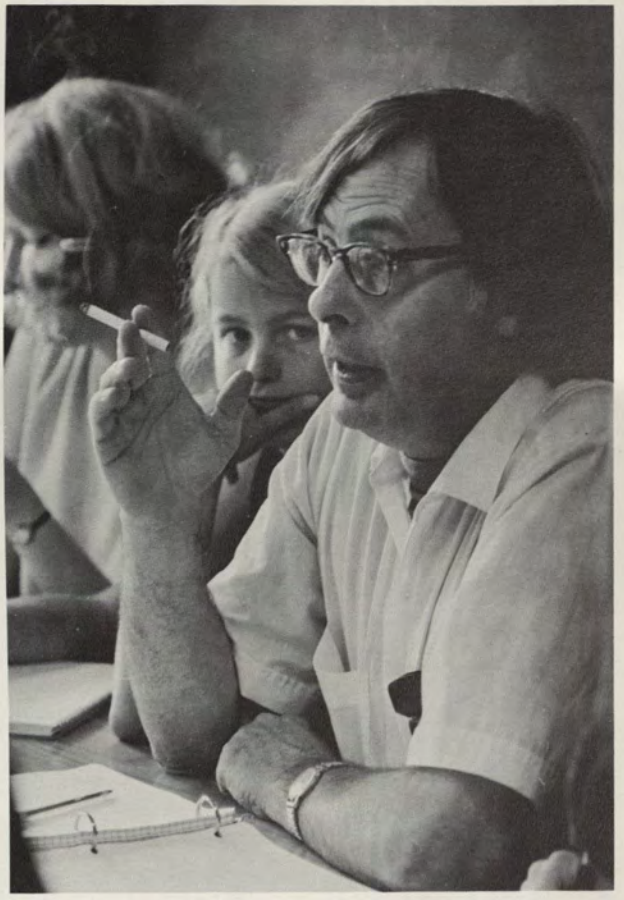


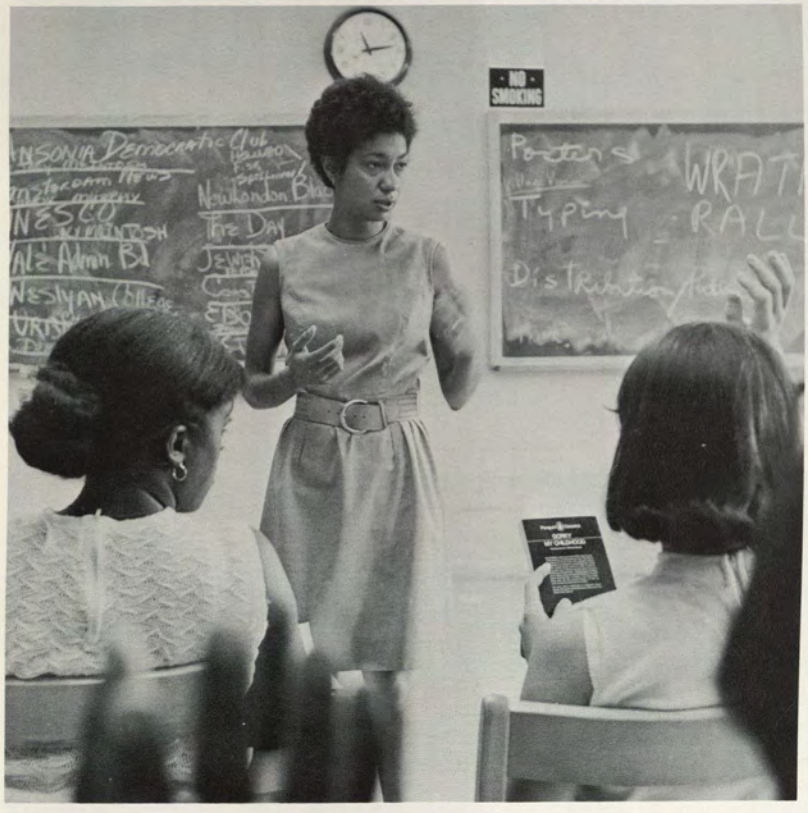


The universe is tugging me in a direction not on my compass. A new dimension, then?



Where did he get the gall to stand up before us and claim to know? Necessity has taught him to construct wings of paper and paste and, somehow, to fly.





"Nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do."
—Genesis 11:6

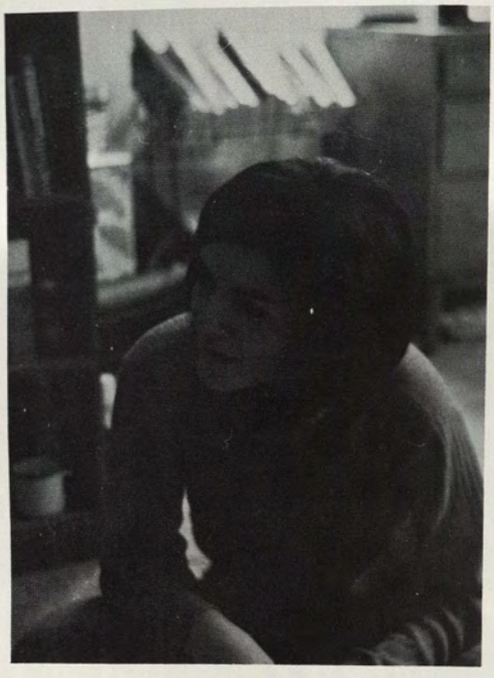
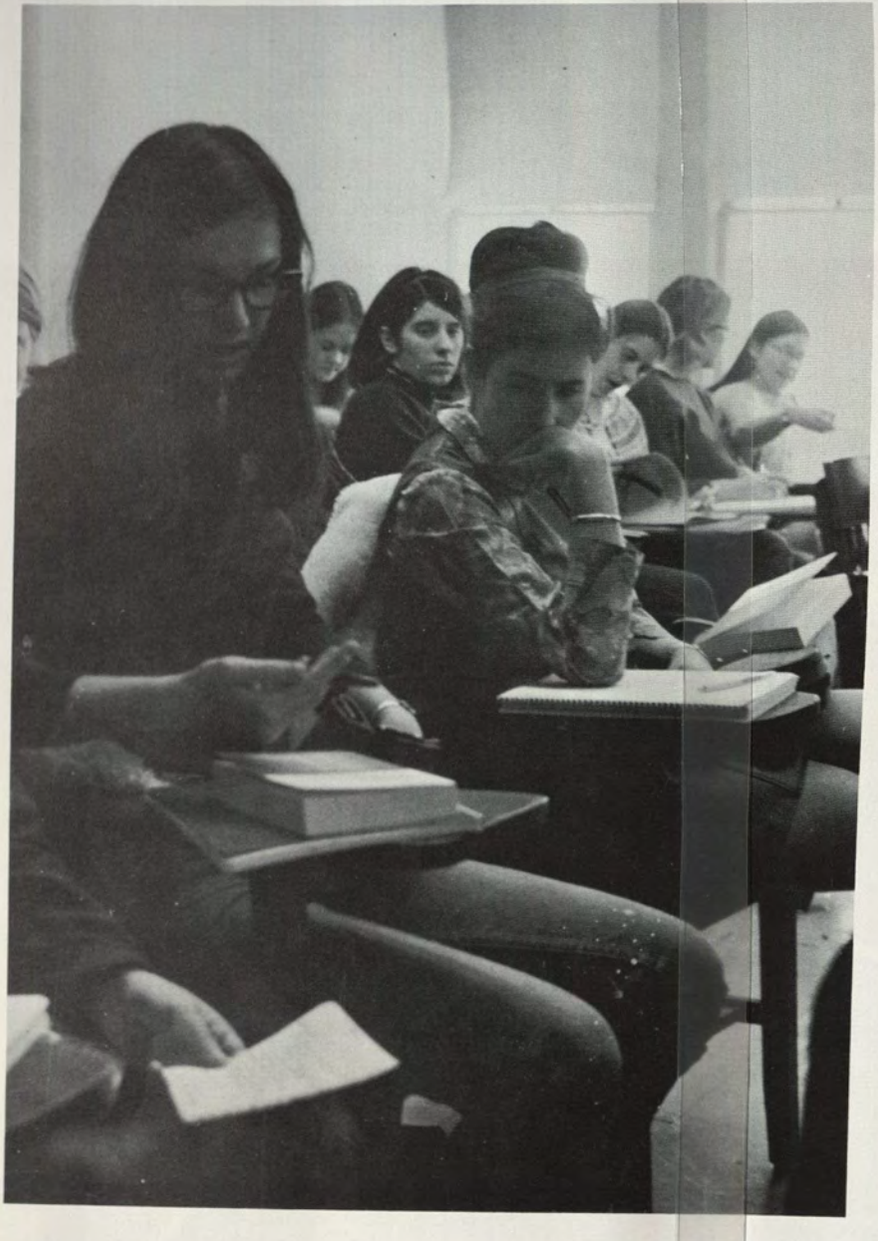
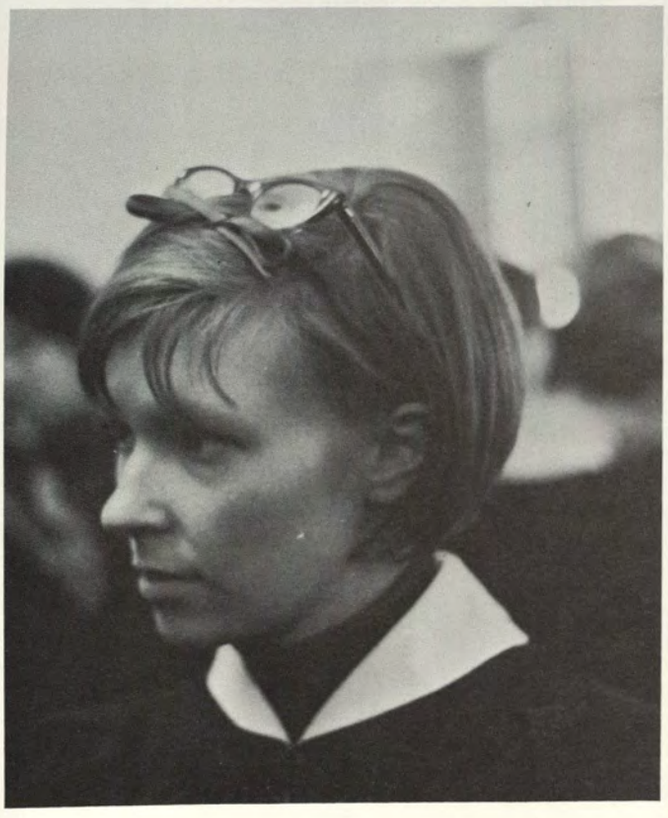
Misery depresses you. Ignorance depresses you. Persecution depresses you. Violence depresses you. Slums depress you. Greed depresses you. Crime depresses you. Corruption depresses you. You know, it wouldn't surprise me if you're a manicdepressive!

—Joseph Heller







These were . . ." the fruitful intervals of groping, when the mind is as it were in solution—ready for all manner of new reactions, new combinations and new beginnings."

Let the guest sojourning here know that in this home our life is simple. What we cannot afford, we do not offer, but..... what good cheer we can give, we give gladly

We make no strife for appearance~ sake, know also friend, that we live a life of labour, therefore, if at times we separate ourselves from thee, do ye occupy thyself~ according to thine hearts desire.

We will not defer to thee in opinion or ask thee to defer to us. What thou thinketh ye shall say if ye wish, without giving offense. What we think, we also say, believing that truth hath many aspects and that love is large enough to encompass them all~

So, while ye tarry here with us we would have thee enjoy the blessings of a home, health, love and freedom, and we pray that thou mayst find the final blessing of life.
