Walk very (therefore and)
softly among one's own memory . . .

e.e. cummings

we have come to believe that that essence which is the self is neither monolithic nor immutable.
it is rather a collection of fragments which rearrange themselves in a variety of patterns.
the change is inevitable,
the form it will take unpredictable.
however, the essential components remain unaltered
throughout this metamorphosis.
it is only their formation which is restructured.
these pages contain
a capsule of our change which is a shifting motion of focus and horizon.

I tell you
there are only

the myths
of childhood

geometry
nothing more.
Howard
McCord

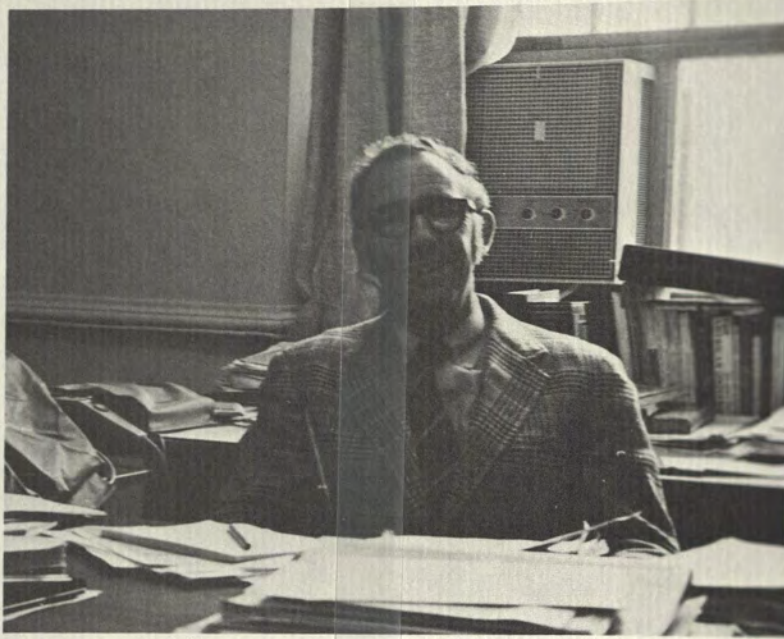

I am an inventor
of ceaseless alphabets
each more complex than the next . . .

Receive Ye Welcome

Let the guest sojourning here know that in this home our life is simple. What we cannot afford, we do not offer, but..... what good cheer we can give, we give gladly

We make no strife for appearance sake, know also friend, that we live a life of labour, therefore, if at times we separate ourselves from thee, do ye occupy thyself according to thine hearts desire. ~~~~~

We will not defer to thee in opinion or ask thee to defer to us. What thou thinketh ye shall say if ye wish, without giving offense. What we think, we also say, believing that truth hath many aspects and that love is large enough to encompass them all

So, while ye tarry here with us we would have thee enjoy the blessings of a home, health, love and freedom, and we pray that thou mayst find the final blessing of life.

Here's what

"Where the Girls Are"

by the staff of the Daily Princetonian

says about

LIGHTHOUSE INN

"For eating, Lighthouse Inn overlooking the ocean is best—but what a price to pay for water."

Peter M. Sandman and Co. must have their little joke. They should come for the "Weeknighter" when dinner—Sirloin, Prime Rib, Stuffed Shrimp, or Rock Cornish Game Hen at $3.95 gives a date and her escort change enough from a ten for a pre-prandial Martini.

To the class of '72

In the depth of your hopes and desires lies your silent knowledge of the beyond;

And like seeds dreaming beneath the snow your heart dreams of spring.

Trust your dreams for in them is hidden the gate to eternity.
