The Juniors Show...

October 12, 1966

Director of Admissions
Connecticut College for Women
New London Connecticut

Dear Dean:

We, the undersigned, members of Hewitt Hall, Wesleyan University, would like to congratulate you on your excellent choice of the Class of '70.

Sincerely,

"The Junior Doesn't Show," perhaps, but the Juniors ther... did.

With vinyl-coated kickers; Jill Silverman the ex-Conn; th... dear local color figures," Helen Reynolds and Pat Altobello... cast of New York lunch counter sitters unparalled in its dim... all musically directed by Tracey Sprackling--the entire Jun... sparkled last Friday and Saturday evenings.

Jane Ranallo and Diana Rabenold presented a show... in "New York, the town and a half" that was indeed a sh... half. On paper in March the show was funny; on the stag... with Silverman and company, including Sue Boone, ... Bronfman, Joanne Flynne, Janet Finklestein, Lila Gault an... Helen, Pat and the fuzzy pickle, it was hysterical.

Sets by Beth Marshall and Nicki Kalish, costumes... d Karen Dybvig, and props by Ellen Sudow adde...

amatic extravaganza.

The musical score, entirely composed by Tracey Spr... anced by the brilliant lyrics of Kathy Spendlove.

ganized and produced by Cheri Shepley and Marian Ri...

Highlights of the Show are too numerous to list; to this ... a prejudiced member of the Junior Class, the entire show merits ... tioning. But Helen and Pat, as Sam and Rosy, were something to write home to mother about. Fortunately, mother was there.

Hopefully the chorus girls' union representative wasn't.

To Jane Ranallo, thank you. And get some sleep. You hav... successfully wiped the fuzz off the Junior Class pickle.

Harvard has its ...ale has ...s Tower; Brown has ... Gates; and ...w . . . a new symbol looms on ...e horizon of a hill in New Lon...n.

Perhaps now that a veritable ...hite Tower has been erected on ...s hill, sometimes known as ...ngry', the day may come when a ...hing neon 'EAT' sign will be ...ed. In the meantime, the new ...bol of CC needs a name.

...arious suggestions have already ...en made. The Class Menagerie, Winged Defeat, Donov... the Acropolis, the White Elephant, Gate-A-Go-Go, the White Whale and the Elgin Marbles are among the nominal gems that we have heard around the campus.

Votes of confidence and new suggestions are welcomed by Conn Census. Submit your ideas to Box 1867.

Those who watched and partici... pated in the filming this summer found it educational and fascinat... ing. The advanced showing of the Group at Connecticut, which fol... lows the national premiere by only three days, promises to be equally exciting.

Class Song

The days we spend here
Fall off like leaves,
And all we have are memories.
So we'll remember our first September
And how friendships grew like flowers in the sun.

The days we spend here
Through smiles and tears
Arrange the pattern of these four years.
So we'll remember our first September
When our freshman year had just begun.

A time of learning,
A time of beauty,
A time of searching for what is true.
So we'll remember our first September,
And as each September passes,
The greatest of all classes
'68 Conn. College, we'll remember you!

". . . the distinction between faculty and students . . . [is] . . . somewhat like a mixture of oil and vinegar: if you shake them up enough they can create a fellow system. But if you allow the composite to go unstirred for awhile, it separates back into its elements.

The mixture of oil and vinegar, of course, was never meant to be a stable compound. But an important interchange takes place when their molecules are diffused—(we get salad dressing)—and similarly, the seasoning that comes from the mixture of faculty and students is indispensable to the quality and development of this college."

Colleges have a natural reluctance to get too personal with students and yet a good college education is extremely personal or it is nothing.

September, 1964

You cannot . . . tell yourself often enough that the only permanent education that you will get at Connecticut College is the one that you manage to give yourself.

February, 1966

DEDICATION

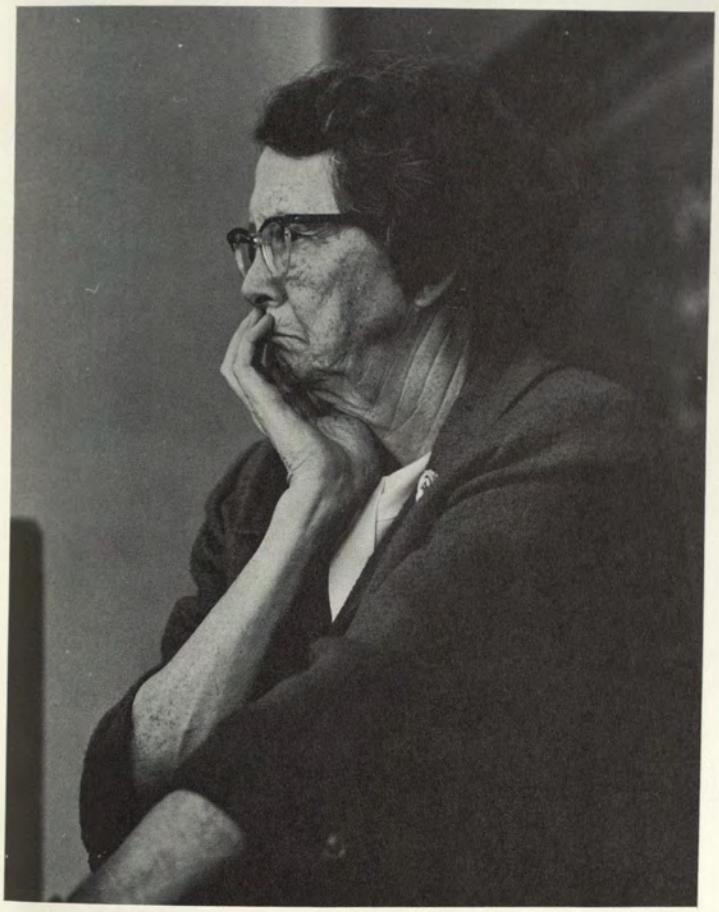
MARJORIE R. DILLEY, Ph.D.
Department of Government, Chairman

Miss Dilley presents her subject from fresh perspectives. Her approach is both Socratic and scholarly. No student finishes the year without being challenged to defend or question her facts, her values, and her raison d'être. No student ever finishes without an understanding of the work and dedication necessary for scholarship. And every student knows that she has met a teacher with a concern for every individual student's growth.

Priscilla Duxbury Westcott '41
President of Alumnae Association



It is one thing to show a man that he is in error,
and another to put him in possession of truth.

John Locke

IN RECOGNITION . . .

. . . into my life at the perfect hour. Earlier, I might not have understood. Later, it would have been too late.
Gauguin

FRANCES S. BRETT
Associate Professor of Physical Education

HARRIET B. WARNER
Associate Professor of Child Development

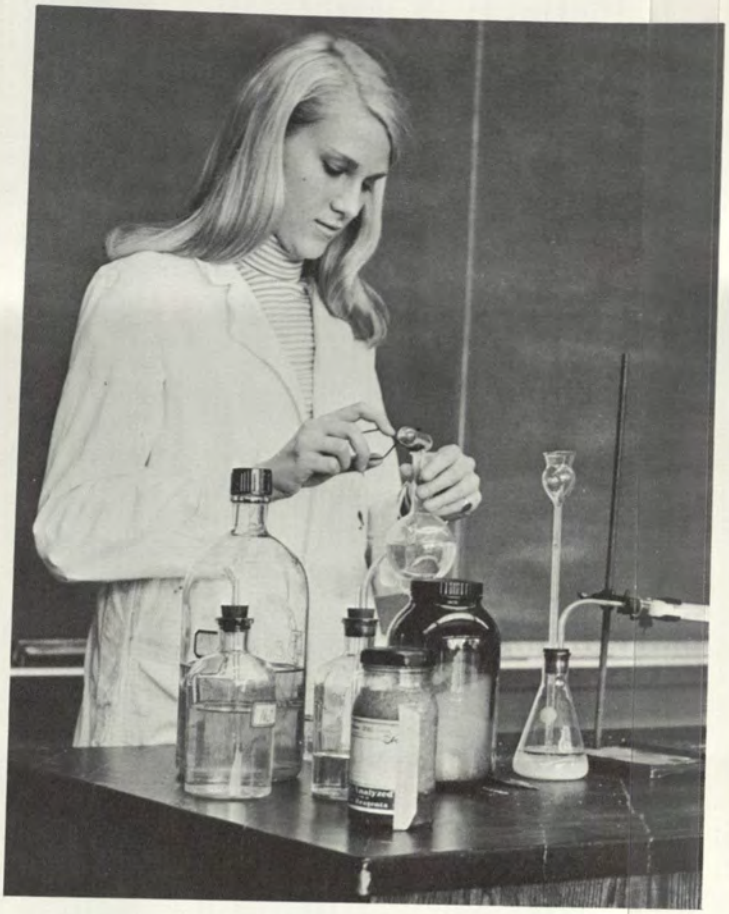
SVETLANA KASEM-BEG
Instructor of Russian

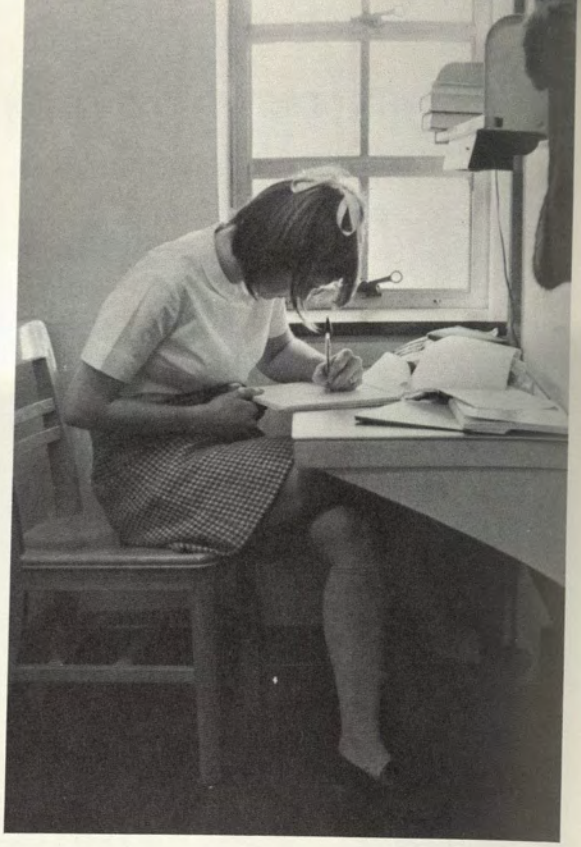
HAZEL A. JOHNSON
College Librarian

DOROTHY RICHARDSON
Professor of Zoology

If the heavens were all parchment,
and the trees of the forest all pens,
and every human being were a scribe,
it would still be impossible to record
all that I have learned from my teachers.
Jochanan Ben Zakkai

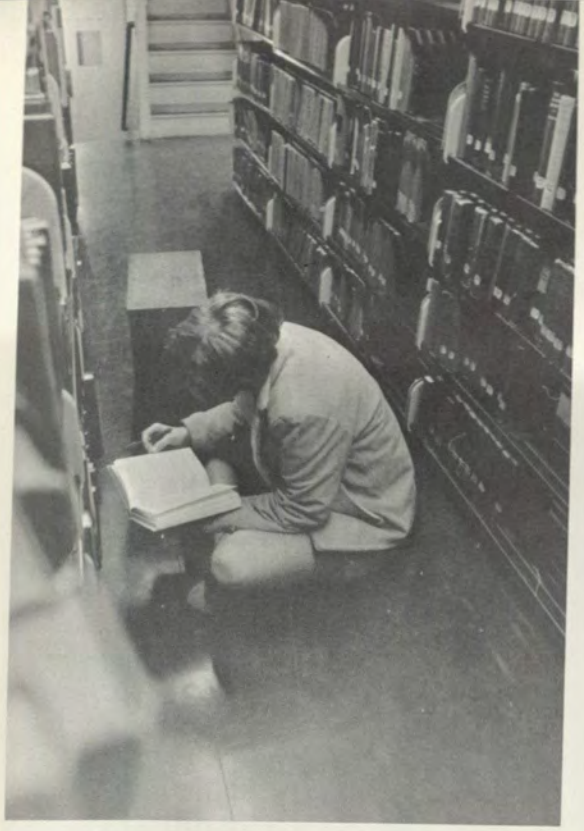
SIBYL A. HAUSMAN
Associate Professor of Zoology





Some of the pleasure and the training of finding your way must be yours alone. You will read texts and documents, work on the meaning of a poem, carry on experiments in the laboratory, and be able, after a time, really to say, "I see, I understand."

Helen F. Mulvey
Professor of History



RUSSIAN: Mr. Despalatovic, Mrs. Reeve, Mrs. Kocich, Mr. Papov.

ZOOLOGY: Mr. De Santo, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Roach, Miss Richardson, Miss Hausman, Miss Wheeler.

When you fall in love with a subject, it ceases to be a subject and becomes a means of natural grace, and the person teaching it is no longer seen as a professor, but is rather like a matchmaker.

Robert W. Jordan
Professor of Philosophy

THE GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA
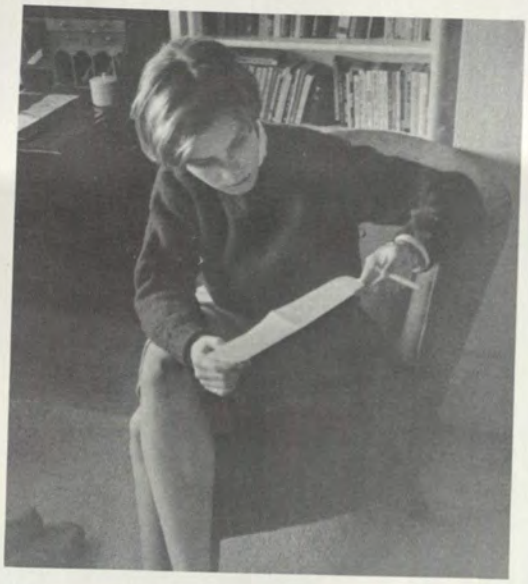
IS A MOTHER



It is the dull, eventless times that have no duration whatever. A time splashed with interest, wounded with tragedy, crevassed with joy—that's the time that seems long in the memory.

Receive Ye Welcome

Let the guest sojourning here know that in this home our life is simple. What we cannot afford, we do not offer, but..... what good cheer we can give, we give gladly

We make no strife for appearance~ sake, know also friend, that we live a life of labour, therefore, if at times we separate ourselves from thee, do ye occupy thyself~ according to thine hearts desire.

We will not defer to thee in opinion or ask thee to defer to us. What thou thinketh ye shall say if ye wish, without giving offense. What we think, we also say, believing that truth hath many aspects and that love is large enough to encompass them all~

So, while ye tarry here with us we would have thee enjoy the blessings of a home, health, love and freedom, and we pray that thou mayst find the final blessing of life.

How shall I go in peace and without sorrow? Nay, not without a wound in the spirit shall I leave...

Long were the days of pain I have spent within its walls, and long were the nights of aloneness; and who can depart from his pain and his aloneness without regret?

Too many fragments of the spirit have I scattered in these streets,... and I cannot withdraw from them without a burden and an ache.

It is not a garment I cast off this day, but a skin that I tear with my own hands.

Nor is it a thought I leave behind me, but a heart made sweet with hunger and with thirst.

Yet I cannot tarry longer...

Kahil Gibran, The Prophet
