DEDICATION

"Hi, honey, how are my kids today?" is the familiar greeting delivered by one of Connecticut College's unsung heroes. The greeting belongs to Mrs. Mayme Johann, known affectionately as Mrs. Jo, who is the receptionist behind the main desk at Crozier-Williams. Her frequent smiling glances and raised eyebrows greet us on our trips in and out of the Snackshop, the locker room, and the campus bar, and her eagle eye is always on the lookout for new faces and mischief.

Mrs. Jo's terrific sense of humor and obvious love for the student body help more students sort out the crises of college life than do many of the more orthodox channels. She radiates the warmth of memories of home and is referred to as "Ma" by her family of students. She has, however, her own share of wild tales which cause students to break up with peals of laughter and to impulsively reach over and plant a kiss on her cheek. She leaves one with a feeling of wholesome security, surprisingly appreciated in our atmosphere of newly acquired freedom.

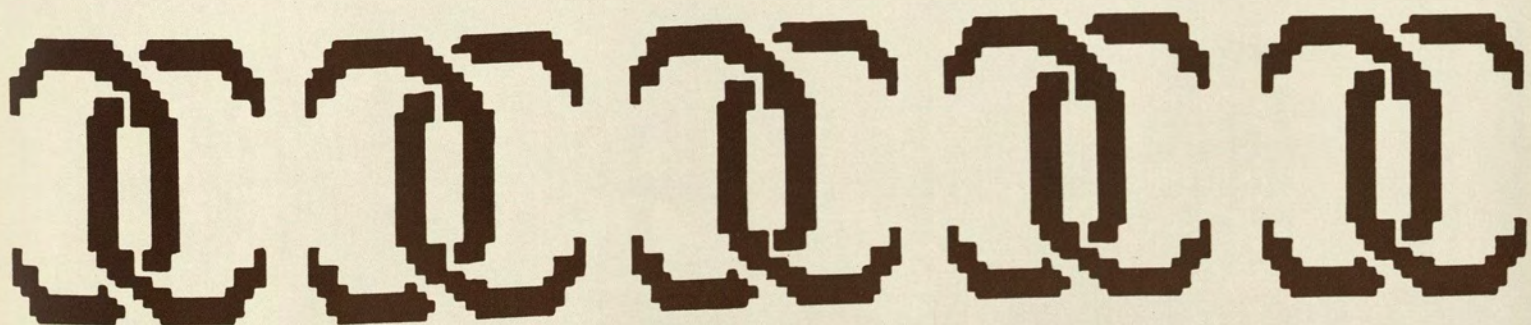

Mrs. Jo is a part of the community whose devotion to her "kids" makes life at Conn a little more pleasant. We, therefore, dedicate this yearbook to her for her vitality and overwhelming concern for the students here.

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

STAFF

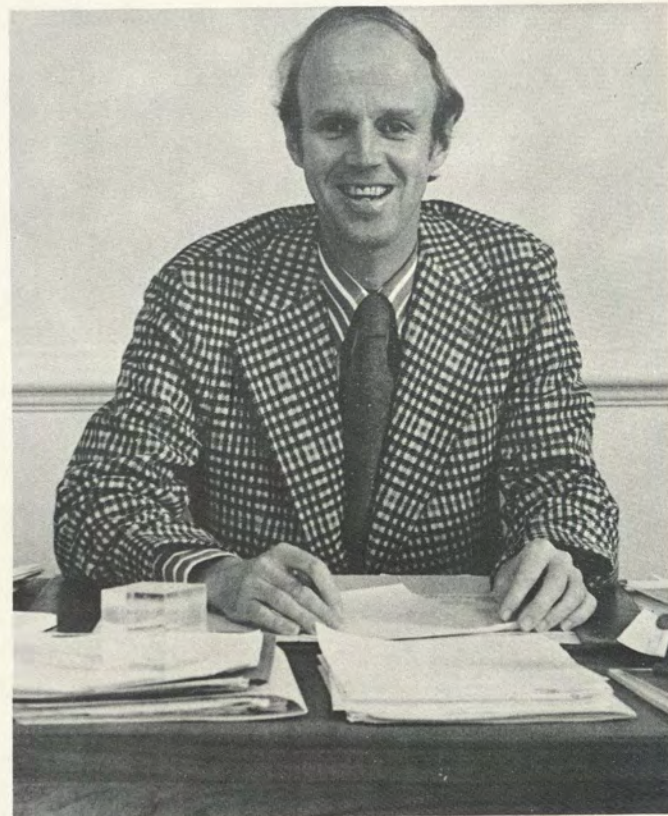

From the President

As you finish your work at Connecticut College and prepare to undertake further study or look for a job, the problems facing the nation and the world appear more complex and difficult than at any time in history. The individual might be sorely tempted to say "what difference can my efforts make?" and then retreat into a life of disengagement. I hope that your education here has, instead, helped to prepare each of you for a life of commitment that will call for the very best of your abilities. Robert Frost spoke about it in his poem "The Gift Outright":

"... Something we were withholding made us weak Until we found out that it was ourselves
We were withholding from our land of living,
And forthwith found salvation in surrender.
Such as we were we gave ourselves
outright"
