KOINE —

From the Greek word koinos signifying democracy, thus — common to all.

More than just a senior class yearbook, the Koine serves to capture as much of the atmosphere and spirit of Connecticut College as possible. It is to appeal not only to seniors, but to the entire student body, as its name says it must.

DEDICATION

The 1981 Koine is dedicated to the George S. Palmer Library and the Connecticut College spirit which is embodied in her proud history and exciting future. The story of Palmer Library begins at the first Connecticut College commencement where philanthropist George S. Palmer announced his gift of $100,000 for "a library or a chapel." Since its opening in 1923, Palmer Library has served as the campus' elegant centerpiece, rising magnificently at the top of the college green. The completion of the new library in 1976 led to Palmer Library's retirement, and since then it has sat awaiting its exciting new career. Its doors are opened rarely; annually for the Connecticut College book sale, and once in 1978 to host an all campus social event which not one of us has forgotten. Plans have been presented to convert Palmer Library into a new humanities center, complete with new classrooms, lecture halls, seminar rooms, and faculty offices.

As soon-to-be graduates, the class of 1982 shares the excitement of embarking upon new directions at the same time as our college. We are proud recipients of degrees from an institution of high academic caliber which is the Connecticut College tradition, a tradition represented by Palmer Library. Furthermore, we have used these four years as a time to develop our abilities to think and question, a waiting period proceeding our new careers — an investment in our future.

We applaud the spirit of past, present, and future which is the Connecticut College experience, and hope the 1982 Koine has captured its essence as well.

Paul Weiss
1982 Class President

Athletics and Intramurals have come a long way in the last four years. Interest is at an all-time high. The number of participants has us literally busting at the seams.

Intramural sports are now offered in 14 sports with 1339 people involved. First semester team 1981-82 Champions were: Flag Football, Larrabee/off campus; Indoor Soccer, Lambdin/Hamilton III.

The accomplishments of our athletic teams put us in a class with the best small schools in New England. Some of the team achievements in 1980-81 were: Women's Gymnastics record of 13-2 and 4th place finish in the EIAW Regionals; Men's Hockey had a record of 11-9 in our first year as ECAC Division III member; Men's Basketball 16-8 record and was voted Most Improved Team in New England; Women's Swim team had a record of 5-4; Men's Lacrosse came up with a record of 7-3 for the second straight year, wins were recorded over Holy Cross, Amherst and Wesleyan; Women's Crew has two New England Championships and won the Petite Final at the EWRA Rowing Championships; a Men's pair and freshman eight won silver medals at the Dad Vail Championships plus we had a lightweight four New England Champion; Men's Soccer just missed a bid to the ECAC playoffs and the Women's Basketball team was invited to participate in the NIAC playoffs. Finally, Women's Tennis finished with a 11-8 record; Women's Volleyball recorded a 17-14 record and our sailing team was ranked nationally.

Individual accomplishments include: Colin Corkery's qualifying for the NCAA Track Championship in the 800 meters; Pat Moe and Sue Chamberlin's qualification for the AIAW Gymnastics Championship; Tamy Brown's selection to try out for the U.S. National Field Hockey Team; Dave Litoffs third place finish in New England Cross Country and participation in the NCAA Championship; Rocco D'Amiano's selection to the third team soccer All-American squad, a Connecticut first. Also, Rita MacInnis will graduate with the all-time Women's Basketball scoring record and Anne Sayre broke many swimming records.

To members of the Class of 1982: A parting message.

Thank you.

For electing me to serve as your Class President so many years ago.
At the time, so few of you even knew me.

For demanding, in that first year, that I be the very best officer that I was capable of being.

For re-electing me, in the years to follow, to more terms of office than anyone had served before.

For looking back, in these final days, and remembering all of the successes, ignoring all of the failures, and agreeing that we shared something which most classes merely strive for.

Mostly, thank you for allowing me to spend the four years past with you.
I am indebted simply because you accepted me as one of you, and it is a debt that I will forever be trying to repay.

In the meantime, may your happiness be limited only by the bounds of your dreams, and may you always remember these good old days as having been exactly that.

I, for one, will never forget.

Paul Weiss
