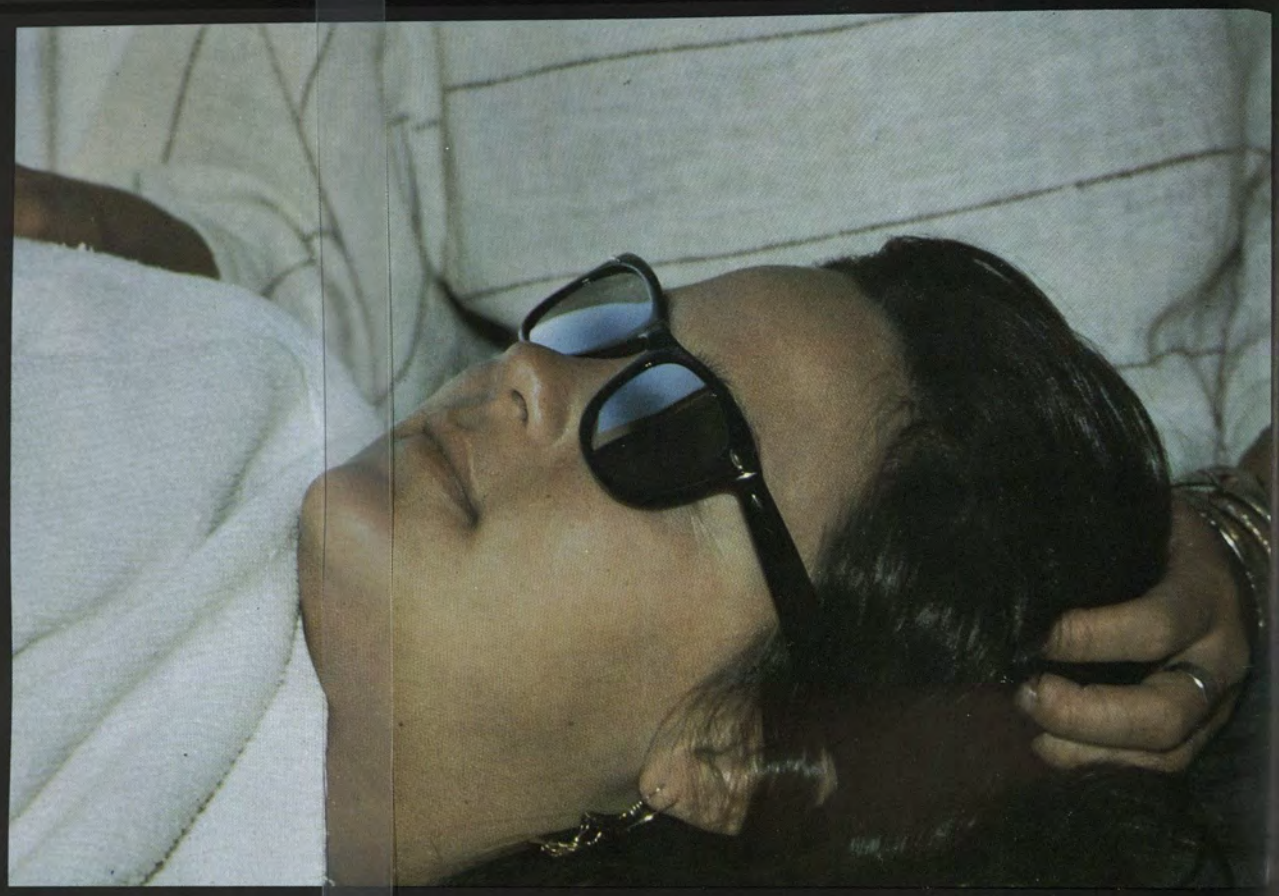
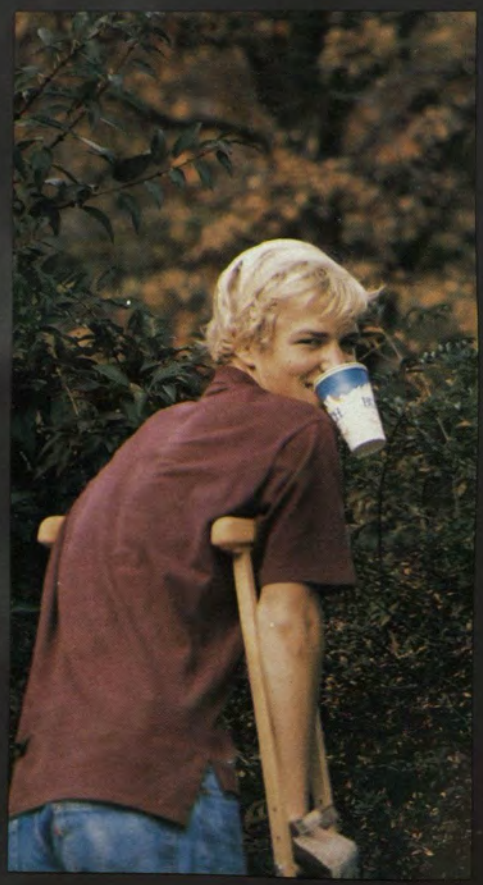
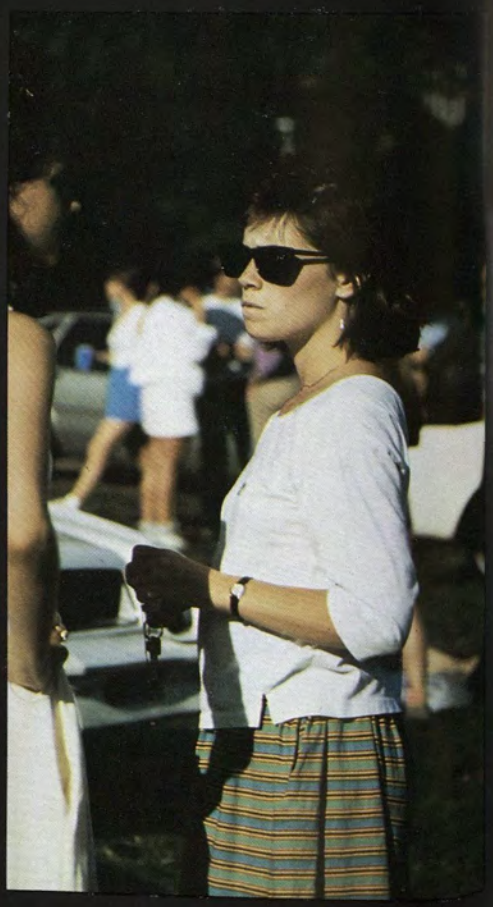
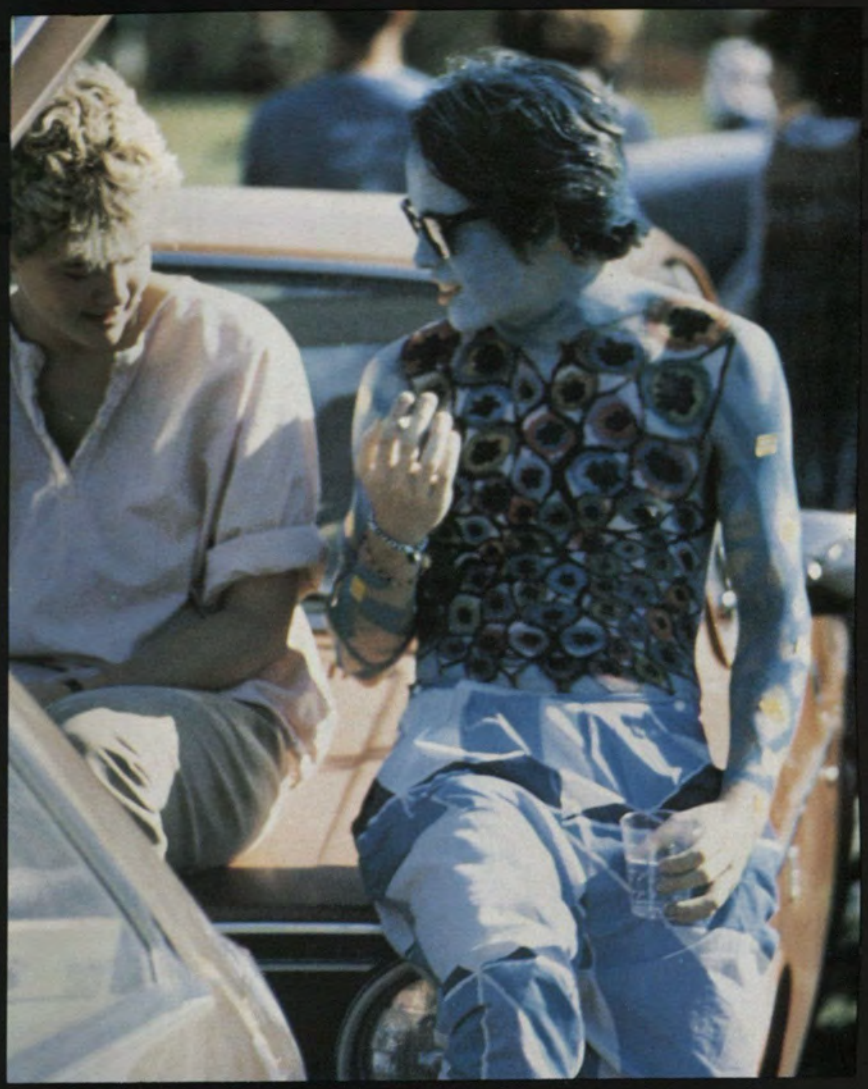
NEW LONDON, CONNECTICUT

Focus









Four years — linking matriculation and commencement — comprise our tenure at Connecticut College. Some of the best times of our lives, these years are certainly crucial to our maturity and direction. In hopes of capturing different aspects of

Some of the best times of our lives

our experience here, photographers dutifully clicked away, freezing for posterity a glimpse of our community. This section testifies to the colorful period of our stay: included is a sample of our activities, our feelings, and our lives.

Whether reading a book, enjoying a drink, playing a game, or making a friend, a Camel is quite active. It is only necessary to reach out and seek what is hidden. Each individual can discover an interest or goal. The interest may be in a person, the goal for a class presidency. No matter what, the opportunities pursued are diverse, and the talents brought to them very admirable. It is the extent of extracurricular activities that animates much of our campus and affords a more subjective challenge than academics. How often "get involved" is echoed lends credence to the value of non-academic concerns.

College is freedom and responsibility. College is a search for identity. College is people and courses, parties and music, trials and tribulations. Above all, college is a unified community gathered to share knowledge, to test ideas, and to promote learning. Few of us will remain unchanged. People, young and old, form and create this everchanging community. As we strive to achieve different heights, we are inspired by friends and faculty. Our goals the skies, our aim the stars.

Throughout these pages one image repeats: the smile. Some touched us, some strengthened us, and others forced a smile in return. The prevalence of this golden reaction is its expressive power and its fundamental appeal to human nature. One special quality of Connecticut College is the continued reason to smile. Surely, there are struggles, setbacks, and sadness too. But following the rough times will come the triumphs, and invariably the smiles.

Possibly the greatest reward of our time passed here is not a diploma, but the respect and love accorded from friendship. Although each defines friendship differently, all agree to its necessity and worth. The presence of a friend renders troubled times easier and events more special. Our colleagues enlighten and challenge, sur-

IT'S HARD TO FIND A GOOD

Just as friendship is a necessity in fulfilling a college career, so too is individuality. Time, space, and silence to separate ourselves from the crowd while remaining a part of it. At Connecticut College this opportunity to develop and pursue personal endeavors exists. Our small size facilitates individuality as well as a closeness of community. As some of these photographs suggest, it is through a conception of ourselves that we learn to adapt to the crowd.

four years is another. To cherish the past but anticipate the future, to look back yet move forward, is most important. Only this way can we appreciate fully and rightly our Connecticut College heritage.

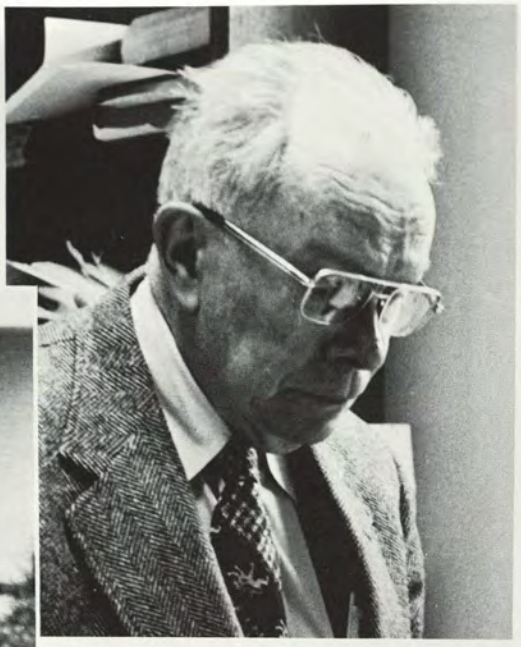
DEDICATION

F. Edward Cranz



Always striving to strengthen the bond between education and society, Professor F. Edward Cranz encourages his students to learn more than just the answers: he instills within them new questions. To walk into his classroom is to enter upon another point in time, in history, and to expand one's mind until one can think as men have in the past. There is no such thing as passive education for Mr. Cranz. All aspects of one's mind are actively examined and applied to an area much more important than exams or grades: to society. Since 1942 when Mr. Cranz began teaching at Connecticut College, he has led students along a path of learning that goes beyond their four years of college, to question and examine life no matter where they live, no matter what occupation they have, no matter how old they may be. To Mr. Cranz, for all his guidance and dedication, we thankfully and lovingly dedicate Koiné 1985.

A TRIBUTE TO LUCE

Charles Luce, Athletic Director, quotes a friend as saying: 'There's a right way and a wrong way to run an athletics program. The wrong way is to over-emphasize athletics, the right way is to underplay it; to assume a proper balance between athletics and studies is the ultimate goal.' Luce adds: "If the program is run the right way, it definitely makes a contribution. It could be for the student who cheers for his roommate, or for the freshman walk-on who becomes the leading scorer. Athletics gives students an understanding of the teamwork necessary in corporate situations. And that is what Conn College is here for; to better educate young men and women."

WOMEN'S TENNIS

A Transitional Year

A young team (six freshmen, six sophomores, and one senior) placed the women Camels with a 5 win 6 loss record. "Almost everyone had something that they were working on, either mentally or technically." Hilary Harrison '88 finished with the top personal record for the Camels, going 8-2 in dual competition, and 3-2 in tournament play for an overall 11-4 mark. Mari Smultea, the only senior on the team, came in with 13 wins and 14 losses.

MEN'S SOCCER

A Young Team

The men's soccer team ended its season with a 4-9-1 record. With no seniors on the team, they found themselves in a transitional year. The team's biggest difficulty was the lack of a strong striker; no one on the team was a pure scorer. However, Coach Bill Lessig was very positive about the season and the team's future. "This year we reached a great number of team and personal goals. Our young players are developing and we should see a changed, stronger team next year." The players to look for next year are Greg Ewing '87, Mike Rosenberg '86 and Dan Selcow '86.

First row: Kevin Wolfe, David Fennimore, Tom Liptack, Brian Jones, Co-Captain Gary Andrews, Bill Hoffman, Nick Reeves, Tim Killenberg. Second row: Dan Selcow, Greg Ewing, Chris Young, Sean Fagan, Mike Rosenberg, John Bogaty, Derek Shoffner, David Gross. Missing: Co-Captain Jim Crowley, Koki Flagg, Bill Willard, Head Coach Bill Lessig, Asst. Coach Ken Kline, Asst. Coach Jim Santaniello, Goalie Coach Pete Carli.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

A Positive Season

The ladies' second varsity schedule finished with a 2-6-4 record. Although the record was not a winning one, the team's positive attitude led them to be highly competitive in every game. The Camels were led by 5 seniors: goalkeeper Leslie Freund, NE All-Star forward Veronica Halpine (3 goals, 3 assists), Conn's all-time leading scorer Sharon Ephraim (7 goals, 4 assists), Anne Kiely and Kathy Boyd. The Camel's younger squad included 10 freshmen and 8 sophomores, led by defenders Claudia Page and Christa Burgess.

FIELD HOCKEY

Best Season Ever

This was a year of firsts for the women's field hockey team: a regular season winning record and a ranking in both the New England Division III Poll and the NCAA Division III Poll. Unfortunately, the women were not able to stay on top as the season progressed. Their last few games were played without Jody Bates '85 or Lisa Menegan '87, two key defense players who were out with injuries. They did, however, finish on a high note with excellent games against Mt. Holyoke and Division I Fairfield University and ended the season with a 6-3-1 record. Four of the players (Amy Buckingham '85, Sue Landau '88, Page Preston '85, Caroline Twomey '86) participated on an all-star New England College Team and three of the players (Landau, Preston, Twomey) competed in the National Tournament in Long Beach, California.

Striking Back: Tournament Champs

Conn's Volleyball team rebounded from a slow start to finish the season with a 15-10-4 record. Highlights of the 1984 season included victories over Division I Columbia University at the Smith Invitational Tournament, and a hard fought win versus NESCAC foe Williams College. The team captured the first Conn. College Volleyball Invitational, a five school round-robin tournament. The lady Camels placed third at the NIAC Tournament. Coach Campbell cited Eva Miller '87 and Maura Doran '88 as key components in Conn's attack. Captain Jane Ach was also a consistently strong player.

CROSS COUNTRY

A Winning Season

For the women, it was their best season. Ripley Greppin '87 had a tremendous 2nd half of the season, including winning the Tarzan Brown Road Race in Mystic. She also placed 26th in NE Div. III Championships, a 47 place improvement over last year. Gail Hopp '86 placed 19th in the NESCAC Champs, the highest ever by a CC woman. In the NE Div. III meet, they won for the first time over Bowdoin and Amherst, placing 16th out of 30 teams. Their final record was 9-10. This young team can look forward to all of its members returning next year.

The men finished with a winning record of 13-1-5. Geoff Perkins '88 was the top runner in every race this fall, only tying with John Barnett '88 twice and with Chris Denn '86 once. The rest of the team progressed throughout the season and managed to beat Trinity at the NE Div. III Championship. The experience should really show next fall, as only Paul Stueck will be graduating.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Setting a Winning Tradition

The men camels continued their winning tradition this season with a mid-season record of 11-3 and a 3rd rank in Division III, the men look to another banner season. Their 3 losses were to Trinity, who they beat last year during the regular season, and Wesleyan. Tri-captains, John Bartolomei '85, Brennan Glasgow '85, and Jeff Wiener '85, have all been strong leaders. John Bartolomei became the 5th male player in the college's history to score 1000 points and Jeff Wiener should become the 6th player to accomplish this feat. Wiener has been the leading scorer in 9 games and the leading rebounder in 7 games. Glasgow has played consistently throughout his Conn. career. Conn. will lose 4 of their 12 men to graduation.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

NIAC Champions

The Women's Basketball Team captured the NIAC Championship after a 19-3 season. Captain Laura Brunner '86 led the Camels to their best season with her strong inside scoring and rebounding. Brunner was the first woman to break the 1000 point mark. Overall, the women played well defensively, but never achieved the offensive balance they needed. Brunner and Jill Zawacki have been named to the All New England All-Star Team by the Division III New England Women's Basketball coaches Association (NEWBA).

GYMNASTICS

New England Champions

The Women's Gymnastics Team captured the New England's by edging rival Salem State 157.4 to 154.65 to win their first regional championship in the team's 14-year history and earned their highest finish ever: third in the ECAC's. The 1985 season has included 25 record breaking performances. An impressive crop of freshmen has made its mark on the college record book, while the upperclassmen have given depth to the team with their consistent points.

ICE HOCKEY

Looking to next year

Coach Doug Roberts continued to build the men's ice hockey team in the 1984-1985 season. The team worked well together in achieving their optimal potential. Although seniors Craig Bower, Joe Lawler and Mark Munro, will be missed next year, Roberts looks forward to having 10 seniors next year reach a high level of maturity in their playing. Roberts notes that co-captains Dan Collins '86 and Garr Talanian '86, as exceptional leaders and Greg Donovan '86, as a superior player. However, Roberts gives the highest compliment to Sean Fagan '87, by stating that he is the type of competitor he is looking for on his team.

SWIMMING

Establishing Personal Bests

The lady camels have achieved more than 30 individual best records this season, at least three of which are college records. Their theme "girls just wanta have fun" was backed by hard work that turned into strong results. A mid-season record of 6-2, included wins over W.P.I., Fairfield State, Bates, and Salem State. The team hopes to send a few women to the New England Championships this year and perhaps a woman to nationals in a year or two.

STOPPING

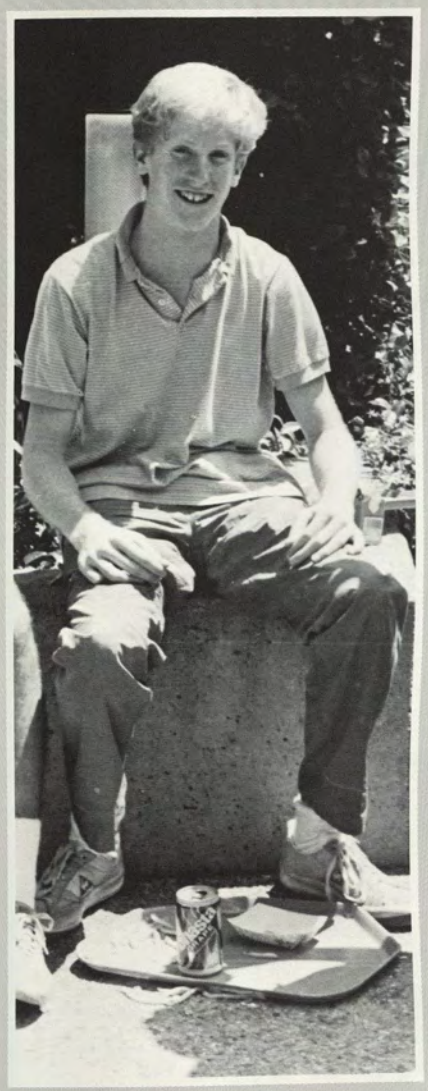
THIS HAS GONE
FAR ENOUGH !!!
There are a few too many people with itchy fingers, around here, walking off with everyone elses supplies!!! We are all POOR, so why don't we try and hang together instead of trying to get at each other piece by piece!! Please leave our stuff alone! We're wonderful people-ask!We'll lend it to you!!
AND BRING MY FAVORITE

In Memory of Stevie:



"I'll lend you for a time a child of mine," he said.
For you to love the while he lives, and mourn for when he's dead.
It may be for 6 or 7 years or 22 or 3,
But will you til' I call him back take care of him for me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you, and shall his stay be brief,
You'll have his lovely memory, as solace for your grief.
I cannot promise you he'll stay, since all from earth return,
But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.
I have looked the whole world over and my search for teachers true
And from the things that crowd life's lanes, I have selected you.
Now will you give him all your love, nor think thy labor vain,
Nor hate me when I came to take him back again.
I fancied that I heard them say: "Dear Lord, thy will be done.
For all the joy thy child shall bring, the risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may,
And for the happiness we've known forever grateful stay,
But shall the angels call for him much sooner than we'd planned,
We'll grieve the bitter grief that comes and try and understand."

Though I try my hardest to understand, I will never stop missing you. I can only be thankful to have received the greatest gift possible — knowing what it was to have loved you. When an older person dies they take a part of the past with them, but when a young person dies, they take a part of the future as well. You were never given much time to live. But in 16 short years, you touched so very many lives. Wherever you are, I know you will find "peace," "spunk" and be able to play animal baseball.
Goodnight, sweet dreams, don't let the bed bugs bite. I'll see you in the morning . . .

I love you,
Kathy

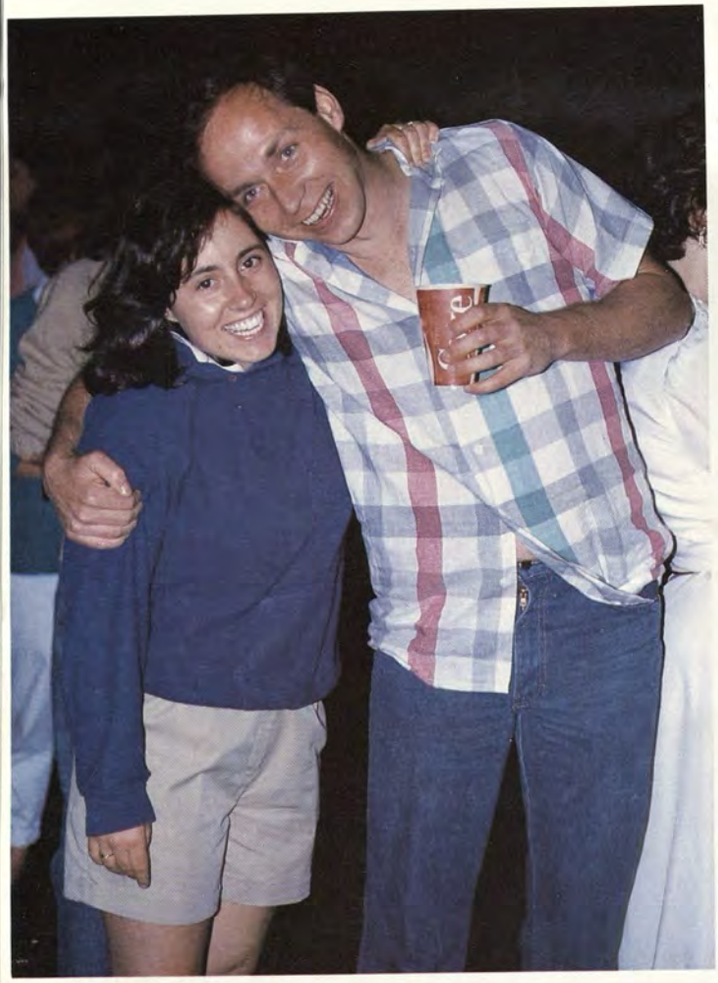
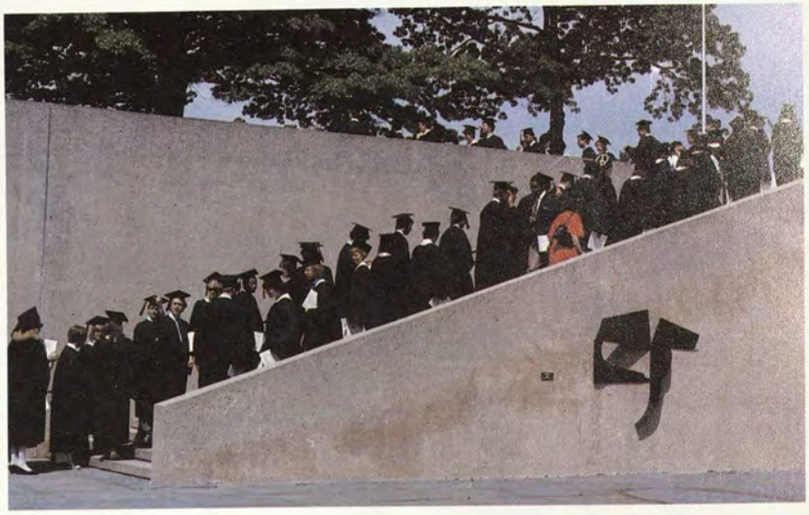
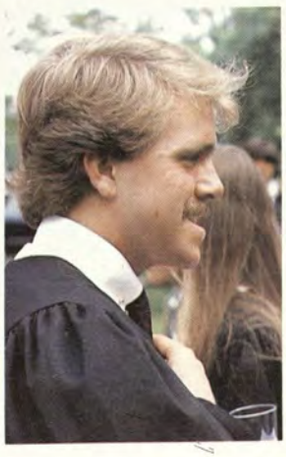
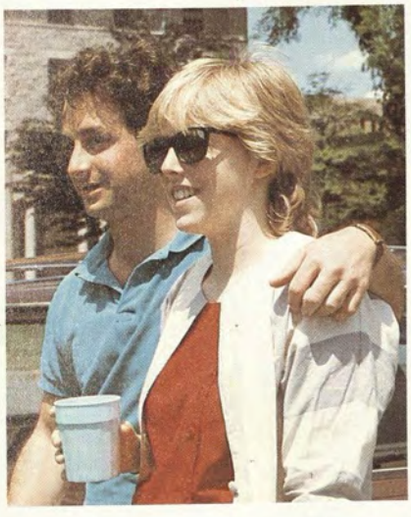
HAPPY HOUR

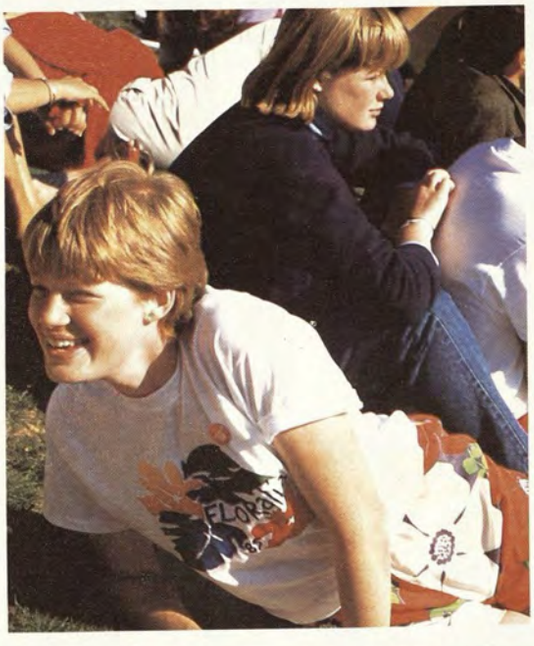


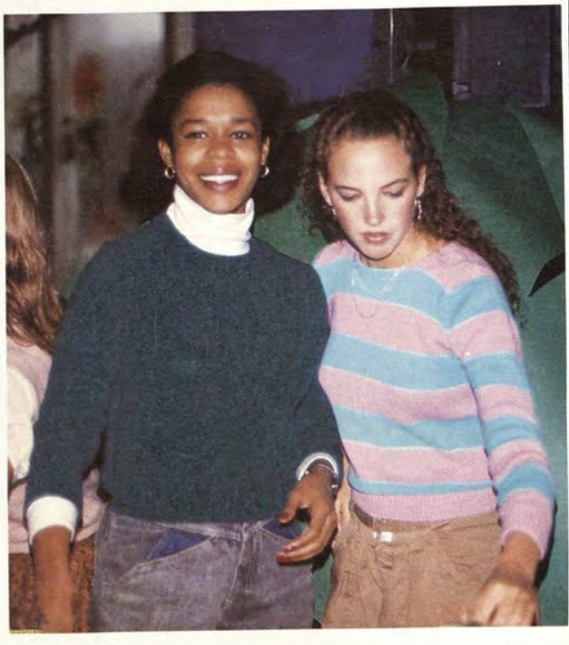


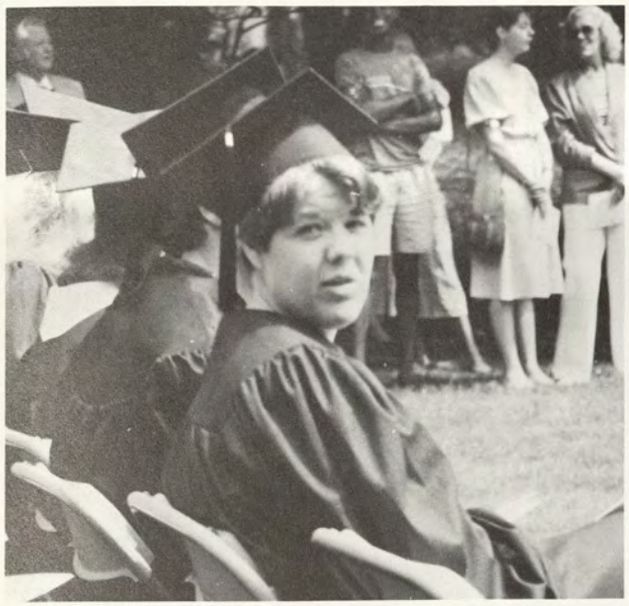
STOPPING

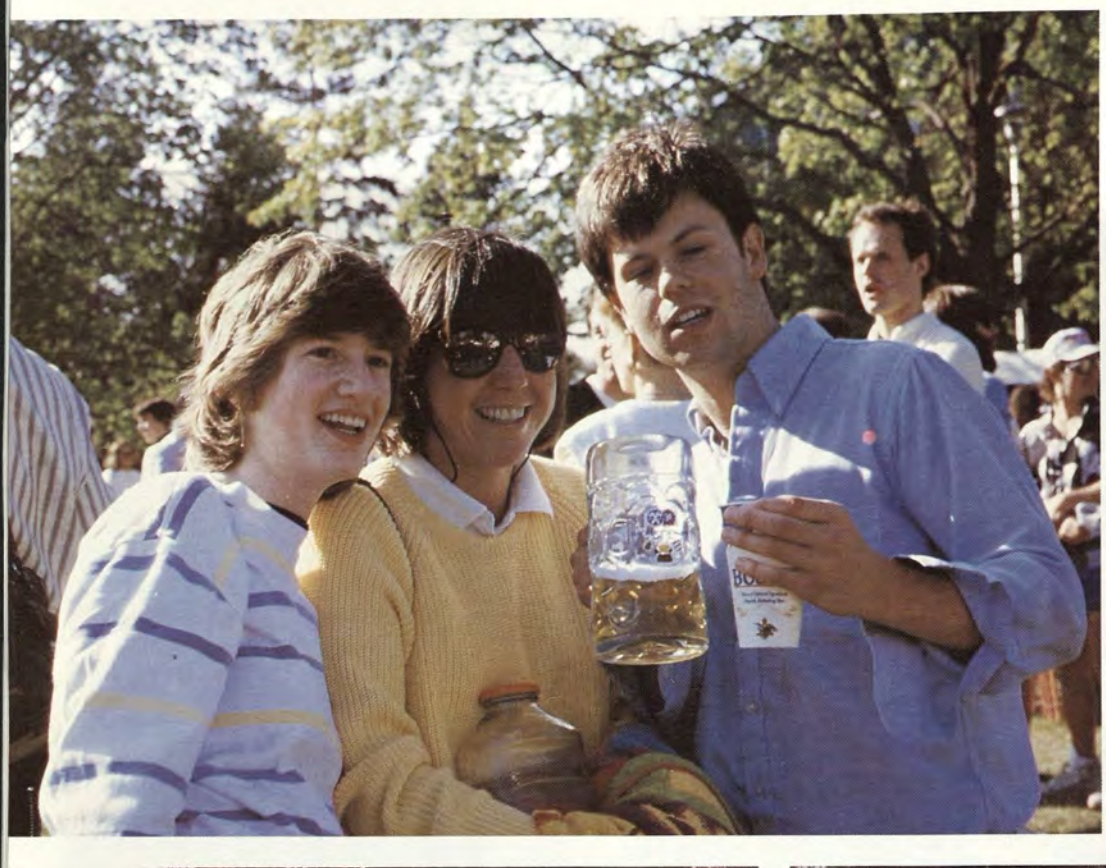












TENNIS

The Camels posted their best season ever with a near flawless record of nine wins and one loss. Lead by senior captain Carl Soane, the men consistantly outplayed their opponents and established a new school record of eight consecutive wins. Soane was ranked fourth in New England and 49th in the nation in the singles division. He was the recipient of the Clarence C. Chaffe award and was a finalist for the National Arthur Ashe Sportmanship award. Undefeated in match play, Soane finished the season by playing in the singles and doubles finals at the NESCAC Tournament. Winton Porterfield '86, the team's unsung hero and next years co-captain, was a key element in the team's overall success. Freshman Tom Price was voted "Rookie Tennis Player of the Year" by the ITCA.

SAILING

The 1985 sailing team breezed into spring competition after a fall season that included two New England trophies and a top five finish at a national championship. Consistantly overpowering teams such as Tulane, Stanford, and NY Maratime, the Camels earned an impressive ranking of number four nationally in "Yacht Racing and Cruising" magazine. After coming in third overall (85 pts.) at the New England Dinghy Championships, Conn went on to represent New England at the National Small Boat Championships at Old Dominion.

Outstanding talent has been displayed by Captain Todd Berman '85 as he qualified for the 470 World Championship which takes place in Vitale, Italy. Berman has been tapped by the U.S. Olympic Committee as a potential medalist in the 1988 Olympics. Highlight of the women's fall season was Sue Summerill's ('85) victory at the Single-Handed Championships.

MENS CREW

Prospering under the direction of first year coach Bob Gillette, the men's crew team had a very successful season. The freshman heavyweight eight went undefeated against all opponents until the New England Championship, where they placed third. The lightweight four won the New Englands defeating arch rivals Wesleyan and Colby. The varsity heavyweight four beat Amherst, Wesleyan, and Holy Cross during the regular season and crossed the line in second place at the New Englands. The varsity lightweight eight won close races against Williams, Tufts, and Trinity, and placed fourth at the New Englands. The team achieved their season goal by placing all four boats in the finals of the National Dad Vail Regatta. The varsity lightweight's bronze medal and the varsity heavyweight's fourth place finish at the Dad Vails was "icing on the cake" reported Coach Gillette.

Oarsman Jon Scheiber was named as one of the 1985 recipients of the Brown-Brooks Award which honors the outstanding scholar/athletes in the graduating class.

WOMEN'S CREW

The women's crew consisted of three boats this year: novice four (9-4), novice eight (14-2), and varsity eight (11-4). The novice four broke new ground by winning a number of close races. For the first time in three years the freshmen eight came alive, finishing with a noteworthy record. The varsity eight's performance was mixed. In the fall, the women placed third at the Head of the Charles in the lightweight eight competition. In the spring, however, the Camels came up against larger and stronger crews, but continued to give it their all. Fran Trafton was named one of the 1985 recipients of the Brown-Brooks Award honoring the outstanding scholar/athletes in the graduating class.

MEN'S LACROSSE

Led by co-captains Dave Shore '86 and Nick Kouwenhoven '86, the men's lacrosse team finished its season with a 4-7 overall record. Although the squad was fairly young and inexperienced, it played well against some tough competition. Shore, who broke Conn's single-season assist record, finished third in the nation in assists (3.36 per game). Kouwenhoven proved to be a fiery defender as he challenged every opponent's top player.

The Camels will lose only 2 players (Geoff Barnet and Andy Berlowe) to graduation and look forward to developing their young talent with a mix of returning sophomores and freshmen.

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

WOMEN'S LACROSSE

The women's lacrosse team ended its season with a 9-4 record and placed second in the NIAC Tournament after beating Wheaton in the semi-finals. Goalkeeper Ashley Ridgway '86 proved to be the team's strong-point as she earned a save percentage of .700. Ashley was chosen as the team's mvp and she will return next season as co-captain with Isabel Day. High scorer for the team was Senior Co-Captain Rosemary Battles with 35 goals, while Anne Norton '85 finished as the team's 2nd highest scorer.

The JV lacrosse team ended its season with a perfect 8-0 record. The young squad should provide a solid foundation for next year's varsity.
