A DAY IN THE LIFE 4

A day in the life of a Conn student can be as hectic as driving a stick shift with a styrofoam cup of hot coffee between your legs. Or it can be as relaxing as a pina coloda on a sunny day. So whether you spent this school year with coffee stains on your Levis or a hangover and a suntan, we've captured every type of Conn student in this year's candids.

FACULTY 33

From Walt Whitman to Intro Japanese to Quantum Mechanics, Conn faculty astounds us with the vastness of their knowledge, challenges us to reach new heights, and they manage to get out us out of bed every morning (well almost). Through thick and thin, all Conn students have been stimulated and motivated by a truly talented faculty.

DORMS 53

From Blackstone to the Plex, "sounds of silence" ascend to new heights of raucousness. From vegetarian dinners at Smith to JA's rooms with a view to parties at Freeman Tower to Thursday nights at Morrison, each dorm at Conn maintains its own unique identity. Each dorm provides a haven of diversity where all types of personalities can live and flourish.

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES 77

From the Film Society to SGA, Conn students are kept perpetually active with the many different mindless and not-so-mindless campus organizations. Conn's Clubs and Activities section chronicles this year's most captivating diversions and this year's most pressing student responsibilities.

EVENTS

111

Whether its Homecoming or President Bush's "War on Drugs", Conn students were talking about it. In the words of Ferris Bueller "life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once and a while, you just might miss it". So even if you missed your own Freshman Orientation, or the traditional Homecoming soccer game, or if you haven't picked up an issue of the times since early August, anything you've missed is depicted in the Events section.

SPORTS

121

From a series of uninterrupted losses to a series of consecutive wins, Conn athletes keep us coming back for more. The best excuse I've ever heard for not studying had got to be, "we've got to go out and support the team" And then we realize that Conn Athletes aren't just people who take up alot of room in the Dining Hall, they have a strong commitment to excellence.

SENIOR SECTION

151

SENIOR ROSTER

264

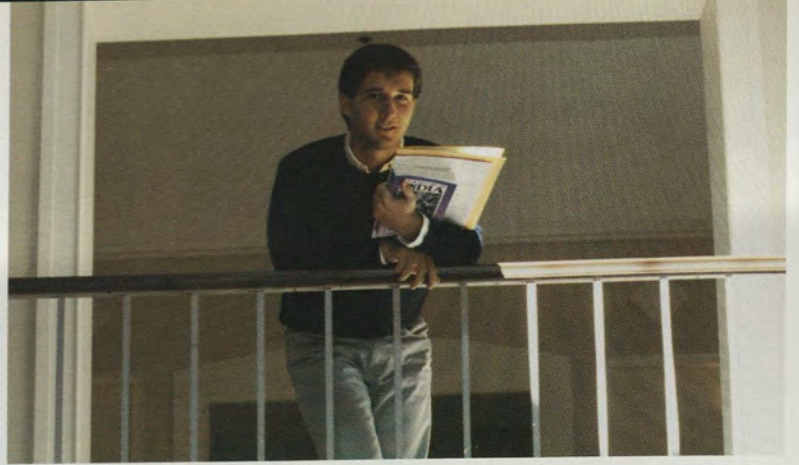

This is not the end. This is not even the beginning of the end. But this is perhaps, the end of the beginning." Seniors thanks for the four years you've given to Conn. The best of luck for the future, we'll miss, you next year.

Conn graduates have a special bond, that will always keep them close. Even if you weren't so sure, we've provide this Senior Roster to make sure you can always get a hold of each other.

BUSH'S WAR ON DRUGS- As drugs become an ever increasing problem in today's society, President George Bush has declared a personal war. In the first nationally televised speech of his presidency, Bush took personal command of the war against drugs. He warned the American public that victory would be neither easy nor cheap. Bush concluded that drugs are the gravest domestic threat facing our nation today.

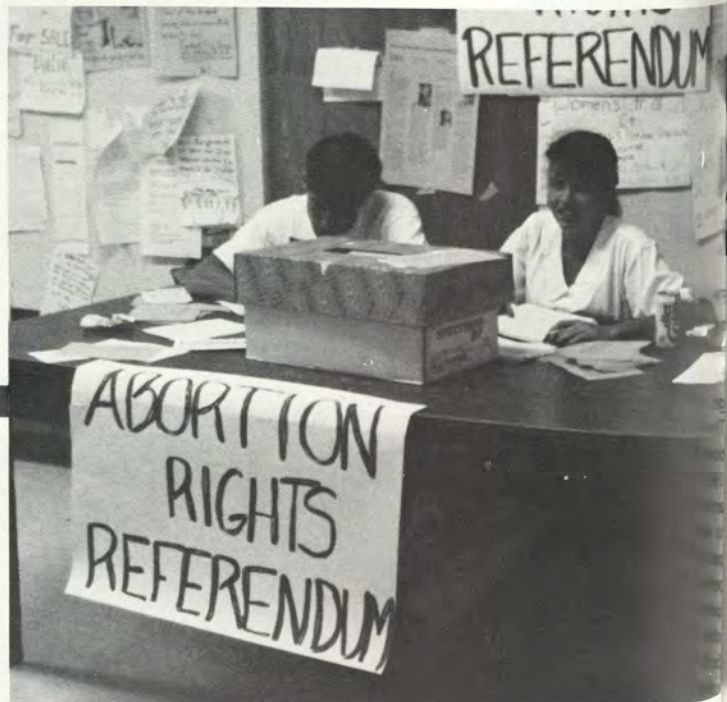

HARVEST FEST- Rain ... senior dunking booth ... more rain ... chicken teriyaki ... and more rain.

GORBACHEV-BUSH SUMMIT- One of George Bush's first decisions as president was that he would not hold a quick summit with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev. However, due to the recent, increasing domestic problems in the Soviet Union, Bush has changed his position from benign neglect to a cautious interest in helping Gorbachev. Now the President sees an opportunity to strike an arms-control deal that would benefit the United States and possibly give Gorbachev a lift home.

ABORTION- The growing controversy in this country over abortion rights began last year with the Webster v. Reproductive Health Services case. As a result of this case, the state was given the power to decide whether abortion was illegal or legal. This decision has caused quite a stir among college students. Consequently, a referendum vote will be taken to determine the student body's opinion on abortion rights. The results of this referendum will be sent to the Connecticut State Legislature and the United States Supreme Court.

HOMECOMING- The highlight and central gathering point of Homecoming weekend was the men's soccer game played on Harkness Green. A mixture of students and alumni assembled to support the Camels in the game against Bowdoin. The Camels were victorious, winning by a small margin of 1-0. Following the game the crowds lingered on the Green, as alumni and students reminisced about Conn tradition and praised Conn innovation.

BLOOM COUNTY COMES TO A CLOSE- Comic strip readers across the nation lamented the end of the Bloom County comic strip. Berke Breathed decided to terminate the comic strip while it still retained some novelty. Breathed felt that he had a responsibility to his readers to end the comic strip on a positive note, instead of continuing it and risking possible redundancy.

FRESHMEN ORIENTATION- What's my roommate going to be like? Am I ready for college? Is this the right school for me? Can I just go up to the keg and get a beer? How soon can I transfer? These are just a few of the many questions that the members of the class of 1993 were asking themselves as they arrived at Connecticut College. In order to ease their mind a little, Freshmen participated in a week long orientation period. During this time freshmen participated in various games, workshops and other activities, which were aimed at facilitating a smoother transition into college life.

"I definitely think I am going to be really, really happy here." -Jennifer Ianniella Bakker's Judgment Day- The question before the jury was not whether Jim Bakker, a man of religion, should live on 1.3 million estate and own two Rolls-Royces. Nor was the jury asked whether extramarital sex made this fundamentalist preacher a hypocrite. The question the jury was asked, was did Bakker deceive his "lifetime partners" into paying $1,000 for heritage USA hotel rooms he could never make available. Their answer was "yes" and the jury convicted the televangelist on 24 counts of fraud and conspiracy.

FAST FOOD IN RUSSIA

THE BEG MEEK

On Wednesday February 1, 1990, the Golden Arches hit Pushkin Square in the Soviet Union. The Russian McDonalds seats over 700 customers and is capable of serving over 12,000 people a day.

In addition to being the largest McDonalds in the world, this McDonalds only collects rubles. Out of 28,000 applicants, 600 people were chosen. Their salary is equivalent to a Soviet Brain Surgeon.

SPORTS

MENS SOCCER

After jumping off to a promising 3-0 start, the Mens Soccer Team fell on hard times ending the season at an even .500. Led this year by senior Tri-Captains Joe Carbe, Ken Langevin, and Tim Smith the team was in high hopes of a strong season but a string of losses in mid-season ended all hopes on an ECAC tournament bid. Tim Smith led the squad in scoring with six goals and four assists while Lou Cutillo boasted a 1.65 goals against average and a .029 save percentage as the top keeper. With the graduation of six seniors, Sal Blangiardo, Randy Kline, Ken Langevin, Ed Schauster, Tim Smith and All American selection Joe Carbe, Coach Lessig will be looking to fill some key positions for next years team.

WOMENS SOCCER

The 1989 Connecticut College Women's Soccer Team finished their season with a 9-2-3 record. The season started off with a couple disappointing ties to Amherst and Tufts, but the team was able to pull together, finishing the regular season with a single loss to Trinity. In post season play, Connecticut College hosted the ECAC Tournament. Seeded number one, the team had hopes of winning the tournament for the second consecutive year, but the Camels came up short, losing to Trinity in a shoot out in the semi-finals. With only three seniors graduating, Katie Bing, Ann Carberry and Lucy McDonough, Coach Ken Kline will be looking forward to continuing the team's success with many promising underclassmen.

FIELD HOCKEY

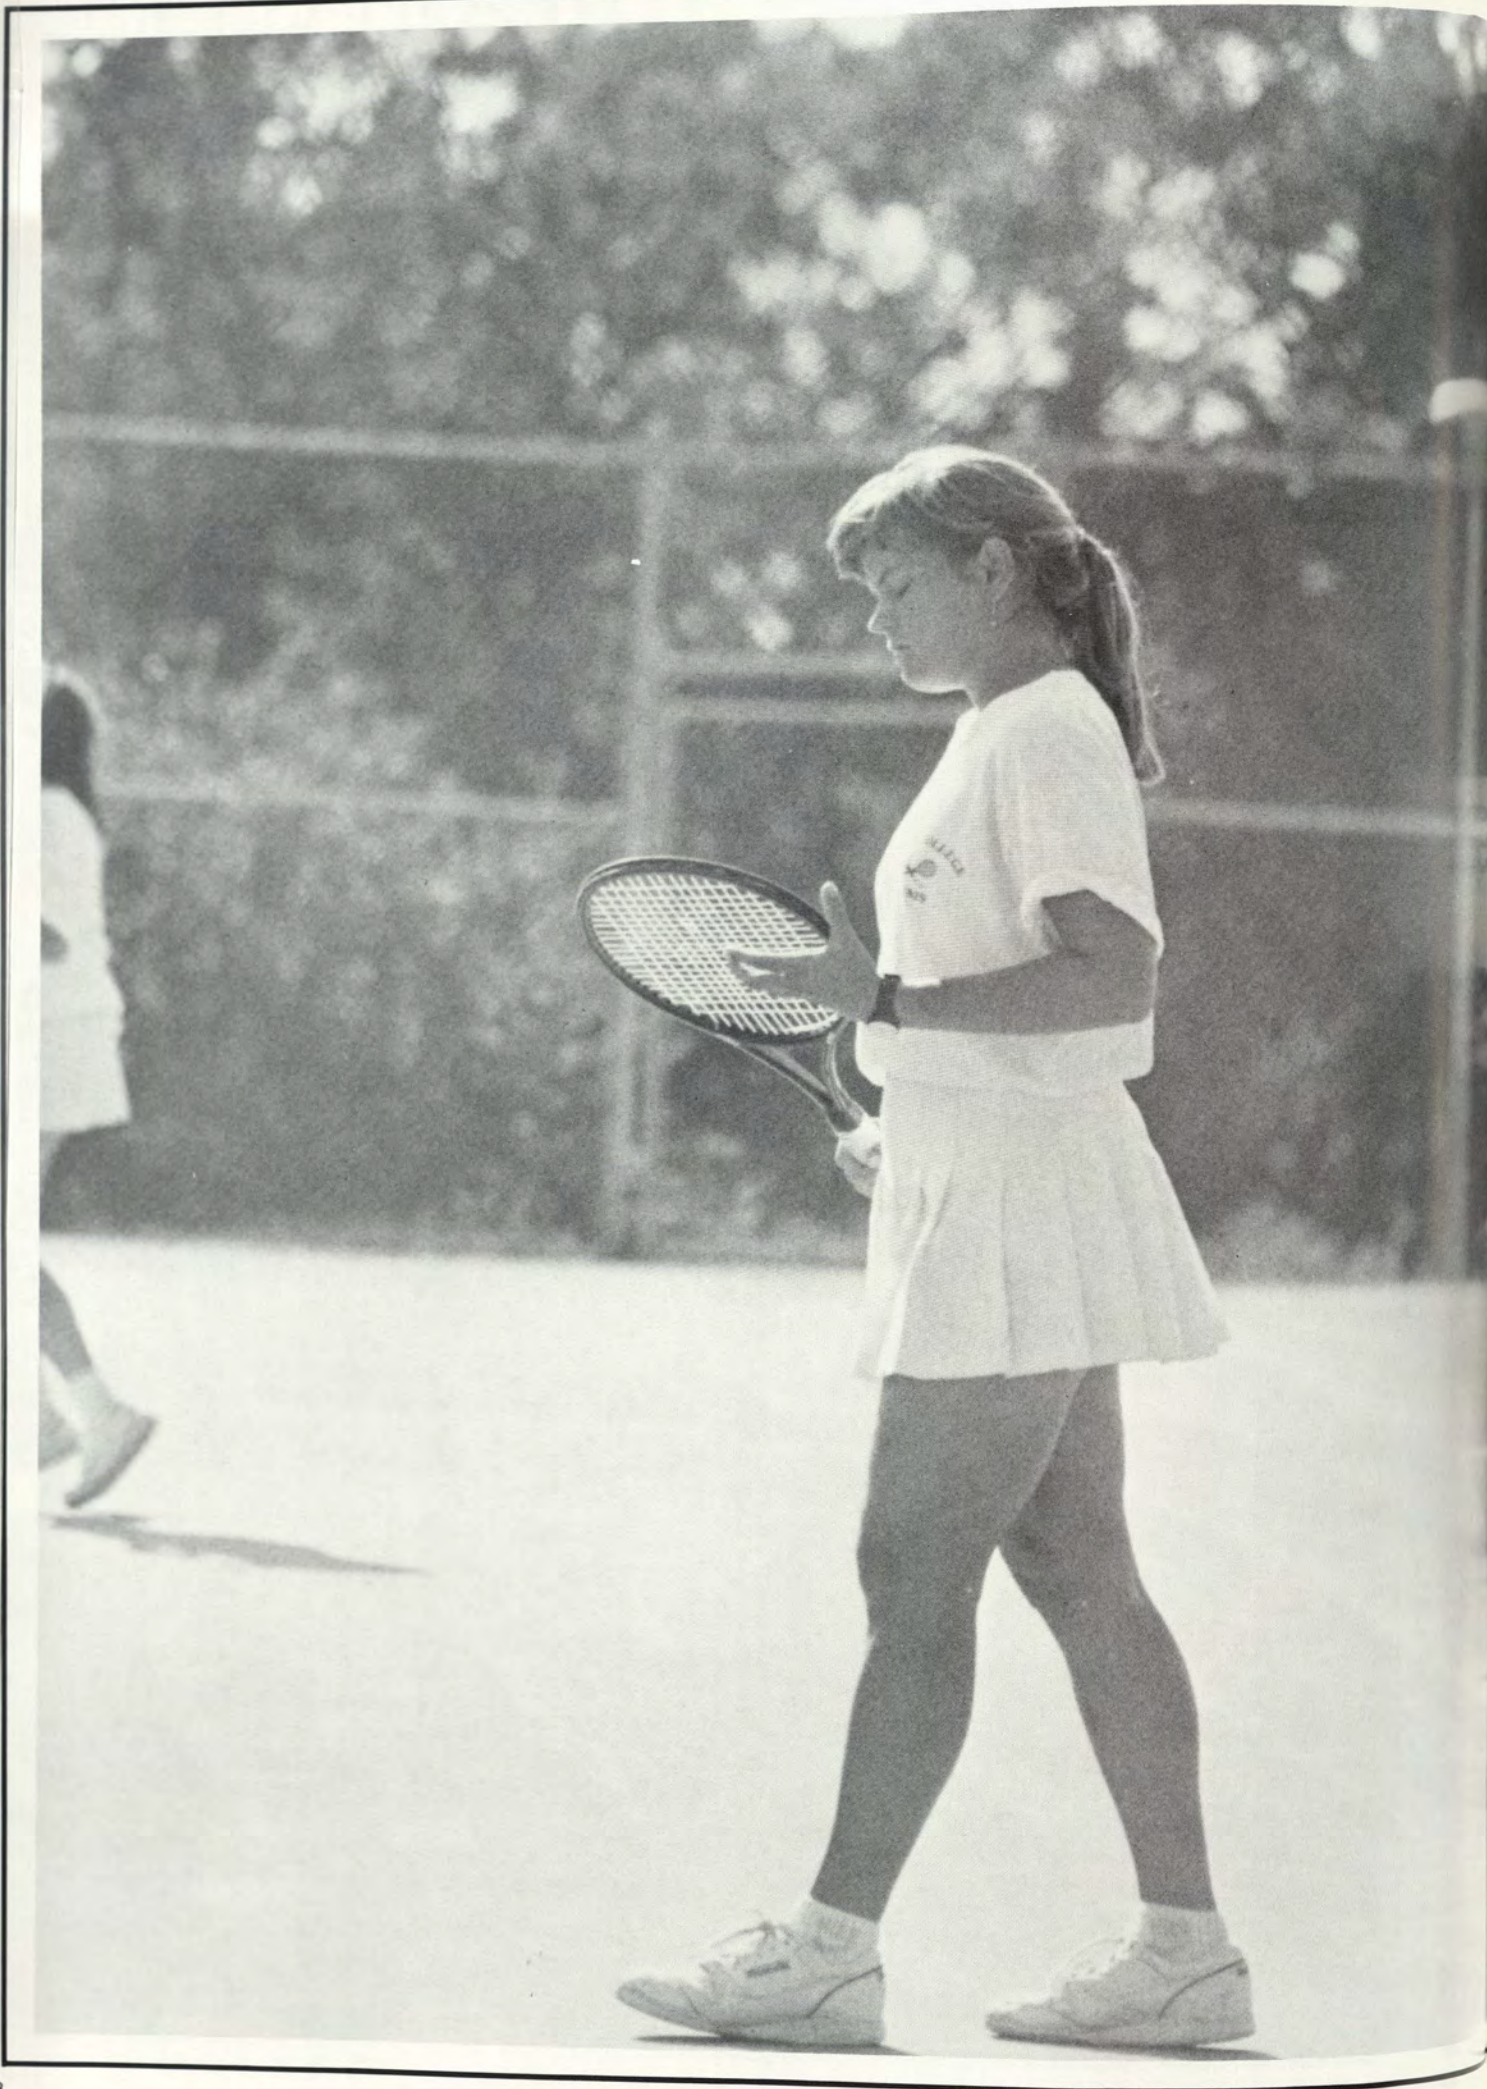

The 1989 women's field hockey team began the season confidently with wins over Mt. Holyoke, Assumption, Amherst, Bates, and Trinity Colleges. The season culminated with an outstanding performance by the Camels which resulted in a 3-1 victory over Trinity College marking Connecticut College's first win over the Bantams in history. Losing only two seniors this year, a strong young field hockey team promises great success in the 1990 season.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

This years Women's Tennis team ended the season at 4-6 and finished in tenth place at the New England Championships. Exciting victories were achieved against Clark University (9-0), Bates College (5-4), University of Rhode Island (6-3) and Salve Regina (8-1). Junior, Sarah Hurst's wins against Slave Regina set a new school record of 61 career victories. With few graduating seniors and a plethora of talented underclassmen, coach Sheryl Yeary has great expectations for the future of the Connecticut College Women's Tennis team.

MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

The Men's Cross Country squad opened their season with a third place finish at the Coast Guard Invitational. Commendable performances were exhibited by Ian Johnson, Pat Houghe, and co-captain, Andrew Builder. The team went on to place fourteenth at the Southern Massachusetts Invitational, followed by a hearty third place at the Connecticut College Invitational. With the previous three great showings it was off to the Codfish Bowl, placing eighth in a field of twenty-two teams. The season came to a close with a ninth place finish at the NESCAC Championship. Coach Butler has high hopes for next season.

WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

The Connecticut College Women's Cross Country team began the season with two stellar wins over Simons College and Wesleyan University at the Coast Guard Invitational Tournament. The team then went on to place seventh at the Codfish Bowl in October. Senior, Kelly Bernier took the top Camel time of 20:51, finishing in sixth place. A week later at the NESCAC Championships Conn placed ninth with senior, Betsy Long finishing the five kilometer course with a time of 20:00. The Camels' final victory was over Rhode Island with Long placing second with a time of 20:30, and Bernier placing third with 20:47. Although the seniors will be missed, the Women's Cross Country team looks strong for next season.

The 1989 Connecticut College Women's Volleyball team had a disappointing 3-16 season but they never stopped having fun! The greatest highlight of the season was when the Camels won the Connecticut College Invitational by defeating Albertus Magnus and by coming from behind to beat Trinity. Returning players Debbie Garrett, Kari Hendrickson, Robin Mower, and Lynda Szymanski led the team with their experience. Many talented freshmen played and became vital to the team. Senior Robin Mower was elected the team's Unsung Hero, Deborah McKenna and Eliza Brown shared the honor of Most Improved Player, and captain Lynda Szymanski was named Most Valuable Player.

MENS HOCKEY

For the past four seasons the Connecticut College Ice-Hockey team has made the ECAC Division 3 North/South Tournament. The squad has been so close but yet so far away from capturing the coveted ECAC title in order for the team to be in contention, the 1989-1990 Camels will have to make up for the absence of Co-Captains Jim Brown and Goalie Lou Schwing. This years leadership will be centered around two co-captains, 1989 ECAC All-Star Joe Cantone and Senior Geof Schaeffer. They will be combined with the resurgence of 1987 ECAC All-Star Mike Moccia, 1989 ECAC All-Star Doug Roberts and Senior Rand Pecknold with this vast array of talent, combined with a very strong work ethic, the 1989 Connecticut College Camels should be in contention once again to capture the ECAC North/South title.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Coming off a less than mediocre season last year (9-11), the Camels were highly determined to post an above average record for the new season. Under the leadership of Daniel Handrick '90 and Derrick Small '90, the men's basketball team has proven to be very competitive in New England. Small, who established himself in the 1000 points club this year, has been the teams leading scorer (16ppg) for the past two seasons. Handrick is the team's second leading scorer (11ppg) and leads the Camels in rebounds. Evan Rose and Bill Brewer are the other seniors who have been major contributors to the success of this season. With returning players such as Mike Pinnella, Carlos Perez, and Teddy Frischling, CONN's men's basketball should have an outstanding future.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

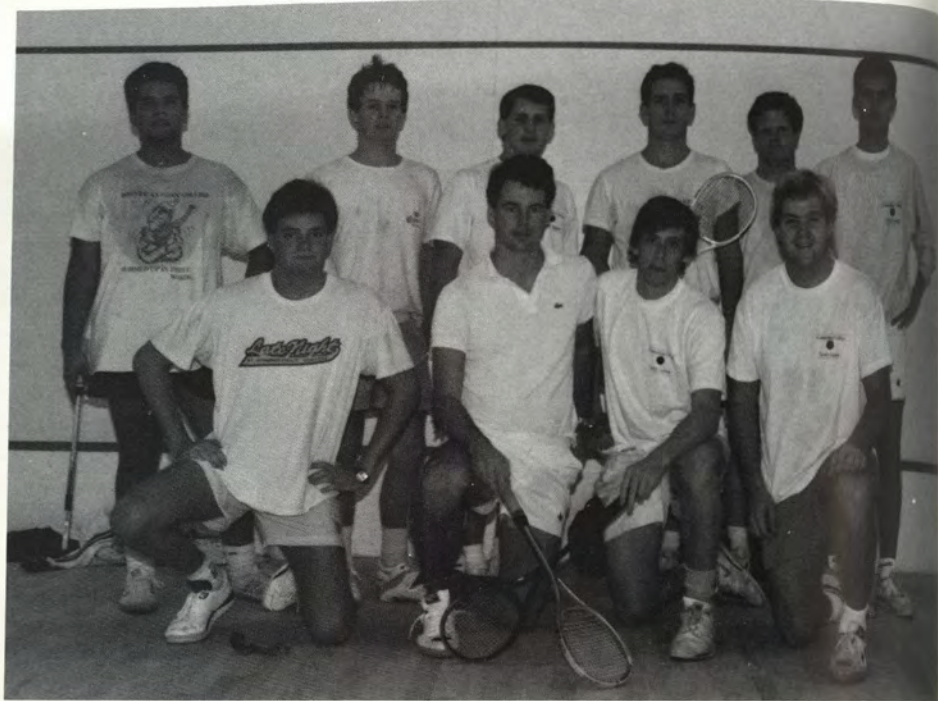

The Connecticut College Women's Basketball Team is the strongest we've seen in years. The team has a lot of talented and dynamic individuals who work well together which resulted in an impressive season. Led by captain Pam Mitchell the team reached mid season with a record of 13-3. In the limelight were Lynn Elliot '91 as well as Elizabeth Lynch '92 and Donna Smith '90 who were named to the All-Tournament team at the Subway Classic. With a young and talented team, Coach Lessig has none other than great hopes for the future.

MEN'S SQUASH

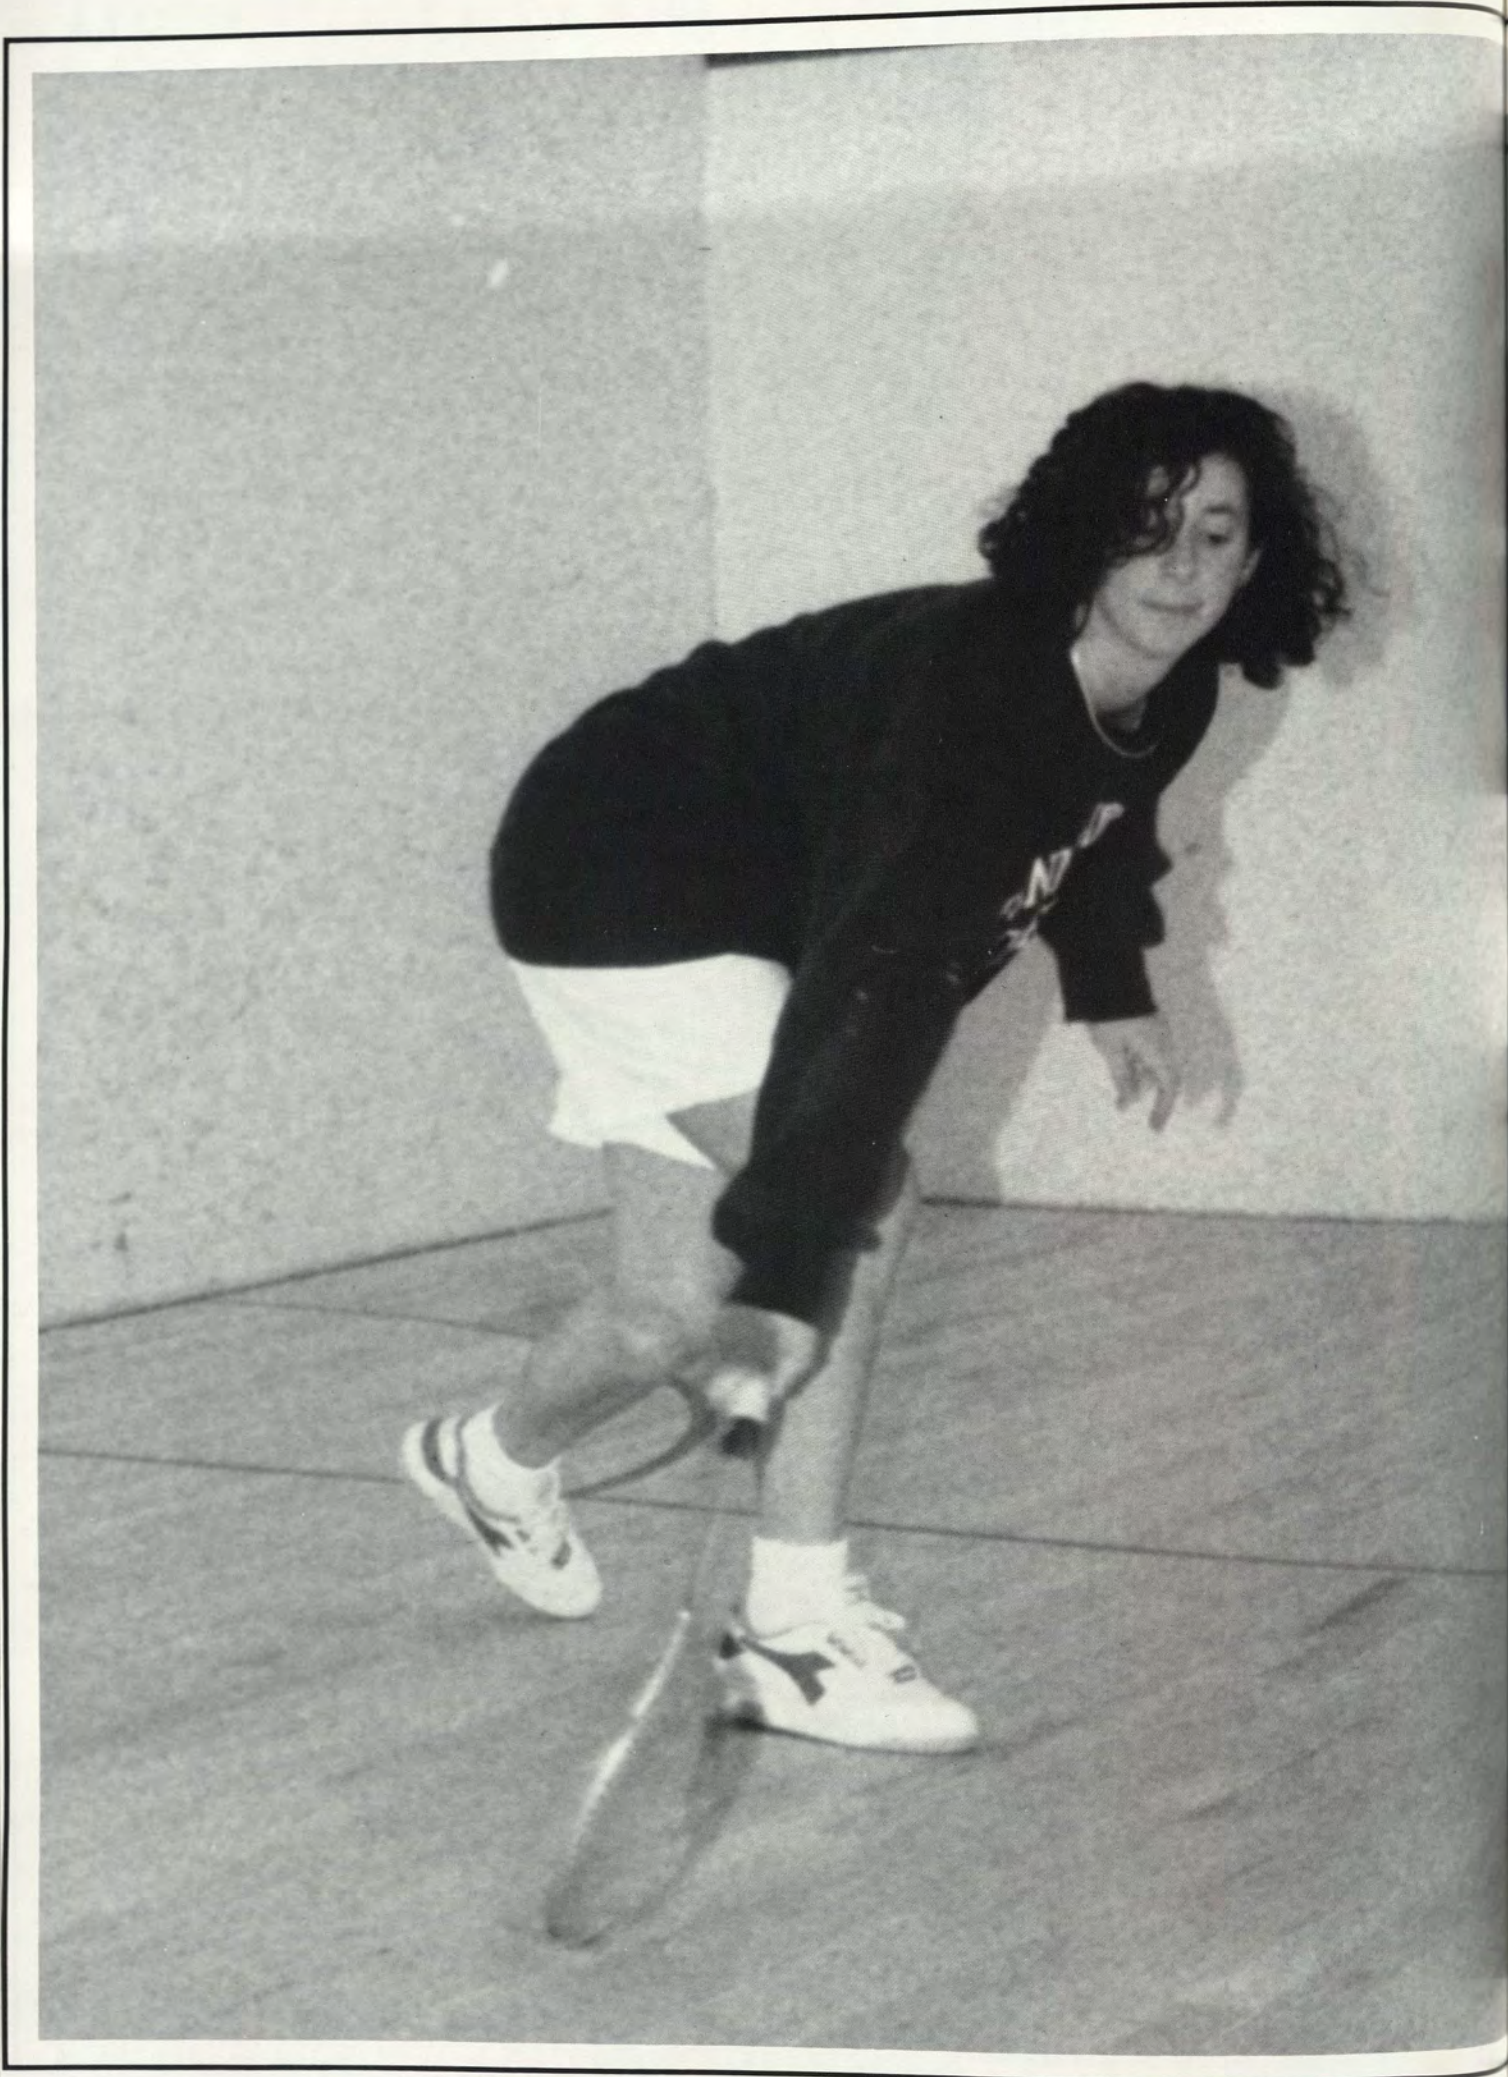

The Men's Squash Team, in it's third year at the varsity level, will compete against many established teams. The schedule for the 1989-1990 season includes tournaments at Wesleyan and Vassar, and individual matches against Trinity, Army, MIT, Tufts, Yale, Bowdoin, Bates, and Colby. The team, lead by Co-Captains Charlie Forbes '90 and Paul Harris '91, hopes to return to the top twenty in the nation as it was in the 1987-88 season. The 1988-89 season was a disappointing one as the Camels lost many close matches and finished 29th at the Nationals. However, only two of the top nine players graduated and, with the help of newcomers and players returning from abroad, the Men's Squash team should have it's strongest season ever.

WOMEN'S SQUASH

The women's squash team hopes to surpass its 88-'89' season record of 9 and 5. Last year's season climaxed with an upset over Smith, 7-2. With five of the top seven players returning, this season looks to be the best yet. Since the team became club varsity in '88, the program has really taken off. This years schedule will be the most competitive to date. The season begins in early December with the Wesleyan Round Robin. This will give the team an opportunity to demonstrate its experience. The Howe Cup Tournament in mid-February will again challenge the team. In 1989 we finished second in our division to Bates. This year we plan to finish at the top.

Rachel Sachs

MEN'S SWIMMING

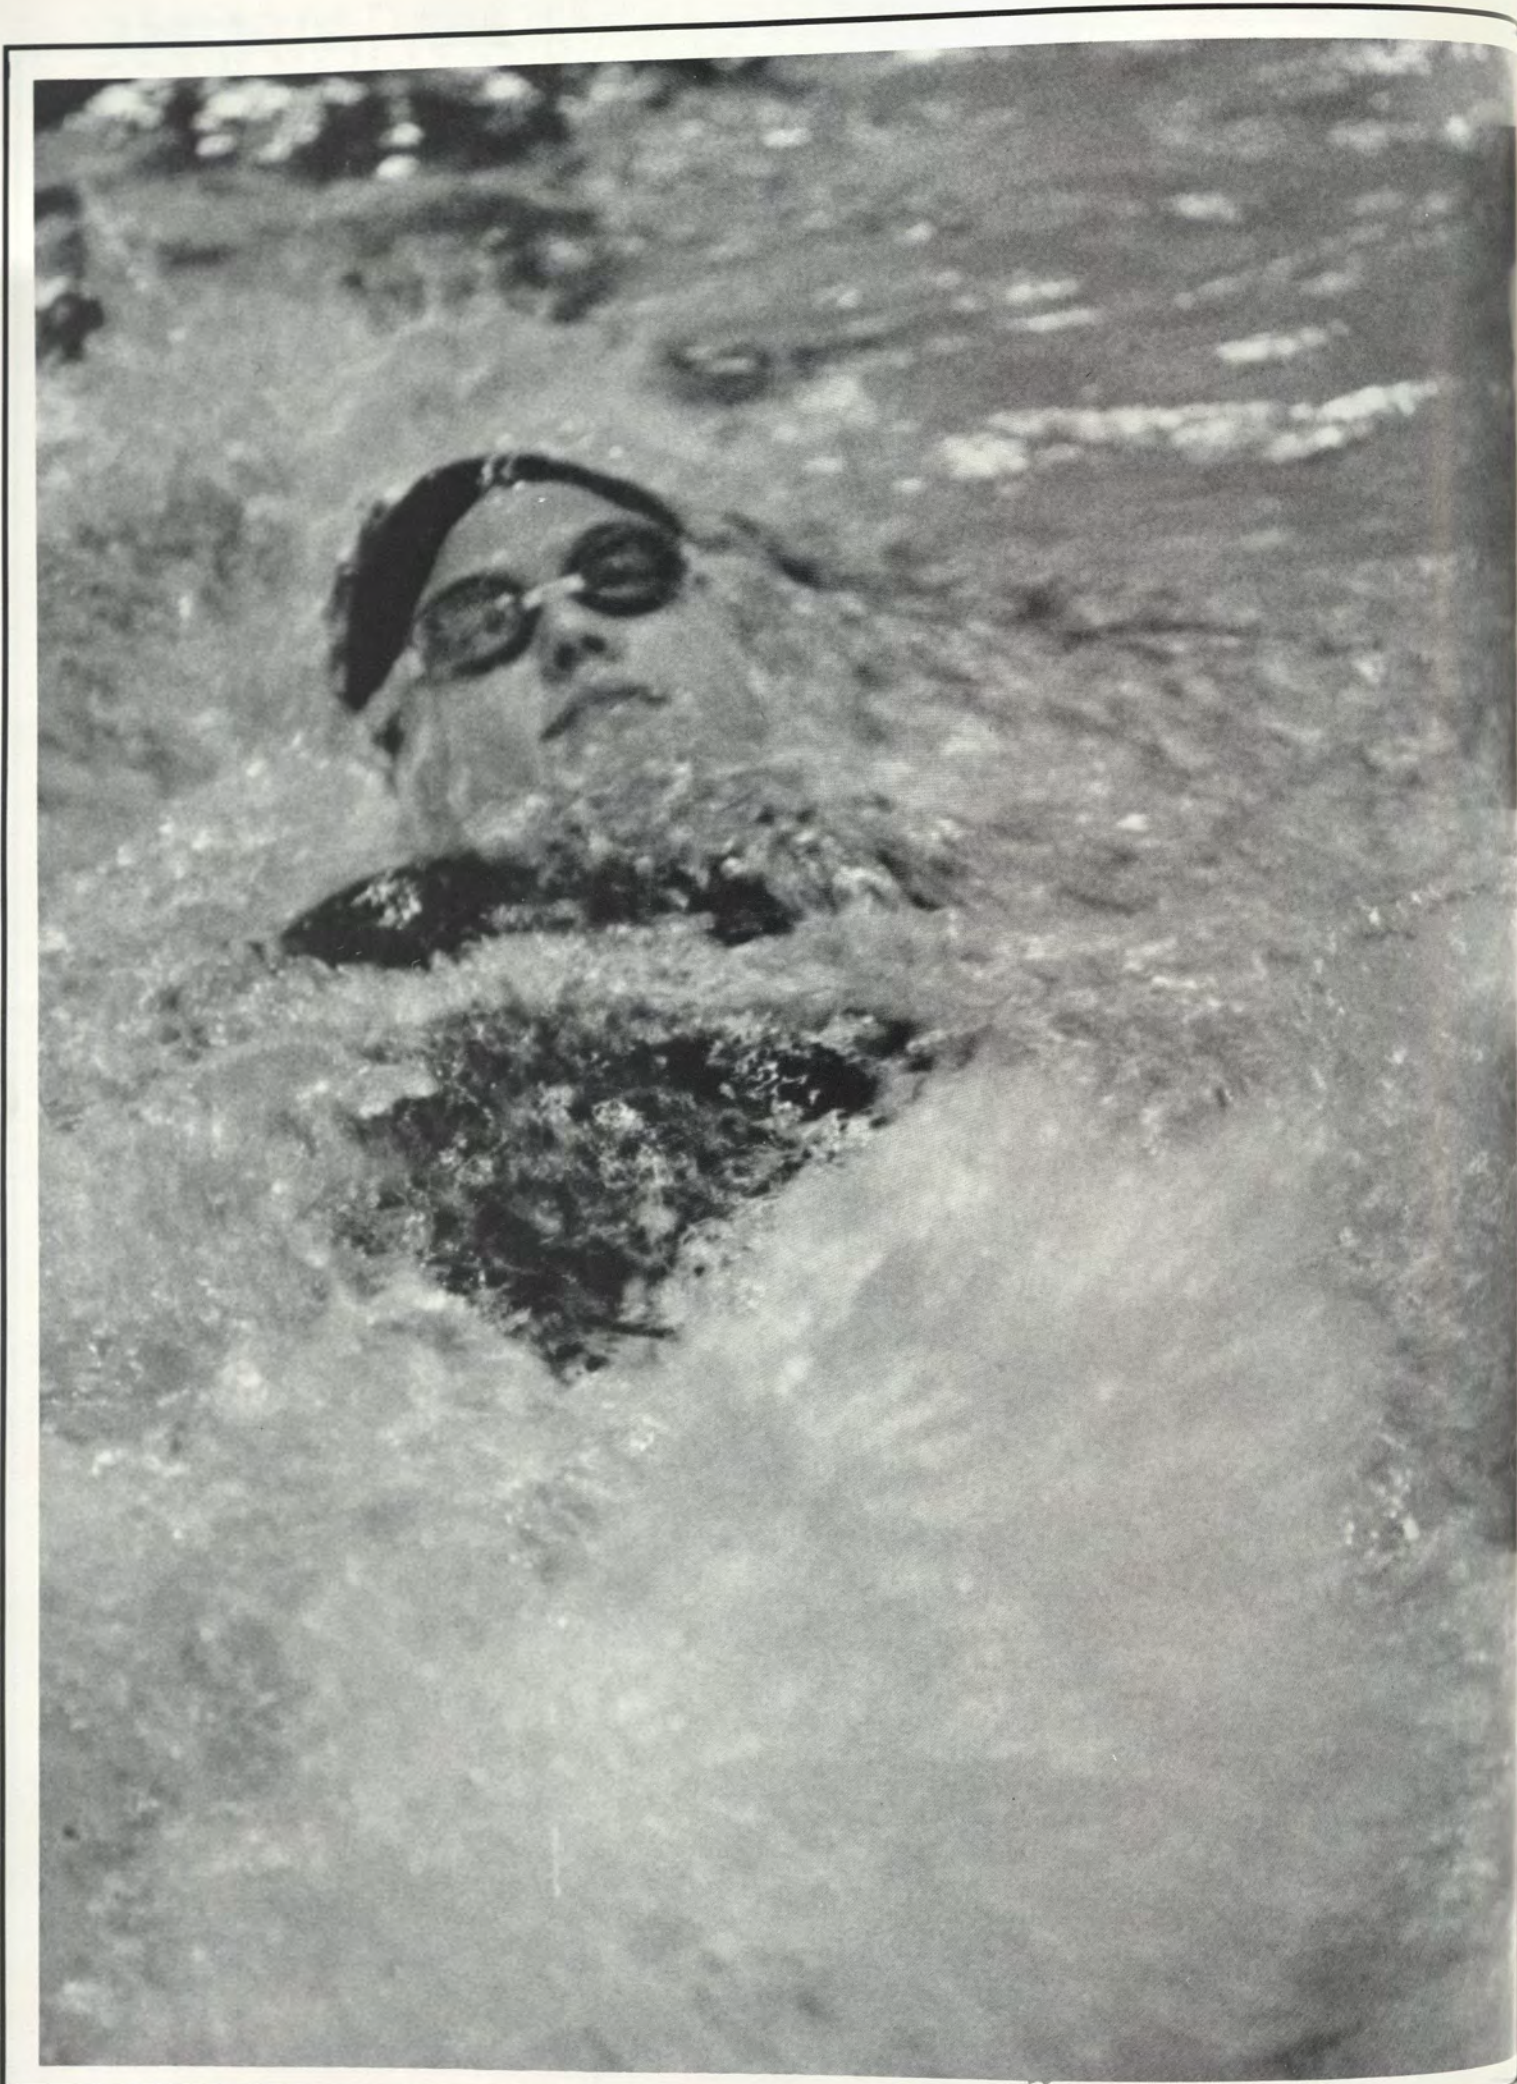

The 1989-90 men's swim season represents the beginning of a new vigor in the sport at Connecticut College. Founding members of the three year varsity sport graduated last year, with most of them holding Conn records. To the team's benefit, second-year coach Doug Hagen has assembled a promising cast of newcomers. Included are: backstrokers Judd Balmer and Dave Mordy, breaststrokers Greg Rose and Jed Mullins, and freestylers Mike Anderson and Barry Mardeson. Team records have fallen and many more stand to be, given the promise of this young squad, led by co-captains Bill Pitt and Steve Stigall. These swimmers are well complimented by sophomore record holders: Alexi Carayannopoulos (freestyle), Al Rosa (butterfly), and Matt Stromberg (distance freestyle). With the construction of a new eight lane pool due to start this spring, the future of men's swimming looks to be a bright one.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING

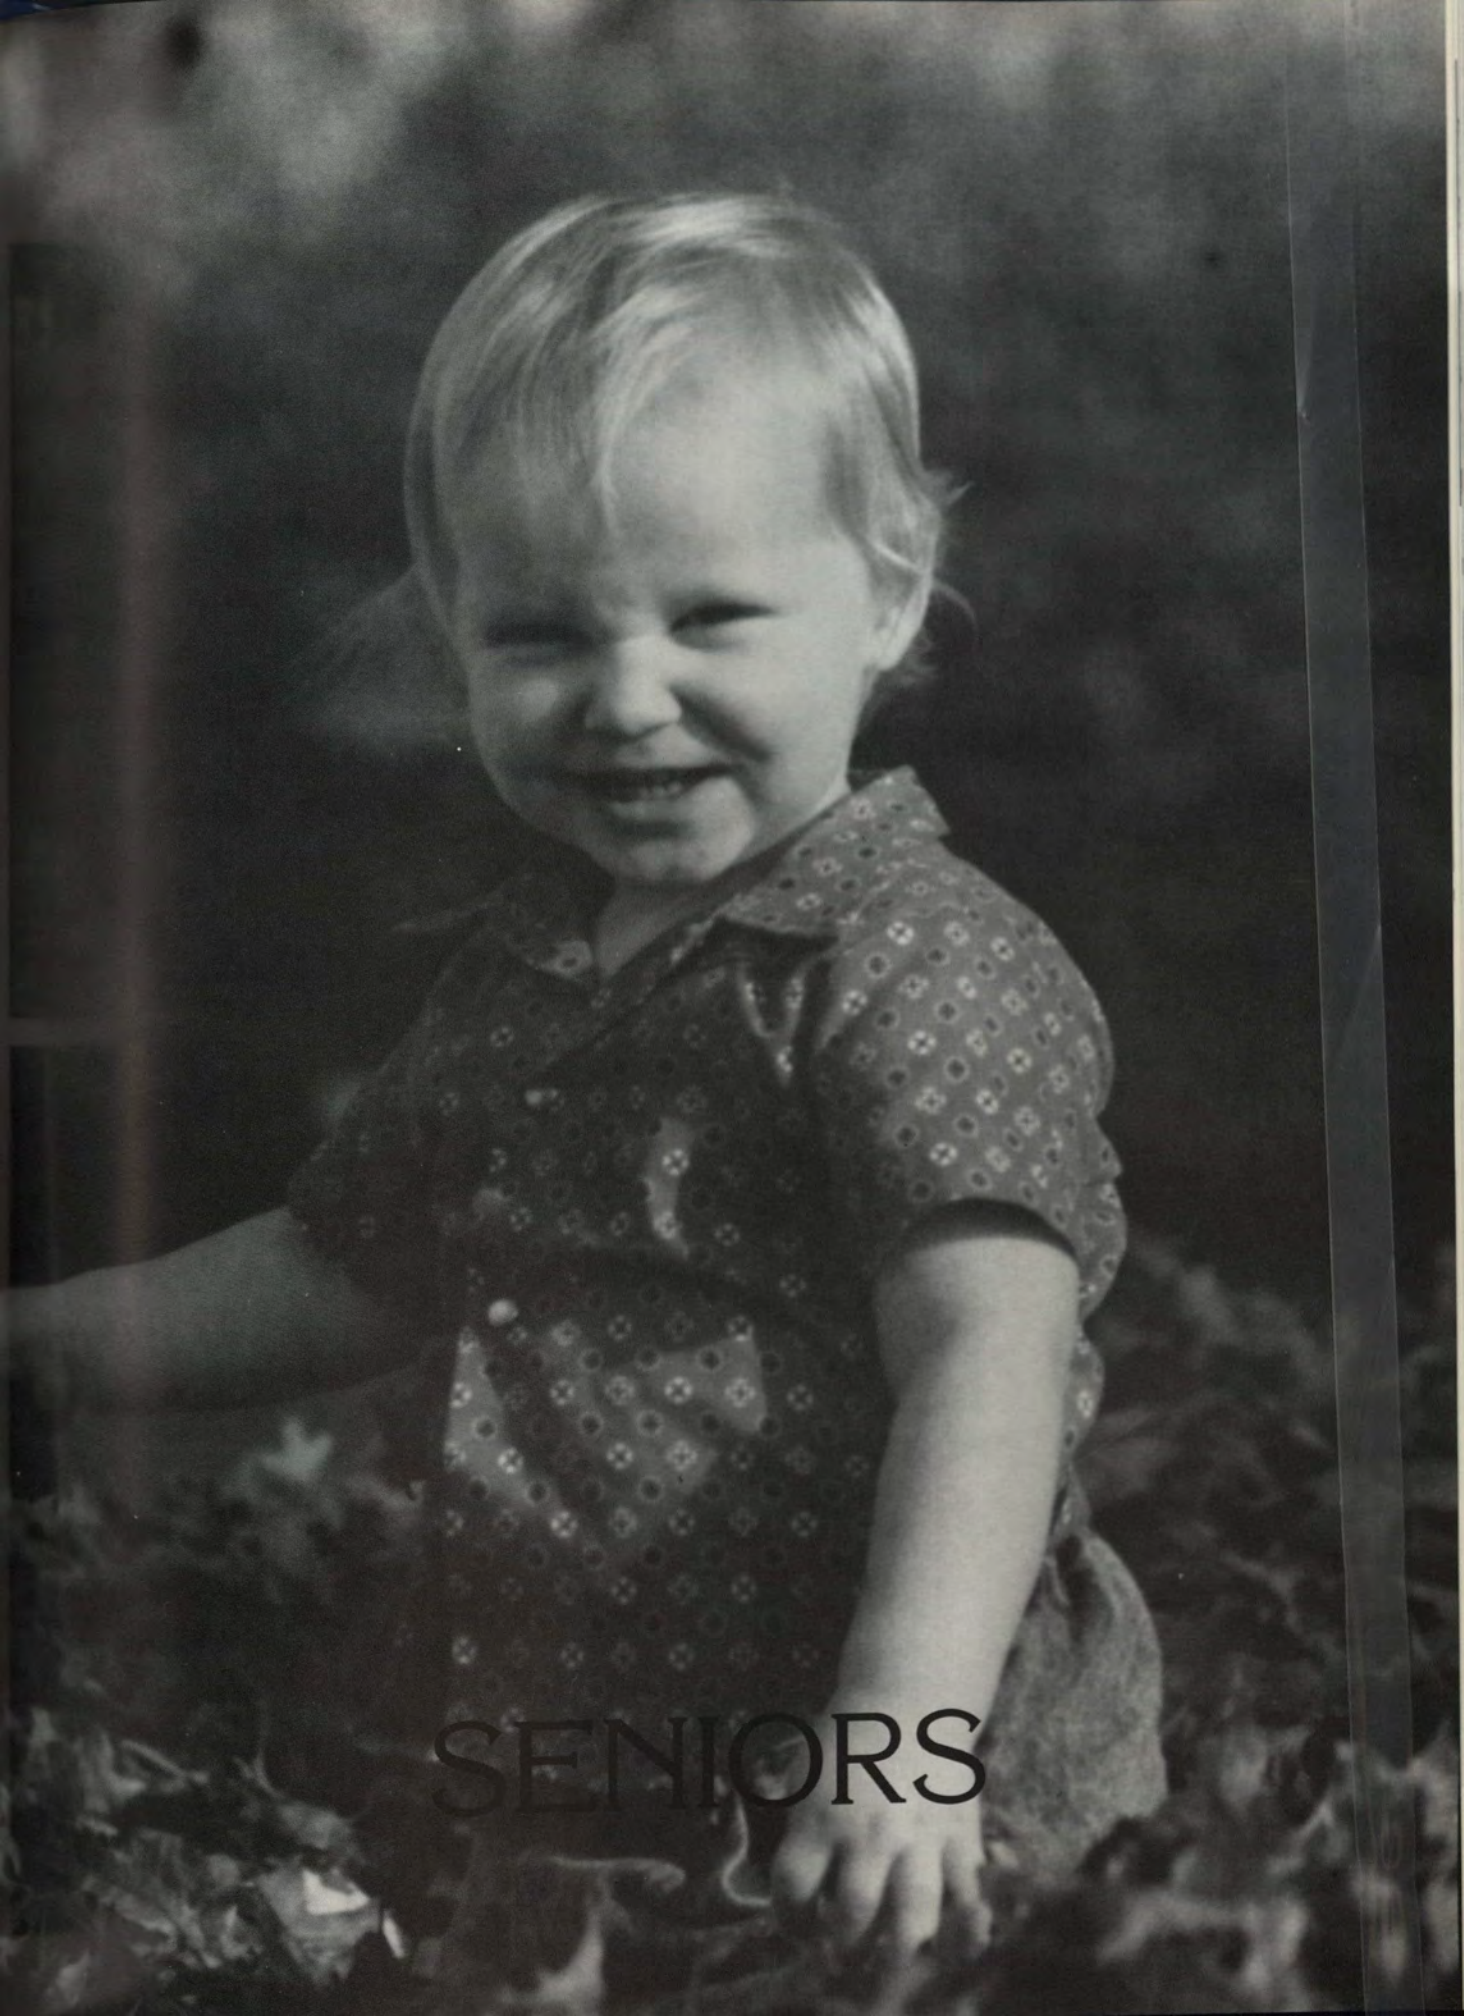

The top ten memorable things about the first half of the 1989-1990 swim season. 10-The painted windows. 9-Doug's new office/broom closet. 8-The go fast button on our new $20 suits. 7-The hair ball. 6-The bus to W.P.I. 5-Niki's spaghetti and garlic sauce. 4-Doug's truck driver joke. 3-Friday morning practices. 2-Some awesome swims. 1-Knowing the team will only get better with our great new coaching combo and up coming pool.

Love

MOM, DAD, AND JEN

To JPW

*You, who are on the road
Must have a code that you can live by.
And so: Become yourself,
Because the past is just a "Good bye".*

*Teach your children well.
Their father's hell did slowly go by.
And feed them on your dreams.
The one they pick, the one you'll know by--
Don't you ever ask them why.
If they told you, you would cry.
So just look at them and sigh,
And know they love you.*

*You, of the tender years
Can't know the fears that your elders grew by.
And so, please help them with your youth.
They seize the truth before they can die.*

*Teach your parents well.
Their children's hell will slowly go by.
And feed them on your dreams.
The one they pick, the one you'll know by--
Don't you ever ask them why.
If they told you, you would cry.
So just look at them and sigh,
And know they love you.*

The time has come, the year is here,
For everyone to stand and cheer
For Millie Lerner, with her wealth of knowledge,
Is graduating from Connecticut College.

She's learned about History, English and Math,
She's decided on teaching as her career path.
Math was her major and she'll put it to use,
With "Ms. Lerner" as teacher, the kids cannot lose.

College for Millie was not all work and studies,
She spent lots of time having fun with her buddies.
Millie was lucky to have such good friends,
Through exams and hangovers and hearts on the mend.

Her family stood by through these past four years.
We've watched her mature, with new hopes, dreams, and fears.
We all are so proud that she's coming of age,
And we wanted to tell her on this yearbook page.

Millie, just keep living life with a smile,
'Cause yours is the biggest and brightest for miles.
We are proud of you on this special day,
And wish only the best things in life
come your way.
Love,
MOM, DOUG, JILL, GARY AND KATE

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE DEDICATION

The Class of 1990 would like to dedicate this page to their parents in thanks for giving them the foundation and roots which have enabled them to soar into adulthood.

This passage symbolizes the peace of mind the love and support our parents have given us through the years.

"Go placidly amid the noise and haste and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons, even the dull and ignorant they to have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans, keep interested in your own career; however humble it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are the child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy." - Found in Old Saint Paul's Church, 1692 them to rest into education.

This passage symbolizes the years of preparation and love and sacrifice our parents have made for us, and through the years.

The story of our life is told in the years and without great effort there may be in silence
A heart is given to us without thought for our good years and in silence, even the hall and they to have their own, and find and find.

Somehow, however, they are anxious to the
and a heart is given to us without thought for our good and in silence, even the hall and
they to have their own, and find and find.
be quiet and have their own, and find and find.
and in silence, even the hall and
they to have their own, and find and find.

and in silence, even the hall and
they to have their own, and find and find.
and in silence, even the hall and
they to have their own, and find and find.

and in silence, even the hall and
they to have their own, and find and find.
and in silence, even the hall and
they to have their own, and find and find.

and in silence, even the hall and
they to have their own, and find and find.
and in silence, even the hall and
they to have their own, and find and find.
